ON THE COVER - "GREAT GAMES, GREAT PLAYS"

Lamar HUNT Founder

Recognized as the guiding force behind the formation of both the American Football League and the Kansas City Chiefs, Lamar Hunt has served as a positive influence on the game of professional football since he conceived the American Football League in '59. Hunt was the first AFL figure to be enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of '72, a remarkable feat considering he became involved in pro football just 13 years earlier. Beginning his 46th season of involvement with the sport in 2005, Hunt served as the catalyst who brought together the whimsically-named "Foolish Club" comprised of the eight original AFL owners and also helped the fledgling league take foot on the field for the '60 season.

On June 8, 1966, the AFL-NFL merger was announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle and on January 15, 1967, Hunt's Kansas City Chiefs were participating in the inaugural Super Bowl. Hunt's continuing efforts have long been recognized as having an important role in the design, ongoing development and direction of the modern-day National Football League.

Whether it was serving as the driving force behind the formation of the AFL, playing a pivotal role in the AFL-NFL merger in the '60s, or overseeing many crucial issues concerning pro football and the Chiefs franchise during the past four decades, there is little question that few individuals have helped change the face of America's favorite game for the better as much as Hunt. As the founder of the AFL, he helped pave the way for much of the modern growth of professional football. Possibly the greatest tribute to his contributions to the sport was the naming by the league of the Lamar Hunt Trophy, which is presented annually to the champion of the American Football Conference.

As the founder of the Chiefs franchise, Hunt helped provide Kansas City with a team that became the winningest in the 10-year history of the AFL and earned spots in two of the first four Super Bowls, climaxed by winning the '69 World Championship in Super Bowl IV. In honor of the 30th anniversary of the Chiefs victory in that game, Hunt was chosen to perform the official coin toss for Super Bowl XXXIV between St. Louis and Tennessee. Ironically, the winning coach that day was current Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil.

Hunt helped make pro football history by organizing the American Football League, which included his Dallas Texans franchise. After three years, the team moved to Kansas City, where the organization begins its 43rd season in 2005. The early days of the AFL were problem-filled but Hunt saw his Texans achieve on-field success. In '62, the Texans won the AFL Championship with a double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers, the first of three titles won by the Texans/Chiefs during the league's 10-year existence. The team repeated as champions in both '66 and '69. By winning the '66 AFL title, the Chiefs earned the right to play in the first Super Bowl against the NFL Champion Green Bay Packers. Three years later, the Chiefs claimed Kansas City's first major sports championship by defeating the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl IV.

In the late '60s, Hunt was closely involved in the development of Arrowhead Stadium, a facility which celebrated its 30th Anniversary Season in 2001 and has hosted numerous major non-NFL sporting events in recent years. In 2005, Arrowhead will serve as the site of three NCAA football contests: Missouri vs. Arkansas State, Oklahoma vs. Kansas and Northwest Missouri State vs. Pittsburg State. The "Home of the Chiefs" has also provided the stage for the Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game in 2000, 2003 and 2004. The 2000 and 2003 contests featured matchups between Kansas State and Oklahoma, while the 2004 Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game pitted Oklahoma vs. Colorado. Arrowhead will also serve as the host of the 2006 Big 12 Conference Football Championship Game.

Other notable events hosted at Arrowhead include a 2001 Men's World Cup Qualifier (U.S.A. vs. Costa Rica), the 2000 Eddie Robinson Classic (Kansas State vs. Iowa) and a 2000 Women's Nike Cup Match (U.S.A. vs. Canada). Arrowhead has also hosted the 2003 Black Coaches Association Game (Kansas State vs. California) and the 2002 Eddie Robinson Classic (Florida State vs. Iowa State). In 2002, an Arrowhead game between Northwest Missouri State and Pittsburg State drew 26,695 fans, the highest attendance ever for an NCAA Division II football game.

Hunt has been a continuing leader in pro football and few individuals have helped shape the sport more than this quiet Texan. In addition to being a principal negotiator in the merger of the AFL and NFL in the late '60s, he was a contributor to the design of the NFL playoff format. He is also credited with accidentally putting the name "Super Bowl" on the NFL's championship game — the name coming from his children's toy "Super Ball." In '81, Hunt was inducted into the NFL Alumni Association's prestigious Order of the Leather Helmet and in February of '93, he received the Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award from the Maxwell Football Club of Philadelphia for continuing positive contributions to the game. For many years, he was a persistent advocate of the two-point conversion option for pro football — an old college and AFL rule that was finally adopted by the NFL in '94. In 2000, Hunt along with Chiefs President, General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson, earned the distinction of becoming just the fourth Owner/General Manager combination to preside over a franchise for all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City compiled a stellar 102-58 (.638) regular season record from '90-99.

In 2002, Hunt led the commemoration of the franchise's 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City. Beginning as a member of the American Football League playing in old Municipal Stadium, the Chiefs continue to serve as a vibrant part of the Kansas City community and today's National Football League thanks to the unprecedented support provided by the team's legions of loyal supporters. Today, the Home of the Chiefs — Arrowhead Stadium — is a place which truly embodies the spirit and the passion of one of the most energetic fan bases in all of sports.

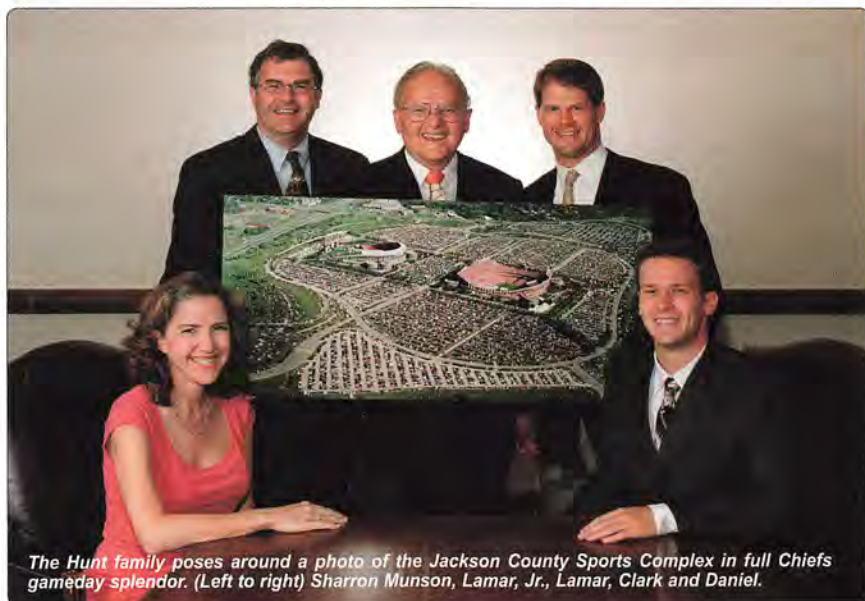

A year-round sports fan, Hunt is involved in several additional sports business ventures. He is one of the founding investors in the six-time World Champion Chicago Bulls of the National Basketball Association, while the Hunt family also serves as the operator of three franchises in Major League Soccer, now in its 10th season of operation. The Hunt family oversees the operations of the Kansas City Wizards, F.C. Dallas and the Columbus Crew, who play in America's first soccer-specific stadium, the beautiful 22,555-seat Crew Stadium. The Hunt family now prizes 13 distinctive championship rings from five different professional sports associations (AFL/NFL, MLS, NBA, NASL and the U.S. Soccer "Open Cup"). The family's football championship litany includes a Super Bowl IV ring from the '69 Chiefs, as well as AFL title rings from the '62 Texans and '66 Chiefs.

Appropriately nicknamed "Games" during his childhood, Hunt's love of sports ventures has been his true lifeblood, an enthusiasm which has transcended his involvement in numerous athletic entities. Over 30 years ago, the Hunts were involved in the development of both the North American Soccer League and a tennis promotion company, World Championship Tennis. Both of those organizations are no longer in operation; however, in an unusual twist, Hunt's involvement in these ventures resulted years later in his induction into the respective Halls of Fame of both United States Soccer (located in Oneonta, New York) in '82 and International Tennis (located in Newport, Rhode Island) in '93. He has also been honored in the state Sports Halls of Fame of both Missouri ('95) and Texas ('84). In total, Hunt has been inducted into eight "Halls of Fame," including the Texas Business Hall of Fame ('97) and the Kansas City Business Hall of Fame (2004). Soccer America Magazine named Hunt one of its "25 Most Influential People" in '99 after the 90-year-old U.S. Open Cup was renamed the "Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup." That same year he also received the U.S. Soccer Federation Hall of Fame Medal of Honor, joining former U.S. Soccer President Alan Rothenberg as the only other individual to earn that prestigious distinction.

As President of the American Football Conference, Hunt is a working member of several prominent NFL committees, including current service on the Finance, Business Ventures and Hall of Fame committees.

Hunt was born on August 2, 1932 in El Dorado, Arkansas and graduated from SMU with a B.S. in Geology in '56. While at SMU, he was a three-year reserve end on the Varsity Football Team. He and his wife, Norma, have four children, Lamar, Jr., Sharron Munson, Clark and Daniel, as well as 13 grandchildren. Together, the entire Hunt family shares a great enthusiasm for the Chiefs "Red and Gold."

Clark K.
HUNT
Chairman of the Board

Clark Hunt has taken on an even greater role in overseeing the Hunt family's long-standing interest in the Kansas City Chiefs football franchise in 2005. He now serves as the franchise's Chairman of the Board after holding the post of the Vice Chairman for the past four seasons. The 40-year-old Hunt recently negotiated a four-year contract extension with President Carl Peterson, helping to solidify the day-to-day leadership of the franchise for the foreseeable future.

He also represents the family at board and NFL meetings, as well as team management sessions. At the league level, Hunt serves on the Board of Trustees of the Bert Bell/Pete Rozelle NFL Player Retirement Plan, the NFL Player Second Career Savings Plan, the NFL Player Supplemental/Disability Plan and the NFL Player Annuity Program. In addition, Hunt is actively involved in the ongoing efforts to devise a long-term solution to the many issues surrounding Arrowhead Stadium in order to ensure that the Chiefs and their fans may continue to enjoy one of the NFL's foremost football facilities in Kansas City for years to come.

Hunt is also a founding investor-operator in Major League Soccer, which includes the 2000 MLS Champion Kansas City Wizards. In that role, Hunt serves as Chairman of the 10-year old league's Finance Committee and is a member of the league's Labor Committee and Board of Governors. He also has chaired the MLS Competition Committee since the league's inception, helping design and implement all facets of the league's rules of competition. In 2004, he took on additional duties as a member of the MLS Television Committee.

In addition to his responsibilities with the family's sports franchises, Hunt serves as Chief Executive Officer of Shoreline Management Group, LLLP. Through Shoreline, Hunt provides advisory services to a diverse group of companies in the financial services industries. He began his business career as an analyst with Goldman Sachs & Company in New York and later moved to the firm's Los Angeles office.

Hunt graduated first in his class at Southern Methodist University in '87, earning a degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Finance. He was a two-time recipient of the university's highest academic accolade, the Provost Award for Outstanding Scholar. During his collegiate athletic career he was a four-year letterman on the Mustangs nationally-ranked soccer squad, earning first-team Academic All-America honors as a junior and senior and serving as a Tri-Captain his final season. He continued his involvement with SMU by serving as a member of the school's 21st Century Council from 1995-03 and was named the SMU Cox School of Business Outstanding Young Alumni in 2004.

A member of the Young President's Organization since '98, Hunt also serves a Trustee of the St. Mark's School of Texas and a member of the school's investment committee for its endowment. In addition, he is involved with a number of non-profit community organizations. He was born on February 19, 1965 in Dallas, Texas and graduated from the St. Mark's School of Dallas in '83. Hunt and his wife Tavia have two children – Gracelyn and Knobel.

FAN-TASTIC

- The Chiefs have sold out 117 straight games dating back to the '91 season opener, including five playoff contests.
- Kansas City led the AFC and ranked third in the NFL in home attendance in 2004, with an average paid attendance of 77,876 fans per game during the regular season.
- The only teams to post a higher attendance figure than the Chiefs last season each had a larger stadium than Arrowhead Stadium.
- A total of 1,150,728 fans saw Kansas City play at home and on the road during the regular season in 2004, marking the 24th consecutive year that the Chiefs have broken the one-million mark in total regular season attendance.
- The Chiefs season ticket base is comprised of individual accounts from 48 states (all but Maine and Vermont), plus the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and Canada.
- Kansas City boasted a paid attendance of 623,008 for its eight regular season home contests in 2004, good for the sixth-highest attendance tally in franchise history.
- The Chiefs registered a paid attendance of 1,150,728 for their 16 regular season games (home and road) in 2004, an average of 71,921 fans per game.

Jack STEADMAN

Vice Chairman of the Board

Jack Steadman begins his 46th season as a pro football executive in 2005, serving as the Chiefs Vice Chairman of the Board. The only individual other than Lamar Hunt who has been involved with the Texans/Chiefs franchise every year since its inception in '60, Steadman was recognized for his contributions to the franchise with his induction into the Chiefs Hall of Fame earlier this year. "Jack's contributions to the American Football League, Arrowhead Stadium and the Chiefs franchise have helped positively define the sport in Mid-America," Hunt remarked.

Steadman can look with pride at a list of accomplishments the organization has achieved since moving from Dallas for the beginning of the '63 season in the old AFL. It was Steadman who conceived the idea of building the dual Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which houses Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums. The complex is recognized as the finest of its kind in the world. Steadman was promoted from General Manager to Executive V.P. and General Manager in '66; in August of '76 he was named President of the Chiefs; and in '89 was named Chairman of the Board. He enters his initial season as the club's Vice Chairman of the Board in 2005.

After establishing himself as an innovative, successful business man with the Chiefs, Steadman later joined Hunt in the development of Worlds of Fun, a 165-acre family entertainment complex which opened in '73. In '82, HME Entertainment, Inc., completed the 60-acre family water recreation park, Oceans of Fun. In '95, Worlds of Fun and Oceans of Fun were sold to Cedar Fair.

In addition to serving as Chairman of the Chiefs and Hunt Midwest Enterprises, Inc., which owns Hunt Midwest Mining, a limestone rock mining company, and Hunt Midwest Real Estate Development Company, an underground and surface real estate development firm in the Kansas City International Foreign-Trade Zone, he also serves as the Chairman of the NFL Employees Benefit Committee and NFL Investment Committee.

Steadman is a tireless worker and organizer in many civic and service projects. He is past Chairman, President and Campaign Chairman of the Heart of America United Way and past President of the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City. He is a past Chairman and Board Member of the Private Industry Council as well as the Full Employment Council. He serves as a director of the American Royal Association and the Starlight Theatre Association. Steadman also serves as an Advisory Trustee for Midwest Research Institute and is a past member of the Civic Council Board of Directors. In '88 he was honored by the Chamber of Commerce of Greater Kansas City as the "Kansas Citizen of the Year."

Steadman, who was born September 14, 1928, grew up in Warrenville, Ill., and in Dallas. He attended Baylor University and received his B.A. in Business Administration from Southern Methodist University. Steadman and his wife Judy reside in Mission Hills, Kansas.

IN MEMORIAM

HANK STRAM 1923-2005

The Chiefs and the entire National Football League mourned the death of legendary coach Hank Stram, who passed away on July 4, 2005. One of the most distinguished gentlemen and unique personalities the game has ever known, Stram was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame as a member of the Class of 2003. Upon his enshrinement in Canton, he joined Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, as well as five of his Chiefs players whose busts are on display in pro football's most hallowed hall — LB Bobby Bell (Class of 1983), LB Willie Lanier (Class of 1986), QB Len Dawson (Class of 1987), DT Buck Buchanan (Class of 1990) and K Jan Stenerud (Class of 1991).

"He was in so many ways the central focus of everything this franchise did in willing it to succeed," Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt said. "If I could find one word for Hank, it would be 'resourceful.' He wanted to win so badly and he was so very good at it. He personified the brand new AFL because he was a salesman, he was an innovator, he wasn't afraid to try new things. I always thought he was one of the most imaginative, creative coaches the game has ever known. Call it charm, call it charisma, call it an aura, but 'The Mentor' had a rare quality that is difficult to define."

Stram served as head coach of the Dallas Texans and the Kansas City Chiefs from 1960-74, compiling a 124-76-10 regular season record and a 5-3 postseason mark. He guided the club to three AFL titles and two Super Bowl appearances, including a 23-7 win vs. Minnesota in Super Bowl IV. His many lasting contributions to the game include the two-tight end offense, the stack defense and the moving pocket.

Noted for his uncanny ability to maximize the potential of players, as well as his unique vocabulary and sideline flamboyance, perhaps the highest compliment that can be paid to Stram came from one of his favorite pupils, Dawson, who served as his Hall of Fame presenter. "I'm going to tell you how good I think he is," Dawson remarked. "I wear a Super Bowl ring on this hand and a Hall of Fame ring on the other. I know I wouldn't have either one if it hadn't been for this guy — Hank Stram."

Stram is survived by his wife Phyllis and six children.

Stram was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2003.

Carl D.
PETERSON
President/GM/CEO

Entering his 17th season as the Chiefs top executive in 2005, team President, General Manager and Chief Executive Officer, Carl Peterson unquestionably serves as the driving force of the organization and is regarded as the person most responsible for the club's return to prominence both on and off the field since his arrival in Kansas City in December of '88.

Peterson made perhaps his boldest move to date as Kansas City's President on January 12, 2001, luring Dick Vermeil — who guided the '99 St. Louis Rams to a victory in Super Bowl XXXIV — out of retirement to guide the Chiefs on-field fortunes, marking the first time Kansas City has boasted a Super Bowl champion head coach since the days of Hank Stram.

"I've had one goal since I came here and I know that Dick (Vermeil) now shares that goal with me," Peterson commented. "That goal is to hand the trophy that bears Lamar Hunt's name (AFC Championship trophy) to him at the conclusion of the season. I think we have the right man to accomplish that goal."

For the third time in his football career, Peterson has joined forces with Vermeil and current Chiefs Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel, Lynn Stiles to form a true gridiron trinity. Peterson, Vermeil and Stiles were all together for UCLA's '76 Rose Bowl Championship, as well as the Philadelphia Eagles berth in Super Bowl XV in January of '81. At UCLA from '74-75, Peterson worked with Vermeil serving as receivers coach and administrative assistant to the head coach. When Vermeil was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles in '76, Peterson served as the club's receivers and tight ends coach, as well as the administrative assistant to the head coach. He then served as Director of Player Personnel from '77-82, assisting Vermeil and the club to four consecutive playoff appearances.

Peterson has a history of guiding the Chiefs in the right direction since coming to Mid-America. He has not only transformed the Chiefs into a model NFL organization, but has also built the franchise into one of pro sport's finest and most respected entities. When Peterson took over the Chiefs, the franchise had been struggling on and off the field and was without any kind of national presence. Simply put, the club's reversal of fortunes under Peterson since that time have been dramatic.

Under his continued guidance, the club maintains one of the most loyal national fan followings and strongest season ticket bases of any pro sports team and boasts individual season-ticket accounts from 48 states (all but Maine and Vermont), the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and Canada. Regarded as having one of the best and loudest gameday atmospheres in the entire league, the Chiefs consistently fill the NFL's third-largest stadium (capacity 79,451), despite operating in the league's sixth-smallest market. Kansas City has sold out 117 consecutive contests at Arrowhead — including five postseason games — dating back to the club's '91 regular season opener.

Despite his many accomplishments in steering the overall fortunes of the franchise, at his essence, Peterson still remains a quintessential football man. During the decade of the '90s, few teams could match the level of success exhibited on the playing field by the Chiefs. From '90-99, Kansas City posted a stellar 102-58 (.638) record, making Kansas City just one of seven teams in NFL history to record 100 or more wins over the course of a single decade.

Even more impressive was the fact that Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt and Peterson became just the fourth Owner/General Manager tandem to preside over a team for all 10 years of a 100-win decade.

Dating back to '77, teams whose personnel operations have been overseen by Peterson have produced a combined regular season record of 239-147-2 (.618). During that 24-season span — which includes tenures with the Eagles, Chiefs and USFL's Stars — his teams have produced 18 winning records and have made the playoffs 15 times. During Peterson's tenure, Kansas City has finished first or second in the AFC West 11 times, made eight playoff appearances, won four AFC West titles and reached the only AFC Championship Game in team history. Those are dramatic numbers when you consider in that in the 17 seasons prior to Peterson's arrival, the Chiefs made just one playoff appearance and enjoyed just four winning seasons.

One of the proudest achievements during his tenure has been the re-establishment of the unparalleled fan support. Under Peterson's leadership, Kansas City has evolved into a habitually successful franchise. Few teams enjoy a more impressive homefield advantage than the one boasted by the Chiefs at Arrowhead. Dating back to the start of the '95 season, Denver is the AFC only club that has a better home record than the 58-22 (.725) ledger produced by Kansas City at Arrowhead. The Chiefs have gone 13-3 three times under Peterson's tenure ('95, '97 and 2003), boasting 8-0 regular season marks at Arrowhead each of those years.

The team's national popularity has grown tremendously over the past 16 years. Kansas City has been among the NFL leaders in merchandise sales, national-television appearances (71 times, including 25 on ABC's Monday Night Football, the past 12 years) and international exposure (four American Bowl appearances since '90).

"Under Carl's leadership, the Chiefs have achieved a high level of respect as one of the leaders in the NFL," commented Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. "This respect has been measured in several principle areas, including development and guidance of a quality organization in every phase - front office, scouting, coaching and team."

The team's football and administrative successes have not gone unnoticed around the league. Several of the team's top coaches and administrators under Peterson have received promotions to other NFL clubs. Headlining that list of Peterson proteges is former Chiefs Vice President of Player Personnel Terry Bradway, who was named General Manager of the N.Y. Jets in 2001. Bradway spent eight years with Kansas City ('93-00) and also served three years with Peterson ('83-85) in the USFL. In addition, two former Chiefs staff members are Vice Presidents with other teams (Phil Thomas - St. Louis and Phil Youtsey - Carolina), while three former Kansas City assistants currently serve as NFL head coaches with other clubs (Bill Cowher - Pittsburgh; Tony Dungy - Indianapolis and Herman Edwards - N.Y. Jets).

Whether on the field, on the sidelines, or in the front office, the area where Peterson has always truly excelled is in unearthing talent via a variety of fashions. Peterson has pulled the trigger on trades that landed Hall of Fame QB Joe Montana in '93, as well as Pro Bowl QB Trent Green in 2001 and 10-time Pro Bowl T Willie Roaf in 2002. Peterson was responsible for two of the best unrestricted free agent signings in league history, inking Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen in '93 and RB Priest Holmes in 2001. No matter the round, Peterson and his scouting staff have discovered major contributors throughout the draft, beginning with his initial draft pick in Kansas City which the club utilized on late nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas in '89. In total, Chiefs players have produced 71 Pro Bowl berths during Peterson's 16-year tenure with the club, 32 more than the club tallied in the 16 years prior to his arrival. Kansas City boasted six players in the 2005 Pro Bowl, including a pair of undrafted gems who were signed by Peterson — FB Tony Richardson and G Brian Waters — as well as 10-time Pro Bowl G Will Shields (third round - '93) and six-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez (first round - '97).

After his rapid success in the NFL personnel ranks with the Eagles, Peterson was the man selected to build the Philadelphia Stars when the United States Football League was launched in July of '82. As the franchise's President and GM, he proceeded to assemble the most successful team in the league's three-year existence, capturing the USFL title the final two seasons. The Stars 48-13-1 overall record during regular (41-12-1) and postseason play (7-1) was easily the finest of any USFL club. His efforts were rewarded in '83 and '84, when he was named The Sporting News' "USFL Executive of the Year."

A '66 graduate of UCLA, Peterson began his coaching career at two Southern California high schools, Wilson High in '66 and Loyola High in '67-68. He moved to Cal-State at Sonoma in '69, where he was named head coach in '70. He returned to his alma mater in '72, where he served as the Bruins receivers coach under Pepper Rodgers for two years, then remained on the staff as receivers coach and administrative assistant to Vermeil when he became the school's head coach in '74 before accompanying Vermeil to Philadelphia in '76.

Peterson serves on the National Boards for the Maxwell Football Club and Pop Warner Little Scholars Organization. He serves as the Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Pop Warner and is a member of the International World President's Organization. He also serves on the Board of The Third and Long Foundation, which was founded by the late Derrick Thomas.

Peterson was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2005 with a class that included the likes of longtime Chiefs DE Art Still and former two-sport All-Star Bo Jackson. In 2003, he was also inducted into the Long Beach Century Club Sports Hall of Fame. Other honors he has received include: the 2002 Pop Warner Award for Excellence in Athletics, the 2001 Pro Football Executive Award presented by the All-American Football Foundation, the '98 Maxwell Club Reds Bagnell Award for Outstanding Contributions to the Game of Football and the '98 Special Achievement Award for Professional Athletics presented by the Greater Kansas City Sports Commission. In addition, Peterson serves on the following NFL Committees: NFL Management Council/C.E.C. Senior Executive Group, College and Pro Relations, NFL Europe League Working Executives and the NFL Youth Football Funding Board. Spearheaded by the efforts of Peterson and his wife, Lori, the Chiefs organization (players, coaches and front office staff) has raised a net of over $12 million for local charities since '98.

Peterson grew up in Long Beach, California, and attended both the U.S. Military Academy at West Point and UCLA. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Kinesiology from UCLA in '66, a Master's Degree in Kinesiology in '67 and earned a Doctorate in Administration in Higher Education at UCLA in '70. He is married to the former Lori K. Larson of Kansas City, who is a senior associate with H.O.K. Sports Architects. The Petersons make their home in the historic Country Club Plaza district of Kansas City, Missouri. Carl has one daughter Dawn Peterson Curlewis, who lives in Edinburgh with her Scottish-born husband, Graham.

Dennis
THUM

ADMINISTRATION

Dennis Thum, who has played a major role in the Kansas City Chiefs front office the past 32 years, has been the club's Assistant General Manager since '89. In February of '96, he added the role of Executive Vice President to his Assistant GM duties. Thum assists Carl Peterson, the team's President, General Manager and Chief Executive Officer, in overseeing the Chiefs day-to-day football operation.

"Denny Thum is the unsung hero of this organization," noted Peterson. "Without Denny, there are many things we would not have been able to accomplish. He's invaluable to me."

Widely recognized by his peers as one of the NFL's top salary cap administrators, Thum works in close conjunction with Peterson in formulating Kansas City's short-term and long-term strategy relative to player compensation and the salary cap. Thum monitors the salary cap status of the Chiefs and every other NFL team on a daily basis and has long served as a principal negotiator of Kansas City's player contracts.

He is also heavily involved in the preparation of the entire football budget, in addition to providing support to the coaching staff, player personnel staff, trainers and as the club's equipment and video staffs. He is also in charge of all training camp operations and coordinates the team's travel.

Thum held the position of Assistant to the General Manager from '84 to '88, and was promoted to his current position shortly after Peterson's arrival in Kansas City. He served as the club's Director of Accounting in '83 and Chief Accountant in '82. The St. Louis, Missouri native joined the Chiefs as a staff accountant in '74, the same year he graduated from Rockhurst College in Kansas City. Thum and his wife Carmen live in Kansas City, Missouri with their two daughters - Megan and Lindsay. Thum is on the Board of Directors for the St. Joseph Health Center Foundation and previously served on the Alumni Board of Directors for Rockhurst University. The Thums are also active with a number of other charitable causes in Kansas City, including the Medical Missions Foundation and the Children's Center for the Visually Impaired.

Lynn

STILES

V.P. Football Operations/Player Personnel

Lynn Stiles rejoined the Chiefs football family on February 29, 2000 when he was named the club's Vice President of Football Operations. On June 7, 2001 he was promoted by Chiefs President Carl Peterson to the post of Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel. Stiles previously served as Kansas City's Vice President of Player Personnel from '92-96.

Stiles returned to the Chiefs organization in 2000 after spending the three previous seasons ('97-99) in St. Louis as that club's Vice President of Football Operations. In St. Louis he played a key role in helping current Chiefs Head Coach Dick Vermeil and the Rams produce a win in Super Bowl XXXIV in '99. He also coached the Rams tight ends in '98-99.

In his expanded role with the Chiefs, Stiles oversees all aspects of the Chiefs player personnel department, including both the team's college and pro scouting efforts. In addition, he also works closely with Lamonte Winston and Kansas City's player development department, which he played an integral role in establishing during his initial tenure with the team. Stiles was also instrumental in the formation of a player development program in St. Louis, working with Kevin Warren. He will also continue his work as Vice President of Football Operations, managing various day-to-day football management issues.

Stiles is reunited in Kansas City with Peterson and Vermeil for the third time in his career. The longstanding relationship between this gridiron trinity dates back to UCLA in the '70s. Peterson served as the Bruins receivers coach and administrative assistant from '72-73 under Pepper Rodgers before serving in that same role under Vermeil from '74-75, while Stiles was assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for the Bruins from '70-75. In '75, that trio helped lead the Bruins to a 9-2-1 record, the team's first-ever Pac 8 championship. That season culminated with UCLA's first Rose Bowl appearance in 10 seasons as the Bruins defeated #1 ranked Ohio State.

In '79, Stiles joined forces with Vermeil and Peterson for the second time, this time with the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles. Stiles served as the Eagles tight ends coach and special teams coordinator, while Vermeil was Head Coach and Peterson served as the Eagles Director of Player Personnel. Philadelphia produced a franchise-best 12-4 record in '80 as the Eagles claimed the NFC title and advanced to Super Bowl XV.

Entering his 26th NFL season in 2005, the 63-year-old Stiles has been a member of four Super Bowl teams, including that Super Bowl XV berth with the '80 Eagles. Stiles earned championship rings from three of those Super Bowl appearances (XXIII and XXIV with San Francisco, XXXIV with St. Louis). In total, Stiles has been associated with teams which made six conference championship game appearances and have appeared in 24 overall playoff games.

When Peterson departed to head the USFL's Philadelphia Stars in '82, Stiles became the Eagles Director of Player Personnel from '82-86. During that span Philadelphia acquired Pro Bowl performers such as Reggie White, Randall Cunningham, Seth Joyner, Clyde Simmons and Keith Byars. The Kermit, Texas native then joined Bill Walsh's coaching staff with the San Francisco 49ers as that club's special teams coach in '87. The next season, the 49ers claimed a 20-16 win over Cincinnati in Super Bowl XXIII. In '89, Stiles was promoted to special teams coordinator and tight ends coach by head coach George Seifert as San Francisco went 14-2 and produced a 55-10 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXIV. He also served as the team's assistant offensive line coach in '91 before originally joining the Chiefs in '92.

From '76-78, Stiles served as head coach at San Jose State where his squads won two league championships. During his first season with the Spartans, he oversaw the development of QB Steve DeBerg, who was named the Pacific Coast Athletic Conference MVP in his only year of major college football. A two-time All-Nevada selection as a prep player at Reno High School, Stiles enjoyed a stellar collegiate career at the University of Utah playing guard and linebacker, earning All-Academic and All-Conference honors, in addition to a berth in the All-American Bowl after his senior season in '62. He embarked on his coaching career at his alma mater in '63 when his roommate was Seifert. Stiles also served as an assistant at Iowa from '64-69 before joining the staff at UCLA in '70.

Stiles and his wife, Marigene reside in Leawood, Kansas. They have four children - daughters Staci and Tiffany and sons Shon and Blake, in addition to two grandchildren.

FAST FACT

Kansas City owns a 85-32 (.727) record during its 117-game sellout streak that dates back to '91.

FAST FACT

The Chiefs led the NFL in total for the first time in team history in 2004, averaging 418.4 yards per game.

Bill
 Senior V.P. of Administration

Bill Newman, who owns an extensive 30-year resume on the Kansas City business scene in management, broadcasting and sales, joined the Chiefs in January of 2005 as the club's Senior Vice President of Administration. In his executive role with the Chiefs, Newman oversees a number of areas for the franchise, including sales, marketing, advertising, tickets, promotions, data processing, development and stadium operations. He came to the Chiefs from Workload Software LCC, where he had served as President since 2003.

Throughout his career, Newman has been involved in a number of highly successful media and business ventures. From '98-03, he held a position for the New York Investment Bank of Veronis Suhler Associates as President and CEO of Atwood Publishing, one of the world's largest trade show and medical meeting industry publishers. A familiar face at Arrowhead Stadium, Newman played an integral role in acquiring the radio broadcast rights to Chiefs games for KCFX-FM in '90 during his tenure as President and General Manager of the Heritage Media Corporation/Hoker Broadcasting from '85-98. Thanks to the efforts of Chiefs President Carl Peterson and Newman, the Chiefs were one of the first NFL teams to extend their radio rights to an FM station, a strategy that has since been widely duplicated around the league.

From '74-98, Newman served in various capacities including President and Market Manager for Heritage Media's six-state, 86-station Chiefs Radio Network and its FM holdings, KCFX, KQRC, KCIY and KXTR. Prior to this, he was Vice President/General Manager for Clear Channel Communication's Tulsa Broadcast Properties and for Meredith Broadcasting (KCMO-AM/FM), including the post of General Sales Manager from '79-83. During his tenure with that organization, he successfully negotiated and won the radio broadcast rights to the Kansas City Royals. At the time, KCMO also held the radio rights for the Chiefs, the NBA's Kansas City Kings and the University of Kansas. He began his longtime stint in Kansas City radio as an account executive with Taft Broadcasting (WDAF-AM). A native Kansas Citian, Newman comes from a family of seven siblings and resides in the Kansas City area with his wife Nonie, son Joe and daughter Mary Elaine.

A longtime friend and the greatest punter in Chiefs history passed away on April 9, 2005 when P Jerrel Wilson lost his battle with cancer. The longest-tenured player in team history in terms of years played, Wilson served as the Chiefs punter for the club's first 15 seasons in Kansas City from '63-77. Inducted into the Chiefs Hall of Fame in '88, Wilson was also named a member of the AFL's All-Time Team and earned three trips to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl during his illustrious professional career.

"Jerrel was the best of his time," Hall of Fame QB Len Dawson told the Kansas City Star after Wilson's passing. "He was called 'Thunderfoot' for good reason. You had to be in practice every day to appreciate his skill. When you saw one of those 80-yards boom off his foot, you would jerk your head around. He was more than just a punter to us, too. He played wingman on point-afters and he played on kick coverages, too. He wasn't just a guy who punted the ball and then ran for cover. He was a terrific athlete."

Wilson actually spent some time working as a running back early in his career after playing center at Southern Mississippi – the same school that later produced P Ray Guy – giving that school the distinction of producing arguably the two most celebrated punters in NFL history. But a study of the statistics reveals that it was Wilson's 43.4-yard career punting average with Chiefs was a full yard better than Guy's 42.4-yard mark compiled with the Raiders, leading Rick Cleveland of the Jackson (MS) Clarion Ledger to say this of Wilson after his death: "He was Ray Guy before Ray Guy."

Also known as "Duck" for his passion for the outdoors, Wilson still owns an NFL record by leading the league in punting four times ('65, '68, '72-'73) and holds Chiefs records for most punts in a career (1,018), average yardage in a career (43.4), season (46.1) and game (56.4), in addition to the Super Bowl record for career punting average (46.5). Jerrel Wilson is survived by his sons Sean and Shannon.

Dick VERMEIL

Head Coach

19th Year NFL Coach • 5th with Chiefs

A new crusade was officially inaugurated on January 12, 2001 when Chiefs President Carl Peterson named Dick Vermeil as the ninth head coach in the history of the franchise. The 2005 season marks the fifth year of the Vermeil era in Kansas City. This highly-respected coach returned to the NFL ranks in Kansas City after taking a one-year football hiatus following his victory in Super Bowl XXXIV with the St. Louis Rams.

"Sooner or later, it was probably going to happen that Carl and I would be back together again, rejoined to initiate a new crusade," Vermeil said upon accepting his third NFL head coaching post. "Every time we've done it, we've been successful."

In their two previous collaborations Peterson and Vermeil unquestionably forged a winning combination. While the teams, the years and the uniforms have changed, the commitment and trust shared by this dynamic football duo has never wavered. Whether it was upsetting #1 ranked Ohio State 23-10 in the Rose Bowl following the '75 college season or resurrecting a long-dormant Philadelphia Eagles franchise to claim the '80 NFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XV, Peterson and Vermeil's gridiron triumphs have been well-documented.

That strong personal bond and history of past successes easily explains why Vermeil was Peterson's top choice for the Chiefs head coaching job, not only in 2001, but dating back to '89 when Peterson originally came to Kansas City to steer the franchise's fortunes.

"When I came to the Chiefs over 12 years ago, there was only one individual I wanted to hire as the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs, Dick Vermeil," Peterson observed upon hiring Vermeil. "So it is with a great deal of pleasure that after 12 years I have finally been able to accomplish what I set out to do at that time. I'm not concerned about my bias — and I am biased — but I firmly believe that Dick Vermeil is the premier football coach in the entire National Football League."

Unquestionably one of the finest innovators and motivators the game has ever known, Vermeil's style has truly stood the test of time. Whether it was coaching championship football and swimming teams as a high school coach in California, re-establishing UCLA as a national collegiate powerhouse, or reaching the highest echelon of the pro profession by coaching a club to a Super Bowl championship, there's been virtually no challenge Vermeil hasn't stepped up to during his illustrious career.

Vermeil enters his 15th season as an NFL head coach in 2005, after producing a 110-103 regular season record in his 14 previous campaigns. He went 22-26 with the St. Louis Rams ('97-'99), posted a 54-47 record with the Eagles ('76-82) and has produced a 34-30 slate in four seasons with the Chiefs (2001-04). Those 34 regular season wins with Kansas City are the third-highest total by a coach in franchise history, trailing only Hank Stram (124) and Marty Schottenheimer (101). His four-year record with the Chiefs is also one victory better than the 33-31 mark he compiled during his first four seasons in Philadelphia ('76-79). Vermeil boasts a 6-5 career postseason record, including a perfect 3-0 mark during the '99 campaign with the Rams giving him an overall NFL record of 116-108 (.518). In total, Vermeil will embark on his 19th season as an NFL coach after originally entering the league with the L.A. Rams in '69.

In 2004, Kansas City rebounded from an 0-3 start and constructed a late-season, four-game winning streak to finish the year at 7-9. In the process, the Chiefs set a league record with 398 first downs and led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, averaging 418.4 yards per game. Although the 2004 campaign fell short of Vermeil's own lofty expectations, he hopes to put the Chiefs back into contention for the NFL's ultimate prize in 2005.

In 2003, he guided Kansas City to a 13-3 record, marking the club's first postseason berth since '97. The Chiefs began the season with a 9-0 record, becoming the first team in franchise history and just the ninth squad since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat. During that season, Kansas City extended its regular season winning streak at Arrowhead Stadium to a franchise-record 13 games as the Chiefs became the first AFC squad to lead the NFL in scoring offense in back-to-back seasons since San Diego in '81-82. Among many notable honors, Vermeil was named Co-Sportsman of the Year by The Sporting News along with Florida Marlins manager Jack McKeon. The NFL Alumni Association inducted Vermeil into its prestigious Order of the Leather Helmet in April of 2004, while the Touchdown Club of New Orleans bestowed the Chiefs head coach with its 2004 Rozelle Award, a pair of honors that recognize substantial contributions to the game of professional football.

Vermeil etched his name amongst some of the NFL's coaching elite in 2003, becoming just the fourth head coach in league history to take three different teams to the playoffs, joining Chuck Knox (Rams, Bills and Seahawks), Dan Reeves (Broncos, Giants and Falcons) and Bill Parcells (Giants, Patriots, Jets and Cowboys). Marty Schottenheimer (Browns, Chiefs and Chargers) became the fifth coach to accomplish that feat in 2004. That quintet of coaches also represent the only men in NFL history to record a 10-victory season with three different teams.

With a 17-10 win at Baltimore (9/28/03), Vermeil became the 31st coach in NFL history to record 100 career victories (regular and postseason). He registered his 100th regular season NFL win in a 27-24 triumph vs. Oakland (11/23/03), making him the 27th coach in NFL history to accomplish that feat. Just one of eight active NFL coaches with 100 regular season victories, only Marty Schottenheimer (177), Parcells (154), Bill Cowher (130), Joe Gibbs (130) and Mike Holmgren (125) own more regular season wins than Vermeil (110).

Vermeil is also just one of four coaches in NFL history to lead two different teams to the "Big Game," joining the illustrious likes of Parcells (Giants and Patriots), Reeves (Broncos and Falcons) and Don Shula (Colts and Dolphins). Vermeil was granted entry into that prestigious group after leading St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season. He also guided Philadelphia to an appearance in Super Bowl XV at the conclusion of the '80 season. Vermeil is one of just eight active NFL head coaches (Bill Belichick, Brian Billick, Gibbs, Jon Gruden, Holmgren, Parcells and Mike Shanahan) who have guided a club to a Super Bowl win.

After taking a 14-year sabbatical from the coaching profession from '83-96, Vermeil returned to the league as President of Football Operations and head coach of the St. Louis Rams on January 22, 1997. Vermeil took over a St. Louis team which had suffered seven consecutive losing seasons and hadn't been to the postseason since '88. In just his third season as head coach of that club in '99, he guided the Rams to a 13-3 regular season record and a thrilling 23-16 victory vs. Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. St. Louis contained its opponents to 21 points or less in all 13 of those regular season victories, winning those contests by an average margin of 22.9 points per game.

Nineteen years after winning the NFL Coach of the Year honor for the initial time with the '80 Philadelphia Eagles, Vermeil was once again honored as the NFL's Coach of the Year following the '99 season with St. Louis and was a consensus "Coach of the Year" selection among pro football publications and by virtually every major event in the country, including Kansas City's own "101 Banquet."

Despite losing current Kansas City QB Trent Green to a season-ending injury in the preseason, a former Arena League and NFL Europe quarterback named Kurt Warner emerged to lead St. Louis to the promised land. While Vermeil was the season's most decorated coach, Warner was the league's most honored player, taking home the NFL Most Valuable Player and Super Bowl MVP trophies. Just 11 days following that Super Bowl victory, Vermeil announced what would be a short-lived retirement from the Rams on February 1, 2000 and joined the Chiefs less than a year later.

The national respect for Vermeil truly transcends football. In fact, it eclipses the sports world entirely. In addition to his impressive litany of accomplishments as a coach, he has served as a widely-acclaimed broadcaster and has long been a highly-coveted motivational speaker. Yet even though he is just one of 21 NFL head coaches ever to claim a Super Bowl ring — joining Hank Stram as the only other Chiefs head coach to own that distinction — Vermeil approaches the challenge of becoming the only head coach in NFL history to lead three separate teams to the Super Bowl with little bravado and much humility.

In '76, Vermeil was named head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, while Peterson served as the club's receivers, tight ends coach and administrative assistant to the head coach. The duo of Peterson and Vermeil helped lead the Eagles to their first playoff appearance in 18 seasons in '78. In six seasons together with the Eagles from '76-81, Peterson and Vermeil combined to engineer four playoff appearances with Peterson serving as Director of Player Personnel beginning in '77. The highlight of that four-year playoff run came in '80 when Philadelphia claimed its first division title since claiming the NFL Championship in '60, won the NFC Championship Game and advanced to Super Bowl XV in January of '81.

After spending seven seasons ('76-82) with Philadelphia, Vermeil retired from coaching during an emotional farewell speech on January 10, 1983. He finished his Eagles career as the second-winningest head coach in that franchise's history, compiling a 54-47 (.535) record. Only Andy Reid (69-36) and Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee Earl "Greasy" Neale (66-44-5) have produced more regular season victories as head coach of the Eagles. In an ironic twist, Vermeil became the first two-time winner of the Earle "Greasy" Neale Award in 2003, an honor presented annually by Philadelphia's Maxwell Club to the NFL Coach of the Year. He previously received that accolade with the Rams in '99.

During his many years in the Philadelphia area — where his family still maintains a residence — Vermeil has found the time to help many worthy causes. Numerous Philadelphia-area organizations have benefited from his involvement including: The Mary Campbell Center, The Second Mile Center and The Boy Scouts of Chester County whose golf tournament which bears Vermeil's name annually earns $100,000 for the organization.

Shortly after departing the sidelines in Philadelphia, he began a 14-year broadcasting career, serving as an NFL and college football analyst for CBS and ABC from '83-96. Although he declined the opportunity to become Kansas City's head coach in '89, he did provide color commentary for the Chiefs preseason television broadcasts from '89-96. In addition to being the only head coach to lead his team to victories in both the Super Bowl and the Rose Bowl, he is also the only individual to coach a team in the Rose Bowl and later broadcast a Rose Bowl contest.

Vermeil also owns the rare distinction of being named "Coach of the Year" on four levels: high school, junior college, NCAA Division I and the NFL. He began his coaching career at San Jose's Del Mar High School in '59 and received his initial head coaching assignment at Hillsdale High School in San Mateo, California in '60. After a one-year stint as an assistant at San Mateo College, he produced an 8-1 mark in his lone season as the head coach at Napa Junior College. Vermeil began his NCAA Division I coaching tenure at Stanford from '65-68 working under head coach John Ralston. That star-studded staff included five other future NFL head coaches: Ralston (Denver '72-76); Bill Walsh (San Francisco '79-88), Jim Mora (New Orleans '86-96, Indianapolis '98-01) and Rod Rust (New England '90), as well as current Chiefs Director of Football Administration Mike White (Oakland '95-96).

Vermeil entered the pro ranks in '69 when he was designated as the first special teams coach in NFL history working for the L.A. Rams under Pro Football Hall of Famer George Allen. After a one-year stint on Tommy Prothro's staff as offensive coordinator at UCLA in '70, he moved with Prothro back to the Rams, where he served as offensive coordinator from '71-72. He then coached running backs and special teams for Rams head coach Chuck Knox in '73 before taking over the head coaching reins at UCLA the following year. He compiled a 15-5-3 (.717) record in two seasons as head coach at UCLA ('74-75), including a 9-2-1 record in '75 when Vermeil led the Bruins to their first Pac 8 Championship.

Born in Calistoga, California at the northern end of the world-renowned Napa Valley, Vermeil was a four-sport star at Calistoga High School and was also employed in the auto repair garage of his father, Louis Vermeil. The younger Vermeil applied that work ethic learned in "The Garage" for one season at Napa Junior College, before moving on to San Jose State. He graduated from San Jose State with degrees in physical education (B.A. '58, M.A. '59) after serving as a collegiate quarterback for the Spartans. In 2000, he was inducted into the San Jose State Hall of Fame. True to his wine country roots, Vermeil partners with OnTheEdge Winery to produce his own self-proclaimed "Garage Cabernet" named in honor of his grandfather, Jean Louis Vermeil. Vermeil's great-grandfather — also named Jean Louis Vermeil — once owned the land where the fruit utilized for this Cabernet Sauvignon vintage is grown.

Vermeil and his wife, Carol have three children and 11 grandchildren. Their son Rick and his wife Colleen are parents of grandchildren Kelly, Rick, Michael and Megan. Their son Dave and his wife Janet are parents of grandchildren Jack, Amy and Andy. Their daughter Nancy and her husband Steve Barnett are parents of grandchildren James, Tommy, Stevie and Christopher.

The Vermeils make their home in the historic Country Club Plaza district of Kansas City, Missouri. When not in Kansas City, the entire Vermeil family enjoys spending time and working on "The Ranch," a 114-acre homestead located outside Philadelphia in rural Chester County, Pennsylvania.

Mike WHITE

Director of Football Administration

17th Year NFL Coach • 5th with Chiefs

Mike White enters his 17th NFL campaign and his fifth season with the Chiefs as the club's Director of Football Administration in 2005. Owning 46 years of football expertise as a coach, a talent evaluator and an administrator, White oversees numerous aspects of the Chiefs day-to-day football operation, working under the direction of head coach Dick Vermeil.

White and Vermeil are united in Kansas City for the third time during their careers. From '97-99, he served as assistant head coach with St. Louis under Vermeil where the tandem's efforts culminated in '99 when the Rams claimed a win in Super Bowl XXXIV. Prior to their association in St. Louis, the duo had previously worked together as assistant coaches at Stanford from '65-68.

Before joining the Rams, White spent seven years with the Raiders ('90-96), including two seasons as that club's head coach, compiling a 15-17 record from '95-96. The Berkeley, California native began his tenure with the Raiders coaching the club's quarterbacks ('90-92) and offensive line ('93-94). The Raiders reached the playoffs in three of those five seasons, including an appearance in the '91 AFC Championship Game. Prior to joining the Raiders, White worked closely with the late Tex Schramm from '88-89 to form the World League of American Football (now the NFL Europe League).

In total, White owns 16 years of head coaching expertise, including collegiate stints at Illinois ('80-87) and California ('72-77). A two-time National Coach of the Year, White compiled a 47-38-3 record and three bowl appearances in eight years with the Fighting Illini. In '81 he led Illinois to its first winning record since '74 with a 7-4 mark after inheriting a team which had recorded just one winning season in its prior 14 campaigns. He then took the school to its first bowl appearance in 18 years the following season with a berth in the Liberty Bowl. His '83 squad was among the best in Illinois history, reaching the Rose Bowl and climbing to a Number 10 final AP ranking with a 10-2 record. The school also set a Big Ten record by becoming the first team ever to defeat all nine conference opponents as White earned Coach of the Year honors following the '83 campaign.

White began his NFL career with San Francisco, spending two years as offensive line coach and administrative assistant to Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh from '78-79. Before joining the 49ers, White spent 12 years at his alma mater, the University of California, where he served as head coach from '72-77, posting a 35-30-1 record. In '75, he was named Coach of the Year by The Sporting News following an 8-3 season in which Cal won the school's first Pac 8 championship. White began his tenure at Cal as freshmen coach in '58-59 before serving as an offensive assistant '60-61 and a defensive assistant from '61-62.

In '64, he began an eight-year stint at Stanford under head coach John Ralston. The Stanford staff at the time included such future NFL coaches as Ralston, Vermeil, Walsh, Jim Mora and Rod Rust. With White directing the offense and Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett at quarterback, Stanford won consecutive Pac 8 titles and posted back-to-back Rose Bowl victories in '70 and '71. A noted developer of quarterbacks in the collegiate ranks, White's many pupils included the likes of Plunkett and Don Bunce (Stanford); Steve Bartkowski, Vince Ferragamo, Joe Roth and Rich Campbell (California); Dave Wilson, Tony Eason, Jack Trudeau and Jeff George (Illinois).

White participated in four sports as an undergraduate at Cal. He played offensive end on the football team from '55-57 and was team captain as a senior. He also captained the rugby team and competed in the decathlon, hurdles and long jump for the Cal track team. In addition, White played guard on the Golden Bears basketball team under legendary coach Pete Newell.

Education: University of California (B.S. '58). Born: Berkeley, California. Family: Wife - Marilyn. The Whites have three children and five grandchildren. Their daughter Carrie and her husband Scott Chantos are parents of Hannah (12) and Noah (9). Their son Matt and his wife Julie are parents of grandchildren Harrison (6), Dylan (5) and Della, who was born in March. Their son Chris is single.

SAUNDERS

Asst. Head Coach/Off. Coordinator

23rd Year NFL Coach • 15th with Chiefs

Regarded as one of the most accomplished and innovative offensive minds in all of football with experience as both a head coach and offensive coordinator, Al Saunders enters his fifth season as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator for the Chiefs in 2005.

Embarking on his 36th season in the coaching ranks this year, Saunders owns 23 years of NFL coaching experience and is beginning his 15th coaching campaign with Kansas City. He previously served a 10-year stint as assistant head coach/wide receivers coach under head coach Marty Schottenheimer from '89-98. During that 10-year span, he was part of a Chiefs coaching staff which helped guide Kansas City to three AFC West titles and seven playoff berths. In total, Saunders has been associated with 10 postseason appearances, five division crowns and a World Championship during his NFL tenure.

In 2004, the Chiefs led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, accumulating a franchise-record 6,695 yards or an average of 418.4 ypg. In the process, Kansas City established an NFL record with 398 first downs, breaking the previous mark of 387 set by the '84 Dolphins.

In total, the 2004 Chiefs ranked in the NFL's top five in each of the four major offensive categories for the first time in team history: total offense (1st - 418.4 ypg), scoring offense (2nd - 30.2 ppg), pass offense (4th - 275.4 ypg) and rush offense (5th - 143.1 ypg). Last season, Kansas City also led the NFL in 24 different offensive categories, while tying or breaking 18 different single-season team records, including marks for offensive TDs (58), third-down conversion percentage (47.2%), most games with 400 or more yards of total offense (nine) and most consecutive 400-yard games (five).

Under Saunders, the Chiefs have also continued their unprecedented production in the running game. Kansas City tied a 42-year-old NFL record by registering 63 rushing TDs over the 2003-04 seasons, a two-season mark originally established by the '61-62 Packers. Those numbers were bolstered by three-time Pro Bowl running back Priest Holmes who registered an NFL-record 27 rushing TDs in 2003. The 2004 Chiefs owned the distinction of becoming the first team in league history to have three different backs produce a 150-yard rushing game in a season and were the initial NFL squad to ever rush for eight TDs in a league contest.

Simply put, Saunders has presided over the NFL's most prolific scoring offense over the last four seasons. During that span, no NFL team has registered more points than the 1,754 accumulated by the Chiefs, an average of 27.4 ppg. In 2004, Kansas City scored 30+ points in five consecutive games, a first in team history. The Chiefs led the NFL in scoring in both 2002 and 2003, becoming the first AFC team to lead the league in scoring in back-to-back seasons since San Diego in '81-82. During the 2003 season alone, the Chiefs piled up a franchise-record 484 points after registering a league-high 467 points in 2002.

Dating back to 2001 when Saunders took over as offensive coordinator, the Chiefs rank first in the NFL with 24,278 net yards of total offense (379.3 ypg). The Chiefs' opulent numbers during that 64-game span from 2001-04 are also the league's best in the following seven categories: offensive TDs (200), rushing TDs (105), total first downs (1,413), Red Zone TD percentage (64.3%), runs of 10+ yards (255), passing yards per attempt (7.79) and passing yards per completion (12.58).

Since Saunders returned to Kansas City in 2001, seven different Chiefs offensive players have earned Pro Bowl honors — G Will Shields, T Willie Roaf, TE Tony Gonzalez, RB Priest Holmes, QB Trent Green, FB Tony Richardson and G Brian Waters. While the Chiefs' ground exploits are well-documented, Kansas City has also developed a prolific passing attack under Saunders' direction. In 2004, Green boasted a franchise-high eight 300-yard passing games as Kansas City rolled up franchise records with 370 completions and 4,406 net passing yards. Kansas City also established team records with 228 passing first downs and an overall 65.95 completion percentage. Meanwhile, Gonzalez shattered the NFL single-season receiving record for tight ends with 102 receptions last season as the six-time Pro Bowl tight end had six of Kansas City's 14 individual 100-yard receiving efforts. The Chiefs also boasted a 1,000-yard receiving tandem for just the second time in team history as both Gonzalez (1,258) and WR Eddie Kennison (1,086) topped that lofty plateau.

But record-breaking numbers have been the norm for Kansas City's offense under Saunders. In 2003, the Chiefs led the league in 18 different offensive categories, including virtually every Red Zone category. That season, Kansas City owned NFL-high marks in Red Zone points (324), Red Zone TDs (42), Red Zone scoring percentage (98.1) and Red Zone TD percentage (77.8). The Chiefs also paced the NFL with a +19 turnover differential during the 2003 campaign.

In 2002, Kansas City broke or tied 22 single-season team offensive records. Most notably, Kansas City turned the ball over a franchise-low 15 times (non-strike season) and broke two long-standing NFL records by fumbling just seven times and losing only two of those fumbles. The Chiefs averaged 148.6 rushing yards per game to rank third in the NFL as Holmes finished the year with 2,287 yards from scrimmage, 1,615 ground yards and nine 100-yard rushing games, all figures which established team single-season records.

The foundation for Kansas City's offensive onslaught was established in 2001 when Kansas City finished the year ranked in the NFL's top 10 in rushing, passing and total offense for just the second time since the AFL-NFL merger. That season, Holmes led the NFL in rushing with 1,555 ground yards becoming the first Chiefs back to pace the league since RB Christian Okoye in '89.

Prior to rejoining the Chiefs, Saunders spent two seasons with St. Louis where he coached wide receivers and also served as associate head coach in 2000. During that two-year span, Saunders helped revitalize a Rams offense as the club steamrolled its way to a 13-3 regular season record in '99 and a triumph over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. Owning an energetic and hands-on style, Saunders continues to invigorate the Kansas City offense in much the same way.

Presiding over high-flying offenses is nothing new for this veteran coach. In 2000, Saunders was part of a St. Louis coaching staff which helped the Rams score 540 points (33.8 ppg), the third-highest single-season total in NFL history. The club also led the league with an NFL-record 442.2 yards of total offense per game and paced the NFL in passing offense (327.0 ypg) for the second straight season, setting another league record in the process. St. Louis amassed 7,075 yards of total offense and 5,232 passing yards, breaking the previous marks established by the '84 Miami Dolphins.

En route to their World Championship in '99, the Rams paced the NFL with 6,412 yards of total offense, good for a remarkable 400.8 ypg average. St. Louis also led the league in passing offense with 272.1 yards per game and topped the NFL in scoring by averaging 32.9 points per contest. The 526 total points amassed by the '99 squad ranked as the fourth-highest tally in NFL annals.

The St. Louis receiving corps under the direction of Saunders was responsible for a large portion of those record-setting numbers. WR Isaac Bruce made the Pro Bowl in each of his seasons working with Saunders and led the Rams in 2000 with 87 receptions, while garnering 1,471 yards and nine TDs. WR Torry Holt had a breakout year under Saunders' tutelage in 2000, leading the league in receiving yards (1,635) and yards per catch (19.9) while earning his first Pro Bowl appearance after grabbing 82 receptions and scoring six TDs. WR Az-Zahir Hakim also made significant progress during Saunders' stay in St. Louis. After producing just 20 catches for 247 yards and one score as a rookie in '98, by the 2000 campaign he had grabbed 53 balls for 734 yards and four TDs. Bruce, Holt and Hakim join a stellar list of receivers tutored by Saunders, a group that includes Pro Football Hall of Famers Charlie Joiner and Kellen Winslow (San Diego) and Lynn Swann (Southern California).

Before initially joining the Chiefs in '89, Saunders served as San Diego's head coach from the midpoint of the '86 season through the '88 campaign. In his first full season as head coach in '87 he guided the Chargers to an 8-7 record, a four-game improvement from the club's 4-12 finish the previous year. That 8-7 record represented San Diego's first winning season in five years and included a perfect 3-0 record in replacement games, a feat matched only by Washington Redskins head coach Joe Gibbs that season. Under Saunders' direction in '87, the Chargers also won eight straight games, the club's longest winning streak in 26 seasons. He joined San Diego in '83 as receivers coach in what was one of the most exciting and prolific pass offenses in NFL history. Behind Hall of Fame QB Dan Fouts and the Chargers electrifying receiving corps coached by Saunders, San Diego led the league in passing and total offense in both '83 and '85.

Saunders began his career as a graduate assistant under John McKay at Southern California ('70-'71). He then coached receivers at Missouri ('72) before heading the offensive backfield at Utah State ('73-'75). He was an assistant head coach, quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator at California from '76-'81, leading an offense that set 32 national, conference and school records. In '82, he served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Johnny Majors at the University of Tennessee.

Born in London, England, he became one of only four foreign-born head coaches in NFL history after becoming a naturalized U.S. citizen in '60. A three-year starter, team captain and Academic All-America pick as a defensive back at San Jose State ('66-'68), Saunders also played wide receiver for the Spartans and is enshrined in the school's Hall of Fame. As a recipient of California's State Graduate Fellowship for Academic Excellence, he earned a Master's degree in education from Stanford and was a doctoral candidate in athletic administration and sports management at USC.

Saunders has been recognized in Who's Who in America and was awarded California's prestigious Golden State Award for community leadership and service in '89. A former All-America swimmer and national record holder, Saunders is also an accomplished distance runner. In '96, he competed in the Kansas City and Los Angeles Marathons, as well as the 100th running of the Boston Marathon and was also crowned the Road Runners Club of America's (R.R.C.A.) Masters 5K National Champion.

Education: San Jose State (B.A. '69); Stanford (M.A. '70). Born: London, England. Family: Wife - Karen; Children - sons Bob and Joe, and daughter Kori.

Gunther CUNNINGHAM

Defensive Coordinator

24th Year NFL Coach • 8th with Chiefs

Gunther Cunningham rejoined the Chiefs in 2004 as the club's defensive coordinator after previously serving as Kansas City's head coach from '99-00 and enjoying a record-setting four-year stint as the club's defensive coordinator from '95-98. His return to Arrowhead last season after a three-year hiatus speaks volumes about the level of respect and regard the Chiefs organization possesses for this highly-coveted defensive coach.

Long regarded as one of the league's most talented defensive teachers and tacticians, this 24-year NFL coaching veteran came back to Kansas City after spending three seasons as assistant head coach/linebackers coach of the Tennessee Titans from 2001-03. This fiery motivator has a track record of instilling toughness and tenacity from his defensive units wherever he has coached. Throughout his 37-year coaching career Cunningham has earned the admiration of his troops with a fiercely demanding, yet honest and up-front demeanor. His aggressive and hard-hitting defensive approach has earned him the respect of both his players and his adversaries, alike.

In 2004, Cunningham began the process of restoring Kansas City's proud defensive tradition. Those efforts began with the Chiefs rushing defense which vaulted to 12th in the NFL by permitting just 114.6 ground yards per game. In total, the Chiefs gave up 510 fewer rushing yards (31.9 fewer ypg) than they did just a year earlier when the club ranked 30th in the NFL in that department. The Chiefs also forced 61 negative rushing plays in 2004 to rank eighth in the NFL, throwing opponents for losses 18 more times than they did the previous season.

Under Cunningham's leadership the Chiefs made progress in other defensive areas in 2004, as well. Kansas City tied for seventh in the league with 41.0 sacks, including a string of three straight games with 4.0 or more sacks, the club's longest such streak since '97. Kansas City's sack total was also the club's best since 2000 when Cunningham served as head coach. In addition, the 2004 Chiefs defense also led the league in average distance to go for opponents on second down (8.72 yards) after ranking 18th in that area in 2003.

During his stint with head coach Jeff Fisher in Tennessee, the Titans twice reached the playoffs, including an AFC Championship Game berth in 2002. Cunningham helped tutor a Titans defense that ranked among the league's top five in rushing defense each of his three seasons with the club. In 2003, Tennessee's defense led the NFL in both rushing defense (80.9 ypg) and third-down defense (27.7%). The German-born coach was also credited with aiding in the rapid development of Titans LB Keith Bulluck, who earned his initial Pro Bowl berth under Cunningham in 2003.

Kansas City compiled a 16-16 (.500) record during Cunningham's tenure as the club's head coach, including a 9-7 mark in '99 when Kansas City barely missed the playoffs after tying for the best record in the AFC West with Seattle. The Chiefs 9-7 record was the best of any first-year head coach in franchise history. Other highlights of Cunningham's head coaching tenure included a perfect 4-0 record vs. division rival Denver and a 54-34 victory over defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis (10/20/00), a contest that ranks as the Chiefs second-highest scoring output at Arrowhead. Under Cunningham, Kansas City also led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio in '99 and set a team record by scoring nine defensive TDs that season.

With Cunningham serving as defensive coordinator from '95-98, the Chiefs registered a 42-22 (.656) record, including a 23-9 (.719) mark vs. the AFC West. Over that span Kansas City's defense allowed an NFL-low 1,050 offensive points (excluding opponents' defensive and special teams scores), an average of 16.4 ppg. Kansas City led the NFL in scoring defense twice during that span, allowing 14.5 ppg in '97 and 15.1 ppg in '95. The 232 total points permitted by the Chiefs in '97 were the lowest tally ever allowed in a 16-game season in team history. In '95, Kansas City's defense was even better in terms of actual offensive points allowed as opposing offenses scored just 206 points that season, an average of just 12.9 ppg.

From '95-98, Cunningham's squads were also opportunistic, producing an AFC-best +30 takeaway/giveaway ratio, accumulating 127 takeaways and scoring 77 points on 10 TDs and four safeties. His teams displayed a penchant for putting pressure on the passer as well, producing 172.0 sacks over those four years, a total which ranked third in the AFC and sixth in the NFL over that span.

In '97, the Chiefs broke a 63-year-old mark owned by the '34 Detroit Lions by not permitting a second-half touchdown in 10 consecutive games. That '97 Chiefs defense led the AFC in interceptions (21) and total takeaways (34), while ranking second in the NFL in third-down defense (31.6%). Kansas City's 54.0 sacks in '97 were the second-highest total in team history. That sack count led the AFC and was third in the NFL.

In addition to leading the league in scoring defense, the '95 Chiefs defense also ranked first in the NFL in turnover ratio (+12), touchdowns allowed (23) and yards per play (4.3). Kansas City also topped the AFC and ranked second in the league in total defense, permitting an average of just 284.3 yards per game, while ranking third in the NFL in rushing defense in '95, permitting just 82.9 yards per game.

Cunningham has presided over a litany of prestigious pass rushers and Pro Bowl performers during his two tours of duty in Kansas City. Most notably, Cunningham shared a special bond as a mentor to the late, great nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas, who concluded his illustrious career as the all-time leading sack artist in Chiefs history with 126.5 QB takedowns. Cunningham also coached the likes of Pro Bowl DE Neil Smith, who ranks second in franchise history with 86.0 sacks. Current Kansas City DE Eric Hicks enjoyed the finest campaign of his pro career when Cunningham served as head coach in 2000, racking up a career-high 14.0 sacks, joining Thomas, Smith and Art Still as the only Chiefs players to register that many sacks in a single season. In 2004, DE Jared Allen racked up 9.0 sacks, the second-highest total by a rookie in franchise history, trailing only the 10.0 sacks amassed by Thomas in '89.

CBs Dale Carter and James Hasty formed one of the most formidable cornerback tandems in Chiefs history, combining for six Pro Bowl berths during Cunningham's first tour of duty at Arrowhead. That hard-hitting duo was frequently a factor in forcing turnovers as both players finished their Kansas City careers with 21 interceptions apiece. In addition, DT Dan Saleaumua earned Pro Bowl accolades after anchoring the formidable Chiefs defensive front assembled by Cunningham in '95.

Cunningham joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons ('91-'94) with the Raiders. He served as that club's defensive coordinator in '92 and '93 in addition to tutoring the club's defensive line ('94), as well as coaching the Raiders linebackers ('91). During both his seasons as the Raiders defensive coordinator, his defense ranked ninth in the NFL and was among the AFC's top four units in both '92 and '93. His Raiders pass defense was especially stingy in '92, allowing an NFL-low 11 TD passes.

Prior to that, he spent six seasons as a mentor for the San Diego Chargers defensive line ('85-'90). During his stint with San Diego, the Chargers led the AFC in sacks three times, including a franchise-record 62.0 sacks in '86. During his tenure coaching San Diego's defensive front, DEs Lee Williams and Leslie O'Neal developed into two of the league's finest pass rushers, with both players earning a pair of Pro Bowl berths under his watchful eye.

Cunningham began his NFL career coaching the defensive line for the Baltimore Colts in '82, learning the trade under one of the league's finest defensive minds, Bud Carson, who was the team's defensive coordinator at the time. Cunningham stayed in that capacity with the club through the Colts '84 season in Indianapolis. He originally entered the pro ranks coaching defensive line and linebackers for the Canadian Football League's Hamilton Tiger Cats in '81 before moving along with head coach Frank Kush to the NFL ranks the next year.

A graduate of the University of Oregon where he was a linebacker and placekicker from '66-'68, Cunningham embarked on a coaching career at his alma mater the next season. It was at Oregon where he began his longtime relationship with another noted defensive guru, George Seifert, who was a member of the Oregon staff from '67-'71. He tutored the Ducks defensive line for three seasons ('69-'71) before moving on to the University of Arkansas ('72). From '73-'76 he coached at Stanford University, before making his final stop in the collegiate ranks at the University of California, where he coached the secondary in '77 and the linebackers in '78. He served as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach in his last two seasons with the Bears ('79-'80).

Cunningham played his prep football at Lompoc High School in Lompoc, California. He was then recruited to play at Allan Hancock College in Santa Maria, California by former Raiders head coach and current ABC-TV NFL analyst, John Madden. Madden left the school prior to Cunningham's freshman year and was replaced as head coach by Ernie Zampese, who went on to become one of the NFL's most respected offensive coaches.

Cunningham is just one of four foreign-born individuals in league history to ever serve as an NFL head coach. Current Chiefs assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders (San Diego, '86-'88) is also a member of that unique coaching fraternity. The other two foreign-born head coaches in league history were Jock Sutherland (Pittsburgh, '46-'47) and Hugo Bezdek (Cleveland, '37-'38). Born in Munich, Germany, he moved to Greenfield, Massachusetts at the age of 10 in '56 with his mother Katharina and his adoptive father, Air Force Sergeant Garner Cunningham.

Education: University of Oregon (B.S. '68). Born: Munich, Germany. Family: Wife - René; Children - Natalie and Adam.

FAST FACT

The Chiefs are 43-6 (.876) at Arrowhead dating back to '95, when holding opponents to 20 points or less, including a streak of 13 consecutive victories dating back to 2001.

FAST FACT

The Chiefs defense has scored at least one TD every season for the past 16 years dating back to '89. Kansas City had two defensive TDs in 2004, returning both an INT and a fumble for scores.

Vernon DEAN

Assistant Defensive Backs

3rd Year NFL Coach • 3rd with Chiefs

Vernon Dean enters his third season as the Chiefs assistant defensive backs coach in 2005. He originally joined the NFL coaching ranks in 2003 after spending 10 seasons coaching on the collegiate and high school level. He assists Peter Giunta in tutoring the Kansas City secondary. The addition of Dean to the Chiefs coaching staff in 2003 coincided with S Jerome Woods earning his initial Pro Bowl berth. That season Kansas City ranked third in the NFL with 25 interceptions due in large part to the play of the Chiefs defensive backs.

Dean brings a wealth of hands-on expertise to his post with the Chiefs after serving seven seasons as an NFL cornerback with Washington ('82-'87) and Seattle ('88). Originally a second-round draft choice (49th overall) of the Redskins in '82, Dean played in 101 regular season games (59 starts), registering 22 interceptions for 274 yards with two touchdowns, as well as seven fumble recoveries, including one for a TD. He also saw duty in 15 career postseason contests, producing four INTs in those games. Raised in Los Angeles, California, Dean made three Super Bowl appearances with Washington and was part of Joe Gibbs' squads that claimed victories in Super Bowls XVII and XXII. He was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year by Football Digest in '82 and also earned first-team NFL All-Rookie honors from the Pro Football Writers Association and second-team All-NFC accolades from UPI that same season.

Dean gained his initial NFL coaching experience serving an NFL Minority Coaching Fellowship with the Baltimore Ravens during their 2001 training camp, working under the direction of linebackers coach Jack Del Rio (now head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars) and defensive coordinator Marvin Lewis (now head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals). He was scheduled to serve a fellowship with the Arizona Cardinals in training camp in 2002, before accepting a post as the defensive backs coach at Western Illinois.

Prior to his stint with the Leathernecks, Dean coached the secondary at Western Oregon in 2000-01. From '97-'99 he served as the defensive backs coach at Bishop O'Dowd High School in Oakland, California after spending several years working in both finance and real estate. He began his coaching career at Georgetown University where he tutored defensive backs for the Hoyas in '90 before serving as the club's defensive coordinator in '92 and '93. An All-Western Athletic Conference selection and honorable mention All-America pick as a senior at San Diego State, Dean led the league with six interceptions that season. He began his collegiate playing career at Los Angeles Valley Junior College and spent one season at U.S. International University, where he had 10 interceptions as a junior. He transferred to San Diego State after USIU dropped its football program.

Education: San Diego State, Western Oregon University (B.S. 2001).
Born: Houston, Texas. Family: Single, with two sons - Joshua, a former safety at San Diego State and Jaylon.

Dean earned rings from Super Bowls XVII and XXII with Washington.

Irv
EATMAN
Assistant Offensive Line

7th Year NFL Coach • 5th with Chiefs

Owning five years of experience as a Chiefs player, Irv Eatman returned to Kansas City in 2001 as the team's assistant offensive line coach and enters his fifth season in that capacity this year. Eatman spent five seasons as an offensive tackle for the Chiefs from '86-90 after originally being drafted by the club in '83.

Eatman is now in his seventh year as a pro coach and returned to Kansas City in 2001 to help Mike Solari tutor the Chiefs offensive front. During the 2004 campaign the Chiefs became the first AFC club to boast a trio of Pro Bowl offensive linemen since Denver did it in '98. G Will Shields and T Willie Roaf each earned their 10th Pro Bowl berths, while G Brian Waters was rewarded with his initial Pro Bowl invitation, making him the first undrafted guard to earn that distinction since Dallas G Nate Newton did it following the '98 season. Kansas City's blocking unit was also largely responsible for the Chiefs record-setting performance in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24) as the Chiefs recorded an NFL-record eight rushing TDs in that victory.

The Chiefs offensive line helped pave the way for nine individual 100-yard rushers in 2004, a mark that tied for the most in team history. Kansas City was also the first team in NFL history to have three different RBs produce a 150-yard rushing game in a season, as RBs Priest Holmes, Derrick Blaylock and Larry Johnson all accomplished that feat. Thanks to Kansas City's vaunted offensive front, the Chiefs piled up a remarkable 63 rushing TDs in 2003-04, tying the '61-62 Packers for the best two-year mark in NFL history.

Eatman played 14 professional seasons, including five in Kansas City ('86-90).

where Chiefs President Carl Peterson was President/General Manager at the time.

During his three-year run with the Stars, Eatman was part of a squad which posted a league-best 48-13-1 overall record, including a remarkable 7-1 postseason mark. The Stars appeared in all three of the league's championship games and claimed the final two USFL titles in '84 and '85. In addition, Eatman was named the USFL Man of the Year for his charitable efforts following the '84 campaign.

Following his tenure in the USFL and a five-year stay in Kansas City, Eatman went on to play with the N.Y. Jets ('91-92), L.A. Rams ('93), Atlanta Falcons ('94) and Houston Oilers ('95-96). In total, the Birmingham, Alabama native played in 149 regular season NFL contests and saw postseason duty with both the Chiefs in '90 and the Jets in '91.

Eatman attended UCLA where he was a two-time Lombardi Award semi-finalist, three-time honorable mention All-America selection and a two-time All-Pac 10 pick. As a senior in '82, he played on the Bruins squad which claimed a 24-14 victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

Education: University of California - Los Angeles. Born: Birmingham, Alabama. Family: Wife - Maureen with three children.

COACHING CAREER

1999	Green Bay Packers	Asst. Offensive Line
2001-05	Kansas City Chiefs	Asst. Offensive Line

Kansas City's offensive line has also been a key factor in the success of three-time Pro Bowl RB Priest Holmes, who set an NFL record with 27 rushing TDs in 2003. Holmes eclipsed the franchise's single-season rushing record with 1,615 yards in 2002 and won the NFL's rushing crown with 1,555 yards the previous season.

Prior to joining the Chiefs coaching staff, Eatman spent the 2000 campaign as an assistant offensive line coach with Pittsburgh after serving in the same role for Green Bay in '99. With Eatman's assistance, Pittsburgh's ground attack ranked fourth in the NFL in 2000, averaging 140.5 yards per game, a 16.1 yards per game improvement from '99 when the Steelers ranked 10th in the league.

The 44-year-old Eatman provides a valuable resource for the Chiefs offensive line, owning 14 years of professional playing experience, including 11 seasons in the NFL. Originally drafted by Kansas City in the eighth round of the '83 NFL Draft, Eatman signed with the USFL and was a three-time All-Pro offensive tackle ('83-85) for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars

Frank GANSZ, JR.

Special Teams

Frank Gansz, Jr. enters his fifth season with Kansas City serving as the club's special teams coach. Embarking on his 18th season in the coaching profession, Gansz is in his seventh NFL campaign after serving a two-year stint directing Oakland's special teams from '98-99.

The Chiefs continued their high level of special teams production under Gansz's direction in 2004. Thanks to return man extraordinaire WR Dante Hall, Kansas City registered two kickoff return TDs in a season for just the fourth time in franchise history. The Chiefs also accomplished that feat in 2003, marking the first time in franchise annals the club had pulled that feat off in back-to-back seasons. The club also set single-season franchise records with 75 kickoff returns and 1,820 kickoff return yards. Meanwhile, first-year K Lawrence Tynes unseated the venerable K Morten Andersen and became the first Chiefs kicker to nail a pair of 50-yard FGs in a season since K Pete Stoyanovich in '98.

Kansas City registered an NFL-high four TDs on special teams under Gansz in 2003, the club's best total since getting a team-record five in '87. Even more impressively, the Chiefs became the first team to lead the league in both punt return and kickoff return average since Washington in '95. Kansas City's 16.42-yard punt return average broke a team record that had stood since the franchise's inaugural season in '60.

Those gaudy return numbers were due in large part to Hall. Dating back to 2002, no NFL player can top the nine return TDs registered by this two-time Pro Bowler during the regular season. Hall tied an NFL record by registering four kick return TDs (two punts, two kickoffs) in the regular season — a feat he accomplished in four consecutive games — in addition to recording a 92-yard kickoff return TD in the playoffs. He also set a Chiefs single-season record with 2,446 combined net yards in 2003.

But Kansas City's special teams exploits under Gansz haven't been limited to the return phase. TE Kendall Gammon received a Pro Bowl invitation as a long snapper in 2004, while DE Gary Stills went to the Pro Bowl as a special teams performer in 2003. During the 2001-02 campaigns Gansz's units blocked four punts and partially blocked another, marking the club's best two-year punt-blocking total since '89-90. After blocking one field goal in 2002, the Chiefs upped that total to two blocked FGs in 2003, knocking down a pair of kicks at San Diego (11/20/03).

Getting production out of the kicking game is nothing new for Gansz. During his tenure with the Raiders, Gansz tutored some of the league's top return threats in Desmond Howard, Darrien Gordon and Napoleon Kaufman. In '98, Howard ranked fifth in the AFC with a 12.0-yard punt return average. The 42-year-old Gansz joined Oakland following a five-year stint at the University of Houston ('93-97) where he served as tight ends and special teams coach. In '96 under Gansz the Cougars established a school single-season record for highest kickoff return average. Thanks in part to Gansz's special teams unit, Houston claimed a share of the Conference USA title while appearing in the Liberty Bowl following the '96 season.

In '92, Gansz served as the special teams coach for the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League (now NFL Europe). During his lone season with the Knights, Gansz's kickoff coverage, kickoff return and punt return units led the league as his squad tallied four special teams scores. Prior to joining the Knights, Gansz served a pair of two-year stints at the collegiate level, coaching at both Pittsburgh ('88-89) and Army ('90-91). At Pitt, Gansz was part of a staff which helped guide the Panthers to a 31-28 victory over Texas A&M in the '89 John Hancock Bowl. Gansz broke into coaching as a graduate assistant at the University of Kansas ('87). Gansz was a four-year performer as a defensive back at The Citadel before he embarked on his coaching career.

Gansz's father, Frank Sr. retired following the 2001 season after 24 seasons in the NFL coaching ranks, most recently as the special teams coordinator for Jacksonville from 2000-01. The elder Gansz was twice named the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year ('89, '99) and spent five seasons ('81-82, '86-88) on the Chiefs coaching staff, including a two-year stint ('87-88) as Kansas City's head coach. It was thanks in large part to Gansz's instruction that the Chiefs blocked or deflected an NFL-record 10 kicks in '86 as the team ended a 15-year playoff drought. In the only head-to-head regular season meeting between Gansz, Jr. and his father, the younger Gansz and the Chiefs prevailed by a 30-26 margin at Jacksonville (12/30/01).

Education: The Citadel (B.A. '85). Born: Greenville, South Carolina.

Defensive Backs

15th Year NFL Coach • 5th with Chiefs

Beginning his 15th NFL season and his 25th year in the coaching profession overall, Peter Giunta (pronounced JUN-ta) enters his fifth season as the Chiefs defensive backs coach in 2005. The 48-year-old coach joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons ('97-00) with St. Louis, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in '98-99 after originally joining the Rams staff as defensive backs coach in '97.

S Jerome Woods earned his initial Pro Bowl berth under Giunta's guidance in 2003, a remarkable feat considering the fact that he missed the entire 2002 campaign with a broken right leg. The Chiefs registered 25 INTs to rank third in the NFL that season — the club's highest tally since '99 — as S Greg Wesley and former Rams CB Dexter McCleon paced the team with six interceptions apiece.

As Rams defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's remarkable run to a World Championship in '99. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record that year and a 23-16 victory in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in '99, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and sixth in total defense (293.6 ypg).

The Rams '99 defense led the NFC with 29 INTs, a figure which ranked second in the NFL. CB Todd Lyght led the way, tying for the league lead with six interceptions, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven INTs and two fumbles) for touchdowns in '99. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied Jacksonville for the league lead. That charge was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 QB takedowns.

Giunta also has a reputation for getting the most out of the defensive backs under his jurisdiction and stifling opponents' passing attacks. In 2000, McCleon registered eight interceptions for St. Louis, a total which was surpassed only by Green Bay S Darren Sharper, who had nine. As the Rams defensive coordinator in '98, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in passing defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in '97 the Rams were second in the league with 25 INTs thanks to CB Ryan McNeil, who led the NFL with nine pickoffs.

Prior to joining the Rams, the Salem, Massachusetts native spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the N.Y. Jets from '95-96. In his initial campaign with that club, the Jets defense led the league in pass defense (171.3 ypg). Giunta was also instrumental in the development of CB Aaron Glenn, who would go on to earn Pro Bowl nods following the '97 and '98 campaigns.

Giunta's first NFL coaching position came coaching defensive backs for Philadelphia from '91-94. During the '91 season, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 ypg), rushing defense (71.0 ypg) and total defense (221.8 ypg). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since '75 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories.

Giunta's 10 seasons in the collegiate ranks began at Penn State ('81-83). During his first year on Joe Paterno's staff, Giunta was a defensive assistant before coaching the tight ends for his final two seasons. While at Penn State, the Nittany Lions claimed the '82 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. In all, Penn State would claim three bowl victories during Giunta's tenure ('82 Fiesta, '83 Sugar and '83 Aloha).

Following Penn State, Giunta moved on to Brown ('84-87) where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator ('86-87). Giunta then moved onto Lehigh ('88-90) where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers. After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern ('74-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts where he guided Swampscott High School from '78-80.

Carl HAIRSTON

Defensive Line

Carl "Big Daddy" Hairston returned to Arrowhead for his second tour of duty on the Kansas City coaching staff in 2001. Entering his 11th season as an NFL defensive line coach, Hairston previously coached Kansas City's defensive front from '95-96. Hairston's return to the Chiefs has produced substantial dividends for the club. A host of young players such as 2004 Mack Lee Hill Award winner DE Jared Allen, 2002 first-round draft choice DT Ryan Sims, as well as seasoned performers such as DE Eric Hicks have all benefitted greatly from Hairston's 15 years of NFL playing experience. Thanks to 9.0 sacks from Allen — the second-highest total by a rookie in Chiefs history — Kansas City tied for seventh in the NFL with 41.0 sacks in 2004.

The 52-year old coach rejoined the Chiefs following a four-year stint ('97-00) as the defensive line coach for St. Louis under head coach Dick Vermeil. Ironically, Hairston began his pro playing career with the Eagles in '76 under Vermeil, who was a rookie NFL head coach that season. Since that time, Hairston and Vermeil have been virtually inseparable as Hairston has been on the field as either a player or an assistant coach for every game of Vermeil's illustrious NFL head coaching tenure. Prior to coming back to Kansas City, Hairston tutored a pair of players who each topped the double-digit sack mark in St. Louis in 2000, DEs Kevin Carter (10.5) and Grant Wistrom (11.0).

During the Rams 13-3 season in '99 when the club claimed the Super Bowl XXXIV title, St. Louis tied Jacksonville for the league lead with 57.0 sacks, thanks in large part to Hairston's front four. Carter led the league with 17.0 sacks and joined teammate DT D'Marco Farr in the Pro Bowl. Behind Carter's 12.0 sacks in '98, only the N.Y. Giants (54.0), Seattle (53.0) and San Francisco (51.0) produced more sacks than St. Louis (50.0). In '97, Hairston's defensive front was anchored by DE Leslie O'Neal who produced 10.0 sacks, marking the seventh double-digit sack tally of his illustrious NFL career.

COACHING CAREER

1995-96	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Line
1997-00	St. Louis Rams	Defensive Line
2001-05	Kansas City Chiefs	Defensive Line

Hairston began his coaching career as the defensive line coach under then-Chiefs head coach Marty Schottenheimer and defensive coordinator Gunther Cunningham in '95. In his two years on the Chiefs staff ('95-96), Hairston helped guide one of the fiercest defensive fronts in football. The Chiefs compiled a 13-3 record and won the AFC West title in '95, ranking second in the AFC and third in the NFL with 47.0 sacks. Under the watchful eye of Hairston, Kansas City DE Neil Smith led the team with 12.0 QB takedowns to earn a Pro Bowl nod, while DT Dan Saleaumua also received a Pro Bowl invitation for his efforts.

Hairston originally joined the Chiefs in '94 as a pro scout and also assisted with the defensive line coaching duties during training camp that season. Prior to his time in Kansas City, Hairston spent three seasons ('91-93) as a college scout for the Arizona Cardinals.

Hairston was a member of the Eagles Super Bowl XV squad.

One of the finest defensive ends of his era, Hairston enjoyed a stellar 15-year pro playing career. He appeared in 224 NFL contests (184 starts), registering 1,141 tackles and 94.0 sacks. He played eight seasons in Philadelphia ('76-83), six years in Cleveland ('84-89) and one season with Arizona ('90).

A seventh-round draft pick (191st overall) of the Philadelphia Eagles and Vermeil in '76, Hairston went on to start all eight seasons he was in Philadelphia, captaining the defense from '79-83 and racking up 100 or more tackles for five straight years ('77-81). In '79, he led the Eagles and the NFC with a career-best 15.0 sacks. A year later, Hairston served as a starting defensive end for Vermeil's Eagles in Super Bowl XV against the Oakland Raiders. In total, the Martinsville, Virginia product participated in 15 career playoff contests, including four conference championship games ('80 NFC, '86 AFC, '87 AFC and '89 AFC).

A four-year starter at linebacker and defensive end at Maryland-Eastern Shore, Hairston earned collegiate all-conference honors on three occasions and also played one season of basketball. In 2005, Hairston was inducted into the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Hall of Fame.

Education: University of Maryland-Eastern Shore (B.A. '85). Born: Martinsville, Virginia. Family: Wife - Cindy; Children - Carl, Jr. and Crystal.

Jeff

HURD

Strength and Conditioning

11th Year NFL Coach • 8th with Chiefs

Jeff Hurd is in his eighth campaign as Kansas City's head strength and conditioning coach. A member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Hurd owns 22 years of experience in the health and fitness field. He joined the Chiefs in '98 after spending the previous three seasons ('95-97) as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars under head coach Tom Coughlin.

In his position with the Chiefs, Hurd is responsible for overseeing one of the league's most highly-attended NFL off-season conditioning programs which puts an emphasis on not only improving strength and cardiovascular endurance, but also enhancing speed and flexibility. He also supervises the club's personalized in-season training regiment designed to maintain those off-season gains.

Hurd was already a familiar face in the Chiefs weight room before joining Kansas City's coaching staff on a full-time basis in '98. He worked under the direction of former Chiefs and current San Diego Chargers strength coach Dave Redding for three seasons ('90-92) as a strength and conditioning assistant during training camp and also served as an intern with the Kansas City strength coaches in '93 and '94.

Hurd was raised in Parker, Arizona and was a two-year baseball letterman at Imperial Valley Junior College in El Centro, California before transferring to Fort Hays (Kansas) State where he earned two more letters and graduated with a degree in physical education in '81. He also received a master's degree in physical education from Fort Hays with an emphasis in exercise physiology in '84, the same year he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant strength coach for the Tigers. After leaving Fort Hays, Hurd served as the head strength coach for Delta State ('85-86), Western Michigan ('87-93) and Tulsa ('94), in addition to a stint as the assistant strength and conditioning tutor at Clemson ('86-87) before joining the Jaguars in '95.

Education: Fort Hays State University (B.S. '81), (M.S. '84). Born: Pomona, California. Family: Wife - Kathy; Children - Eric, Austin and Audra.

COACHES

Charlie JOINER

Wide Receivers

19th Year NFL Coach • 5th with Chiefs

A member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Charlie Joiner brings 36 years of expertise as an NFL player and coach to the Chiefs organization. He embarks on his fifth season as the club's wide receivers coach in 2005, his 19th year as an NFL coach. Prior to joining the Chiefs in 2001, he spent nine seasons ('92-'00) coaching wide receivers for the Buffalo Bills. During that span, Buffalo merited six playoff berths, won two AFC Championships and made appearances in Super Bowls XXVII and XXVIII with Joiner on the club's coaching staff.

In Kansas City, Joiner has effectively integrated a number of talented performers into the club's receiving corps. Johnnie Morton and Eddie Kennison combined for 117 receptions, 1,881 yards and 11 TDs in 2004. Kennison produced his finest NFL campaign last season, setting career highs with 62 catches for 1,086 yards, while adding eight TDs. Former RB Dante Hall continued to hone his skills as a wide receiver under Joiner, who is also credited with helping former CFL standout Marc Boerigter make a quick transition to the NFL game in 2002 when he produced a team-high eight TD catches.

Two of Joiner's star pupils during his nine-year stay in Buffalo were Eric Moulds and Andre Reed. Moulds earned a pair of Pro Bowl appearances under Joiner's guidance, getting his initial bid in '98 when he recorded 67 catches for a team-record 1,368 yards and nine TDs. In 2000, he was selected to his second Pro Bowl after breaking Reed's single-season reception record with 94 catches for 1,326 yards and five scores. Reed, who played with Buffalo from '85-'99, holds Bills career records for receptions (941), receiving yards (13,095) and receiving TDs (86). He ranks second in NFL history behind only Jerry Rice in both receptions and seasons with 50 or more catches (13).

Prior to joining the Bills, Joiner served five seasons ('87-'91) as the San Diego Chargers receivers coach upon concluding his playing career with the club in '86. In Kansas City he is reunited with Chiefs assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders, who began his NFL coaching career tutoring Joiner and the rest of the Chargers wideouts in '83. Joiner succeeded Saunders as the club's receivers coach in '87 when Saunders was promoted to head coach during the midpoint of Joiner's final campaign as a player in '86.

Among the WRs tutored by Joiner in San Diego was Anthony Miller, who earned back-to-back Pro Bowl berths following the '89 and '90 seasons. Miller enjoyed one of the finest campaigns of his 10-year NFL career under Joiner in '89, hauling in 75 passes for a career-high 1,252 yards and 10 TDs for the Chargers.

An 18-year NFL playing veteran, Joiner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '96 following a career which included stints with Houston ('69-'72), Cincinnati ('72-'75) and San Diego ('76-'86). He played in 239 career regular season contests, the most ever by an NFL wide receiver. He also saw action in nine career postseason contests, including the '80 and '81 AFC Championship Games. He ended his career with 750 catches for 12,146 yards and 65 TDs. Joiner earned Pro Bowl honors following the '76, '79 and '80 seasons. He was named the Chargers Most Inspirational Player seven times and was twice honored by the City of San Diego on "Charlie Joiner Day" in '84 and '86.

Joiner was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '96.

Joiner produced four 1,000-yard seasons during his tenure in San Diego and topped the 70-catch barrier three straight seasons from '79-'81. Part of one of the most prolific offenses in NFL history, Joiner's biggest years came in the heyday of the "Air Coryell" offense playing along with fellow Pro Football Hall of Famers QB Dan Fouts (HOF '93) and TE Kellen Winslow (HOF '95), as well as fellow Pro Bowl WRs, Wes Chandler and John Jefferson.

The Many, Louisiana native was a four-year letterman at Grambling from '65-'68. He was selected in the fourth round of the '69 draft by Houston as a defensive back and was traded to Cincinnati midway through the '72 campaign for RBs Fred Willis and Paul Robinson. He was traded to San Diego in '76 in exchange for DE Coy Bacon. Joiner was inducted into the Louisiana Hall of Fame in '90 and was officially enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 27, 1996, becoming just the 13th post-World War II receiver to be honored among the league's all-time greats in Canton.

Education: Grambling State (B.A. '69). Born: Many, Louisiana. Family: Wife - Dianne; Children - Jynaya and Kori.

Bob KARMELOWICZ

Defensive Line

14th Year NFL Coach • 9th with Chiefs

Entering his 14th season in the NFL and his 31st year overall in the coaching profession, Bob Karmelowicz begins his ninth campaign as Kansas City's defensive line coach in 2005. Prior to joining the Chiefs staff in '97, he spent three years with the Washington Redskins ('94-96) and two seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals ('92-93).

A former collegiate nose tackle, Karmelowicz brings a wealth of expertise, as well as a unique and enthusiastic style to his post. Among the many novel coaching techniques utilized by the ever-crafty Karmelowicz is an off-season training regiment which has included the use of the martial arts to enhance the footwork, hand-eye coordination and the leverage abilities of his linemen.

In 2004, Karmelowicz helped in the rapid development of fourth-round draftee DE Jared Allen, who led Kansas City with 9.0 sacks, the second-highest total amassed by a Chiefs rookie. Allen received a host of all-rookie accolades for his efforts, in addition to the Chiefs prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award. In total, Kansas City's 41.0 sacks on the season tied as the seventh-best tally in the league and were the Chiefs best mark since 2000. Two of Karmelowicz's brightest pupils, DE Eric Hicks (5.0 sacks) and DT John Browning (4.5 sacks) continued their steady play.

Karmelowicz has played a large role in the ongoing development of both Hicks and Browning. After joining the Chiefs as a rookie free agent in '98, Hicks ranked sixth in the NFL with a team-high 14.0 sacks in 2000 and enters the 2005 campaign fifth in Chiefs history with 40.5 career sacks. Perhaps the most impressive feat of Browning's tenure with Kansas City came in 2000 when he produced 6.0 sacks and 71 tackles after starting games at all four defensive line positions that year.

In 2001, Karmelowicz was credited with assisting another Mack Lee Hill Award winner, DT Eric Downing. Karmelowicz is also highly regarded for molding other young players into productive performers such as former Chiefs DT Tom Barndt, who started 40 games for Kansas City from '97-99 after being drafted by the club as an offensive lineman in '95.

The Chiefs have produced two of the three highest single-season sack counts in team history during Karmelowicz's tenure. In 2000, the Chiefs ranked fourth in the NFL with 51.0 sacks, the third-highest tally in team history as the club's defensive line registered 40.0 of those QB takedowns.

In his initial season with the Chiefs in '97, the club's revamped defensive front coached by Karmelowicz was a key element of the NFL's stingiest scoring defense. The club racked up 54.0 sacks, the second-highest total in franchise history, a figure which also tied for the third-best mark in the league. That pass rush was led by DE Dan Williams who paced the team with a career best 10.5 sacks in just his first year with the club. The team improved in stuffing the run as well in '97, yielding just 101.3 yards per game to rank fourth in the AFC and seventh in the league.

Karmelowicz has traditionally maximized the talents at his disposal, something he has done in his previous coaching assignments. In three seasons with Washington ('94-96), he worked with the likes of DT Sean Gilbert and DE Ritchie Owens, who led the Redskins with 11.0 sacks in '96, just his second pro campaign. During his three years ('89-91) coaching the defensive line at the University of Miami (Fla.), he helped produce a pair of top-three overall draft picks in Russell Maryland (first overall in '91) and Cortez Kennedy (third overall in '90). His defensive line was also a key link in a Hurricanes squad which led the nation in total defense in '89 and topped the country in scoring defense in '91.

The Plainville, Connecticut product began his career in the professional ranks with the Cincinnati Bengals ('92-93) after spending 16 seasons on the collegiate level. Prior to his three years at Miami, Karmelowicz enjoyed stints at Massachusetts ('80), Texas-El Paso ('81), Illinois ('82-86) and Washington State ('87-88). A three-year starter and a consensus Little All-America nose tackle at the University of Bridgeport, Karmelowicz began his coaching career under Frank Kush at Arizona State in '75 and went on to spend five seasons ('75-79) with the Sun Devils.

Education: University of Bridgeport (B.A. '72); Arizona State University (M.A. '77). Born: New Britain, Connecticut. Family: Wife - Olga; Children - Liz, Marissa and Dave.

Billy

LONG

Asst. Strength and Conditioning

5th Year NFL Coach • 5th with Chiefs

Entering his fifth full season in the NFL, Billy Long serves as the Chiefs assistant strength and conditioning coach. Long assists Jeff Hurd in the implementation of Kansas City's year-round conditioning and training regimen. He came to the Chiefs in 2001 following a nine-year stay ('92-00) at Southern University where he served as the school's strength and conditioning coach and also coached the club's offensive line.

Prior to coming to Kansas City, Long served as a longtime consultant to the St. Louis Rams organization. He originally worked with the club as the team's minority coaching intern in '94 and served as a consultant to the club starting in '95, working primarily during the club's training camp held at Western Illinois University in Macomb, Illinois. His arrival in Kansas City reunited Long with Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil, who served as the Rams head coach from '97-99.

While working with the Rams, Long became a mainstay in the locker room and was credited with initiating the "Gotta go to work!" mantra, which became a battle cry for the Rams during their Super Bowl XXXIV championship season in '99. In addition to his training camp assistance, Long frequently traveled to St. Louis to help the team prepare prior to regular season contests.

Owning 21 years of collegiate experience, Long spent four years serving as the strength and conditioning coordinator and coaching the offensive line at Arkansas - Pine Bluff from '87-91. A collegiate guard at Alabama State, Long began his coaching career at his alma mater in '81, serving as defensive line coach and as the club's strength and conditioning coach. From '82-86 he coached the offensive line in addition to his weight room duties with Alabama State.

Education: Alabama State University (B.S. '81). Born: Phenix City, Alabama. Family: Wife - Marshelle; Children - Tekia and Kyler.

Chad

O'SHEA

Assistant Special Teams

2nd Year NFL Coach • 2nd with Chiefs

Chad O'Shea enters his second season as the Chiefs assistant special teams coach in 2005 after assisting Frank Gansz, Jr. in a volunteer capacity during the 2003 campaign. O'Shea works closely with Gansz in developing and implementing all aspects of Kansas City's special teams efforts.

That duo previously worked together at the University of Houston when Gansz was the Cougars tight ends/special teams coach from '93-97. After transferring from Marshall University where he was a member of a Thundering Herd squad that claimed the '92 NCAA Division I-AA title, O'Shea spent two seasons ('94-'95) playing quarterback for Houston, captaining the Cougars as a senior.

O'Shea joined the Houston coaching staff as a graduate assistant in '96 and served as wide receivers coach in '97. When Gansz departed for the NFL coaching ranks in '98, O'Shea assumed his role as Houston's tight ends/special teams coach. In '99, O'Shea added recruiting coordinator to his duties.

In 2000, O'Shea joined the staff at Southern Mississippi where he served three seasons as that club's special teams coach and recruiting coordinator. During O'Shea's three-year tenure with the Golden Eagles, his specialty units were responsible for a remarkable 21 blocked kicks. O'Shea's father, Mike served as a longtime athletic trainer in the collegiate and NFL ranks, including a stint with the Baltimore Colts working under the legendary Ed Block.

Education: University of Houston (B.S. '95). Born: Colorado Springs, Colorado. Family: Wife - Melissa; Children - Claire and Grace.

Fred PAGAC

Linebackers

5th Year NFL Coach • 2nd with Chiefs

Entering his second campaign as the Chiefs linebackers coach in 2005, Fred Pagac (pronounced PUG-itch) embarks on his fifth season in the NFL coaching ranks after spending three seasons (2001-03) in the same capacity with Oakland. In his initial campaign with Kansas City, Pagac quickly integrated a number of young faces into the starting lineup while working with a Chiefs linebacking corps depleted by season-ending injuries to LBs Mike Maslowski and Shawn Barber.

Under Pagac's tutelage in 2004 third-year LB Scott Fujita led the squad for a second consecutive season, posting 112 tackles. Meanwhile, second-year LB Kawika Mitchell rebounded from an early-season ankle injury to start 12 games and was the club's runner-up on the tackle chart with 85 stops. Perhaps Pagac's best work came with LB Monty Beisel, who began training camp at ROLB before starting five games at MLB. When LOLB Shawn Barber was lost for the year in midseason, Beisel stepped in to start four contests at that position. Despite missing five games himself with a calf injury, Beisel still finished fourth on the squad with 64 tackles. But rapidly developing young talent is nothing new for Pagac. During his tenure with Oakland, he was credited with helping LB Napoleon Harris make an immediate contribution for the Raiders after being selected in the first round of the 2002 NFL Draft.

Owning 23 seasons of coaching experience, the 53-year old Pagac spent 19 years as an assistant coach at his alma mater of Ohio State before joining the Raiders in 2001. The Richeyville, Pennsylvania native served as the Buckeyes defensive coordinator from '96-99 and served as assistant head coach under John Cooper in 2000. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the legendary Woody Hayes in '78 before joining the Buckeyes staff on a full-time basis under Earle Bruce in '82.

In '98, his Ohio State squad led the nation in rushing defense, ranked second in pass defense and was fourth in total defense. That season he was one of five finalists for the Frank Broyles Award as the nation's outstanding assistant coach at the collegiate level.

In '97, Ohio State allowed 170 points to rank second in the country in scoring defense. That season the club also ranked second in the NCAA in pass efficiency. In '96, the Buckeyes were first in the nation in defensive pass efficiency and ranked second in scoring defense, allowing just 131 points, the fewest surrendered by Ohio State since '79.

During his tenure as an assistant at Ohio State, Pagac was associated with 10 Buckeyes defensive performers who earned All-America honors, including future NFL Pro Bowl LBs Chris Spielman and Pepper Johnson. That prestigious list includes numerous active NFL performers such as LB Mike Vrabel (New England), CB Shawn Springs (Washington), LB Na'il Digs (Green Bay) and S Mike Doss (Indianapolis). CB Antoine Winfield (Minnesota) was a two-time All-America pick at Ohio State and claimed the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back as a senior in '98. Other notable NFL performers who worked as collegiate players under Pagac include San Francisco CB Ahmed Plummer, who was the Buckeyes MVP in '99, as well as current Buffalo CB Nate Clements. Former New England LB Andy Katzenmoyer won All-America accolades with the Buckeyes in '97 and won the Butkus Award as the country's top collegiate linebacker that season.

A three-year starter at tight end for Ohio State from '71-73, Pagac was part of Buckeyes squads that amassed an incredible 25-6-2 record over his playing career, including a 19-3 mark in Big Ten play. During his senior campaign in '73, Ohio State posted a 10-0-1 mark and finished second in the final AP poll. Pagac entered the NFL ranks as a player with the Chicago Bears, where he won the club's prestigious Brian Piccolo Award as a rookie in '74. Pagac also saw duty in 13 games for Tampa Bay during that franchise's inaugural season in '76.

Education: Ohio State University (B.A. '75). Born: Richeyville, Pennsylvania. Family: Wife - Bernie; Children - daughter Jennifer and a son Fred, Jr., who played linebacker for the Frankfurt Galaxy in 2005.

Bob SAUNDERS

Offensive Assistant

2nd Year NFL Coach • 2nd with Chiefs

Bob Saunders enters his second season in a full-time capacity with the Chiefs as an offensive assistant coach after spending the 2002-03 seasons as an offensive intern with the club. Saunders coordinates the club's offensive self-scouting duties and is responsible for computer analysis, statistical and video breakdowns of opponents on a weekly basis, as well as monitoring the club's offensive tendencies. In addition to coordinating research and carrying out special projects for Kansas City's offensive coaching staff, he also designs and diagrams the club's offensive playbook, as well as assisting Charlie Joiner with the Chiefs wide receivers.

As an offensive intern for two seasons, Saunders served in a similar capacity for the club assisting the club's offensive staff with a special emphasis on researching the club's offensive tendencies in the passing game and in the Red Zone. Prior to joining the Chiefs, Saunders gained two years of administrative experience in professional sports, serving as a Marketing and Community Relations intern for the Kansas City Wizards of Major League Soccer.

Saunders transferred to Missouri - Kansas City after serving as a wide receiver and defensive back at Southern Methodist University, where he played collegiately under former Chiefs assistant coach Tom Rossley, who currently serves as the offensive coordinator of the Green Bay Packers. Saunders was a was also a recipient of the SMU's prestigious Alumni Scholarship for Excellence in Leadership. He embarked on his college career after starting in both football and baseball at Kansas City's Rockhurst High School.

Education: Southern Methodist University, University of Missouri - Kansas City (B.A. 2002). Born: Walnut Creek, California. Family: Wife - Gina.

IN MEMORIAM

MARK HATLEY 1949-2004

The National Football League lost a longtime employee and the Chiefs lost a trusted friend on July 27, 2004 when Mark Hatley died unexpectedly of a heart attack. Known to most as simply "Hat" - a moniker befitting his Texas panhandle roots - Hatley was a pivotal contributor to the Chiefs success in the '90s. He began his tenure in Kansas City as the club's linebackers coach ('87) before serving as a scout ('88-91) and Director of Pro Personnel ('91-96). "The NFL lost a wonderful, talented and devoted person," Chiefs President Carl Peterson observed. "I believe Mark Hatley to be one of the most talented evaluators of player personnel that I've ever encountered."

Renowned for his ability to identify free agent talent, Hatley was instrumental in the acquisition of Chiefs Pro Bowlers such as RB Marcus Allen, FB Kimble Anders, CB James Hasty and DT Dan Saleaumua, as well as a number of other key contributors such as DE Vaughn Booker, CB/S Mark Collins, LB Tracy Simien and RB Barry Word, just to name a few.

Hatley departed the Chiefs following the '96 season, serving as Vice President of Player Personnel for the Chicago Bears ('97-01) and Vice President of Football Operations for the Green Bay Packers (2002-04). During his stint with the Bears, he drafted back-to-back NFL Rookies of the Year in LB Brian Urlacher (2000) and RB Anthony Thomas (2001). In 2001, Chicago won its first NFC Central title since '90 thanks to a roster featuring all 22 starters who were acquired by Hatley.

A collegiate linebacker at Oklahoma State and a longtime coach in the NCAA ranks, Hatley began his NFL career coaching the secondary for New Orleans in '85 under O.A. "Bum" Phillips. "He was a thorough football man," recalled Phillips. "As a scout, I don't believe there was anyone better. He was not only a good judge of talent, he was a good judge of people."

Mark Hatley is survived by his wife Claudia and his daughter Eliza.

James SAXON

Running Backs

Former Chiefs running back James Saxon begins his sixth season as an NFL coach in 2005, his ninth season of coaching overall. After enjoying a four-year playing career with Kansas City from '88-91, Saxon embarks on his fifth year of tutoring the club's running backs. Prior to joining the Kansas City coaching staff in 2001, he spent one season in the same capacity with the Buffalo Bills.

Saxon's return to the Chiefs has coincided with the emergence of three-time Pro Bowl RB Priest Holmes as one of the NFL's finest all-purpose performers. Under Saxon's guidance Holmes has scored more total TDs (66) and more rushing TDs (62) over the past three seasons (2002-04) than any other player in a three-year span in NFL history, an especially remarkable feat considering that Holmes missed the final eight games of the 2004 campaign with a knee injury.

Holmes was named the 2002 NFL Offensive Player of the Year by the Associated Press after breaking his own single-season franchise record with 1,615 rushing yards in 2002 after becoming just the second player in team history to lead the league in rushing with 1,555 ground yards in 2001. Ironically, Saxon also had a hand in Christian Okoye's league-leading rushing effort in '89, serving as the lead blocker for Okoye — who Holmes surpassed as the franchise's all-time leading rusher in 2004 — who paced the NFL with 1,480 ground yards. A true multi-purpose threat, Holmes also set Chiefs seasonal running back records with 74 receptions and 690 receiving yards. In 2002, Holmes accumulated 2,287 yards from scrimmage, the fourth-highest total in NFL history.

However, Holmes isn't the only Pro Bowl performer to work under Saxon as FB Tony Richardson has earned well-deserved back-to-back Pro Bowl nods. With Richardson serving as the Chiefs lead blocker, Holmes proceeded to set an NFL single-season record with 27 rushing TDs in 2003. Saxon has also had a hand in developing two other talented runners during his tenure in Kansas City — RB Derrick Byalock and 2003 first-round pick RB Larry Johnson. Byalock ran for 186 yards in his first NFL start in 2004, the fifth-best single-day performance in team history. Meanwhile, Johnson rattled off three 100-yard rushing games, one 100-yard receiving effort and nine rushing TDs in the season's final six games.

Saxon won the Mack Lee Hill Award as a rookie in '88.

Saxon joined Miami as a "Plan B" free agent in '92. In three seasons with the Dolphins ('92-94), he played in 48 games (seven starts), registering 17 carries for 36 yards to go with 32 catches for 192 yards. He also amassed 24 tackles on special teams for the Dolphins. He returned to the Chiefs for training camp in '95, but was acquired by Philadelphia prior to the start of the regular season, playing in nine contests for the Eagles.

During the course of his 111-game NFL career, the versatile Saxon was utilized as a fullback, halfback, receiver, blocker, kickoff returner and special teams coverage man. He concluded his career with 533 rushing yards on 145 carries with five TDs while also hauling in 69 receptions for 515 yards.

A native of Beaufort, South Carolina, Saxon was an honorable mention All-America fullback at San Jose State, where he produced 118 carries for 609 yards and nine TDs, as well as 78 receptions for 732 yards and four scores. He also threw four TD passes and returned 22 kickoffs. Saxon was a prep standout at Battery Creek High School in Burton, South Carolina before entering the collegiate ranks.

Education: San Jose State, California State University at Hayward (B.A. 2000). Born: Beaufort, South Carolina. Family: Wife - Shannon; Child - Devin.

Terry SHEA

Quarterbacks

5th Year NFL Coach • 4th with Chiefs

Terry Shea returns to the Chiefs as Kansas City's quarterbacks coach in 2005 after serving a one-year stint as Chicago's offensive coordinator. Owning an extensive offensive resume with 35 years of coaching experience, Shea comes from the coaching family tree of Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Walsh and has been particularly adept at grooming players at the quarterback position during his distinguished coaching career.

In his second tour of duty with Kansas City, Shea will be reunited with Chiefs QB Trent Green. During their first three seasons working together from 2001-03, Green developed into one of the NFL's most consistent passers. Working under Shea's guidance in 2003, Green earned his initial Pro Bowl berth and became just the second signal caller in franchise history to register a 4,000-yard campaign, throwing for 4,039 yards. During the course of that 2003 season Green completed 63.1% of his passes (330 of 523) with 24 TDs, while getting picked off just 12 times, numbers that translated into a stellar 92.6 rating.

During his collegiate coaching career, Shea was instrumental in the tutelage of numerous signal-callers who went on to enjoy productive NFL careers. Shea's most recent collegiate pupils playing in the NFL are three-time Pro Bowl QB Jeff Garcia, who played for Shea at San Jose State in '90-91 and Philadelphia's Mike McMahon, who played for Shea during his tenure at Rutgers.

In total, Shea owns seven seasons of experience as a collegiate head coach. He came to Kansas City in 2001 after spending five years ('96-00) as the head coach at Rutgers University. He also served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the Scarlet Knights. In '98, he was named the Big East Coach of the Year after orchestrating the second-biggest one-year turnaround in NCAA Division I history by taking a team which finished 0-11 in '97 and guiding them to a 5-6 mark just a year later.

Prior to a one-year stint with the CFL's British Columbia Lions in '95, Shea spent three seasons ('92-94) as the associate head coach and offensive coordinator under head coach Bill Walsh at Stanford. In Shea's initial season with the Cardinal, Stanford won its first conference title since '71 and earned a berth in the '93 Blockbuster Bowl against Penn State. The Cardinal would go on to conclude the year with a 10-3 mark, the first 10-win season the institution had seen since '40, thanks in large part to Shea's offensive unit which produced a 24-3 postseason victory over the Nittany Lions.

Shea joined the Cardinal after his two-year head coaching stint at San Jose State from '90-91 where he compiled a 15-6-2 record and led the school to a pair of Big West titles. In his initial year as head coach at San Jose State in '90, he guided the team to a 9-2-1 record and was named Pro Football Weekly's "National Coach of the Year." Shea is part of a distinguished list of Chiefs personnel with connections to San Jose State, where head coach Dick Vermeil played QB from '56-58, V.P. of Football Operations/Player Personnel Lynn Stiles served as head coach from '76-78, assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders played wide receiver and defensive back from '66-69 and running backs coach James Saxon played there from '84-87.

Shea had previously served as offensive coordinator at San Jose State from '84-86. In '86, his Spartan offense led the nation in both total offense and passing offense. Between his stints at San Jose State, he spent three years ('87-89) as the offensive coordinator at the University of California under head coach Bruce Snyder.

The San Mateo, California native began his NCAA Division I coaching career at Utah State and coached the secondary, special teams, quarterbacks and receivers during his tenure with that team from '76-81. Two of his star QBs at Utah State were Eric Hipple and Bob Gagliano who each went on to pursue NFL playing careers. Shea joined Utah State after a six-year stint at Mt. Hood Community College in Gresham, Oregon from '70-75, where he coached the passing game, the secondary and special teams.

Shea served as a college quarterback at the University of Oregon from '65-67. Following his graduation, he inaugurated his coaching career with a two-year tour of duty ('68-69) as a graduate assistant for the Ducks. He is also credited with authoring "The Quarterback" and producing an instructional video, "The Making of a Quarterback."

Education: University of Oregon (B.S. '68), (M.A. '70). Born: San Mateo, California. Family: Wife - Susan Town; Children - Jennifer, Garrett and Daniel.

Mike SOLARI

Offensive Line

17th Year NFL Coach • 9th with Chiefs

Entering his 17th season as an NFL coach, Mike Solari begins his ninth campaign in Kansas City guiding the Chiefs offensive line. The 50-year-old Solari joined the club in '97 after spending the previous five seasons as the tight ends/assistant offensive line coach for the San Francisco 49ers.

Solari works in close conjunction with assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders in developing and implementing Kansas City's game plans in the running game. That collaboration has helped the Chiefs average 134.4 rushing yards per game over the past four seasons, the NFL's fourth-best mark over that span. During Solari's tenure, the Chiefs have ranked among the league's top five clubs in rushing on four different occasions ('97, '99, 2002 and 2004). Thanks in large part to Kansas City's highly-respected blocking unit, the Chiefs led the NFL in total offense for the first time in team history in 2004, averaging 418.4 yards per game, while also ranking in the NFL's top five in scoring offense and passing offense.

Those gaudy totals are due in large part to Solari's well-schooled offensive front. In 2004, Kansas City became the first AFC team since the '98 Broncos to boast a trio of Pro Bowl offensive linemen in the same season, thanks to G Will Shields and T Willie Roaf who each earned their 10th Pro Bowl berths. Meanwhile, under Solari's guidance, G Brian Waters emerged as one of the league's finest young players at his position, becoming the NFL's first undrafted guard to earn a Pro Bowl berth since Dallas G Nate Newton in '98.

Running behind Kansas City's offensive line, three-time Pro Bowl RB Priest Holmes has produced more rushing TDs (62) from 2002-04, the highest total of any player in NFL history over a three-year span. He also won the NFL's rushing crown with 1,555 yards in 2001 and topped that total with a team-record 1,615 rushing yards in 2002.

Anchored by Solari's vaunted offensive front, Kansas City's offense led the NFL in scoring in both 2003 and 2002. During the 2002 campaign, the Chiefs averaged 148.6 rushing yards per game, 5.15 yards per rush and allowed just 21.0 sacks, all figures that ranked as the second-lowest marks in team history. Maintaining consistency despite constant changes in personnel and offensive philosophy has been one of Solari's trademarks since coming to Kansas City. That season, Kansas City's blocking corps boasted a revamped tackle tandem with Roaf starting at left tackle and John Tait making the move to the right side. In 2001, the Chiefs averaged 354.6 yards of total offense to rank fifth in the NFL with a new center in Casey Wiegmann and a pair of other starters — LG Brian Waters and RT Marcus Spears — who finished the season at positions other than the ones where they started the year. Despite having just one 100-yard rusher in '99, Kansas City ranked fourth in the league in rushing with 130.1 yards per game.

Kansas City's offensive trenchmen have allowed an average of just 30.8 sacks per season since Solari joined the club in '97, a figure that ties as the fifth-lowest mark in the league over that span. In addition to coaching current Pro Bowlers such as Shields, Roaf and Waters, Solari has also been responsible for tutoring other highly-decorated offensive linemen. In '99, veteran C Tim Grunhard became the first Chiefs center to earn a Pro Bowl nod since Jack Rudnay in '77, while G Dave Sztot received All-Pro recognition following the '97 campaign. In '98, Solari's offensive line captured all of the club's top individual honors. Shields was the team's only Pro Bowl pick, while Glenn Parker started at three different offensive line positions to merit team MVP honors and T Victor Riley earned the club's Mack Lee Hill Award.

During his tenure in San Francisco ('92-96), Solari was part of the club's run to a victory in Super Bowl XXIX and was responsible for the development of TE Brent Jones who made four Pro Bowl appearances and set a franchise record for receptions by a tight end with 68 catches in '93. Solari began his NFL coaching career with a two-year stint under Tom Landry with the Dallas Cowboys ('87-88) where he served as an assistant offensive line and special teams coach.

He served as the offensive line coach for the Phoenix Cardinals in '89 and held the same capacity for two seasons at Alabama before joining the 49ers in '92. He began his coaching career at Mission Bay (Cal.) High School in '76, followed by stints at Mira Costa Junior College ('78) and U.S. International ('79). In '80, he helped lead Boise State to the NCAA Division I-AA championship. After stints at the University of Cincinnati ('81-82) and Kansas ('83-85), Solari spent one season as the offensive coordinator at Pitt ('86).

Education: San Diego State University (B.A. '76). Born: Daly City, California. Family: Wife - Patti; Children - Tamara, Stephanie and Michael.

Jason VERDUZCO

Tight Ends

6th Year NFL Coach • 5th with Chiefs

Jason Verduzco embarks on his fifth season with the Chiefs in 2005 and will mentor Kansas City's tight ends this season, continuing his growth as an offensive coach. Owning previous experience as an offensive coordinator in the collegiate ranks, Verduzco spent the 2004 campaign as Kansas City's quarterbacks coach.

A former collegiate signal caller at the University of Illinois, Verduzco utilized his hands-on experience to help QB Trent Green enjoy his most prolific NFL season a year ago. Green established franchise single-season records for passing yards (4,591) and passes of 20+ yards (59), while also setting personal standards for completions (369), attempts (556), completion percentage (66.37%) and TD passes (27). Ironically, Green was a Big Ten competitor at Indiana University during Verduzco's playing days.

Verduzco joined Kansas City in 2001 after serving as an offensive assistant for the Washington Redskins in 2000. He spent his first two seasons with Kansas City as an offensive assistant/quality control coach before taking on an additional responsibilities as an offensive assistant in 2003 working with receivers coach Charlie Joiner and assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders.

In addition to his role working with Kansas City's tight ends, Verduzco will continue to work in close conjunction with Saunders on a year-round basis in devising and implementing the club's gameplan in the passing game. He has also served as the club's coach-to-quarterback communicator on gamedays for the past four seasons.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, the 35-year-old Verduzco spent six seasons as a coach on the collegiate level, including a three-year stint from '97-99 as a defensive assistant at his alma mater, the University of Illinois. Verduzco assisted head coach Ron Turner's staff which inherited an 0-11 program and quickly transformed them into '99 MicronPC.com Bowl champions with a 63-21 victory against Virginia. Verduzco joined the Fighting Illini coaching staff following a three-year stay as the offensive coordinator at New York's Hamilton College ('94-96).

Verduzco, who spent his prep career at Antioch (California) High School, played one season at quarterback for the Canadian Football League's British Columbia Lions ('93) after a stellar four-year career as the signal caller for Illinois ('89-92), where he led the Fighting Illini to a 30-17-1 record. At the conclusion of his college career, Verduzco ranked second in the Illini annals in pass attempts (1,083), completions (678), passing yards (7,532) and TDs (42) trailing only Jack Trudeau. With Verduzco at the controls of the Illinois offense, the Illini participated in four consecutive bowl games ('90 Florida Citrus, '91 Hall of Fame, '91 John Hancock and '92 Holiday Bowl).

During his senior campaign in '92, Verduzco was named second-team All-Big Ten while taking home Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week honors twice. An honorable mention All-America selection by Football News, Verduzco ended his career as just the eighth player in Big Ten history to top the 7,000-yard plateau in career passing yards. Upon graduation from Illinois in '93, Verduzco ranked sixth on the Big Ten's all-time passing list, just behind Ohio State's Art Schlichter (7,547).

Education: Illinois (B.A. '93). Born: Walnut Creek, California. Family: Wife - Jenny.

Darvin WALLIS

Defensive Asst./Quality Control

24th Year NFL Coach • 17th with Chiefs

Darvin Wallis, a 34-year coaching veteran, is now in his 17th year of service with the Chiefs as a defensive assistant/quality control coach. Wallis owns 24 years of NFL coaching experience, all of which have been spent in the AFC. He has also been a member of 13 playoff teams (eight with Kansas City and five with Cleveland), the most postseason appearances of any current member of the Kansas City coaching staff. Wallis joins Al Saunders (15 years), as well as former Chiefs assistants Tom Pratt (21 years), Tom Bettis (13 years) and Kurt Schottenheimer (12 years) as one of only five assistant coaches in Chiefs history to serve more than one full decade with the club. Wallis has served in his present role with the Chiefs since '89. In addition, Wallis was one of only 19 coaches in NFL history to work for a team in all 10 years of a 100-win decade as Kansas City produced a 102-58 record from '90-99.

Wallis carries out a myriad of responsibilities in his role with the Chiefs. In addition to assisting with the club's defensive backs, he is also charged with the team's defensive game analysis, where he compiles comprehensive weekly scouting reports on opposing offenses including a complete breakdown of their formations, schemes, concepts and tendencies based on hours of research and video study. Wallis also serves as the club's defensive quality control coordinator where his duties include self-scouting, the organization of computer data, as well as the design and analysis of video cut-ups. He is also responsible for special research projects in addition to compiling the club's comprehensive defensive playbook on an annual basis. Before joining the Chiefs, the 56-year-old Wallis served in a similar capacity for seven years under Marty Schottenheimer with the Cleveland Browns ('82-88) before coming to Kansas City in '89.

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, the Fort Branch, Indiana native tutored tight ends and tackles at the University of Mississippi ('80-81), served as offensive line and strength coach at Tulane University ('78-79), and oversaw the offensive front at Adams State College ('76-77) in Alamosa, Colorado. Wallis began his coaching career at Wilcox High School in Wilcox, Arizona ('72) before taking the head coaching reigns at Ajo High School in Ajo, Arizona ('73-75). In '99, Wallis completed his doctorate degree in Sport Administration from the University of Kansas with dissertation honors.

Education: University of Arizona (B.A. '72); Adams State College (M.A. '78); University of Kansas (Ph.D. '99). Born: Ft. Branch, Indiana. Family: Wife - Vicky; Children - Tyson, who is a freshman on the football squad at Drake University, Darvin, Jr. and Austin.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

BILL KUCHARICH VICE PRESIDENT OF PRO PERSONNEL

Bill Kuharich, regarded as one of the most respected evaluators of talent in the NFL, was promoted to Vice President of Pro Personnel in May of 2003 by Chiefs President Carl Peterson. Kuharich joined the Chiefs as Director of Pro Personnel in 2000 after spending 14 seasons with the New Orleans Saints. He spent his last three seasons with the Saints as that club's President, General Manager and Chief Operating Officer. Kuharich oversees Kansas City's scouting of all players with professional experience, including NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League, as well as the NFL and all other professional leagues.

The Skokie, Illinois native owns 20 years of pro football experience. Kuharich previously worked with Chiefs President Carl Peterson in the USFL and also learned the trade from the late Pro Football Hall of Famer Jim Finks in New Orleans.

Kuharich began his career under Peterson with the USFL's Philadelphia Stars in '83 and was promoted to Assistant General Manager/Director of Player Personnel the following year. During the league's three-year existence, the Stars compiled a 48-13-1 overall record, made three championship game appearances and won two league titles.

In '86, he began his tenure under Finks with New Orleans as Director of Player Personnel, serving in that role until '93. Finks and Kuharich inherited a Saints franchise which had never had a winning season or been to the playoffs and proceeded to construct a squad which earned four postseason berths over a six-year span from '87-'92. Kuharich later served as New Orleans' Vice President of Football Operations ('94-'95) and Executive Vice President/General Manager ('96) before being named the franchise's top executive in '97.

Kuharich began his football career as a graduate assistant at Brown in '76 before moving to the University of Hawaii in '77. The following year he went to work for the U.S. Department of Defense, while still serving as a volunteer assistant at Georgetown. In '79 he returned to coaching at St. Lawrence. He also served as an assistant at Columbia from '80-'81 before joining Peterson in the USFL.

Education: St. Lawrence (M.E. '81), Middlebury College (B.A. '76). Family: Wife - Betsy; Children - Megan, Alexis and Kelli. Kuharich's father, the late Joe Kuharich, served as a college head coach at San Francisco ('48-'51), and Notre Dame ('59-'62). The elder Kuharich also served as an NFL head coach with the Chicago Cardinals ('52) and Washington Redskins ('54-'58), in addition to a stint as the head coach/general manager of the Philadelphia Eagles ('64-'68).

RON HUDSON PRO PERSONNEL ASSISTANT

Ron Hudson enters his first year with the Chiefs as a pro personnel assistant. Hudson evaluates players with pro experience and serves as the club's advance scout.

A longtime coach at the collegiate level, Hudson most recently served as offensive coordinator and QBs coach at Kentucky (2003-04) after an eight-year stint at Kansas State ('95-'02). The Oakland, California native also held assistant coaching posts at Ohio State ('88-'94), Illinois ('87), Notre Dame ('82-'85), UCLA ('79-'81), Oregon ('77-'78), California ('69-'70, '72-'76) and Stanford ('71).

A member of staffs led by Mike White at both Illinois and Cal, Hudson was also on the coaching staff of the USFL's Memphis Showboats in '86. Hudson competed in basketball, track and rugby during his collegiate career at Diablo Valley College and Cal. He also played football during a tour of duty in the Marine Corps.

Education: University of California (B.A. '69).

JIM CRINER PRO/COLLEGE SCOUT

Jim Criner enters his fourth year evaluating both college and pro talent. Prior to coming to Kansas City in 2002, he spent one season as the head coach of the XFL's Las Vegas Outlaws and enjoyed a six-year stint as head coach of the Scottish Claymores of NFL Europe from '95-'00. In '96, he guided the Claymores to a 32-27

World Bowl victory over Frankfurt. He also served as the offensive line coach of the World League's Sacramento Surge in '91-'92.

Prior to serving as head coach at Iowa State ('83-'86), the Lorton, Arkansas native spent a seven-year stint in the same role at Boise State ('76-'82) where he guided the Broncos to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship in '80. He previously enjoyed a three-year tenure as an assistant at UCLA in '73-'75, serving on head coach Dick Vermeil's staff which also included Carl Peterson and Lynn Stiles.

Before joining the Bruins, he held assistant coaching posts at Utah ('67), Cal State - Hayward ('68), California ('69-'71) and BYU ('72). Criner began his coaching career with a four-year stint in the California high school ranks from '63-'66.

Education: Cal Poly Pomona (B.A. '63). Family: Wife - Ann; Children - Mark and Kelli.

CHUCK COOK DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Now in his 22nd season with the Chiefs, Chuck Cook enters his ninth season as Director of College Scouting. He was promoted to that post in May of '97 after serving 13 years as a regional scout for the club, spending the majority of his efforts scouring the country's Southeast region for college talent.

The Andalusia, Alabama native coordinates the club's college scouting efforts in preparation for the annual NFL Draft. Thanks to the efforts of Cook and his scouting staff, the Chiefs have selected an impressive resume of college talent during his tenure. Cook originally joined the Chiefs staff in '84 after serving as an offensive assistant with the USFL's Arizona Wranglers ('82-83).

He began his coaching career under Al Kincaid at the University of Wyoming in '80 and also worked with the Cowboys in '81. Cook played wide receiver, running back and defensive back at Southern Mississippi. He was in the training camps of both the Giants and Jets prior to embarking on his coaching career. He was inducted into the Southern Miss Hall of Fame in '93. His father, Hamp, served as a longtime scout with the New Orleans Saints.

Education: Southern Mississippi (B.A. '80). Family: Wife - Carla; Children - twin daughters Carley and Cori, and a son Colby.

BRUCE LEMMERMAN REGIONAL SCOUT/ SCOUTING COORDINATOR

Bruce Lemmerman enters his sixth season with Kansas City. Lemmerman evaluates talent in the West region and coordinates the efforts of the club's other college scouts. He joined the Chiefs in 2000 after spending six seasons as Director of College Scouting for the New Orleans Saints.

Prior to his stint with the Saints, Lemmerman served as Director of Operations for the CFL's Edmonton Eskimos from '89-94 after two years with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. He had also previously served as an offensive coach with the Eskimos from '81-82.

The Los Angeles native coached receivers, tight ends and offensive backs for the Houston Oilers from '84-85 after serving as offensive coordinator of the USFL's Los Angeles Express in '83. Also a collegiate baseball standout at California - Northridge, Lemmerman served as a pro QB for Atlanta ('68-70), as well as Edmonton ('71-79) and Hamilton ('80) in the CFL ranks.

Education: University of California - Northridge (B.A. '68). Family: Wife - Brigitte; Children - Lisa and Jennifer.

DON GREGORY NATIONAL SCOUT

Don Gregory enters his fifth year with Kansas City. He serves as a national scout in the South and Southeast. He previously held the post of Director of Player Personnel for the XFL's Las Vegas Outlaws in 2001.

Prior to the XFL, he worked as a scout for San Diego ('95-99). Before entering the NFL ranks, Gregory also enjoyed player personnel stops in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos ('86-90, '92-93) and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers ('93-94). He scouted the Northwest for the San Antonio Riders of the World League of American Football (WLAF) from '90-91.

Gregory played collegiately at Wenatchee Valley College ('74-75), Portland State University ('76) and Whitworth College ('77-78). Born in Pearl City, Hawaii, Gregory moved to Great Falls, Montana in the sixth grade.

Education: Whitworth College (B.S. '79) Family: Single.

JOHN BONAVENTURA AREA SCOUT

John Bonaventura enters his fourth year with the Chiefs and evaluates talent in the Big 12 region. Prior to joining Kansas City he spent the 2001 season as a football administrator for the XFL's Las Vegas Outlaws.

Bonaventura served as an assistant coach at Sweetwater High School in National City, California for three seasons prior to joining the XFL. The Canastota, New York native also served as an assistant at Sonoma State University from '94-95 and at San Francisco State in '89. A collegiate wide receiver at San Francisco State, Bonaventura also served as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Nevada from '90-92.

Education: San Francisco State University (B.A. '90); National University (M.A. '00). Family: Wife - Annette; Child - Anthony.

CORNELL GOWDY AREA SCOUT

Cornell Gowdy begins his third year as an area scout for the Chiefs in 2005, evaluating talent for the club in the Northeast. Prior to joining Kansas City, he spent six seasons ('97-02) as a scout with New Orleans. Gowdy was an area scout for National Football Scouting, Inc. from '96-97, evaluating draft-eligible players.

A collegiate defensive back at Morgan State, Gowdy entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with Pittsburgh in '85 and owns NFL playing experience with Dallas ('86) and Pittsburgh ('87-88). Gowdy spent eight years working in the financial world before beginning his scouting career in '96, working for Coverall ('90-91), Perot Systems Corporation ('92-93) and the Federal National Mortgage Association ('93-96).

Education: Morgan State University (MBA '87), (B.S. '85). Family: Wife - Sonya; Children - Courtney and Taylor.

TERRANCE GRAY AREA SCOUT

Terrance Gray enters his third year with the Chiefs and his first as a scout, evaluating talent on a national level for the club. He previously worked as Kansas City's Player Development Coordinator. He joined the team in 2003 after serving as a Player Development intern for the NFL.

The Brooklyn, New York native was a two-year letterman as a cornerback for Oregon State ('99-00) after beginning his collegiate career at Palomar Junior College in San Marcos, California where he captained the squad as a sophomore and was named a first-team All-America JUCO selection. Gray was a prep standout as a quarterback at Bayside High School in Queens, New York where he was named team MVP as a senior and was a first-team All-Queens selection of the New York Daily News.

Education: Oregon State University (B.S. 2002). Family: Single.

MATT LITTLEFIELD AREA SCOUT

Matt Littlefield enters his third year with the Chiefs as an area scout in 2005, evaluating talent in the Big Ten region after spending three seasons (2000-02) with the Jacksonville Jaguars. He served as that club's Assistant Director of Pro Scouting in 2002, where he coordinated the scouting of NFL Europe and other pro leagues after spending his initial two years with the club as a Scouting Assistant.

Littlefield began his NFL career as an intern in Kansas City's public relations office in '95. After spending time working with the Chiefs marketing and personnel departments in '96, Littlefield's first full-time NFL assignment came as a Football Operations Assistant with the St. Louis Rams ('97-99). During his three-year tenure with the Rams - which included the club's Super Bowl XXXIV season in '99 - he worked closely with current Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil and current Chiefs Vice President of Football Operations/Player Personnel Lynn Stiles.

Education: Gettysburg College (B.S. '95). Family: Wife - Cindy.

GREG OLEJACK AREA SCOUT

Greg Olejack enters his sixth year as an area scout for Kansas City, evaluating college talent in the Southeast. Prior to joining the Chiefs, Olejack coached the offensive line coach at Hawaii from '97-99. The Whitehall, Pennsylvania native previously spent four years as head coach of Muhlenberg College in Allentown, PA. He also has enjoyed college coaching stints at Richmond, Brown, Villanova and Tulane. A former collegiate player, Olejack began his collegiate career at New Mexico Military Institute before spending two seasons at the University of Louisville.

He began his coaching tenure with stints at Clarksville High School in Clarksville, Indiana and Garden City Community College in Garden City, Kansas before joining the Green Wave of Tulane in '81.

Education: Tulane University (M.E. '84), University of Louisville (B.S. '77). Family: Wife - Meg; Children - Emily and Andrew.

WALLACE BENNETT VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES & MARKETING

Wallace Bennett, now in his 11th full season with the Chiefs, was promoted to Vice President of Sales and Marketing in March of '99. He previously served as the club's Director of Sales and Marketing since February of '96 after originally joining the team as Director of Sales in October of '94. Bennett oversees all areas of sales, marketing, promotions, advertising and gameday production for the Chiefs and Kansas City Wizards soccer team. In addition, he supervises the sales and marketing efforts for all official team publications, as well as the Chiefs internet site.

During his tenure, many fan-oriented initiatives have been implemented in Kansas City, including a $3 million renovation of Arrowhead's concession facilities, as well as the installation of new video boards with a digital control room. In addition, Arrowhead has hosted a number of major college football games, including a three Big 12 Championship Games.

A native of Jacksonville, Florida, Bennett came to Kansas City after 18 years with the IBM Corporation. He began his career with the Fortune 500 company in '76 as a marketing representative and rose through the corporate ranks prior to joining the Chiefs organization in '94.

PUBLIC RELATIONS

BOB MOORE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

With 28 years of experience as a publicist, Bob Moore embarks on his 17th season as the Chiefs Director of Public Relations. He is responsible for coordinating all of the club's public and media relations efforts. He also serves as the team's official spokesperson.

Moore joined the Chiefs after serving as Vice President of Marketing and Corporate Communications for The Patt Organization, a Pennsylvania-based real estate development firm. From '82-'85, Moore was the Director of Public Relations for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the United States Football League. It was there that he began his long association with Carl Peterson - now the President of the Chiefs - and joined Peterson in Kansas City in '89.

Prior to joining the two-time USFL champion Stars, the Altoona, Pennsylvania native served as the Sports Information Director at both Drexel University ('79-'82) in Philadelphia and Saint Francis College (PA) ('76-'78). He also acted in a number of capacities for Gettysburg National Military Park ('78-'79). Moore is a founding member of the National Advisory Board of Trustees for The Civil War Preservation Trust, the largest non-profit battlefield preservation organization in the United States and is a former member of the organization's National Advisory Board. He currently serves on the board of the Jackson County (MO) Historical Society. Education: Saint Francis College (B.A. '69). Family: Wife - Maggie; Child - Mandy, a senior at Villanova University.

PETE MORIS ASSOCIATE DIR. OF PUBLIC RELATIONS

Now in his 12th season with the Chiefs, Pete Moris was promoted to Associate Director of Public Relations in 2001 after serving as Assistant Director since '99. A member of the Chiefs staff since '94, Moris manages the day-to-day operations of the PR Department, serving as the Chiefs network television liaison and facilitating national media requests.

Moris is the Chairman of the NFL Public Relations Statistics Committee and serves as editor of the club's publications. The Mt. Hope, Wisconsin native also contributes as a columnist for kcchiefs.com in addition to overseeing research and special projects for the Chiefs administration and football staff.

A '93 graduate of Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, with degrees in English - Writing and Speech Communication - Public Relations, Moris was a four-year member of the Duhawk basketball squad, serving as a team captain his senior year. He served as a training camp intern with the Indianapolis Colts in '92 and spent a year working in the University of Florida SID office before joining the Chiefs in '94. Moris and his wife are both members of the Wisconsin Historical Society and are active supporters of the Potosi Brewery Foundation in Potosi, WI. Education: Loras College (B.A. '93). Family: Wife - Lisa; Child - Madison.

PATRICK HERB PUBLICATIONS COORDINATOR

Patrick Herb embarks on his fifth season with the Chiefs. He was named Publications Coordinator in April of 2002 after originally joining the club as a Seasonal PR Assistant in 2001. The Appleton, Wisconsin product serves as managing editor of NFL Gameday magazine and associate editor of the Chiefs Media Guide.

In addition to contributing creative design and writing elements for other team publication efforts, He is also a contributor to kcchiefs.com hosting Arrowvision segments, in addition to handling the team's electronic media requests. He spent two years working as a student intern in the Wisconsin Badgers SID Office, as well as interning with the Milwaukee Brewers before coming to Kansas City in 2001. Education: University of Wisconsin (B.A. '01). Family: Wife - Lindsay.

BRAD KUH BANDER RESEARCH COORDINATOR

Brad Kuhbander enters his fifth year in the Chiefs PR Department. He was elevated to Research Coordinator in April of 2002 after serving as a Seasonal PR Assistant in 2001. He coordinates statistical research for the Chiefs coaching staff and maintains the club's computerized archive system. In addition, the Hamler, Ohio native handles print media requests, serves as associate editor of the Chiefs Media Guide and contributes to both kcchiefs.com and NFL Gameday. Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, Kuhbander spent a year in the University of Florida SID office and three years as a student SID at Baldwin-Wallace College. Education: Baldwin-Wallace College (B.A. '00). Family: Single.

MATT HINTZ SEASONAL ASSISTANT

CHIEFS PUBLIC RELATIONS AND MEDIA POLICIES

kcchiefs.com: In-depth information on the Kansas City Chiefs for both fans and media can be found at the club's official website at www.kcchiefs.com, which contains weekly news releases, statistics, rosters, depth charts, injury reports, quotes, feature articles and player bios. The site is updated daily during training camp and the regular season.

chiefsmedia.com: This password-protected, media-specific site provides game releases, updated bios, additional stats, practice schedules, credential request forms, press clips and a host of other media information. Registered media users can also download video, audio and transcriptions of most press conferences, segments of the media guide, player photos and weekly media packets. Interview transcripts from players and coaches are also archived on this site. Contact Matt Hintz for further details.

Home Credential Requests: Only accredited members of the media who cover the Chiefs and the NFL on a regular basis may apply for credentials. ALL credential requests must be made ONLINE at chiefsmedia.com a minimum of one week in advance of the game, including preseason contests. Written credential requests will no longer be accepted. Media should call or email to confirm credentials on Thursdays preceding Sunday games. Failure to utilize an issued credential without notifying the PR department will result in revocation of credential privileges. Heather Plumb is the club's credential contact.

Press Will Call: All non-season media MUST pick up their credentials in person at Media Will Call on game day at one of two locations. Photographers and field only media should pick up credentials and enter ONLY through the tunnel located in the SE corner of Lower Lot E. Working Press, Television and Radio members having access to the Loge and Press areas should pick up credentials and enter only through Gate E. Two forms of ID will be required. No exceptions.

Road Credential Requests: If you are a regular member of the Chiefs media corps and wish to cover the team on the road, ALL requests must be submitted to Director of Public Relations Bob Moore no later than one game previous to a road contest. The Chiefs will then place a request to the opponent the Monday prior to a Sunday road game. Note that opponent credential availability may be limited.

Practice: Consult chiefsmedia.com or Chiefs PR for practice times and access. Visiting team media are NOT permitted at practice. Videotaping is permitted ONLY during stretching, warm-up, individual drills and the cool-down periods.

Interview Requests: Associate Director of Public Relations Pete Moris coordinates all network TV and national media requests. Brad Kuhbander handles print interviews and Patrick Herb of the Chiefs PR staff handles radio requests. ALL radio requests must be made via email or fax, including names of producers and talent, studio numbers and show times.

Head Coach Availability: Head Coach Dick Vermeil is available daily during the season. Please consult PR for times and location. Coach Vermeil conducts a weekly press conference on Tuesdays during the season at 11:45 AM.

Assistant Coach/Staff Availability: Chiefs assistant coaches are available for interviews provided PR is notified in advance. Please consult Bob Moore or Pete Moris.

Locker Room Policy/Player Availability: During the regular season players are available to the media after the conclusion of practice. The Chiefs locker room is open to the media for a maximum of 45 minutes following the conclusion of practice each day. Any additional interviews should be coordinated through Chiefs PR. The Chiefs locker room is NOT open on the players' day off (typically Tuesdays.) QB Trent Green is scheduled to be available to the media at lunch on Thursdays during the regular season.

Media access to other areas of Arrowhead is limited to ONLY the fourth floor press box which serves as a work area, the PR office, and the first floor auditorium for media functions. All other areas are off-limits unless accompanied by a member of the PR staff.

Conference Calls: The Chiefs will make Coach Vermeil and a player available to the visiting team media each Wednesday during the regular season.

Player Appearance Requests: Requests for player appearances should be made in writing, no less than 30 days in advance to Community Relations Coordinator Nick Rodina. Player availability is limited during the regular season and no requests are accepted during postseason play.

Donation Requests: All donation requests should be directed to Janet Feltham in the Chiefs Community Relations Department no less than 30 days in advance of an event. The Chiefs Community Relations Department makes a limited number of donations to select charitable causes in the five-state region of Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska and Oklahoma. Such donations are strictly limited to Chiefs articles. Requests for monetary contributions or tickets are not accepted.

THE CHIEFS WAY

The Kansas City Chiefs strive to meet the needs of the community by proactively bringing together resources that will benefit the lives of those in need. The Chiefs players and front office have raised over $12 million through charitable efforts since '98. Carol Verneil and Lamar Hunt (left) sell newspapers on Red Friday, a fundraiser hosted by the Chiefs Club to benefit the Chiefs players' charities.

The team's dedication to the community hasn't gone unnoticed. Over the years, Chiefs players have received more than a dozen national awards with TE Tony Gonzalez (above), FB Tony Richardson and G Will Shields being recognized most recently. Gonzalez delivers one of his Shadow Buddies to a special friend.

CHIEFS IN THE COMMUNITY

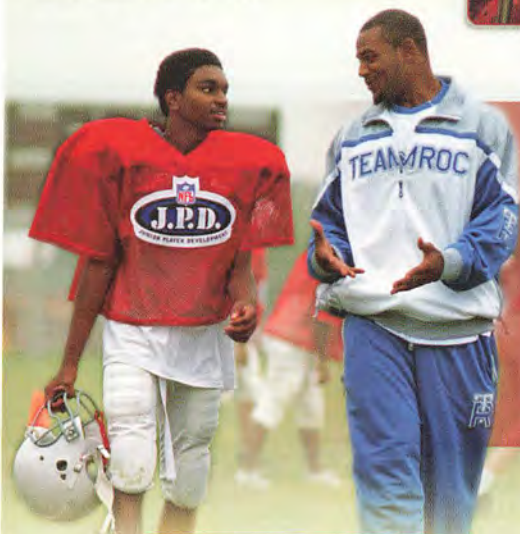

The Chiefs Rookie Club, an NFL model, is used to introduce first-year players to community service. A Chiefs rookie gives a needed hug during a Rookie Club visit to the Children's Campus Center.

THE CHIEFS WAY

The Hunt family's dedication to a quality education and solid character development can be seen through many of the Chiefs programs. Gridiron Geography, Heart of a Champion and the hundreds of player appearances to local schools support these educational initiatives. Tavia Hunt, (right) who serves on the National Board of Directors for Heart of a Champion, offers some character education ideas to students in Kansas City, KS.

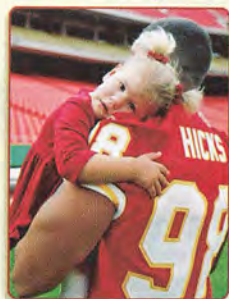

The Chiefs take great pride in promoting and expanding youth football. Programs include installing and renovating football fields, honoring high school coaches, hosting a coaching academy, sponsoring the NFL "Play It Smart" academic program and inviting 4,000 youth football players to a Chiefs game each year. KC AMONG MERCHANDISE SALES LEADERS

According to sales figures tracked by the National Football League, Kansas City ranked 10th in the NFL in merchandise sales during the 2004 fiscal year (April 1, 2004 - March 31, 2005). The Chiefs accomplished that feat despite playing in the NFL's sixth-smallest market. In fact, the only team from a smaller market to register higher sales were the Packers, who ranked fifth. Here is a look at the NFL's top 10 teams in terms of merchandise sales in fiscal 2004.

CHIEFS RADIO NETWORK

For the 15th consecutive year, all Chiefs games will be carried in Kansas City by KCFX Radio/101.1 FM. The Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network, with KCFX as its anchor, extends throughout a six-state region that includes Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Oklahoma and Arkansas. KCFX will broadcast all Chiefs preseason, regular season and playoff games live. One of the Midwest's most recognizable radio and television personalities, Mitch Holthus, handles the play-by-play duties for the 11th straight year, giving him more years of service than any other "Voice of the Chiefs" in team history. Holthus has called a franchise-record 165 regular and postseason contests for Kansas City and is one of the 10 longest-tenured play-by-play men currently active in the NFL.

Named Kansas Sportscaster of the Year for the eighth time in 2001, Holthus served as the voice of Kansas State athletics for 14 years from '83-96. In addition to his Chiefs duties, he is also the lead TV play-by-play broadcaster for Fox Sports coverage of the Missouri Valley Conference. Holthus also serves as the President of the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association. Adding the color analysis for the 20th consecutive year is Hall of Fame quarterback Len Dawson, the Chiefs all-time leading passer. Bob Gretz, sports director at KCFX, will add pregame and postgame comments for the 15th straight season, in addition to in-game sideline updates. Bill Grigsby, who has been on the scene since the club's first year in Kansas City, continues to serve as a vibrant part of Chiefs gameday broadcast.

Draft (No. 4b - 2004)
NFL: 2 (2nd with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (15/10) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Up-and-coming young pass rusher joined the Chiefs as a fourth-round selection (126th overall) in the 2004 NFL Draft ... Burst upon the pro football scene with a productive rookie season and looks to build upon that success during his sophomore campaign ... Moved into the starting lineup at right defensive end by the season's sixth game a year ago, a role that he will attempt to secure on a full-time basis in 2005 ... Made an immediate impact on defense a year ago ... Registered a team-high 9.0 sacks, the second-highest total by a rookie in team history, a tally topped by only the late LB Derrick Thomas who had 10.0 sacks in '89 ... Those 9.0 sacks led all NFL rookies in 2004 ... Recorded two multi-sack games, accomplishing the feat in victories vs. Atlanta (10/24/04) and at Oakland (12/5/04) ... Named to Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie Team and earned a spot on USA Today's All-Joe Team, a squad that annually recognizes the league's top blue-collar performers ... Was also the recipient of the Chiefs prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award, an honor bestowed on Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player. Became just the second defensive end in team history to win the award, joining Jimmy Wilkerson who claimed it in 2003 ... Owns tremendous natural instincts coming off the edge ... Can also use his speed to chase down ball carriers from behind ... His all-around game should only improve as he continues to hone his technique with defensive line coaches Bob Karmelowicz and Carl Hairston ... Added muscle mass to his frame in the Chiefs off-season program and should be even more physical at the point of attack in 2005 ... Has played in 15 games (10 starts) ... Has recorded 39 tackles (26 solo), 9.0 sacks (-47.0 yards) and 27 QB pressures.

Transactions: Signed a three-year contract with Kansas City (7/23/04) ... Originally entered the NFL as the Chiefs second pick in the fourth round (126th overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft.

Born: January 14, 1975
Richmond, Virginia

Richmond
Unrestricted Free Agent (2003)
NFL: 8 (3rd with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (89/74) Playoffs: (5/5)

Pro Career: Relentless linebacker who signed as an unrestricted free agent with the Chiefs from Philadelphia on March 3, 2003 ... Attempting to rebound from an injury-shortened 2004 campaign ... Suffered a torn left ACL at Tampa Bay (11/7/04) and subsequently underwent surgery on November 11th of last season ... Has the ability to perform at either outside linebacker spot and has served as the club's starter at ROLB each of the past two seasons ... Produced a stellar debut season with the Chiefs in 2003 despite battling nagging wrist and thumb injuries for much of the season ... Was still able to wrap up 141 tackles, the second-highest tally of his NFL career ... That tackle total also ranked second on the squad behind fellow LB Scott Fujita ... His 105 solo stops with the Chiefs in 2003 were a personal best ... Came to Kansas City after previous pro stints with Philadelphia (2002) and Washington ('98-01) ... Possesses a solid combination of size and speed, making him adept at stuffing the run or dropping in coverage ... Also brings a healthy dose of swagger and attitude to the Kansas City defense, as well as a play-making tenacity ... Is a self-described "ball-hawk" who owns a trio of 100-tackle seasons ... A physical performer who earned a reputation for dishing out bone-jarring hits during his tenure in the NFC East ... Did not disappoint in that area in 2003, providing the jolt in a Monday Night Football contest at Oakland (11/23/03) that sidelined QB Rich Gannon for the remainder of the year ... Owns solid coverage skills and frequently makes opponents pay for their errant throws, returning two of his seven career interceptions for TDs ... Owned a streak of 40 consecutive starts prior to suffering a knee injury a year ago, marking the first significant time he had missed since sitting out the final 13 games of the 2001 campaign for Washington ... Enjoyed the most prolific tackling season of his career with the Redskins in '99 when he registered a career-high 148 stops (101 solo), as well as two interceptions ... Owns 89 games (74 starts) of NFL experience ... Has produced 583 tackles (407 solo), 10.0 sacks (-62.0 yards), as well as seven INTs for 189 yards with two TDs ... Also owns 31 passes defended, 20 QB pressures, five fumble recoveries and eight forced fumbles ... Owns 36 tackles (27 solo), a sack (-0.0 yards) and a forced fumble in five playoff starts.

Transactions: Signed a seven-year contract with Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent from Philadelphia (3/3/03) ... Signed a one-year contract with Philadelphia as an unrestricted free agent from Washington (3/15/02) ... Signed a one-year contract with Washington (6/1/01) ... Signed with Washington (5/13/98) ... Originally entered the NFL as a fourth-round draft choice (113th overall) of Washington in the '98 NFL Draft.

Pro Career:

Valuable and versatile offensive lineman who signed as an unrestricted free agent from the N.Y. Giants with Kansas City on March 13, 2004 ... Has the ability to play any position on the offensive line ... His skills are probably best suited to the center position, but has also shown the ability to perform at a high level working at both right and left tackle ... Started two games at right tackle for the Chiefs in 2004 before a right toe sprain curtailed his season ... Looks to be fully recovered from that injury and should continue to provide depth at multiple positions on the offensive line ... Impressive player who head coach Dick Vermeil has likened to C Casey Wiegmann for his effort and tenacity ... Expected to be one of the candidates competing for the Chiefs starting right tackle post ... Also owns extensive experience at center and is the club's top reserve behind Wiegmann at that position ... Worked as a starter at both right tackle and center during his four-year tenure with the Giants ... Regarded as a true competitor at the point of attack, who can excel in either the running or passing game ... Due to injuries on the Giants offensive front, played primarily at center for that club his last two seasons in New York, starting 26 games at that position over that span ... Opened all 16 games in 2003, including five starting assignments at the right tackle post ... Dedicated technician highly regarded for his work ethic and knowledge of the game ... Was a member of a Giants squad that advanced to Super Bowl XXXV following the 2000 season ... Began his tenure with the Giants on the practice squad before being promoted to the 53-man roster in 2000 ... Owns

Free Agent (2002)
NFL: 4 (4th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (31/2) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Former Canadian Football League receiver looking to bounce back from a knee injury that cost him the entire 2004 season ... Suffered a torn ACL in his right knee during a preseason contest vs. Cleveland (8/28/04) ... Rangy wideout enters his fourth NFL campaign with the Chiefs ... Possesses a combination of height and speed that presents match-up problems for opposing defenses ... Sure-handed receiver is difficult to defend as a third receiver working out of the slot ... Physical performer whose height and leaping ability make him especially dangerous in the Red Zone ... Burst onto the NFL landscape after joining the Chiefs as a free agent in 2002 ... Established himself as a virtual

"touchdown machine," leading Kansas City with eight TDs on just 20 catches in 2002 ... That feat in itself was a remarkable accomplishment considering that he missed a good portion of training camp after undergoing an appendectomy at the onset of camp ... The tallest target in the club's WR corps, also owns the speed to stretch the field vertically ... Is also a valuable special teams performer, working on the club's coverage units ... A true big-play threat, set a Chiefs record and tied an NFL mark when he hauled in a 99-yard TD reception from QB Trent Green vs. San Diego (12/22/02). Joined Green to form just the 10th tandem in NFL history to collaborate on a 99-yard scoring connection, making them the first duo to accomplish that feat since Green Bay QB Brett Favre did it with WR Robert Brooks vs. Chicago (9/11/95) ... Came to the Chiefs vastly more polished than most first-year NFL performers after honing his skills for two seasons with the CFL's Calgary Stampeders where he registered 111 catches for 2,023 yards with 19 TDs during the 2000-01 campaigns, helping lead the squad to a Grey Cup title in 2001 ... Owns 31 games (two starts) of NFL experience, catching 31 passes for 578 yards (18.6 avg.) with eight TDs. ... Also has 18 special teams tackles ... Typically scores his touchdowns in bunches, owning a trio of two-TD games during his brief NFL tenure ... Including the playoffs, had five two-TD contests during his time in Canada ... Has caught 27 touchdown passes in his five previous pro seasons (NFL and CFL) ... Was initially overlooked by NFL scouts coming out of tiny Hastings College, an NAIA school in Hastings, Nebraska ... Drove to a CFL tryout in Dallas in 2000, where he was inked by Calgary ... Enjoyed a pair of productive CFL seasons, appearing in 36 regular season games ... In his two CFL campaigns averaged over 50 catches, 1,000 yards and nine touchdowns per season, including a career-best 1,092-yard effort as a rookie in 2000 ... Saw action in four postseason games for the club, including the 2001 Grey Cup where he posted four catches for 114 yards with a TD.

Transactions: Signed a one-year contract with Kansas City (4/19/05) ... Signed a seven-year contract with Kansas City (2/7/02) ... Entered the CFL as a free agent with Calgary (5/12/00).

Kansas City (2002-04): Has seen duty in 31 games (two starts), registering 31 catches for 578 yards (18.6 avg.) and eight TDs ... Also has one kickoff return for 44 yards, 18 special teams tackles and two fumble recoveries on special teams.

2004: Missed entire regular season after suffering a torn ACL in his right knee during the third preseason game vs. Cleveland (8/28) ... Underwent surgeries on September 1st and October 15th ... Was placed on injured reserve on September 1st.

2003: Appeared in 15 games at WR and on special teams ... Was inactive for one game ... Had 11 catches for 158 yards (14.4 avg.) and one kickoff return for 44 yards ... Also had six special teams tackles and two fumble recoveries on special teams ... Recovered a S Ed Reed fumble on a punt return at Baltimore (9/28) ... Returned the opening kickoff 44 yards for his first career return on a reverse from WR Dante Hall vs. Denver (10/5) ... Recovered a muffed punt return by CB Phillip Buchanon at Oakland (10/20) ... Produced two receptions for 21 yards, including a 16-yard catch on fourth down to set up K Morten Andersen's game-winning 35-yard FG vs. Oakland (11/23). Also caught a five-yard pass while laying on his back on the game-winning drive ... Was inactive at Minnesota (12/20) with a right ankle sprain suffered vs. Detroit (12/14) ... Caught one pass for 21 yards in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11/04).

2002: Saw action in 16 games on special teams and in 15 games at WR with two starts ... Caught 20 passes for 420 yards (21.0 avg.) with a team-high eight TD receptions ... Was sixth on the team with 12 special teams stops ... Underwent an emergency appendectomy on July 28th which sidelined him for the first two preseason games ... Registered eight TDs on only 20 receptions ... Became just the eighth player in Chiefs history to catch eight or more TDs in a single season and was the initial player to do it in his first season with the club ... Scored on 40.0 percent of his receptions (eight of 20), the best

TRAINING CAMP INFORMATION

For the 15th consecutive season, the Chiefs will conduct training camp at the University of Wisconsin - River Falls in 2005. Kansas City has called River Falls, Wisconsin its summer home since '91. Located in the scenic St. Croix Valley region approximately 30 miles east of Minneapolis-St. Paul, MN, this bucolic burb of 12,500 citizens annually offers temperate training conditions and hospitality to the Chiefs and their fans. Thanks to a $2.4 million dollar funding package from the State of Wisconsin, the Chiefs will enjoy a number of improvements to UW-RF's Knowles Arena, including state-of-the-art, climate-controlled locker room and training room facilities.

DIRECTIONS TO TRAINING CAMP FROM THE TWIN CITIES

Take I-494 East from airport and follow to I-94 East. Take I-94 across the St. Croix River to Wisconsin. Exit right on Hwy. 35 South (River Falls Exit). Follow Hwy. 35 six miles into River Falls. Exit right on Main Street. To reach the Chiefs Public Relations offices, go south on Main Street and turn left onto Cascade at your fifth stoplight. Go four blocks and turn right onto Sixth Street. The Chiefs Public Relations offices are located in 139 Rodli Commons.

To reach the Chiefs practice fields, go South on Main Street through all five stoplights. After crossing Cascade, the Ramer Field practice facility will be approximately one-half mile on South Main on the left. Mileage from the Minneapolis-St. Paul Airport to River Falls is 27 miles. Travel time under normal traffic conditions is approximately 45 minutes.

Draft: (No. 3 - 1996)

Born: September 30, 1973 NFL: 10 (10th with Chiefs)

Miami, Florida

GP/GS: (105/84) Playoffs: (2/1)

Pro Career: Dependable defensive lineman enters his 10th season with the Chiefs in 2005 ... Rugged performer has played in 105 regular season contests during his distinguished tenure with Kansas City, making him one of just 60 players in franchise annals to see duty in 100 or more contests ... Is expected to be an integral part of the Chiefs defensive line rotation once again in 2005 ... Versatile and valuable performer has started at every position on the Chiefs defensive front during his NFL tenure ... Opened at least one game at every spot on the Chiefs defensive front except left DE in 2004, but is anticipated to work primarily at right DT this season ... Unsung competitor is respected across the NFL for his brute strength and tenacious style of play ... Frequently consumes interior offensive linemen, allowing his fellow members of the defensive front to make plays ... Is quick off the ball and frequently causes havoc in the backfield both as a pass rusher and a run stopper ... Has battled back from a litany of injuries during his NFL career ... Ranks eighth in franchise history with 25.5 sacks, needing 5.0 more to move ahead of DT Dan Saleaumua for eighth ... Posted 4.5 sacks a year ago after setting a career high with 92 tackles in 2003 ... Racked up a personal-best 7.0 sacks in 2002 after rebounding from a season-ending right knee injury in 2001 ... Opened at every spot on the defensive line in 2000, opening six games at right DT, five games at left DE, four contests at right DE and one game at left DT ... Held together an injury-riddled defensive front in 2000 and was a key reason Kansas City produced 51.0 sacks, the third-highest total in team history ... A training camp Achilles injury cost him the entire '99 campaign, while back and ankle ailments kept him out of eight games in '98 ... Originally broke into a regular role as a starter with the club at right DE in '97 ... Has seen duty in 105 regular season contests (84 starts), totaling 427 tackles (255 solo), 25.5 sacks (-143.5 yards), four fumble recoveries, two forced fumbles, an interception, six passes defended and 132 QB pressures ... SECONDARY LOGO HISTORY

Although never part of the club's uniform, the franchise boasted a pair of strikingly similar secondary logos during its early days. According to Lamar Hunt, both logos were the creation of Bob Taylor, a cartoonist for the now-defunct Dallas Times-Herald. While there were several color schemes for both logos, the Texans logo featured a football-toting gunslinger set over the state of Texas. This logo adorned the Texans stationery and the billboard outside the club's offices in Dallas. When the club moved to Kansas City in '63, Taylor was commissioned to update the logo. The result was a Native American figure running with the same stride and holding the pigskin in the same manner as the gunslinger with the states of Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Iowa and Arkansas serving as his backdrop. This logo was utilized prominently during the '60s and was affixed to the club's Swope Park headquarters on 63rd Street before the club moved to Arrowhead in '72.

Defensive Tackle • 6-1 • 315

Born: February 21, 1975
Detroit, Michigan

Eastern Michigan
Free Agent (2004)
NFL: 8 (2nd with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (94/41) Playoffs: (6/0)

Pro Career: Mammoth defensive tackle who bolstered the Chiefs defensive line and rejuvenated his career after joining Kansas City as a free agent on March 30, 2004 ... Shows no signs of relinquishing his starting right defensive tackle position in 2005 ... Expected to simply rotate along the front four last season in 2004, instead stepped into the starting lineup in just the second game of the season and refused to surrender the job ... Got his number called when DE Vonnie Holliday suffered an injury on Opening Day at Denver (9/12/04). When starting DT John Browning moved to RE, took over the right defensive tackle post and never looked back ... Posted some of the best numbers of his career while appearing in all 16 games (13 starts) ... Recorded 36 tackles (26 solo) with six coming for a loss, a career-best 4.0 sacks (-31.0 yards) and finished third on the club with 26 QB pressures ... Owns a low center of gravity, which allows him to gain leverage on the bigger offensive linemen that he often faces ... Considers himself a disrupter and possesses surprising quickness when rushing the passer ... Space-filler with tremendous strength who has displayed a penchant for clogging up the running lanes and freeing up his teammates to record tackles ... Joined the Chiefs as a free agent after previously logging time with Washington (2003), Denver (2002) and Baltimore (1998-01) ... Prior to a one-year stint with the Broncos, enjoyed a four-year stay in Baltimore where he was part of a record-setting Ravens defense and earned a Super Bowl XXXV ring ... Enjoyed a productive campaign in 2002 when he made 13 starts for Denver, registering a career-high 39 tackles ... Owns 94 games (41 starts) of NFL action, producing 190 tackles (128 solo), 7.0 sacks (-52.0 yards), three forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, four passes defended and 26 QB pressures ... Appeared in six playoff games with Baltimore, recording six tackles (five solo).

Transactions: Signed a two-year contract with Kansas City (3/30/04) ... Released by Washington (2/24/04) ... Traded to Washington by Denver (8/26/03) in exchange for a sixth-round draft pick in 2004 (171st overall - used on WR Luke Triandos) ... Signed with Denver as an unrestricted free agent from Baltimore (4/3/02) ... Signed a one-year contract with Baltimore (3/29/01) ... Entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with Baltimore (4/24/98).

Kansas City (2004): Played in 16 games (13 starts), registering 36 tackles (26 solo) with six behind the line of scrimmage, a career-high 4.0 sacks (-31.0 yards), a fumble recovery and one pass defended ... Ranked third on the team with 26 QB pressures ... Tied a career high with six tackles (two solo), including two for a loss and a QB pressure in a starting role at right DT vs. Carolina (9/19) ... Posted four tackles and a sack of Kyle Boller at Baltimore (10/4) ... Totaled a sack of Byron Leftwich and one QB pressure at Jacksonville (10/17) ... Tallied three tackles and a QB pressure vs. Atlanta (10/24) ... Compiled two solo tackles, two QB pressures and recovered a RB Corey Dillon fumble for his first career fumble recovery vs. New England (11/22) ... Produced three tackles, including one behind the line and one QB pressure vs. San Diego (11/28) ... Tallied three tackles with one behind the line, a sack of Billy Volek and a career-high five QB pressures at Tennessee (12/13) ... Recorded a sack of Jake Plummer and three QB pressures vs. Denver (12/19).

EXTRA POINTS

Given the option to play a musical instrument as a sixth-grader, Dalton opted for the cello since it was the biggest instrument available and not as "wimpy" as the violin. He played the cello until the eighth grade when his focus shifted to football.

Washington (2003): Played in 12 games (nine starts), producing 17 tackles (15 solo) and a sack (-6.0 yards) ... Played in a reserve role vs. the N.Y. Jets (9/4) and at Atlanta (9/14) ... Was inactive vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/21), vs. New England (9/28), at Philadelphia (10/3) and vs. Tampa Bay (10/12) ... Recorded two tackles at Buffalo (10/19) ... California

NFL 4 (4th with Chiefs)

GP/GS: (48/41) Playoffs: (1/1)

Born: April 28, 1979
Ventura, California

Pro Career:

Athletic and cerebral linebacker has grown into a very productive player after joining the club as a fifth-round draft choice in 2002 ... Entered the NFL with little fanfare, but ended up starting nine of the club's final 11 games at the left outside "SAM" linebacker position as a rookie ... Added extra muscle mass for his second pro campaign in 2003 and has served as the starter at the LOLB post in every game the past two seasons ... Enters the 2005 campaign as a candidate to once again fill that starting spot at LOLB ... Appears to be fully recovered from surgery performed on April 8th to remove a bone spur from his right ankle ... Always finds himself around the ball for the Kansas City defense ... Led the Chiefs in tackles for the second consecutive season last year, registering his second straight campaign with over 100 tackles ... Has displayed a penchant for penetrating offenses and wreaking havoc in opponents' backfields ... Pulled down a team-high seven tackles for a loss, tied for third on the club with 4.5 sacks (-51.5 yards) and tied a career-best with eight QB pressures in 2004 ... Lanky linebacker is capable of delivering bone-jarring hits at the point of attack or in the open field ... Intelligent performer quickly picks up on new concepts and is enthusiastic about learning the idiosyncracies of the pro game ... Concluded 2003 with a team-high 151 tackles, tying as the fifth-highest single-season total in Chiefs history ... Has enjoyed an amazing rise to a starting role in the NFL ranks after beginning his collegiate career as a walk-on safety at California ... Entered his initial NFL training camp simply looking to earn a spot on the roster ... Originally made an impact with the club as a valuable special teams contributor who has displayed his athletic ability by chasing down some of the league's speediest return men ... Quickly made the transition from a special teams performer working in the club's sub-defenses to a full-time contributor ... Moved into the starting lineup in the sixth game of the season and never relinquished his hold on that spot ... His nine starts were the most by a Chiefs rookie linebacker since Percy Snow opened 14 contests in '90 ... Voted by his teammates as the winner of the team's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award in 2002, an honor presented annually to the club's top rookie or first-year performer ... Was also selected to Pro Football Weekly's All-Rookie Team for his efforts ... Owns 326 tackles (230 solo), 9.5 sacks (-51.5 yards), one INT (eight yards), a forced fumble, 15 passes defended and 18 QB pressures ... Also has 16 tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams ... Draft (No. 1 - 1997)

Born: February 27, 1976
Torrance, California

NFL: 9 (9th with Chiefs)

GP/GS: (127/111) Playoffs: (2/1)

Pro Career: Six-time Pro Bowl tight end enters his ninth season in Kansas City and is coming off the most prolific receiving campaign of any tight end in NFL history ... Is unquestionably the league's finest player at his position and is deservedly mentioned as one of the elite tight ends to ever play the game ... Without question, is the standard-bearer by which other NFL tight ends are judged, owning more receptions (570), receiving yards (6,905) and TD catches (54) than any other active tight end ... Underwent a minor procedure to remove a loose fragment caused by a stress fracture in his left foot on March 3rd ... That injury is now fully healed and although it caused some discomfort a year ago, it clearly had no adverse effects on his production as he became the first player in Kansas City history to break the 100-catch barrier ... His 102 receptions last season led the league and were the highest seasonal total ever amassed by an NFL tight end ... Became just the second player in Chiefs history to lead the NFL in receptions, joining RB MacArthur Lane who did it with 66 catches in '76 ... One of just three tight ends to pace the league in catches since the AFL-NFL merger in '70 along with Kellen Winslow and Todd Christensen ... Has helped redefine the position during his professional tenure and is rapidly approaching the top career receiving totals ever established by a tight end ... Is already the all-time leading pass catcher in Chiefs history with 570 receptions, the third-highest total by a TE in league annals behind Shannon Sharpe (815) and Ozzie Newsome (662) ... Joins Sharpe (Denver) and Newsome (Cleveland) as just the third tight end in NFL annals to hold the title of his franchise's all-time leading receiver ... Owns 6,905 career receiving yards and needs just 402 more to surpass WR Otis Taylor (7,306) for the most in franchise history ... That receiving yardage tally ranks fourth in NFL history among tight ends, trailing only Sharpe (10,060), Newsome (7,980) and Jackie Smith

(7,918) ... Ranks third in Chiefs annals with 54 career TD receptions, trailing only Taylor (57) and E Chris Burford (55) ... Needs just nine more TDs to take over the all-time NFL lead for scoring receptions by a tight end. Is tied with Wesley Walls for third in that category, ranking just behind Sharpe (62) and Jerry Smith (60) ... Rewrote both the NFL and Chiefs record books with his prolific 2004 campaign ... His 102 catches broke his own single-season franchise record of 93 receptions in 2000 and were the highest total ever assembled by an NFL tight, breaking Ben Coates' previous mark of 96 receptions in '94 with New England ... Produced six 100-yard games last season, a feat he also accomplished in 2000, tying as the best seasonal mark by a TE in NFL history and tying three other players for the best single-season total in team history ... Currently ranks third in KC annals with 15 career 100-yard receiving games, a figure topped by only Taylor (19) and WR Carlos Carson (18) ... Ranks fourth among NFL tight ends in career 100-yard contests, trailing only Winslow (24), Smith (22) and Sharpe (19) ... His 1,258 receiving yards in 2004 were the second-highest tally ever assembled by a tight end in NFL ledgers, coming just 32 yards shy of the 1,290 yards accumulated by Winslow in '80 ... His 2004 yardage tally also ranked as the fourth-best seasonal figure in Chiefs history ... Owns five career games with double-digit receptions, the most of any player in franchise annals ... Finished the 2004 campaign with a flurry, racking up 25 receptions in the season's final two contests, the best two-game total in Chiefs history ... Capped off the year with a 14-catch effort at San Diego (1/2/05), the second-best single-game performance by an NFL tight end. Those 14 receptions surpassed the previous Chiefs single-game record of 12 catches set by RB Ed Podolak vs. Denver (10/7/73) ... Has seen action in a total of 127 regular season NFL contests (111 starts) and is one of 30 players in team history to start at least 100 contests ... Extremely durable performer has missed just one regular season game, sitting out the '99 season opener at Chicago (9/12/99) due to a preseason knee injury ... Enters the 2005 campaign with a streak of 95 consecutive starts dating back to the second game of the '99 campaign, the second-longest active string on the roster behind G Will Shields (191) ... Should he open every contest in 2005, it would push his string of consecutive starts to 111 games, a figure that would rank as the sixth-longest streak in franchise annals ... Also enters the 2005 campaign owning a string of 68 consecutive games with a reception ... Should he catch a pass in all 16 games in 2005, would break WR Stephone Paige's current team record of 83 straight games in the final contest of the season ... Owns at least one catch in 112 of his last 113 regular season outings. The last time he was held without a catch was at San Diego (11/26/00) ... Lines up in a variety of different formations for the club, starting on the line of scrimmage, split out and even in the backfield ... Poses match-up problems for defensive backs and linebackers alike with his combination of speed, size and athleticism ... Can stretch a defense vertically with his speed, but also takes great pride in his blocking skills ... Endowed with outstanding leaping ability, which, combined with an amazingly flexible six-foot, four-inch frame, permits him to stretch out to make some sensational snags ... Credits many of his moves on the gridiron to his basketball background, which included a stint on Cal's '97 "Sweet 16" NCAA Tournament team during his collegiate career ... Typically celebrates TD receptions by emphatically slam-dunking the pigskin over the crossbar ... Became the first Pro Bowl tight end in Chiefs history following the '99 season and has earned a spot in that game for six consecutive years ... Was a consensus first-team All-Pro selection five straight years from 1999-03 and earned second-team honors a year ago ... Possesses an unquenchable thirst to be considered the very best at his position, which helps explain his relentless work ethic ... Takes extra repetitions after practice and is almost always the last member of the squad off the field ... Has recorded 570 receptions for 6,905 yards (12.1 avg.) with 54 TDs and a long reception of 73 yards ... Attempted one pass for a 40-yard completion and has rushed two times for 14 yards ... Recovered an onside kick in '98 and blocked a punt in '97 ... Owns two career postseason appearances (one start), getting seven catches for 81 yards with one TD ... His 570 career receptions rank 17th among players who were active in 2004 and are 51st all-time in league annals ... Needs just 30 more catches to become the 35th player in league history with 600 or more receptions ... Has caught his 54 career TDs courtesy of three QBs: Trent Green (30), Elvis Grbac (23) and Rich Gannon (one) ... Owns two separate streaks of four straight games with a TD catch, both of which are just one game shy of the team record of five ... Currently ranks eighth on the franchise's career scoring list with 324 points and needs just 37 more points to join RB Priest Holmes as the only other non-kicker to reside in the club's all-time top five ... Dating back to '90, no Chiefs player owns more receptions of 20+ yards than Gonzalez (89) ... Has amassed a club-record seven straight seasons with 50+ catches ... Gonzalez's stats from his first eight NFL seasons stack up very favorably against the six tight ends currently enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Jackie Smith, Mike Ditka, John Mackey, Ozzie Newsome, Kellen Winslow and Dave Casper) ... Gonzalez already has more receptions, receiving yards and TDs than all of those Hall of Fame enshrinees except Winslow ... Based on career per-game averages, Winslow is the only Hall of Fame tight end with better overall marks than Gonzalez. In 109 career regular season contests, Winslow averaged 5.0 catches, 61.8 yards, 12.5 yards-per-catch and 0.41 TDs per game. In 127 career regular season games, Gonzalez has averaged 4.9 catches, 54.4 yards, 12.1 yards per catch and 0.43 TDs per game ... He bypassed Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee Fred Arbanas (198 receptions for 3,101 yards) as the most prolific tight end in franchise history in 2001 ... His 173 catches in 2003-04 are the highest two-year tally of any player in Chiefs annals ... No player in Kansas City history reached the 300-catch plateau quicker than Gonzalez, who got there in 71 games, breaking the previous standard of 76 set by E Chris Burford ... Registered his 500th career reception in his 118th game, the second-fastest pace by a tight end in NFL history. Only Winslow (101 games) did it faster ... Only four other Chiefs players (Burford, Taylor, Paige and Arbanas) amassed 25 TD receptions quicker than Gonzalez, who did it in his 66th career game ... Racked up 20 TD catches from '99-00, a mark topped in team history only by the total of 21 amassed by Burford ('62-63) and Paige ('85-86) ... Firmly established himself as the league's finest tight end with a spectacular '99 campaign which saw him catch 76 passes for 849 yards in 15 games, totals which ranked the highest by any player at his position in the NFL that year ... Got hot down the stretch of the '98 campaign when he produced 24 of his 59 catches (40.7%) and both of his touchdowns during the season's final five weeks ... Moved into the starting lineup in '98 after an impressive rookie campaign in '97 ... Received the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award bestowed annually to Kansas City's top rookie or first-year player after compiling 33 catches for 368 yards and two TDs during his initial pro season.

SEASON HONORED IN CANTON

TE Tony Gonzalez's game jersey from the Chiefs 2004 regular season finale at San Diego (1/2/05) is currently on display in the Pro Football Today exhibition at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Gonzalez donated his jersey to the Hall of Fame to commemorate several records he set during the contest. Capping off a remarkable season, Gonzalez established a new single-season record for receptions by a tight end (102), a mark previously held by Ben Coates (96), with his second grab of the fourth quarter. Pulling down a total of 14 catches in the game, Gonzalez also set the Chiefs franchise mark for receptions in a single game, surpassing RB Ed Podolak who recorded 12 receptions in a game against Denver (10/7/73).

Green in the third quarter, breaking his total of 93 in 2000 for the highest seasonal total in Chiefs history. Recorded his 97th reception of the season on a five-yard pass in the fourth quarter to surpass New England's Ben Coates (96 in '94) for most catches by a TE in a season in NFL history. It marked his 68th consecutive game with a reception, the second-longest streak in Kansas City history.

consensus All-Pro and All-AFC selection ... Also garnered a spot on the Phil Simms All-Iron Team ... Those 93 catches were the fourth-highest total by a TE in NFL history, while his 1,203 receiving yards were the fifth-highest single-season total in league annals by a player at his position ... Became the first player other than a RB to lead the team in receptions in consecutive seasons since WR Stephane Paige did it in '89-90 ... Led all NFL TEs in receptions, yards and TDs ... Ranked sixth in the AFC and 10th in the NFL in receptions ... Paired with WR Derrick Alexander to form the first duo of Kansas City pass catchers to each amass over 1,000 yards in a season as Alexander established a franchise record with 1,391 aerial yards ... Combined with Alexander to total 171 catches for 2,594 yards, both single-season team records for a receiving tandem, breaking the previous marks held by WR Andre Rison and FB Kimble Anders (131 receptions in '97) and WRs Carlos Carson and Henry Marshall (2,139 yards in '83) ... Had three games with 10 or more catches in 2000, breaking E Chris Burford's previous club standard of two 10-catch contests in '63 ... Was one of just five NFL players and the only TE to top the 10-catch plateau three times in 2000, joining Keenan McCardell (Jacksonville), Muhsin Muhammed (Carolina), Marvin Harrison (Indianapolis) and Joe Horn (New Orleans) ... He and Alexander each had six 100-yard games that season, meaning the only other pair of NFL teammates to each have six individual 100-yard outings were Randy Moss (eight) and Cris Carter (six) of the Vikings. He and Alexander also became the first duo in team history to each have four or more 100-yard outings in a single year ... Had 13 catches of 20+ yards, the most of any NFL TE on the season ... Produced 10 receptions for 127 yards with a 15-yard TD at Denver (9/24). That contest marked his first 10-catch game and his initial 100-yard outing ... Caught seven passes for 100 yards with a 14-yard TD vs. Oakland (10/15) ... Grabbed five passes for 117 yards with a nine-yard TD vs. St. Louis (10/22). It was his fourth straight game with a TD, just one game shy of the team record of five shared by Burford ('62) and Taylor ('66). It was also the first back-to-back 100-yard games by an NFL TE since Shannon Sharpe did it in '96. Eclipsed the club's career mark for receptions by a TE (Fred Arbanas - 198) with a 14-yard pass in the third quarter, as well. Also reached the 200-catch plateau on a 30-yard pass in the third quarter, a milestone which came in his 54th NFL game, making him the second-quickest Chief to reach the milestone (Burford - 52 games) ... Had a 101-yard outing at Seattle (10/29) ... Became the first TE in NFL history to record four consecutive 100-yard receiving games when he caught nine passes for 134 yards at Oakland (11/5) ... Had two TDs vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Had a streak of 44 consecutive games with a reception dating back to a game vs. Oakland (12/7/97) snapped at San Diego (11/26) ... Set career highs for both receptions and yards with an 11-catch, 147-yard outburst which included a four-yard TD in a MNF contest at New England (12/4). Set an NFL record for TEs and tied a club mark with his sixth 100-yard game of the season. His 11 catches tied as the third-highest single-game total in Chiefs history ... Surpassed Carson's club record of 80 receptions ('83) with a 14-yard catch vs. Carolina (12/10). Finished the day with 10 catches for 96 yards and a six-yard TD, his third double-digit reception game of the year, becoming the only player in franchise annals to produce double-digit receptions in back-to-back games.

- Formed the "Tony Gonzalez Foundation" in '98 which supports the Shadow Buddies program, as well as the Boys and Girls Clubs. Shadow Buddies are smiling dolls given to ill individuals - particularly children and the elderly - in order to help speed their recovery. Gonzalez is the only NFL player or athlete of any kind to have his own Shadow Buddy, which comes complete with a Chiefs hospital gown with "Gonzalez #88" on it. Over 10,000 Tony Gonzalez Shadow Buddies have been distributed in Missouri, Kansas, California, New York, Texas, Hawaii and internationally to date. Expanded his involvement with Shadow Buddies in 2001 by providing 50 "Know Your Buddy Book" kits to schools in Missouri, Kansas and California. This educational program teaches students about the diversity of medical challenges, and encourages kids to increase their compassion and understanding of others' differences. Developed Elite 88 program based on his TD catches to benefit the Shadow Buddies program in 2003.

Pro Career:

Pro Bowl triggerman of Kansas City's prolific offense returns for his fifth campaign with the Chiefs in 2005 ... Joined the club on April 20, 2001 when he was acquired after lengthy trade negotiations with St. Louis ... Polished, poised, professional and popular are perhaps the best descriptors to capture the essence of this highly-affable and vastly-talented field general ... A charismatic figure in both the Arrowhead locker room and the Kansas City community ... Has captained the club's offense each of the past two seasons ... Has won the club's Derrick Thomas Award as the Chiefs MVP the past two years, becoming just second player in team history to win that accolade in back-to-back seasons ... Embarks upon his 12th NFL campaign in 2005 ... Enters the season as the sixth-highest rated passer in NFL history (87.9), ranking ahead of such elite performers as Tom Brady (87.5), Brett Favre (87.4) and Dan Marino (86.4) ... Ranks 12th in NFL history with a 60.4 completion percentage ... Is 14th all-time in league annals, averaging 7.66 yards per attempt, a figure topped by only two active players with at least 1,500 attempts: Kurt Warner (3rd - 8.40) and Daunte Culpepper (8th - 7.78) ... Enters the 2005 campaign owning a streak of 64 consecutive starts, the longest streak in Chiefs history and the fourth-longest starting stretch among active NFL signal callers, trailing only Favre (205), Peyton Manning (112) and Aaron Brooks (69) ... Is the only QB in franchise history to start every game for four consecutive seasons, a remarkable feat of durability ... Since his arrival in Kansas City in 2001, only Brady (48), Favre (44), Donovan McNabb (43) and Manning (40) have registered more regular season victories than Green (34) ... In fact, those 34 wins as a starter are tied with Bill Kenney for the second-highest total in franchise annals behind only Len Dawson (94) ... Over the past four seasons has presided over a Chiefs offense that has produced more points (1,754 - 27.4 ppg) and more net yards of total offense (24,278 - 379.3 ypg) than any other NFL squad ... Over that four-year span with Green at the controls, Kansas City also leads the league in total first downs (1,413), Red Zone TD percentage (64.3%), passing yards per attempt (7.79) and passing yards per completion (12.58) ... Has enjoyed a record-breaking run of success since joining the Chiefs, establishing 15 franchise passing marks in his first four years with the club ... Also has been a key reason for Kansas City's unparalleled team production as the Chiefs set a league record with 398 first downs in 2004 and led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, averaging 418.4 ypg ... In addition to total yardage, the 2004 Chiefs ranked in the top five of each of the NFL's four major offensive categories for the first time in team history: scoring offense (2nd - 30.2 ppg), pass offense (4th - 275.4 ypg) and rush offense (5th - 143.1 ypg) ... Under his direction in 2002 and 2003, Kansas City led the NFL in scoring both of those seasons ... His individual numbers a year ago reflected the team's offensive prowess as he set single-season franchise records for completions (369), passing yards (4,591), 300-yard games (8) and passes of 20+ yards (59) ... Also set personal bests with 27 TD passes and a 66.37 completion percentage ... In four campaigns with the Chiefs, has completed 1,282 of 2,072 passes (61.87%) for 16,103 yards with 94 TDs and 66 INTs, numbers that translate into a franchise-best 87.9 rating ... Also owns the top spots in team history with a 61.87 completion percentage, a 7.77-yard average gain and 20 300-yard passing games ... His 16,103 passing yards over the past four seasons are second in the NFL behind only Manning (17,155) ... Only Manning (1,450) and Favre (1,309) own more completions than Green (1,282) from 2001-04, while Warner (7.83), Marc Bulger (7.83) and Manning (7.79) are the only QBs with better yards-per-attempt ratios than Green (7.77) during that timeframe ... Is the only QB in the league to own an active streak of three consecutive seasons with a 90.0+ passer rating, becoming only the seventh player in league history to accomplish that feat ... With his 4,591-yard passing effort in 2004, joined Manning, Favre, Marino and Dan Fouts as only the fifth QB in NFL history with back-to-back 4,000-yard passing seasons ... Extremely accurate passer has produced four of the top five single-game completion percentage marks in Kansas City history ... Registered a string of 14 straight completions vs. Indianapolis (10/31/04), one shy of Len Dawson's team record ... Is currently third on the club's career passing yardage chart, needing just 1,175 more yards to vault past Kenney (11,873) into second behind Dawson (28,507) ... Is also third in team annals behind Kenney in terms of completions (1,282), attempts (2,072) and TD passes (94), needing 49 completions, 359 attempts and 10 more TDs to overtake Kenney in each of those categories ... His 210 passes of 20+ yards are the most by a Chiefs QB since the club began tracking the stat in '90 ... Over his 12-year NFL career has seen action in 88 regular season contests (83 starts) ... Has completed 1,705 of 2,822 of his passes (60.4%) for 21,607 yards with 133 TDs and 82 INTs, good for an 87.9 rating ... Boasts an impressive 4.7 career TD percentage ... Has also rushed 179 times for 737 yards (4.1 avg.) with six TDs ... Started his first career postseason game with the Chiefs in 2003 ... Owns a 42-41 (.506) regular season record as an NFL starter (6-8 with Washington, 2-3 with St. Louis and 34-30 with Kansas City) ... Has 25 career 300-yard passing games (two with Washington, three with St. Louis and 20 with Kansas City) ... Owns 26 career regular season contests with a 100.0 rating or better (min. 20 attempts), including 21 with Kansas City, two with St. Louis and three with Washington ... Has registered two of the top three passer rating games in Chiefs history and became the only player in franchise annals to produce a "perfect" 158.3 rating in a game, doing it in a 45-17 win vs. Detroit (12/14/03) ... Has orchestrated 15 career victories during his career when his club has trailed or been tied in the fourth quarter with 12 of those wins coming in Kansas City ... Was at the helm for every contest of a franchise-record 13-game regular season winning streak at Arrowhead that began with a 20-10 win vs. Oakland (10/27/02) and concluded with a 31-3 victory vs. Chicago (12/28) ... Joined Steve Bono ('95) as the only other QB to lead the club to a perfect 8-0 record at home in team history when he did it in 2003 ... Since coming to Kansas City, has completed an incredible comeback odyssey which began following a devastating knee injury that cost him the entire '99 regular season and his starting job in St. Louis ... Followed an unlikely path to NFL success after beginning his career with San Diego in '93 ... Had a brief, two-week stint on the roster of the CFL's British Columbia Lions in '94 before catching on in Washington ('95-98) ... Didn't even attempt his first regular season NFL pass until the '97 season with the Redskins, but by the '98 campaign, he was that club's starter ... Was poised to lead the Rams as that club's starting QB after signing as an unrestricted free agent in '99, but his hopes for the year were dashed before the start of the regular season ... In just his third appearance with the club in the '99 preseason vs. San Diego (8/28), suffered a devastating knee injury when he tore the ACL, MCL and lateral meniscus in his left knee ... While St. Louis would march to Super Bowl XXXIV with Warner at the helm, Green spent two seasons overcoming lingering effects of injuries ... Came back to play in eight games (five starts) for St. Louis in 2000, but those injuries did require further surgery prior to his arrival in Kansas City ... Was reunited with head coach Dick Vermeil and assistant head coach/offensive coordinator Al Saunders with the Chiefs in 2001 ... Is well-versed in the Chiefs offensive scheme which came from St. Louis and whose origins date back to San Diego's "Air Coryell" offense in the '80s ... In addition to Vermeil and Saunders, was also tutored in the intricacies of the offense by Norv Turner, Mike Martz and Cam Cameron. Martz served as the Redskins QBs coach under Turner and was the head coach in St. Louis in 2000 with Saunders serving as the Rams associate head coach/wide receivers coach. Cameron coached the Redskins QBs from '94-96.

EXTREME MAKEOVER: HOME EDITION

QB Trent Green and FB Tony Richardson appeared on ABC's "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition" in May of 2005, which featured a Kansas City family. The show's cast and crew replaced Stephen Johnson's 1,200-square foot ranch with a six-bedroom luxury home. Johnson, a Kansas City firefighter, is a single father of five and helped save the life of a local EMT when she was shot in the line of duty. Green and Richardson spent two days on location decorating the home with host Ty Pennington (left) and visiting with the hundreds of volunteers involved. The Chiefs players also revisited the family after the filming for a welcome home barbecue and football game in the yard.

1995: Did not take a regular season snap the entire season as Washington's third quarterback.

CFL (1994): Signed with British Columbia of the Canadian Football League (10/28) ... Dressed for two games, but did not see any action and was subsequently released on November 10th.

San Diego (1993): Earned a spot on San Diego's roster as the club's third quarterback ... Was inactive for all 16 games after joining the club as an eighth-round (222nd overall) draft choice.

VETERANS

Pro Career:

Two-time Pro Bowl kick returner enters his sixth campaign in Kansas City in 2005 ... Only the second player in Chiefs history to garner a Pro Bowl selection as a return artist, joining J.T. Smith who earned the honor after the '80 season ... Unquestionably one of the most exciting return men in the league today ... Owns a franchise-record nine kick return TDs (5 KORs, 4 PRs) dating back to the start of the 2002 campaign, the highest total of any player in the league over that three-season span ... Continues to develop as a big-play performer in the passing game, owning a trio of 100-yard receiving games ... Is listed as a wide receiver, but is a true triple-threat performer who can make a difference as a receiver, runner or return man ... Can line up in the backfield or split out, making him especially difficult to defend, particularly in third-down situations ... One of the speediest players on the Kansas City squad, can run by defenders, but has also displayed the ability to elude even the most seasoned defenders with his ability to stop, start, shimmy and shake ... Continued to rewrite the Chiefs record book in 2004, becoming the franchise's all-time leader in special teams TDs (9), kickoff return TDs (5), kickoff returns (242), kickoff return yards (5,877), while establishing single-season team marks for kickoff returns (68) and kickoff return yards (1,718) ... Needs just one more kickoff return TD to tie the NFL career record of six currently shared by RBs Ollie Matson, Gale Sayers, Travis Williams and Mel Gray ... Hall's nine combined kick return TDs (kickoffs and punts) are tied for third in NFL history with Matson, Gray and CB Deion Sanders. RB Brian Mitchell (13) owns the NFL record and RB Eric Metcalf (12) is second ... Enjoyed one of the most prolific seasons of any return man in league annals in 2003, becoming the first player to ever register a kick return TD (kickoff or punt) in four consecutive games ... Was just the eighth player in NFL annals to have four such return scores over the course of the entire regular season and was the first to do it since Denver WR Rick Upchurch in '76. Interestingly, the first player to accomplish that feat was Detroit RB Jack Christiansen — the late father-in-law of Chiefs trainer Dave Kendall — who did it in '51 ... For good measure, Hall added a 92-yard kickoff return TD in an AFC Divisional Playoff

Became the first Chiefs player to appear on the "Late Show with David Letterman" on October 30, 2003. Flew to New York on the bye week after setting an NFL record by producing four straight games with a kick return score.

Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11/04), making him the first player in league history to register five kick return scores in a season when you include the playoffs ... Owning the ability to score from any spot on the field, his 13 career regular season TDs (five KORs, four PRs and four receptions) have come from an average distance of 82.4 yards, the longest distance of any player in NFL history with at least 10 scores ... The Chiefs are 7-1 in regular season play when he registers a TD on a kick or punt return ... Sits at or near the top of virtually every Chiefs career, season and single-game record list as a return man ... Owns Kansas City records for career punt return average (11.48), as well as single-game team marks for punt (35.00) and kickoff return average (48.67) ... His four career punt return TDs are tied with WR Tamarick Vanover for the club's all-time lead ... Is one of just eight players in Chiefs history to record a TD three different ways ... Ranks third in club annals with 119 punt returns, needing 63 more to overtake Vanover (181) for second. J.T. Smith owns the team record at 220 ... His 1,366 career punt return yards are third in team history, trailing only Vanover (1,930) and Smith (2,322) ... Holds the Chiefs record for the longest punt return in team history (93 yards) and the second-longest kickoff return (100 yards) ... A true all-purpose threat, his 2,446 combined net yards in 2004 were the highest tally ever amassed in a season by a Chiefs player ... Got his first pro return score on a 90-yard punt return TD vs. Arizona (12/1/02), starting a string of nine return touchdowns over his last 37 regular season contests ... Recorded a rare daily double by getting an 88-yard kickoff return TD and an 86-yard punt return TD vs. St. Louis (12/8/02), making him just the 21st player in NFL history to score on both a kickoff return and a punt return in the same game and the only individual in Chiefs annals to own that distinction ... Has been named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week seven times, the most of any player in Chiefs history ... Took over Kansas City's return duties on a full-time basis in 2001 after seeing limited action in that role as a rookie in 2000 ... Joins a growing list of NFL Europe alumni playing in the NFL after spending the spring of 2001 playing for the Scottish Claymores ... Was inducted into the Claymores Hall of Fame in April of 2004 ... Owns 66 games of regular season experience with eight starts, taking snaps on offense in 53 games ... Has touched the ball a total of 483 times on returns, rushes and receptions, producing 8,411 combined net yards with 13 TDs, good for an average of 17.4 yards every time he gets the pigskin in his hands ... Needs just 25 more receiving yards to join Smith as the only other player in franchise history to own 1,000 or more yards as a receiver, a kickoff returner and a punt returner ... Has returned 242 kickoffs for 5,877 yards (24.3 avg.) with five TDs ... Owns 119 punt returns for 1,366 yards (11.5 avg.) with four TDs ... Has 37 rushes for 193 yards (5.2 avg.) and 85 receptions for 975 yards (11.5 avg.) with four scores.

Transactions: Signed a five-year contract with Kansas City (1/23/03) ... Signed a three-year contract with Kansas City (7/6/00) ... Selected by Kansas City in the fifth round (153rd overall) of the 2000 draft.

2004: Played in 16 games (six starts) at WR and as the club's return specialist ... Totaled 124 touches for 2,236 yards (18.0 avg.) with two TDs ... Caught 25 passes for 230 yards (9.2 avg.) and rushed eight times for 56 yards (7.0 avg.) ... Also had 68 kickoff returns for a career-high 1,718 yards (25.3 avg.) with two TDs and 23 punt returns for 232 yards (10.1 avg.) ... Was fourth in the AFC and tied for seventh in the NFL with a 10.1-yard punt return average ... His 25.3 kickoff return average was second in the AFC and fifth in the NFL ... Set single-season team records with 68 kickoff returns and 1,718 kickoff return yards ... Became the first player in Kansas City history to register a pair of kickoff return TDs back-to-back seasons ... Started at WR at Denver (9/12) ... Started at WR vs. Houston (9/26), touching the ball 13 times for 198 yards ... Started at WR at Baltimore (10/4) ... Handled the ball 10 times for 211 yards vs. Indianapolis (10/31), including six kickoff returns for 122 yards. Also added a season-long 46-yard reception ... Registered 197 yards on 11 touches at New Orleans (11/14), including a season-high four catches for 22 yards ... Handled the pigskin eight times for 242 yards vs. San Diego (11/28). Returned six kickoffs for a career-high 233 yards with a 96-yard TD, the third-highest single-game yardage tally in team history. Registered his 213th career kickoff return in the second quarter, passing WR Tamarick Vanover (212) for the most in Chiefs history. On a 77-yard kickoff return in the third quarter, he bypassed Vanover (5,099) for the most kickoff return yards in franchise history ... Earned AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors vs. Denver (12/19) thanks to a 97-yard kickoff return TD on the opening kickoff. It was his fifth career KO return TD, the most in Chiefs history, passing Vanover (4). It was also his ninth career special teams TD, moving him ahead of Vanover (8) for the most in franchise annals ... Touched the ball 10 times for 194 yards to win AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors vs. Oakland (12/25), marking the team-record seventh time he had claimed that honor. Returned six kickoffs for 175 yards, including a 49-yard return to set up the game-winning field goal. Became the Chiefs single-season record holder for kickoff returns and kickoff return yards on his first return of the game.

2003: Served as a WR and the club's returner in 16 games with two starts at WR ... Was selected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl as a kick returner, becoming the first Chiefs player to earn two Pro Bowl invites as a kick returner ... Was named the NFL Alumni 2003 Special Teams Player of the Year ... Collected All-Pro honors from the Associated Press and was named to the Phil Simms All-Iron Team ... Touched the ball 142 times for a franchise-record 2,446 combined net yards (17.2 avg.) with five TDs on returns, receptions and rushes ... Posted 57 kickoff returns for 1,478 yards (25.9 avg.) with two TDs ... That KOR yardage tally led the AFC and ranked second in the NFL, while his 25.9-yard kickoff return average ranked second in the AFC and third in the NFL ... Was second in the AFC and tied for fifth in the NFL with 34 kickoff returns of 20+ yards ... Returned 29 punts for 472 yards with two TDs, good for a league-high average of 16.28. That 16.28-yard punt return average ranked as the top single-season mark in team history, bypassing the previous record of 15.36 by Abner Haynes ('60) ... Those 472 punt return yards ranked second in the AFC and third in the NFL ... Tied for second in the NFL with eight punt returns of 20+ yards ... Set career highs as a receiver with 40 catches for 423 yards (10.6 avg.) with one TD and 16 carries for 73 yards (4.6 avg.) ... Was the only NFL player to return both a kickoff and punt for a TD in 2003 ... His two kickoff return TDs tied with RB Paul Palmer ('87) and WR Tamarick Vanover ('95) for the best single-season total in team history ... His two punt returns for scores tied with W.R.T. Smith ('79 and '80) for the most in a season in KC annals ... Became just the eighth player in NFL history to return four kicks for TDs in a season and was the only player to return five in a season when you include the playoffs ... Compiled an NFL-record streak of four consecutive games with a kick return TD, winning

AFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors following each of those contests, becoming the first player to win that award four consecutive weeks. Had a 100-yard kickoff return TD vs. Pittsburgh (9/14), a 73-yard punt return TD vs. Houston (9/21), a 97-yard kickoff return TD at Baltimore (9/28) and a 93-yard punt return TD vs. Denver (10/5) ... Totaled 10 touches for 229 yards vs. Pittsburgh (9/14). His 100-yard KOR score was the second-longest kickoff return TD in Chiefs history and the longest since WR Noland Smith set an NFL record with a 106-yard kickoff return vs. Denver (12/17/67). Hall's 48.67 kickoff return average broke his previous team mark of 44.67 set vs. St. Louis (12/8/02) ... Touched the ball nine times for 174 yards at Houston (9/21) as his lone punt return of the day resulted in a 73-yard TD. Also added a career-high four carries for 33 yards. Became the first player in Chiefs history to earn back-to-back Conference Player of the Week honors ... Totaled six touches for 112 yards at Baltimore (9/28). Recorded three kickoff returns for 121 yards (40.3 avg.) with a 97-yard return score. That 97-yard return tied for the longest allowed by Baltimore and as the fifth-longest in Kansas City history. With the score tied at 10-10 with 5:31 remaining in the fourth quarter, the Ravens were flagged for offsides after Hall had been stopped for a 12-yard gain on a kickoff return. Baltimore was forced to kick off again and Hall responded with the game-winning score ... Was named the AFC Special Teams Player of the Month for September after returning 11 kickoffs for 390 yards (35.5 avg.) with two scores and nine punts for 154 yards (17.1 avg.) with one TD ... Touched the ball 10 times for 223 yards vs. Denver (10/5). Returned three punts for 105 yards, including a franchise-long 93-yard TD. That punt return was the longest in the NFL since L.A. Rams CB Robert Bailey returned one an NFL record 103 yards at New Orleans (10/23/94) and the first returned from inside the 10-yard line for a TD since Bailey in '94. With the Chiefs trailing 23-17 with 8:45 left in the game, Hall fielded the ball at the seven-yard line and zig-zagged his way to daylight along the left sideline for his second straight game-winning score. His 35.00-yard punt return average established a Chiefs single-game record, breaking the previous mark of 28.67 shared by RB Mike Garrett (9/11/66) and Smith (9/15/68) ... Registered 13 touches for 148 yards at Green Bay (10/12), posting two punt returns for 62 yards and four kickoff returns for 54 yards. Nearly registered his fifth straight return score as P Josh Bidwell made the TD-saving tackle on a 30-yard punt return in the second quarter ... Registered the second 100-yard receiving day of his career with a four-catch, 107-yard effort that included a 67-yard TD pass vs. Buffalo (10/26) ... Was sacked on his first career pass attempt vs. Cleveland (11/9) ... Touched the ball a career-high 19 times for a career-best 296 combined net yards (15.6 avg.) at Denver (12/7). Caught a career-high 11 passes for 124 yards and rushed two times for 15 yards. Also returned six kickoffs for 157 yards. Those 296 combined net yards were the third-highest single-game total in team history, while his 11 receptions tied as the third-best single-game total in team annals ... Bypassed RB Priest Holmes' single-season record for combined net yards in a season (2,287 in 2002) at Minnesota (12/20) ... Touched the ball nine times for 227 yards (25.2 avg.) with two TDs in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11/04). Returned seven kickoffs for a team-record 208 yards (29.7 avg.) with a 92-yard TD and added two catches for 19 yards with a nine-yard TD. His franchise-record 208 kickoff return yards were the third-highest single-game total in NFL postseason annals. His 227 combined net yards ranked as the second-best single-game tally in club history, trailing only RB Ed Podolak's 350-yard performance vs. Miami (12/25/71).

DANTE'S PLAYGROUND

In September of 2004 WR Dante Hall partnered with Thrivent Financial for Lutherans, KaBoom! and the Kansas City Missouri Parks and Recreation Department to construct an inner-city playground. The new playground was part of a beautification project at Blue Valley Park in Kansas City, Missouri. In one day, Hall and hundreds of volunteers erected a state-of-the-art recreation facility and had an official ribbon-cutting with students from McCoy Elementary School. Hall's X-Factor Foundation, Thrivent and KaBoom! are scheduled to build another playground in Kansas City, Kansas in the fall of 2005.

second in the AFC and third in the NFL on the season ... Ranked third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL with a 13.4-yard punt return average ... His two punt returns for TDs tied the Chiefs single-season mark ... Joined Oakland RB Terry Kirby and New Orleans WR Michael Lewis as the only players in the NFL to return both a punt and kickoff for a TD on the season ... Recorded a career-high seven KO returns for 192 yards (27.4 avg.) at Cleveland (9/8). Added two carries for 14 yards and caught his first NFL pass for four yards ... Registered two carries for a career-best 34 yards, including a career-long 21-yard carry at New England (9/22) ... Touched the ball a season-high 11 times for 120 yards vs. Miami (9/29) ... Personal:

- An All-America selection as a senior at Nimitz High School in Houston, Texas, the same school attended by current Denver RB Quentin Griffin.
- Has partnered with the NFL's "Play It Smart" program, serving as a mentor to the Central High School football team in Kansas City.
- Was nicknamed "The Human Joystick" by Voice of the Chiefs Mitch Holthaus due to his innate ability to stop and start on a dime and change direction, much like a player in a video game.

Pro Career: Hard-hitting young safety embarks on his fourth training camp with Kansas City in 2004 ... Served as the club's top reserve at the free safety post a year ago and owns NFL starting experience at both safety positions ... Is expected to concentrate his efforts at strong safety for the Chiefs in 2005 ... Played in all 16 contests last season, starting the final six games at free safety in place of an injured S Jerome Woods ... Valuable member of the club's special teams units who registered a career-high 16 special teams stops in 2003 ... Racked up the first two interceptions of his career in 2003, including one which he returned for a 39-yard TD ... Unselfishly returned to a reserve role in 2003 after taking advantage of his opportunity to get on the field the previous season ... Opened the final 11 games of 2002 due to injuries to Woods and S Greg Wesley, posting a career-high 86 tackles ... Started a pair of games at strong safety in place of an injured Wesley before moving into the starting slot at free safety for the final nine contests of the year ... Gifted natural athlete spent time playing both wide receiver and running back in college and has proven in his first three NFL seasons that he can cover plenty of ground in a hurry ... Began his tenure with the club on the practice squad in 2001 before earning a spot on the active roster by the end of his rookie campaign ... Is a physical tackler who isn't afraid of packing a wallop ... Earned a reputation for creating big plays after forcing or recovering a fumble in each of his first three pro starts ... Has played in 51 games (17 starts), recording 163 tackles (104 solo), 2.0 sacks (-13.0 yards), two fumble recoveries, five forced fumbles and eight passes defended ... Has added 33 stops and a fumble return on special teams.

Defensive End • 6-6 • 280

Born: June 17, 1976
Erie, Pennsylvania

Maryland
Free Agent (1998)
NFL: 8 (8th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (96/90) Playoffs: (1/1)

Pro Career: Rugged eighth-year veteran has been a consistently productive performer for the Chiefs since breaking into the club's starting lineup at left defensive in '99 ... Former rookie free agent is one of the most respected leaders on the squad and is one of the cornerstones of the Chiefs defensive unit ... Durable performer enters the 2005 campaign with a streak of 45 consecutive starts and hasn't missed an opening assignment due to an injury since the 2000 season ... Has started 90 of his 96 regular season appearances with the Chiefs ... With just 10 more starts will become just the 31st player in franchise history to reach the 100-start plateau ... Can also become one of just 61 players in team annals to play in 100 or more games ... An impact player as a pass rusher, already ranks fifth in franchise history with 40.5 career sacks, needing just 11.0 more to overtake DE Mike Bell (51.0) for fourth ... Frequently forces opposing passers into poor decisions, even when he doesn't register the sack ... Racked up a career-high 43 QB pressures in 2004, marking the third campaign in his career that he's registered 30 or more ... Is also a force against the run, producing a career-high 118 tackles (52 solo) in 2003, the initial triple-digit tackle campaign of his pro career ... Owns 496 career tackles and needs just four more to become the 16th member of Kansas City's 500-tackle club ... Started earning respect from the rest of the league after accumulating 14.0 sacks in just 11 starts during the 2000 campaign ... That sack tally tied as the seventh-highest seasonal mark in Kansas City history ... Became just the fourth Chiefs player to ever reach the 14.0-sack mark, joining the elite company of the late LB Derrick Thomas ('90, '92), DE Neil Smith ('92-'93) and DE Art Still ('80, '84) ... Was also named to USA Today's All-Joe team for his efforts in 2000, a honor which is bestowed annually to the league's top blue-collar performers ... Received second-team All-Pro honors from Football Digest that season, as well ... Has enjoyed a remarkable ride after initially coming to the Chiefs as a relatively obscure and undersized rookie free agent in '98 ...

Became the only rookie free agent to make the club's Opening Day roster in '98 ... Packed on plenty of muscle mass the following off-season after originally weighing in with the Chiefs at 261 pounds ... Earned the starting spot at left defensive end in '99 after John Browning was lost for the year with an injury in training camp ... Won that starting job despite learning during camp that his infant daughter Shayla was diagnosed as having a severe heart condition. Eventually left camp for a brief time to be with his wife and daughter as Shayla underwent open-heart surgery ... With Shayla given a clean bill of health in 2000, entered his second season as a starter only to be faced with his own medical obstacle ... Was off to a phenomenal start to the 2000 campaign, getting 7.0 sacks in the Chiefs first six games, only to be felled by a right knee sprain ... That injury was diagnosed as a condition which would keep him out of the lineup a minimum of six weeks, but returned to the Chiefs lineup just four games later ... Has the ability to get sacks in big bunches, owning 10 career multi-sack contests ... Is particularly effective at Arrowhead, where eight of those 10 multi-sack efforts have come ... Has registered 9.5 of his sacks against San Diego, by far his highest total against any single opponent ... Also has shown a penchant for producing big plays in prime time contests ... Racked up a career-high 3.0 sacks in a 24-17 Monday Night Football win vs. Seattle (10/2/00) and got his first NFL score on a pivotal 44-yard fumble return in the fourth quarter of a 31-28 win vs. Minnesota (12/12/99) in a Sunday night contest ... Has spent his entire pro career with Bob Karmelowicz serving as his defensive line coach, who he is quick to credit for much of his success ... Has seen action in 96 career regular season games (90 starts) ... Has racked up 496 tackles (232 solo), 40.5 sacks (-258.0 yards), seven forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, one of which he returned for a 44-yard TD ... Owns 154 QB pressures and 13 passes defended, as well ... Had a forced fumble and two tackles in three games of special teams action as a rookie ... Accumulated four tackles (three solo) in his lone postseason start in 2003.

Hicks' six-year-old daughter Shayla overcame numerous heart surgeries as an infant, inspiring Hicks to form the 'Hicks for Hearts Foundation.'

In three postseason appearances, produced 20 carries for 41 yards (2.1 avg.) to go with six receptions for 35 yards.

2004: Played in all 16 games (eight starts) at fullback ... Carried the ball 17 times for 62 yards (3.6 avg.) and added 11 receptions for 60 yards (5.5 avg.) ... Helped pave the way for RB Chris Brown, who finished the year with 1,067 rushing yards ... Rushed seven times for a season-high 31 yards at Miami (9/11) ... Had a season-long 20-yard run at Houston (11/28).

2003: Played in 15 games at fullback, producing 63 carries for 201 yards (3.2 avg.) with one TD ... Also caught 19 passes for 121 yards (6.3 avg.) with a score ... Scored on a five-yard touchdown run at Houston (10/12) ... Posted a team-high 53 yards on 16 carries at Carolina (10/19) ... Scored on a one-yard TD reception vs. Indianapolis (12/7) ... Suffered a strained left hamstring at Houston (12/21) and missed a contest vs. Tampa Bay (12/28) and an AFC Wild Card Game at Baltimore (1/3) with that injury ... Saw duty in AFC Divisional Playoff Game at New England (1/10).

Holcombe owns 10 games of NFL playoff experience, a mark that ties with WR Freddie Mitchell for the most by any active Chiefs player.

2002: Appeared in eight games and was listed as inactive for eight contests with a fractured left hip ... Totaled 47 carries for 242 yards (5.1 avg.), as well as 10 catches for 91 yards (9.1 avg.) ... Suffered a fractured left hip in the second quarter of the season opener vs. Philadelphia (9/8) and was listed as inactive for the next eight contests with that injury ... Returned to action vs. Pittsburgh (11/17), accounting for three carries and 18 yards ... Registered 10 carries for a season-high 85 yards with a career-long 39-yard run vs. New England (12/16) ... Produced 17 yards on 11 carries as well as one catch for 10 yards in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Pittsburgh (1/11) ... Recorded nine carries for 24 yards to go along with five catches for 25 yards in the AFC Championship Game at Oakland (1/19).

St. Louis (1998-01): Appeared in 58 games (22 starts) in four seasons with St. Louis ... Posted 210 carries for 636 yards (3.0 avg.) with 10 touchdowns and 29 catches for 301 yards (10.4 avg.) and two TDs ... Had three rushes for 15 yards and four receptions for 18 yards in seven postseason contests (three starts).

2001: Saw duty in 16 regular season games and all three postseason games of the club's Super Bowl XXXVI run ... Produced 13 carries for 42 yards with one score and one catch for 14 yards ... Also led the club with 15 special teams tackles ... Notched one special teams tackle in Super Bowl XXXVI vs. New England (2/3/02).

2000: Played in 14 games with a career-high nine starts, working as both a FB and a RB ... Registered 21 carries for 70 yards (3.3 avg.) with three TDs ... Served as lead blocker for RB Marshall Faulk's MVP season in which he posted a then-NFL record 26 touchdowns ... Saw action in the club's NFC Wild Card Playoff Game at New Orleans (1/30).

1999: Saw action in 15 games (six starts) seeing duty at both FB and RB ... Had 78 carries for a career-high 294 yards (3.8 avg.) with four touchdowns and 14 receptions for 163 yards (11.6 avg.) with one TD ... Priest

Running Back • 5-9 • 213

Born: October 7, 1973
Fort Smith, Arkansas

Texas
Unrestricted Free Agent (2001)
GP/GS: (102/73) Playoffs: (5/2)

Pro Career: Three-time Pro Bowl running back enters his fifth season with Kansas City in 2005 after signing with the Chiefs with virtually no national fanfare as an unrestricted free agent from Baltimore on April 21, 2001 ... Has been nothing short of sensational during his first four campaigns in a Kansas City uniform ... Will attempt to regain his Pro Bowl form this season after missing the final eight contests of 2004 with a strained MCL in his right knee at Tampa Bay (11/7) ... Was on a torrid pace entering that contest, leading the NFL in both rushing yards (833) and scoring (84) at the time ... Has displayed the ability to bounce back from medical setbacks throughout his football career ... Whether it was overcoming a torn ACL at the University of Texas in '95, a sprained MCL with Baltimore in '99 or a right hip injury with Kansas City in 2002, has always come back seemingly even better than before after all of those maladies ... Underwent a procedure to remove some soft tissue and loose fragments from his hip (3/25/03) and resumed his record-breaking ways in 2003 ... Hopes to make make a similar recovery in 2005 from last year's knee injury ... Despite missing the final eight games of 2004 with a right knee ailment, still continued his record-breaking rampage a year ago ... Among Holmes' notable accomplishments last season, he became the Chiefs career leader in rushing yards (5,482) and yards from scrimmage (7,645), while establishing NFL marks for the most total TDs (66) and most rushing TDs (62) over a three-year span, racking up those touchdown totals from 2002-04 ... Has piled up points at a prolific pace during his Kansas City tenure, owning 456 points with the Chiefs, the third-highest tally in team history ... Is Kansas City's career leader with 76 total TDs, including a franchise-record 70 rushing scores ... Established a pair of NFL single-season records for rushing and total touchdowns with 27 TDs in 2003 ... His 27 total TDs broke Marshall Faulk's previous standard (26 in 2000), while his 27 rushing TDs overtook a mark owned by Emmitt Smith (25 in '95) ... His 48 rushing TDs from 2002-03 also established the best two-year total in league annals ... Ranks 14th in NFL history with 80 career rushing TDs and ranks fourth among active players, trailing only Marshall Faulk (100), Curtis Martin (85) and Jerome Bettis (82) ... Has registered nine games during his NFL career with three or more rushing TDs and is just one more contest away from tying

Holmes has scored 66 total TDs over the past three seasons (2002-04), the highest tally by any player over a three-year span in NFL history.

the league mark for such games held by Hall of Fame RB Jim Brown (10) ... Owns a total of 12 games in which he has scored three or more total TDs (rushing and receiving), including a pair of contests with four rushing TDs ... Is on the cusp of breaking even more Chiefs records in 2005 ... Currently owns 1,156 rushing attempts to rank third in team annals and needs just 91 more to overtake RB Christian Okoye (1,246) for the franchise's all-time lead ... Has handled the ball 1,381 times from scrimmage with the Chiefs and needs just 65 more touches to overtake RB Ed Podolak (1,381) for the most in team history ... With 2,163 receiving yards in a Chiefs uniform is just 667 yards away from surpassing FB Kimble Anders (2,829) for the highest total ever assembled by a Kansas City running back ... Meanwhile, his 225 receptions are the third-highest total produced by a Chiefs RB and are the ninth-highest tally by any player in franchise history ... No matter how you measure it, has simply been one of the NFL's most productive all-around player since coming to Kansas City ... Despite missing 10 games due to injury over the past four seasons (2001-04), no NFL back has averaged more rushing yards per game (101.5) or more yards from scrimmage per game (141.6) than Holmes ... Incredibly, Holmes has averaged 15.9 scrimmage yards per game more since 2001 than his next-closest competitor, San Diego RB LaDainian Tomlinson (125.7) ... Dating back to the start of the 2001 campaign, Tomlinson (7,921) is the only player who owns more yards from scrimmage than Holmes

(7,645), who has piled up his numbers in nine fewer contests than the Chargers Pro Bowl RB ... Racked up a franchise-record 2,287 yards from scrimmage in 2002 alone, the sixth-highest seasonal mark in NFL history ... Over the past four seasons, N.Y. Giants RB Tiki Barber (2,213) is the only NFL back to own more receiving yards than Holmes (2,163) ... Owns 31 career regular season 100-yard rushing games, including a franchise-record 24 with Kansas City ... Only Green Bay RB Ahman Green (25) and N.Y. Jets RB Curtis Martin (25) have topped the century mark more frequently since 2001 ... Holmes' teams are 22-9 (7-0 with Baltimore, 15-9 with Kansas City) when he tops the 100-yard rushing plateau in regular season play ... Also owns a 100-yard rushing effort in postseason play with the Chiefs ... Ranks 34th on the NFL's all-time rushing yardage chart with 7,584 yards ... Has rattled off three 1,000-yard rushing campaigns with the Chiefs, averaging an impressive 1,370.5 rushing yards per season since his arrival at Arrowhead ... Is the only player in franchise history to compile multiple 1,000-yard campaigns ... Registered 892 rushing yards and 14 ground TDs in only eight games a year ago ... Piled up 1,420 rushing yards in 2003 after setting a franchise record and earning NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors from the Associated Press with a 1,615-yard effort in just 14 games in 2002 ... His 3,170 ground yards from 2001-02 were by far the highest two-year total in Chiefs history ... Led the NFL in rushing with 1,555 yards in 2001 ... Has topped the 1,000-yard barrier a total of four times in his career, including a 1,008-yard effort with Baltimore in '98 ... Productive player always seems to find a way to move the chains ... Already owns Chiefs records for rushes of 10+ yards in a career (172), season (53 in 2002) and game (10 at Oakland 12/9/01) ... Has also produced three of the top six single-game rushing performances in team history ... Talented Texan is truly a humble competitor who typically prefers to credit his offensive line and one of the league's most talented lead blockers in two-time Pro Bowl FB Tony Richardson for much of his success ... Despite frequently shunning the spotlight, is still a supremely confident all-around performer whose passion and enthusiasm for the game rubs off on his teammates ... Is an avid chess player, who compares his running style to that cerebral game: "Chess is a time game, it's a game of patience, and that pretty much defines how I run the ball," says Holmes. "I'm patient, always looking for the opportunity and trying to capitalize off the other person's mistake." ... In terms of a specific chess piece, likens himself to a bishop: "I like the bishop because he can just sit there on the rim, then slice your throat and you never see it coming. You will forget about it, and that's when I attack. The bishop is a lot like me in that regard. Just when you think you have me, I'm already behind you." ... Simply provides Kansas City a true home-run hitter in the backfield, regardless of how you describe his style ... Is truly a threat to take the ball all the way every time he touches the pignskin, but some of his more remarkable runs come when he inexplicably turns would-be losses into gains ... Is also truly appreciative of his teammates ... Along with 10-time Pro Bowl G

Will Shields, actually invited the whole squad to join them for the Pro Bowl in Honolulu after he earned his initial berth to that squad following the 2001 campaign ... Provides Kansas City with a multi-purpose threat out of the backfield, making him a key cog in the Chiefs offensive setup ... Along with Abner Haynes, Joe Delaney and Tony Reed is one of just four players in franchise annals to register a 100-yard double-double (100 yards rushing and 100 yards receiving) and is the only player in Chiefs history to own two such games ... In total, has registered four career 100-yard receiving games in a KC uniform, just one behind Haynes who owns the Chiefs RB record with five such contests ... Broke his own Chiefs single-season receiving records for RBs in 2003 with 74 catches for 690 yards ... Former rookie free agent initially made a name for himself in Baltimore as an accomplished pass catcher, hauling in a franchise-record 13 passes in a single game for the Ravens in '98 ... Became the first Ravens runner to ever post a 1,000-yard season when he piled up 1,008 yards in '98 ... Accepted a reduced role in Baltimore in 2000 to allow Jamal Lewis to blossom, which helped pave the way for the Ravens march to a victory in Super Bowl XXXV ... Has seen action in 102 career regular season games with 73 starts ... Owns 1,615 carries for 7,584 yards (4.7 avg.) with 80 TDs, as well as 313 receptions for 2,748 yards (8.8 avg.) and seven TDs ... Has been named AFC Offensive Player of the Week six times, getting that honor five times with the Chiefs and once with the Ravens ... Was also named AFC Offensive Player of the Month in October of both 2002 and 2004 ... Has been responsible for 519 first downs in his career, gaining 429 with Kansas City and 90 during his tenure in Baltimore ... Has also returned five kickoffs for 51 yards and owns seven special teams tackles ... Owns three career pass attempts with one INT ... Has played in five postseason games (two starts), amassing 42 carries for 221 yards (5.3 avg.) with two TDs ... Saw action in four postseason games with the Ravens including a start in Super Bowl XXXV vs. the N.Y. Giants (1/28/01).

Running Back • 6-1 • 230

Born: November 19, 1979
State College, Pennsylvania

Penn State
Draft (No. 1 - 2003)
NFL: 3 (3rd with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (16/3) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Highly-valued backup to three-time Pro Bowl RB Priest Holmes enters his third campaign with Kansas City in 2005 ... Is expected to serve as the club's top reserve at RB this season ... Busted loose for 541 rushing yards and nine TDs over the last six games of the 2004 season in place of an injured Holmes ... Extremely decorated collegiate running back possesses a rugged running style that wears down opposing defenses and helps him pick up tough yards ... Shifty between-the-tackles ball carrier also possesses breakaway speed ... Exciting potential materialized with a breakout performance last season at Oakland (12/5) in which he gained a career-high 174 total yards from scrimmage, including 118 yards on the ground ... Followed up his first career 100-yard game with two more such outings, picking up 104 yards and two TDs at Tennessee (12/13) and a career-best 151 yards with two scores vs. Denver (12/19), becoming the first Chiefs player to register three consecutive 100-yard rushing games since Holmes did it in five straight games in 2002 ... Sparkled on the NFL's biggest regular season stage when he was selected the Monday Night Football Player of the Game and had his picture affixed to the MNF "horse trailer" after racking up 104 yards and two TDs on just seven carries at Tennessee (12/13). Also showed off his ability to hit the "home run" score when he scored on TD runs of 41 and 46 yards vs. the Titans, becoming the first Chiefs player to record two rushing TDs from 40+ yards in the same game. His 46-yard TD was the longest run of his career and the longest TD run by a Chiefs RB since Barry Word had an 53-yard jaunt vs. Detroit (10/4/90) ... Talented back also demonstrated his pass-catching ability out of the backfield, catching 22 passes for 278 yards and two TDs in 2004 ... Stepped into a starting role for the final three games of the season - filling in for an injured Holmes and RB Derrick Baylock - and did not disappoint ... Finished season by scoring a rushing TD in six straight games to tie Holmes for the second-longest streak in team history ... Selected by the Chiefs in the first round (27th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft ... Was the second running back taken in the draft behind Willis McGahee, who went to Buffalo with the 23rd overall pick ... Joined the Chiefs after a sensational senior season in which he exploded onto the national stage with a Penn State single-season record 2,087 rushing yards ... Has played in 16 games at the NFL level (three starts), rushing 140 times for 666 yards (4.8 avg.) with 10 touchdowns and catching 23 passes for 280 yards (12.2 avg.) and two TDs ... Also has one special teams tackle.

Johnson has re-upholstered the seats of his Mercedes G55 with NFL throwback jerseys honoring some of his favorite players. The front seat contains uniforms of his all-time favorites such as Dick "Night Train" Lane, while the back seat bears the jerseys of great running backs such as Jim Brown, Walter Payton and Earl Campbell.

Transactions: Signed a seven-year contract with Kansas City (7/17/03) ... Drafted in the first round (27th overall) of the 2003 NFL Draft ... The Chiefs obtained Pittsburgh's first-round pick (27th overall - used on Johnson), third-round pick (92nd overall - used on CB Julian Battle) and sixth-round pick (200th overall - subsequently traded to the N.Y. Jets) in exchange for the Chiefs first-round pick (16th overall - used on S Troy Polamalu).

2004: Played in 10 games on special teams and in eight games on offense with three starts ... Was inactive for two games ... Produced 120 carries for 581 yards (4.8 avg.) with nine TDs and 22 receptions for 278 yards (12.6 avg.) with two TDs ... Joined RBs Derrick Baylock (eight TDs) and Priest Holmes (14 TDs) to give the club three players with at least eight rushing TDs in a season for the first time in franchise history ... Scored a rushing TD in six consecutive games (11/28/04 - 1/2/05) to tie for the second-longest streak in team history ... Racked up 10 carries for 43 yards with a six-yard TD and caught one pass for seven yards vs. San Diego (11/28) ... Carried the ball 20 times for 118 yards with a five-yard TD run to register his first career 100-yard rushing game at Oakland (12/5). Also caught three passes for 56 yards, getting his first career receiving TD on a 10-yard pass from QB Trent Green. Finished the game with a career-high 174 yards from scrimmage ... Rushed seven times for 104 yards with a career-high two TDs and caught two throws for 19 yards at Tennessee (12/13). He scored on TD runs of 41 and 46 yards to become the first Chiefs player to record two rushing TDs from 40+ yards in the same game. His 46-yard TD was the longest run of his career and the longest TD run by a Chiefs player since WR Derrick Alexander had an 82-yard jaunt vs. Pittsburgh (12/18/99). It was the longest TD run by a Chiefs RB since Barry Word had a 53-yard run vs. Detroit (10/4/90) ... Started his first career NFL game vs. Denver (12/19), carrying the ball a career-high 30 times for a personal-best 151 yards with two TDs. Became the first Chiefs RB to register three consecutive 100-yard rushing games since RB Priest Holmes did it in five straight games in 2002. Was the first back other than Holmes to accomplish the feat since RB Christian Okoye did it in '89. Those three consecutive 100-yard games tied as the second-longest streak in KC history ... Rushed 25 times for 79 yards with two TDs and caught four passes for 43 yards vs. Oakland (12/25). It marked his third straight multi-TD rushing game and his fifth straight game with a rushing score, tying for the third-longest streak in team history ... Carried the ball 17 times for 46 yards with a TD and produced a career-high eight catches for a personal-best 115 yards with a TD for his first career 100-yard receiving game at San Diego (1/2/05). It marked his sixth consecutive game with a rushing TD to tie Holmes for the second-longest streak in team history.

2003: Saw action in six games and was inactive for 10 contests ... Carried the ball 20 times for 85 yards (4.3 avg.) with one TD ... Also had a two-yard reception and a special teams tackle ... Played in his first NFL game at Houston (9/21), rushing six times for 25 yards ... Had two carries for two yards vs. Cleveland (11/9) ... Rushed one time for six yards at San Diego (11/30) ... Carried the ball four times for 26 yards and caught one pass for two yards vs. Detroit (12/14) ... Rushed a seven times for 26 yards and scored his first NFL TD vs. Chicago (12/28) on a zig-zagging five-yard run that began left, went right and culminated with a dive into the end zone ... Was inactive for the club's AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11/04).

College: Saw duty in 46 games (18 starts) during his career at Penn State, recording 460 carries for 2,953 yards (6.4 avg.) with 26 TDs ... Hauled in 65 passes for 681 yards (10.5 avg.) with seven scores ... Added 59 kickoff returns for 1,347 yards (22.8 avg.) with one TD, as well as three punt returns for 64 yards (21.3 avg.) ... Blocked two punts and scored TDs on blocked punt returns of 15 and 40 yards ... Finished his career at Penn State as the fifth all-time leading rusher in Nittany Lions history ... Curt Warner (3,398), Blair Thomas (3,301), Curtis Enis (3,256) and D.J. Dozier (3,227) are the only backs in school history to accumulate more career rushing yardage than Johnson (2,953) ... Racked up 5,045 all-purpose yards to break the previous Penn State record of 4,982 set by Warner ... Amassed 1,347 kickoff return yards during his stay at Penn State, the second-highest total in school history behind only Kenny Watson (1,506) ... 150-YARD RUSHING GAMES

The Chiefs became the first team in NFL history to have three different players record a 150-yard rushing game in a season when RBs Derrick Blaylock, Priest Holmes and Larry Johnson all accomplished that feat in 2004. Blaylock had 186 yards at New Orleans (11/14/04), Holmes had 151 yards at Denver (9/12/04) and Johnson (left) had 151 yards in a 49-38 win at Tennessee (12/13/04). In that contest, Johnson also became the first player in Chiefs history to produce two TD runs of 40+ yards in a single game, registering rushing scores of 46 and 41 yards before a national television audience on Monday Night Football.

Pro Career: Big-play wide receiver blossomed into one of the NFL's top downfield threats with a banner year in 2004 ... Started 14 games last season, recording career highs in both receptions (62) and receiving yards (1,086), to go with a team-high eight TD catches ... Showed tremendous consistency, posting five 100-yard receiving games, one shy of the club record ... Entering his fifth season with the Chiefs, has found a home in Kansas City after previous pro stops with Denver (2001), Chicago (2000), New Orleans ('99) and St. Louis ('96-98) ... Holds a solid grasp on a starting wide receiver spot for 2005 ... Can work at either WR post and has started 44 contests over the past three seasons with the Chiefs ... Has caught a pass in 51 straight games, the third-longest streak in Chiefs history ... Former collegiate track star has the speed necessary to stretch the field vertically as evidenced by his 16.9 yards-per-catch average since his arrival in Kansas City ... Always a threat to catch the long ball, he tied for the NFL lead with five receptions of 50 or more yards in 2004, giving him 13 career catches that have covered 50+ yards ... Has produced 45 receptions of 20+ yards over the past three seasons, including 18 in 2004 which was good for seventh in the AFC ... Ended last season with a flourish accounting for 469 yards and five scores over the last five games ... Clutch receiver has the propensity to make the big play when the game is on the line ... Owns three game-winning fourth-quarter TD catches over the last two seasons ... Hauled in a 51-yard game-winning TD catch in a 40-34 OT victory at Green Bay (10/12/03), then scored the winning points in a pair of 2004 contests – a 70-yard TD-catch with just over two minutes remaining at Oakland (12/5/04) and a nine-yard fourth-quarter TD grab at Tennessee (12/13/04) ... Owns 13 career 100-yard receiving games, including nine in his tenure with the Chiefs ... Began to pay dividends for the club almost immediately after joining the club late in the 2001 campaign ... Registered a 121-yard outburst at Jacksonville (12/30/01), just his fourth game in the Red and Gold ... Rejoined head coach Dick Vermeil in Kansas City after spending the '97-98 seasons under Vermeil in St. Louis ... Has appeared in 136 career games (113 starts), catching 414 passes for 6,282 yards (15.2 avg.) with 32 TDs ... Is equally adept at returning kicks ... Has returned 141 punts for 1,413 yards (10.0 avg.) with three TDs and 25 kickoffs for 504 yards (20.2 avg.) ... Has also carried the ball 27 times for 218 yards (8.1 avg.) ... Owns three receptions for 50 yards (16.7 avg.) in one career postseason start.

Transactions: Signed a six-year contract with Kansas City (1/7/03) ... Signed a two-year contract with Kansas City (12/3/01) ... Released by Denver (11/15/01) ... Signed with Denver (4/5/01) ... Traded to Chicago by New Orleans (2/21/00) in exchange for a fifth-round 2000 draft pick (138th overall - subsequently traded to Indianapolis) ... Traded to New Orleans from St. Louis (2/18/99) in exchange for a second-round '99 draft choice (41st overall - used on CB Dre' Bly) ... Signed by St. Louis (7/27/96) ... Originally entered the NFL as a first-round selection (18th overall) of St. Louis in the '96 NFL Draft.

Pro Career: Ninth-year safety who signed with Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent from Miami on March 11th of this year ... Former Pro Bowl performer adds experience, toughness and tenacity to the Chiefs secondary ... Versatile contributor can play either safety position, but is expected to compete for the starting spot at strong safety for Kansas City ... Worked exclusively at strong safety with the Dolphins and his last four seasons with the Saints after seeing duty at both safety positions during his first two years in the league ... Extremely knowledgeable and instinctive performer who possesses a coaching mentality on the field ... Should provide an excellent role model for the rest of the club's defense both on the practice field and in the meeting room ... Physical performer who played both safety and linebacker at the collegiate level ... A fearless tackler who isn't afraid of initiating contact with ball carriers or receivers ... Earned a start for the NFC in the Pro Bowl following the 2001 season after registering 120 tackles (74 solo) and six INTs for the Saints ... Opportunistic defender who seems to always be around the ball and has a penchant for producing turnovers ... Has registered 46 takeaways (35 INTs, 11 FRs) dating back to his rookie season in '97, the highest total of any player in the league over that span ... Also has 10 forced fumbles to his credit ... His 35 interceptions are the second-highest total in the NFL over the past eight years, trailing only Minnesota's Darren Sharper (36) ... Still ranks third in New Orleans history with 28 interceptions during his tenure with the Saints from '97-02 ... His 464 INT return yards with New Orleans rank second in team annals ... Registered four interception returns for TDs with the Saints, the most in team history ... Posted a pair of INT return TDs in both '98 and 2002 ... Consistent performer has recorded 100+ tackles in six consecutive seasons ... Extremely durable player enters the 2005 campaign owning a streak of 108 straight games played and a string of 96 consecutive starts ... Has played in 126 games (121 starts) during his eight-year career ... Has 862 tackles (587 solo), 5.0 sacks (-26.0 yards), 35 interceptions (594 yards) with four touchdowns, 11 fumble recoveries, 10 forced fumbles, 74 passes defended and 18 special teams tackles ... Has also started two playoff games, recording nine tackles (four solo), four passes defended and two interceptions (56 yards) ... Originally entered the league with New Orleans in '97 when he was signed as a rookie free agent by current Chiefs Vice President of Pro Personnel Bill Kuharich, who was that franchise's President/GM/COO at the time.

Transactions: Signed a five-year contract with Kansas City (3/11/04) ... Signed a two-year contract with Miami (5/13/03) ... Signed a five-year contract with New Orleans (7/30/99) ... Signed a one-year contract with New Orleans (7/21/98) ... Signed a one-year contract as a rookie free agent with New Orleans (4/25/97).

Miami (2003-04): Started all 32 games for the Dolphins ... Produced 238 tackles (146 solo), 11 passes defended, seven interceptions (130 yards), one fumble recovery and three forced fumbles ... Also had three special teams tackles.

Pro Career: Hard-hitting and hard-working Wisconsinite entering his seventh NFL campaign with the Chiefs in 2005 ... Is attempting to stage a comeback from a serious left knee injury that cost him the entire 2004 regular season and the final six contests of the 2003 campaign ... Underwent a tibial osteotomy on that knee on September 29th of last year, a radical surgery designed to correct the alignment of the knee ... Is attempting to become the first NFL player and just the second known major league professional athlete to return to game action after undergoing a similar procedure. C Steve Yzerman of the NHL's Detroit Red Wings underwent a similar operation on his right knee in August of 2002 and returned to action in late February of 2003 ... Has been diligently rehabbing in hopes of returning to the field in 2005 ... Should his comeback bid be successful, would line up at the middle linebacker post, a position where he previously excelled in both NFL Europe and in the collegiate ranks ... Most recently started at MLB for the Chiefs in 2003, opening the first 10 games of that season at that position before being slowed by his left knee ... Has a history of making plays, no matter where he lines up ... Started all 16 games at ROLB in 2002, racking up a remarkable 162 stops to shatter LB Gary Spani's franchise single-season record of 159 tackles which had stood since '79 ... Initially entered the Chiefs starting lineup at LOLB in 2000 ... Tenacious performer with tremendous natural instincts for the game who is seemingly always around the ball ... Injuries have been the only hindrance to his tenure with the Chiefs ... Was waging a battle with Marcus Patton for the starting job at MLB post before suffering a left knee in the third preseason game of 2001 ... Has earned the respect of his peers and Kansas City's hardhat-and-lunchpail crowd with his "throwback" approach to the game ... Completed an arduous journey to the National Football League in '99 after playing in NFL Europe that spring and competing in the Arena Football League in '98 ... Initially entered the pro ranks as a rookie free agent with the San Diego Chargers in '97, but was cut before the start of the regular season ... Broke into the Chiefs starting lineup at the LOLB post late in the 2000 campaign ... Started five of the club's final six games of the year at that position, posting double-digit tackles in three of those contests ... Was a member of USA Today's All-Joe Team in 2000, a squad which annually recognizes the league's top blue-collar performers ... Was also selected to Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro squad in 2000 for his special teams efforts ... Part of a growing list of current NFL players who honed their skills in NFL Europe ... After establishing himself as one of the league's most competitive special teams performers in '99, built on that reputation by upping his tackle count in the kicking game in 2000 and earning the starting spot on defense by season's end ... Despite taking on an increased role on defense in

Also racked up 60 special teams stops during his first three seasons with the club ... Displayed an amazing feat of durability and desire in '99, playing in a total of 30 pro games, seeing action in 11 contests with the Barcelona Dragons to go with 19 preseason and regular season outings in Kansas City ... Honed his skills at the hand of LB Greg Manusky and finished second on the squad with 23 special teams tackles in '99, the most by a Kansas City first-year player since '94 ... Was a landslide winner of the club's prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award in '99, presented annually to the Chiefs top first-year performer ... Has the ability to long snap, which originally was one of the reasons Kansas City signed him ... Was inked by the Chiefs after earning Team Ironman honors as a linebacker, fullback and special teams performer for the Arena League's San Jose Sabercats in '98 ... Terrorized NFL Europe in the spring of '99 by setting a league single-season record with 105 tackles ... Hails from tiny Thorp, Wisconsin (pop. 1,657), located approximately 90 miles east of the Chiefs summer home in River Falls ... VETERANS

Pro Career: Valuable and versatile fullback earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl invitation last season, solidifying his status as one of the game's elite players at his position ... Also earned second-team All-Pro honors from AP in 2004 ... Personable performer enters his 11th campaign in the Red and Gold in 2005 ... Immensely popular both in the locker room and the Kansas City community, is truly one of the NFL's "good guys" ... Was named Pro Football Weekly's "Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian of the Year" in 2003 and was voted an "NFL Good Guy" in 2002, 2003 and 2004 by The Sporting News based on civic responsibility and character ... Known across the league simply by his moniker of "T-Rich" ... Plays the game with passion and humility, bringing a selfless attitude to work every day ... A true professional, who epitomizes what it means to be a team player ... After serving as Kansas City's most productive ground gainer in 2000, moved back to his less-glamorous fullback post in 2001 to make room for RB Priest Holmes, who has racked up a franchise-record 5,482 rushing yards over the past four seasons with Richardson serving as his lead blocker ... Thanks in large part to his ushering services, the Chiefs racked up 63 rushing TDs in 2003-04, tying the NFL record for rushing scores in a two-year span which was first established by the '61-62 Green Bay Packers ... Helped pave the way for Holmes' NFL-record 27 rushing TDs in 2003, his franchise-record 1,615 rushing yards in 2002 and his league-leading 1,555 ground yards in 2001 ... Serves as an excellent role model with his exemplary work ethic and all-giving approach to the game ... Is one of the most reputable leaders in the Chiefs locker room and is held in the same high esteem for the way he carries himself both on and off the field ... Among active Kansas City players, only 10-time Pro Bowl G Will Shields has spent more time on the Chiefs roster than Richardson, who joined the club as an unheralded free agent in '95 ... Has played in 147 regular season contests (80 starts), putting him in a tie for 23rd position on the club's all-time service chart ... Came to Kansas City after spending the '94 season on the practice squad of the Dallas Cowboys where he learned the finer points of the game from the likes of the NFL's all-time leading rusher RB Emmitt Smith and his lead blocker, FB Darryl Johnston ... Launched his career into overdrive during the '99 and 2000 seasons ... Was recognized as the starting fullback on Dr. Z's Sports Illustrated All-Pro squad each of those two seasons and was also named to USA Today's

All-Joe Team in 2000 and 2001 ... Owns the ability to play either backfield position or can work alone as a single back ... Owns 15 career rushing TDs, including a career-high seven rushing scores in 2001 ... Although he frequently gets the ball himself in tight situations, is simply one of the best lead blockers in the business ... Excels at escorting his teammates into the end zone with his battering-ram style, blowing even the best linebackers and defensive linemen off the ball ... Dishes out the same kind of punishment when he gets the ball in his hands and is tough to bring down in the open field ... A powerful runner when it comes time to move the chains, is frequently the player whose number is called to pick up the tough yardage ... Possesses superb pass-

EXTRA POINTS

Richardson received his MBA degree from Webster University in Kansas City on May 19, 2004 after completing his degree in Education from Auburn in August of 2000, making him the first NFL player to complete every phase of the league's Player Development Program.

catching skills and surprising speed in addition to his aforementioned blocking affinity ... That triple-threat ability makes him an integral part of Kansas City's goal-line and short-yardage packages ... Has done virtually everything in his power to help his team and his teammates get better since joining the club in '95 ... Began his career working as a scout team service back, then earned his stripes as a special teamer before serving as a lead blocker in short-yardage and goal line situations for Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen ... Elevated his status by developing into one of the league's pre-eminent special teams performers, posting double-digit tackles in the kicking game five straight years from '95-99 ... Over that five-year span, only LB Greg Manuskay (124) produced more special teams stops in a Chiefs uniform than Richardson (94) ... Entered the '99 campaign as the club's starting fullback and opened all 16 games for the first time in his career ... Finally got an opportunity to fully showcase his offensive skills down the stretch in '99 when he carried the bulk of the club's rushing load in the season's final five games ... Truly emerged in 2000 when he started all 16 games, including five as the club's halfback, and led the team in rushing with 147 carries for 697 yards

(4.7 avg.) with three TDs ... Has posted 389 rushes for 1,556 yards (4.0 avg.) and 15 scores during his NFL tenure ... Ranks 17th on Kansas City's all-time rushing chart and needs 134 more yards to surpass RB Robert Holmes (1,689) for 16th ... Also has 168 receptions for 1,230 yards (7.3 avg.) with eight TDs ... Is tied for 17th on the Chiefs career receptions chart and is 31st in franchise history in receiving yards ... Needs just 270 more receiving yards to become the 20th player in team history to reach the 1,500-yard receiving plateau ... Owns 96 career special teams tackles and needs just four more to reach 100 ... Is tied for 24th in Chiefs annals with 138 career points ... Has seen duty in three career playoff games (one start).

Transactions: Signed a two-year contract with Kansas City (3/15/04) ... Signed a five-year contract with Kansas City (1/22/00) ... Signed a three-year contract with Kansas City (7/16/97) ... 2004: Started all 16 games for the first time since 2000 ... Was selected to his second straight Pro Bowl, making him the first Chiefs fullback to represent Kansas City in consecutive seasons since Kimble Anders did it following the '95-'97 campaigns ... Joined teammate G Brian Waters and San Diego TE Antonio Gates as the only three undrafted players to be selected to the Pro Bowl on the season ... Earned second-team All-Pro honors from AP ... Rushed 12 times for 56 yards (4.7 avg.) and caught 19 passes for 118 yards (6.2 avg.) ... Carried the ball a season-high six times for 29 yards with three catches for 36 yards vs. Atlanta (10/24), serving as part of a Chiefs offense that set an NFL record with eight rushing TDs ... Caught three passes for 21 yards at Oakland (12/5).

2003: Saw duty in 16 games (10 starts) at FB ... Was selected to his first Pro Bowl, making him the first Chiefs FB to represent Kansas City since Kimble Anders did it following the '97 season ... Didn't take the opening snap in six games when the club started in a two-TE or three-WR formation ... Produced 24 rushes for 60 yards (2.5 avg.) and 12 receptions for 76 yards (6.3 avg.) ... Helped clear the way for RB Priest Holmes who set an NFL single-season record with 27 rushing scores ... Had five carries for a season-high 20 yards vs. Pittsburgh (9/14) ... Started at Houston (9/21) ... Began a string of six consecutive starts vs. Denver (10/5) ... Caught three passes for nine yards

Pro Career: Mammoth 10-time Pro Bowl offensive tackle joined the Chiefs on March 26, 2002 in a trade with New Orleans ... One of the NFL's most dominant and highly-decorated tackles of the past decade ... Has earned three straight Pro Bowl invitations since his arrival in Kansas City after registering seven Pro Bowl berths in nine stellar seasons with the Saints ... Since joining the Chiefs has started 48 straight games at left tackle, where he is revered as one of the league's most consistent pass protectors ... Is also a superb run-blocker, owning a sterling reputation among his peers as one of the finest all-around performers to ever play his position ... Received one of football's highest honors by being named to the '90s All-Decade Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame ... A truly imposing figure who is extremely agile for a man of his vast proportions ... Combines with 10-time Pro Bowl right guard Will Shields to give Kansas City a guard-tackle tandem with 20 combined Pro Bowl appearances ... Interestingly, both Roaf and Shields were products of the same '93 draft class ... Regained his Pro Bowl form in Kansas City after an MCL injury to his right knee cost him the final nine games of the 2001 campaign ... Prior to that malady, had missed just five contests over his initial eight NFL seasons ... In total, has started 179 regular season NFL contests and three postseason outings ... Came to Kansas City after spending nine seasons with New Orleans, where he started all 131 games in which he played for the Saints, as well as two postseason contests ... Those 131 games played rank 17th on the Saints all-time service chart ... Had started 57 consecutive games from '93-96 before injuring his knee against San Francisco (11/3/96), snapping a streak of 3,392 straight offensive plays in which he had participated dating back to the first play of his rookie season in '93 ... After starting his NFL career as a right tackle he switched to left tackle, where he went on to earn the first of his club-record seven Pro Bowl nominations in '94 ... Was the first offensive lineman taken in the '93 draft with the eighth overall pick, making him the second-highest pick ever used by New Orleans on an offensive lineman, trailing only T Jim Dombrowski who was selected sixth overall in '86.

Transactions: Traded to Kansas City from New Orleans (3/26/02) in exchange for a third-round 2003 draft choice (78th overall - subsequently traded to New England) ... Designated as New Orleans' transition player (2/15/94) ... Signed by New Orleans (7/15/93) ... Originally entered the league as a first-round draft pick (eighth overall) by the Saints in the '93 NFL Draft.

VETERANS

Pro Career:

Perennial Pro Bowl right guard is arguably the finest player at his position in the league today and is regarded by many as the NFL's finest offensive lineman, period ... Has earned 10 consecutive Pro Bowl appearances, the NFL's longest active streak and the longest string in Chiefs history ... Enters his 13th season in a Kansas City uniform, making him the longest-tenured player on the Chiefs roster ... Has been with Kansas City since joining the club as a third-round draft choice in '93, giving him two more years of experience than FB Tony Richardson, who signed on in '95 ... Continues to add to a number of franchise records for his durability and his exceedingly high level of play ... His 191 career starts are the highest total in team history ... In fact, only Green Bay QB Brett Favre (205) enters the 2005 campaign with a longer active starting streak than Shields' string of 191 straight games dating back to the second contest of the '93 campaign ... Has played in 192 consecutive games, the longest streak in team history ... His 192 games played are the third-highest tally in team history ... With eight more games of duty will become the first non-kicker in franchise annals to see action in 200 career contests ... The only Chiefs players who have played in more games are the club's all-time leading scorer K Nick Lowery (212) and Hall of Fame K Jan Stenerud (203) ... Could vault into second behind Lowery should he appear in at least 12 contests this season ... Of the seven modern-era guards in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, only Oakland's Gene Upshaw (217) has played in more career games than Shields. Other members debut of QB Joe Montana and RB Marcus Allen in Kansas City uniforms ... Has been a mainstay in the Kansas City lineup since his initial NFL start a week later at Houston (9/12/93) ... Along with Chiefs Hall of Famer Ed Budde is the only other guard in team history to merit multiple Pro Bowl invitations. Budde was honored as an AFL All-Star or AFC Pro Bowler

Shields has played in 192 regular season contests and needs to see action in 12 more games to surpass Hall of Fame K Jan Stenerud (203) for second on Kansas City's all-time service chart.

seven times ('64, '67-'72) ... Pairs with 10-time Pro Bowl T Willie Roaf to give Kansas City a guard-tackle tandem with a combined 20 Pro Bowl appearances, the highest total of any active duo in the league ... As decorated as he is on the field, is perhaps even more highly regarded for his efforts off the field ... Was named the 2003 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year, the most prestigious accolade that can be bestowed upon an active player ... Received that honor from Commissioner Paul Tagliabue prior to Super Bowl XXXVIII in Houston, Texas on January 30, 2004 ... Became the fourth player in Kansas City history to earn the Man of the Year trophy, joining the illustrious likes of Pro Football Hall of Fame enshrinees LB Willie Lanier ('72) and QB Len Dawson ('73), as well as the late nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas ('93) ... Only the Chicago Bears boast as many Man of the Year winners as the Chiefs ... Mild-mannered performer speaks volumes with his consistently high level of play ... Is an asset to the club both on the field and in the Kansas City community ... An instinctive performer who can out-smart, out-maneuver or simply overpower opponents and is endowed with an innate ability to decipher the best means of attacking each particular adversary ... Is equally effective in the trenches or the open field and is particularly adept as a lead blocker on plays which require a pulling guard ... Truly gifted performer has made his name at right guard, but has seen action in three games at tackle for the club, including a start at left tackle vs. Carolina (12/10/00) ... 172nd game in a Chiefs uniform at Denver (12/7) to pass C Jack Rudnay for the most starts in Kansas City history ... Opened his 175th regular season game in a Chiefs uniform vs. Chicago (12/28), extending his record for the most starts in Kansas City history ... Started the club's AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11/04).

2002: Started all 16 games at right guard ... Was selected to his eighth consecutive Pro Bowl, the longest streak by an offensive player in franchise history ... Earned first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press and Football Digest ... Was also an All-Pro pick of The Sporting News and was an All-NFL and All-AFC selection of Pro Football Weekly ... Part of a Kansas City offensive line that helped Holmes establish a franchise record with 1,615 rushing yards ... Started his 145th consecutive game vs. Jacksonville (9/15) to bypass Emmitt Thomas (144) for the longest streak in Chiefs annals since '68.

2001: Started all 16 games at right guard ... Was selected to the Pro Bowl for the seventh straight season ... Was named second-team All-NFL by the College and Pro Football Newsweekly ... Pushed his streak of consecutive games played to 144 and his starting streak to 143 contests ... A key member of the offensive line that helped RB Priest Holmes win the NFL rushing title with 1,555 yards.

1999: Started all 16 games at right guard and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive year ... Was a first-team All-Pro selection of The Sporting News ... A major contributor to the Chiefs ground game which ranked fourth in the NFL, averaging 130.1 yards per game ... Part of an offensive line that allowed just 26.0 sacks, the fourth-lowest total in the league ... Captained the offense vs. Denver (9/19), vs. Detroit (9/26) and at San Diego (10/3) ... Made his 100th consecutive start at right guard vs. New England (10/10).

1998: Started 16 games at right guard, earning Pro Bowl honors for a fourth straight year ... Got his first career reception in the third quarter of the monsoon game vs. Seattle (10/4), hauling in a Rich Gannon pass that was batted back at the line of scrimmage for a four-yard gain.

1997: Started all 16 regular season games and earned a third straight Pro Bowl appearance ... Received first-team All-NFL honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly and second-team recognition from Football Digest ... Was a first-team

All-AFC pick of Football News ... Part of a Kansas City offensive line which helped the Chiefs roll up 135.7 rushing yards per game to rank fourth in the AFC and fifth in the NFL, marking the third straight season the club was among the league's top five rushing offenses ... Started in the playoffs vs. Denver (1/4/98), his sixth postseason appearance.

1996: Opened all 16 games at right guard ... Earned his second straight berth in the Pro Bowl, his first as a starter ... Became the first Kansas City guard to appear in back-to-back AFC-NFC Pro Bowls since Ed Budde in '71 and '72 ... Was a first-team All-AFC selection of both UPI and Pro Football Weekly ... Helped the Chiefs average 125.6 rushing yards per game, the league's fourth-best total.

1995: Made his first Pro Bowl appearance and was named first-team All-NFL by USA Today and Sports Illustrated ... Started all 16 regular season contests, in addition to the club's playoff tilt ... A pivotal part of a Chiefs offensive line which cleared a path for the NFL's top rushing offense, marking the first time in franchise history that Kansas City had ever led the league in that category ... That same offensive line was also proficient in protecting the passer, allowing an AFC-low 21.0 sacks ... Opened at right guard at Cleveland (9/24), but injuries to starting tackles John Alt and Jeff Criswell forced him to step in at the right tackle spot despite never previously taking a snap at that position.

1994: Started all 16 regular season games, plus one playoff contest at right guard ... Was a key reason the Chiefs permitted just 19.0 sacks, the fewest in Kansas City history and the third-fewest in the NFL in '94.

1993: Played in all 16 games (15 starts) at right guard as a rookie ... Also started three playoff contests ... His 18 combined starts were the most ever by a Chiefs rookie ... Named to almost every all-rookie squad, including Pro Football Weekly, Football News and Football Digest ... Earned the club's Mack Lee Hill Award, the team's most prestigious rookie honor ... Saw his first pro action at right guard when Dave Szott, the team's starting left guard, suffered a knee injury in the season opener at Tampa Bay (9/5) and starting right guard Danny Villa took Szott's spot ... The following week at Houston (9/12), Villa moved to left guard and Shields began his starting streak at right guard.

College: Was a rare three-time All-Big Eight choice ... Became the second Outland Trophy winner to ever play for the Chiefs (Bobby Bell, '62) ... Was also a finalist for the Lombardi Trophy in '92 ... Was a first team All-America selection of AP, Football News, Walter Camp and Kodak and a consensus All-Big Eight choice as a senior ... Defensive Tackle • 6-5 • 350

Oregon

Born: November 14, 1978
Pago Pago, American Samoa

Draft: (No. 2a - 2004)
GP/GS: (12/0) Playoffs: (0/0)

Pro Career: Mammoth defensive tackle was the Chiefs top draft selection in 2004, joining the club as a second-round choice (36th overall) ... Powerful performer showed glimpses of his vast potential as a run stuffer and pass rusher during his rookie campaign ... Was hampered by a pair of leg injuries that cost him four contests a year ago, missing three games with a lower left leg contusion and one contest with a left ankle injury ... Expected to assume an expanded role on the Chiefs defensive front in 2005 ... Is continuing his development as an NFL player after completing an unbelievable odyssey that began upon his high school graduation in American Samoa in '96 and culminated with his arrival in Kansas City in 2004 ... In '97, he made the over 5,000-mile trek from American Samoa to Salt Lake City under the false pretense that a college football scholarship would be awaiting him. Instead, he ended up toiling in a t-shirt factory and spending time living in a park before finally getting an opportunity to attend Dixie Junior College in St. George, Utah in '99. After a one-year playing stint at Butte Junior College in 2000, completed his coursework at that school in 2001 before beginning his two-year playing career at the University of Oregon in 2002 ... Despite that circuitous path to the NFL, approaches his craft with an upbeat and enthusiastic attitude ... Continued to improve his strength and conditioning in the Chiefs off-season program ... Is still learning the intricacies of the game after spending just one season as a starter at the major college level ... Continues to benefit greatly from the football accumen of Chiefs defensive line coaches Bob Karmelowicz and Carl Hairston ... Has played in 12 games, totaling 12 tackles (seven solo), a sack (-9.0 yards) and three QB pressures.

Transactions: Signed a six-year contract with Kansas City (7/21/04) ... Originally entered the NFL as the Chiefs first pick in the second round (36th overall) of the 2004 NFL Draft. Kansas City acquired that pick from Detroit after sending its first-round choice (30th overall - used on RB Kevin Jones) to the Lions in exchange for a second-round choice (used on Siavii), a fourth-round pick (105th overall - used on WR Samie Parker) and a fifth-round pick in 2005 (147th overall - used on CB Alphonso Hodge).

2004: Played in 12 games at defensive tackle ... Was inactive for four contests ... Had 12 tackles (seven solo), including four for loss, a sack (-9.0 yards) and three QB pressures ... Produced his first NFL sack (-9.0 yards) of Jake Plummer at Denver (9/12) ... Registered three tackles vs. Carolina (9/19) ... Posted a QB pressure vs. Houston (9/26) ... Tallied two tackles at Baltimore (10/4) ... Had a tackle for loss at Jacksonville (10/17) ... Suffered a lower left leg contusion vs. Atlanta (10/24) and was inactive vs. Indianapolis (10/31), at Tampa Bay (11/7) and at New Orleans (11/14) with that injury ... Played as a reserve DT vs. New England (11/22) ... Was inactive due to a left ankle injury vs. San Diego (11/28) ... Saw duty as a reserve DT at Oakland (12/5) ... Produced three tackles at Tennessee (12/13) ... Registered two tackles and a QB pressure vs. Denver (12/19) ... Saw reserve duty at DT at San Diego (12/05).

College: Played in 25 games at Oregon, starting 13 contests ... Recorded 58 tackles (38 solos) with 2.5 sacks (-19.0 yards), 8.5 stops for loss (-28.0 yards), three passes defended and a fumble recovery ... Saw duty in 13 games (11 starts) at right defensive tackle as a senior ... Earned honorable mention All-Pac 10 honors ... Recorded 43 tackles (30 solo) with 2.0 sacks (-16.0 yards), 6.0 tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and a QB pressure ... Played in 12 games as a junior, registering 15 tackles (eight solo) with half a sack (-3.0 yards) and 2.5 tackles for loss (-6.0 yards) ... Was ineligible to play during 2001 and spent the year earning his degree at Butte Junior College, graduating from that school in May of 2002 ... Spent two years playing in the junior college ranks prior to transferring to Oregon ... Garnered All-NorCal Conference honors at Butte JC in Oroville, California in 2000 ... Registered 58 tackles and 9.0 sacks as a nose tackle ... Began his collegiate career at Dixie College in St. George, Utah in '99 ... Majored in Sociology at Oregon.

Siavii returned to his native Samoa during the 2005 off-season for the first time since he departed the South Pacific island in '97 when he originally came to the United States to pursue a football career.

Defensive Tackle • 6-4 • 315

Born: May 4, 1980

Spartanburg, South Carolina

North Carolina

Draft (No. 1 - 2002)

NFL: 4 (4th with Chiefs)

GP/GS: (37/31) Playoffs: (1/1)

Pro Career: Powerful defensive tackle enters his fourth campaign in Kansas City this season ... Can work at either the right or left defensive tackle position, but is expected to serve as the club's starter at the left defensive tackle post for the third consecutive season in 2005 ... Former first-round draft pick has started 29 of the club's last 32 contests on the defensive line ... Frequently wreaked havoc in the opposing backfields in 2004, recording a career-high 16 QB pressures ... Enjoyed his most productive campaign in 2003, racking up career highs with 83 tackles (41 solo) and 3.0 sacks (-13.0 yards) in his first full season as a starter ... Is an imposing presence on the defensive front ... His contributions as a rookie were limited to just six games due to a contract holdout and a season-ending elbow injury suffered in only his second pro start at San Diego (10/13/02) ... Should continue his development in his second season with defensive coordinator Gunther Cunningham, whose defensive schemes have traditionally taken full advantage of talented defensive linemen such as Sims ... Possesses the size, strength and agility to excel as both a run stuffer and a pass rusher ... Has shown glimpses of his vast promise as a potentially-dominating defensive tackle ... Owns 37 games of NFL experience with 31 starts, recording 127 tackles (67 solo), 5.0 sacks (-22.0 yards), one INT (eight yards), a fumble recovery, a forced fumble, 26 QB pressures and a pass defended ... Registered two tackles in one postseason start ... Was selected with the sixth overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft, making him the highest Kansas City draft choice since the Chiefs selected the late LB Derrick Thomas with the fourth overall selection in the '89 NFL Draft ... His selection provided some draft-day hijinx as the Chiefs moved up two spots with Dallas to select him. Kansas City made the trade, but Minnesota was actually on the clock since Dallas had not officially notified the NFL of the trade before time had expired on the pick. In the end, Kansas City was able to obtain Sims with the sixth overall selection.

Transactions: Signed a seven-year contract with Kansas City (8/28/02) ... Originally entered the NFL as the Chiefs first-round selection (sixth overall) in the 2002 Draft. Kansas City moved up two spots with Dallas to make that pick. Kansas City obtained the Cowboys first-round choice (sixth overall - used on Sims) in exchange for the Chiefs first-round selection (eighth overall - used on S Roy Williams) and third-round pick (75th overall - used on CB Derek Ross) in 2002, as well as Kansas City's sixth-round pick in 2003 (186th overall - used on WR Zurlie Smith).

EXTRA POINTS

Amassed 30 tackles (13 solo), three stops behind the line, 2.0 sacks (-9.0 yards) and a career-high 16 QB pressures ... Recorded two tackles and two QB pressures at Denver (9/12) ... Tallied four tackles and a QB pressure vs. Carolina (9/19) ... Produced four tackles and one QB pressure vs. Houston (9/26) ... Had a sack of Kyle Boller before leaving the game with a left hamstring strain at Baltimore (10/4) and was inactive at Jacksonville (10/17) with that injury ... Registered three tackles, including one for loss and a career-high three QB pressures vs. Atlanta (10/24) ... Compiled two tackles and a QB pressure at New Orleans (11/14) ... Tied a career high with three QB pressures vs. New England (11/22) ... Totaled three tackles and a QB pressure vs. San Diego (11/28) ... Registered a sack of Billy Volek at Tennessee (12/13) ... Collected two tackles at San Diego (12/05).

2003: Started 16 games at NT ... Registered 83 tackles (41 solo) with five behind the line, 3.0 sacks (-13.0 yards) and seven QB pressures ... Also had one fumble recovery, one forced fumble and one interception (eight yards) ... Tallied 10 tackles and a career-high 2.0 sacks (-8.0 yards) of Tommy Maddox vs. Pittsburgh (9/14) ... Registered nine tackles and a sack (-5.0 yards) of Kyle Boller at Baltimore (9/28) ... Forced a RB Clinton Portis fumble vs. Denver (10/5) ... Left the game in the first quarter at Green Bay (10/12) with a mild head trauma, but returned to action in the second half ... Registered his initial NFL interception (eight yards) off Drew Bledsoe vs. Buffalo (10/26) ... Recovered a RB James Jackson fumble vs. Cleveland (11/9) ... Recorded eight tackles at Cincinnati (11/16) ... Amassed a career-high 12 tackles (10 solo) vs. Oakland (11/23) ... Started the club's AFC Divisional Playoff contest vs. Indianapolis (1/11/04), registering two tackles.

2002: Saw action in six games (two starts) at DT before suffering a dislocated left elbow ... Accounted for 14 tackles (six solo), including two stops for a loss, a pass defended and three QB pressures ... Recorded four tackles, including one for loss in his first NFL game at Cleveland (9/8) ... Totaled two tackles vs. Jacksonville (9/15) ... Had two tackles and two QB pressures at New England (9/22) ... Registered two tackles, a pass defended and a QB pressure vs. Miami (9/29) ... Recorded four tackles with one for a loss in his first career NFL start at the N.Y. Jets (10/6) ... Suffered a dislocated left elbow on the club's first defensive series and did not return at San Diego (10/13) ... Was placed on injured reserve on October 16th with that injury.

College: A three-year starter who appeared in 43 games (33 starts) at North Carolina ... Finished his college career with 167 tackles (83 solo), 14.0 sacks (-87.0 yards), 28.0 tackles for loss, 11 passes defended, 40 QB pressures and a fumble recovery ... Former college teammate of the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft, DE Julius Peppers, who was tabbed by Carolina ... A first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice and a second-team All-America selection as a senior when he recorded 51 tackles (23 solo) and four passes defended ... Led the squad with 20 QB pressures, ranked second on the team with 5.0 sacks (-30.0 yards) and was third with 8.0 tackles for loss ... Started all 11 games during his junior campaign, registering 52 tackles (26 solo), 6.0 sacks (-36.0 yards), 9.0 stops for loss, 11 quarterback pressures, three passes defended and his only career fumble recovery ... Opened all 11 games as a sophomore for the Tar Heels, recording 33 tackles (19 solo), a sack (-7.0 yards) and 6.0 stops behind the line ... Also had four QB pressures and two passes defended that season ... Appeared in all 11 games as a reserve defensive tackle and was one of only four true freshmen to play for the Tar Heels ... Worked under former Chiefs assistant coach John Bunting, who currently serves as head coach of the Tar Heels. Bunting was a member of Dick Vermeil's Super Bowl XV squad in Philadelphia and served as defensive coordinator with Vermeil in St. Louis. He also won two USFL titles as a player for Carl Peterson's Baltimore/Philadelphia Stars ... Majored in Communications at North Carolina.

VETERANS

Pro Career: One of the NFL's elite cornerbacks joined the Chiefs after being acquired in a trade with Miami on April 23rd ... Two-time Pro Bowler is expected to make an immediate impact to the Kansas City secondary ... "The most important thing about Patrick is that he's a tremendous cover guy," Chiefs defensive coordinator Gunther Cunningham observed. "He comes up with the ball and gets turnovers." ... Brings a wealth of talent and experience to Kansas City, boasting seven highly-productive seasons with the Dolphins ... Owns coverage skills that Cunningham has compared to former Chiefs Pro Bowl CBs James Hasly and Dale Carter ... Possesses all of the physical attributes desired in a cornerback with good size, tremendous hands, superior change-of-direction skills and an uncanny ability to get his hands on the ball ... Accomplished leader is equally adept at locking up receivers in press coverage or dropping back in zone schemes ... Known for his hard-working attitude and intensity, should be a valuable commodity in the Chiefs locker room and a distinguished example for the club's younger defenders ... Owns the league's third-highest interception total since 2000, producing 25 of his 29 career INTs at that time period ... Knows how to find the end zone once he gets his hands on the football, returning two of his INTs for touchdowns ... Was unquestionably a key to much of Miami's defensive success as the Dolphins posted a remarkable 20-6 record in games when he made an interception ... Supremely athletic, playoff-tested veteran, appeared in seven postseason games with Miami, making five starts ... Also has the ability to blitz the quarterback, boasting 6.5 career sacks, the most by a defensive back in Dolphins history ... An extremely durable performer who has missed just four total games in his NFL career ... Earned first-team All-Pro honors from The Sporting News and an All-AFC nod from Pro Football Weekly in 2003 after ranking fourth in the NFL with a career-high seven picks ... May have enjoyed his most productive season last year as he recorded a career-best 71 tackles (54 solo) to go with a sack, 11 passes defended, four interceptions and two fumble recoveries ... His intensity and graceful coverage skills landed him a significant role almost immediately in his rookie season, seeing action in all 16 games as the club's nickel defender in '98 ... His 29 tackles and two INTs earned him All-Rookie honors from College and Pro Football Newsweekly in his first pro season ... Has appeared in 108 games (82 starts) during his previous seven NFL seasons ...

Owns 398 tackles (314 solo), 29 INTs for 298 yards and two TDs ... Also racked up 6.5 sacks (-47.0 yards), four fumble recoveries, three forced fumbles and 96 passes defended ... Also has 23 tackles and a fumble recovery on special teams ... Has seen duty in seven postseason contests (five starts), registering 26 tackles (22 solo), four passes defended and one special teams tackle.

1998: Appeared on special teams in 12 games and had six tackles ... Saw action in two games as a cornerback, but did not record any stats ... First pro duty came on special teams vs. Oakland (9/6) ... Recorded a special teams tackle at Jacksonville (9/13) ... Inactive vs. San Diego (9/20) ... Played on special teams at Philadelphia (9/27) ... Inactive vs. Seattle (10/4) ... Appeared on special teams at New England (10/11), vs. Pittsburgh (10/26), vs. the N.Y. Jets (11/1), at Seattle (11/8) and vs. Denver (11/16) ... First action as an NFL cornerback came in the club's dime package at San Diego (11/22) ... Inactive vs. Arizona (11/29) ... Produced a career-high two special teams tackles at Denver (12/6) ... Inactive vs. Dallas (12/13) ... Appeared on special teams and as a reserve CB at the N.Y. Giants (12/20).

College: A three-year letterwinner as a safety for Nebraska ... Saw duty in 35 regular season contests, finishing his career with 107 tackles (48 solo), to go along with five INTs (27 yards), a forced fumble, nine passes defended and three blocked punts ... Part of Nebraska's National Championship squad in '95 ... Played in all 12 regular season games (11 starts) as a senior in '97 ... A third-team All-Big 12 selection ... Recorded 52 tackles (23 solos) with two INTs ... Saw special teams duty and reserve action at free safety in all 12 contests as a junior ... Racked up 39 tackles (18 solos), had three INTs, a forced fumble and three passes defended ... Also had three blocked kicks ... Played in 11 contests on special teams and earned a scholarship as a sophomore ... Also saw reserve action on defense, finishing the year with 16 tackles (seven solos) and two pass deflections ... Enrolled at Nebraska in January of '95 and did not play football in '94 ... Majored in Sociology at Nebraska.

NFL EUROPE DEFENSIVE MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

Chiefs LB Rich Scanlon took the NFL Europe League by storm in 2005 and was named the NFL Europe Defensive Most Valuable Player. Allocated to the Berlin Thunder, Scanlon led the league with a franchise-record 94 tackles (68 solo) and guided the Thunder to a berth in World Bowl XIII vs. Amsterdam (6/11). Scanlon was twice named NFL Europe Defensive Player of the Week this season and also accumulated 3.0 sacks and five passes defensed. Scanlon is pictured next to a remnant of the Berlin Wall.

Guard • 6-3 • 318

Born: February 18, 1977
Waxahachie, Texas

North Texas
Free Agent (2000)
NFL: 6 (6th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (70/56) Playoffs: (1/1)

Pro Career: Powerful sixth-year left guard is quickly becoming recognized as one of the league's elite players at his position ... Earned his initial Pro Bowl berth in 2004, as well as first-team All-Pro honors from the Associated Press, The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly ... Also became the first offensive lineman to ever be named AFC Offensive Player of the Week since that honor's inception in '84 after a dominating performance in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24/04) in which the Chiefs registered an NFL-record eight rushing TDs. In fact, no guard in either conference had previously claimed that honor ... Was named to the All-Foxhole Team of The Sporting News, a prestigious list of NFL tough guys who "you'd want fighting on your side in a foxhole" ... Also gained his share of the national spotlight after manhandling Ravens six-time Pro Bowl LB Ray Lewis for much of the evening in a 27-24 victory on Monday Night Football at Baltimore (10/4/04) ... That litany of richly-deserved accolades should only motivate this massive blocker to elevate his game to even loftier plateaus this season ... Is arguably one of the strongest players on the roster, possessing tremendous lower-body power ... Has enjoyed the benefit of honing his technique working with the likes of 10-time Pro Bowl G Will Shields, one of the game's most consummate professionals ... Paired with Shields in 2004 to form the first tandem of Pro Bowl guards from the same team since Larry Allen and Nate Newton did it for Dallas following the '95 season ... Also became the first undrafted guard to make the Pro Bowl since Newton did it following the '98 season ... Has firmly entrenched himself as the club's starting left guard, owning a string of 55 consecutive starts, the fifth-longest active streak of any player on the team ... Has come a long way since being cut by Dallas as a rookie free agent in '99 ... Came to Kansas City for a free agent workout in 2000 when the Chiefs convinced him to make the move to offensive line after working as a tight end in camp for the Cowboys the previous year ... Was originally envisioned to be Tim Grunhard's replacement at center before the club inked Casey Wiegmann in 2001 ... Actually started the 2001 opener in place of an injured Wiegmann before moving into his current role at guard midway through that campaign ... Worked exclusively on special teams during his debut with the club in 2000, but quickly assumed a larger role in his second season with the club ... Worked as both a collegiate tight end and a defensive lineman, giving him a vast background to call upon ... In fact, never played offensive line until entering the pro ranks with the Chiefs in 2000 ... Has also seen limited action for the Chiefs as a fullback in short-yardage situations ...

EXTRA POINTS

Waters grew up a Cowboys fan and originally began wearing #54 in Pee Wee football in honor of Hall of Fame DT Randy White. Waters had hoped to play running back during his Pee Wee days, but missed the weight limit by one pound and instead began his football career playing center.

Owens 70 games of regular season experience with 56 starts (55 at left guard, one at center) ... Also has one postseason start to his credit ... Was part of a Kansas City offensive front that opened the same five players at the same positions for 32 consecutive games in 2002-03, the NFL's longest streak since the San Diego offensive line accomplished the feat for 40 straight games in '71-73 ... Spent the spring of 2000 playing in NFL Europe with the Berlin Thunder ... Went to camp with Dallas as a rookie free agent in '99, but did not make that club's active roster.

Transactions: Signed a four-year contract extension with Kansas City (11/4/02) ... Signed a one-year exclusive rights contract with Kansas City (6/3/02) ... Signed a two-year contract with Kansas City (3/6/00) ... Released by Dallas (9/5/99) ... Originally entered the NFL as a rookie free agent with Dallas (4/23/99).

2004: Started 16 games at left guard ... Was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was a first-team All-Pro selection of the Associated Press, The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly ... Joined teammate FB Tony Richardson and San Diego TE Antonio Gates as one of three undrafted players to be selected to the Pro Bowl ... A key cog of a Kansas City offense that led the NFL in total offense for the first time in team history, while ranking second in scoring, fourth in passing and fifth in rushing ... Named the AFC Offensive Player of the Week in helping the Chiefs score an NFL record eight rushing TDs vs. Atlanta (10/24). The only previous offensive lineman to win the honor all played tackle in the NFC. Waters was the first offensive lineman to win Offensive Player of the Week honors since Dallas T Erik Williams ('92). N.Y. Giants T Brad Benson ('86) and Washington T Jim Lachey ('90) also won the NFC award.

2003: Opened 16 regular season games at left guard ... Part of a Chiefs offensive front that helped RB Priest Holmes set an NFL record with 27 rushing TDs ... Started at Cincinnati (11/16) before leaving the game in the third quarter with a left shoulder injury ... Returned to action the following week vs. Oakland (11/23) ... Started an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11/04).

2002: Started all 16 games at left guard ... Was part of a Chiefs offense that led the league by averaging 29.2 points per game and ranked second in the NFL by averaging 375.0 yards per game ... Also helped pave the way for RB Priest Holmes who set a franchise record with 1,615 ground yards.

AFC/NFC OFFENSIVE

2001: Played in 16 games (eight starts) ... Opened one game at center and seven at left guard, taking offensive snaps in a total of 11 games ... Had two special teams stops ... Also worked as a FB in goal-line and short-yardage situations ... Helped RB Priest Holmes rush for an NFL-high 1,555 yards ... Made his first NFL start at center vs. Oakland (9/9) in place of an injured Casey Wiegmann ... Had a special teams stop at Washington (9/30) ... Recorded a special teams tackle and saw action as a fullback in short-yardage and goal-line formations at Arizona (10/21) ... Played FB in the club's short-yardage and goal-line formations vs. Indianapolis (10/25) and at San Diego (11/4) ... Started his first career game at left guard in place of an injured Donald Willis vs. Seattle (11/25) ... Opened the final six games at left guard.

2000: Played in six games on special teams ... Was inactive for nine games ... Was active but did not play at Oakland (11/5) ... Made his NFL debut vs. Buffalo (11/19) ... Also saw action at San Diego (11/26), at New England (12/4), vs. Carolina (12/10), vs. Denver (12/17) and at Atlanta (12/24).

NFL Europe (2000): Started every game at center for the Berlin Thunder.

College: Played in 44 career games for North Texas, starting at tight end for three years before switching to defensive end for his senior season ... Hauled in 86 receptions for 975 yards and nine TDs in three years on offense ... Defensively, recorded 45 tackles (32 solo), 5.0 sacks and 2.0 tackles for loss ... Started at defensive end and served as the backup tight end his senior season, in addition to working at fullback ... Caught four passes for 66 yards with one TD as a senior ... Earned first-team All-Big West Conference honors at defensive tackle ... Finished his junior season ranked third on the team with 27 receptions for 371 yards, including a 62-yard TD catch ... Led the team with 28 catches and four TDs, gaining 272 yards of total offense as a sophomore ... Played in all 11 games, recording 27 catches for 26 yards and four TDs as a freshman ... Majored in Community Service at North Texas.

Personal:

- An all-district tight end and defensive end at Waxahachie High School in Waxahachie, Texas.
- Caught 16 passes for 380 yards, in addition to recording 5.0 sacks and 66 tackles as a senior.
- Serves as co-chairman for the Chiefs First Downs for Down Syndrome program which raises $250,000 annually based on the production of the Chiefs offensive line.
- Is Kansas City's NFLPA player representative.
- Served as a mentor to the Central High School football team in Kansas City as a part of the NFL Play It Smart program.
- Is a volunteer at Genesis School, an alternative school in Kansas City.
- Full name: Brian Demond Waters.
- Single, resides in Kansas City, Missouri.

Additional Stats: Had two special teams tackles in 2001.

Streaks and Milestones: Has started 55 consecutive games at left guard dating back to a contest vs. Seattle (11/25/01).

Games Played/Games Started:

2000 (6/0), 2001 (16/8), 2002 (16/16), 2003 (16/16), 2004 (16/16) — 70/56.

Playoffs: 2003 (1/0) — 1/0.

PRO BOWL TRIO

Last year the Chiefs became the first AFC team to have three Pro Bowl offensive linemen in the same season — G Will Shields, T Willie Roaf and G Brian Waters (left) — since Denver accomplished that feat following the '98 campaign. Shields and Waters also became the first two guards from the same squad to make the Pro Bowl in the same season since Larry Allen and Nate Newton did it for Dallas following the '95 season. The Chiefs were also the only team in the NFL to boast a pair of undrafted Pro Bowlers last season — Waters and FB Tony Richardson. In fact, the only other undrafted player to make last year's Pro Bowl squad was San Diego TE Antonio Gates.

Born: March 30, 1976
Torrance, California

California
Trade - Philadelphia (2004)
NFL: 7 (2nd with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (66/66) Playoffs: (9/9)

Pro Career: Rugged seventh-year offensive lineman joined the Chiefs in a draft day trade with Philadelphia on April 25, 2004 ... Versatile performer spent the majority of his NFL career at left guard before making the transition back to right tackle with the Chiefs a year ago ... Opened 10 games at the right tackle post for Kansas City in 2004, a position he hadn't played since his initial regular season game with Philadelphia in '99 ... Expected to compete for the starting post at right tackle once again, but could also see duty at either of the club's guard positions ... Is now fully recovered from a right knee injury suffered late in the 2003 that limited his mobility for much of last season ... That lingering knee problem and a right hip flexor injury forced him to miss the final six games of 2004 ... The majority of his NFL playing experience has come at left guard, starting 55 regular season contests at that spot for the Eagles ... Began his pro tenure at right tackle as a rookie with Philadelphia after serving as an All-America left tackle in the collegiate ranks ... Intense competitor owns a nasty on-field disposition ... Former fourth-round draft choice fits the mobile mold of the Chiefs offensive lineman, but can also out-muscle opponents with brute force when necessary ... Is reunited in Kansas City with former Eagles teammate, LB Shawn Barber, as well as former Cal teammate and five-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez ... Owns 66 career starts, opening 55 games at left guard and 11 at right tackle ... Started his first game as a rookie at right tackle vs. Arizona (9/12/99), but suffered a left knee injury in that contest and was sidelined for the remainder of the season ... Moved to left guard in 2000, where he spent the rest of his tenure in Philadelphia ... Playoff-tested performer owns nine career postseason starts, including three appearances in the NFC Championship Game.

Transactions: Traded to Kansas City from Philadelphia (4/25/04) in exchange for the Chiefs fifth-round draft choice (162nd overall - used on FB Thomas Tapeh) in 2004 and a third-round selection in 2005 (77th overall - used on RB Ryan Moats) ... Signed an eight-year contract extension with Philadelphia (8/10/01) ... Signed with Philadelphia (7/25/99) ... Was a fourth-round selection (97th overall) of Philadelphia in the '99 NFL Draft.

Kansas City (2004): Started 10 games at right tackle ... Started his first game with the Chiefs at Denver (9/12). It was his first start at right tackle since he opened there vs. Arizona (9/12/99) while with Philadelphia ... Left the game in the second quarter with a right hip flexor strain and did not return vs. New England (11/22) ... Was placed on injured reserve on November 25th with right knee and right hip flexor injuries.

Welbourn is well-versed in California politics and voted for current Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger. "We have a ton of similar views," says Welbourn.

2003: Started 13 contests at left guard ... Suffered a torn meniscus in his right knee at Green Bay (11/10) and underwent surgery to repair the malady ... Was inactive vs. N.Y. Giants (11/16), vs. New Orleans (11/23) and at Carolina (11/30) ... Returned to the starting lineup vs. Dallas (12/7) ... Started in both of the club's postseason contests, including the NFC Championship Game vs. Carolina (1/18/04).

2002: Started 11 games at left guard ... Helped pave the way for an Eagles offense that ranked fourth in the NFL and set a single-season franchise record with 415 points (25.9 ppg.) ... Was also part of an offensive front that allowed just 36.0 sacks, the club's lowest tally in a 16-game season since giving up 22.0 in '81 ... Suffered a fractured fibula at Tennessee (9/8) ... Was inactive with that injury at Washington (9/16), vs. Dallas (9/22), vs. Houston (9/29) and at Jacksonville (10/6) ... Returned to the starting lineup vs. Tampa Bay (10/20) ... Opened both of the team's playoff games, including the NFC Championship Game vs. Tampa Bay (1/19/03).

2001: Started 15 games at left guard ... Suffered an ankle injury at Seattle (9/23) and was inactive the following week vs. Dallas (9/30) ... Returned to the starting lineup vs. Arizona (10/7) when he helped RB Correll Buckhalter post 134 rushing yards, an Eagles single-game record for a rookie ... Started two postseason outings, including the club's NFC Championship Game appearance at St. Louis (1/27/02).

2000: Moved to left guard in the off-season after recovering from a left knee injury that cost him all but one contest the previous year ... Started all 16 games at left guard, as well as the squad's two playoff games ... Part of an Eagles offensive line that saw all five starters open every contest at the same position, marking the first time a Philadelphia squad had accomplished that feat since the league went to a 16-game schedule in '78 ... Helped the Eagles rack up 306 rushing yards at Dallas (9/3), as RB Duce Staley registered 201 ground yards, becoming only the second Eagles player to record a 200-yard rushing day ... Made his first postseason start in the club's NFC Wild Card Game appearance vs. Tampa Bay (12/31) ... Also opened an NFC Divisional Playoff Game at the N.Y. Giants (1/7/01).

1999: Started one game at right tackle ... Battled training camp injuries to win the starting job at right tackle on Opening Day vs. Arizona (9/12), but suffered a ruptured patella tendon in his left knee. Underwent surgery that evening and was subsequently placed on injured reserve on September 13th.

College: Was an All-America selection and first-team All-Pac 10 selection at left tackle as a senior at the University of California in '98, serving as a starter in his final three seasons with the Golden Bears ... Allowed just 2.0 sacks in his three seasons as a starter for the Golden Bears ... Moved over to left tackle as a junior and earned honorable mention All-Pac 10 accolades after going the whole season without allowing a sack ... Cracked the lineup at right guard as a sophomore in '96, opening eight games at that spot under the direction of head coach Steve Mariucci ... Majored in Rhetoric at California and enrolled in the university's graduate school of Education following his graduation in May of '98.

Personal:

- Attended Peninsula High School in Rolling Hills, California.
- His father Robert served as mayor of Palos Verdes, California and twice ran for Congress. He also worked as a lobbyist and John grew up meeting people such as the late President Ronald Reagan and former California Governor Pete Wilson at fundraising events, sometimes at the family home.

- Has considered attending law school following his playing career.
- As Welbourn explains, his degree in Rhetoric at Cal "was more of an English Philosophy major that was geared toward argument. It was a pre-law major more than anything."
- "He's awesome," says Welbourn of current California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger, who he voted for in October of 2003. "He's an outsider. He's not a career politician."
- Was a frequent visitor to children's hospitals during his tenure in Philadelphia.
- Has two American staffshire terriers named Bear (named for the Cal Golden Bears) and Rocky.
- Owns a '69 Camaro that he purchased from former teammate DE Hugh Douglas. He restored the car in 2003 to its original state.
- A motorcycle enthusiast, owns a pair of custom-built choppers after riding a Honda motorcycle throughout college.
- Would someday like to build his own motorcycle.
- "I've always liked one-of-a-kind things," explains Welbourn. "I think I'm pretty unique and building bikes is just one way to express myself. When you build a bike you get to custom fit it to yourself. Every bike is different like its owner."
- Went on a cross-state motorcycle trek with T Kyle Turley in Florida during the 2003 off-season.
- A big fan of rock music, his two favorite groups are Metallica and his good friends, Sevendust.

ONES OF A KIND

In its May 26 - June 1 issue, "First Down - Europe's Weekly American Football Magazine" listed the top 100 players in NFL history based on their uniform numbers, assigning one player to each jersey number from 00 to 99. Seven players who spent a portion of their careers in Kansas City made the cut, including current six-time Pro Bowl TE Tony Gonzalez. Here's a look at members of the Chiefs who have made this illustrious list ...

Greg WESLEY

Safety • 6-2 • 206

Born: March 19, 1978
Little Rock, Arkansas

Arkansas - Pine Bluff
Draft: (No. 3 - 2000)
NFL: 6 (6th with Chiefs)
GP/GS: (73/72) Playoffs: (1/1)

Pro Career: Bone-rattling performer entering his sixth season with the Chiefs in 2005 ... Has worked as the club's starting strong safety the past five campaigns, but will make the move to free safety in Kansas City's revamped secondary this season ... Devastating hitter set a career high with four forced fumbles a year ago ... Has started all but one game he's appeared in for Kansas City after entering the NFL as an unheralded third-round draft pick in 2000 ... At just 27 years old is in the prime of his career and possesses the talent to become the latest in a long litany of Kansas City safeties to earn All-Star acclaim should he continue to elevate his level of play ... Pairs with Pro Bowl S Sammy Knight to form a solid starting safety tandem ... Excellent tackler has topped the 100-tackle plateau in three of his first four NFL campaigns and has averaged 100.8 tackles per season during his NFL career ... Owns 20 career interceptions, a mark that is tied with S Mike Sensibaugh and DB Duane Wood as the 15th-highest total in team history ... Could vault into the club's all-time top 10 in INTs with five more pickoffs in 2005 ... Has racked up 16 of his interceptions over the past three seasons ... Knows what to do once he gets the ball in his hands, averaging 19.8 yards per INT return over his career ... Has quickly made a name for himself across the league with his aggressive style of play ... Frequently provides an "up-close and personal" introduction to receivers who tread across his turf in the Chiefs secondary ... A punishing performer who is regarded as one of the league's most vicious hitters ... Started his first 37 games in a Kansas City uniform, becoming just the third player in Chiefs history since '70 to open the first 32 games of his career. Was the first player to do it since Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee DE Art Still ('78-'79). The only other Kansas City player to hold that distinction since the AFL-NFL merger in '70 is S Gary Barbaro, who started his first 32 games over the course of the '76-'78 campaigns ... Was the first Kansas City defensive back and just the fourth player in Chiefs history to produce 100+ tackles in his first two NFL seasons ... His 227 tackles in 2000-'01 were the highest total ever assembled by a Chiefs defensive back in his initial two pro seasons ... Literally burst onto the NFL scene with a sensational rookie effort in 2000 when he became the first Chiefs rookie to start all 16 games since CB Kevin Ross in '84 ... Also earned the Chiefs prestigious Mack Lee Hill Award presented annually to the team's top rookie or first-year performer and was a consensus All-Rookie selection, receiving those honors from Pro Football Weekly, Football News and Football Digest ... Was billed by the Chiefs as potentially one of the best steals of the 2000 draft, a claim which certainly proved to be prophetic ... Truly a unique story in today's age of NFL scouting which leaves virtually no stone unturned ... Became eligible for the draft after the 2000 combine and was worked out on his college campus by just eight NFL clubs, including Kansas City ... The first Chiefs player to ever come out of Arkansas - Pine Bluff, which was formerly known as Arkansas AM&N ... Has played in 73 games (72 starts) in a Chiefs uniform, producing 504 tackles (353 solo), 20 INTs (397 yards) and 6.0 sacks (-39.0 yards) ... Also owns four fumble recoveries, eight forced fumbles, 33 passes defended, 17 QB pressures and 15 special teams stops.

EXTRA POINTS

Wesley needs to wear wristbands every time he plays because he likes the look they give his uniform and when he looks good, he plays good.

Iowa

Unrestricted Free Agent (2001)

NFL: 10 (5th with Chiefs)

GP/GS: (115/88) Playoffs: (1/1)

Born: July 20, 1973
Parkersburg, Iowa

Pro Career: Strong-willed Iowan joined Kansas City as an unrestricted free agent from Chicago on March 15, 2001 ... Has been a key element in Kansas City's record-setting offense since joining the club ... Enters his fifth campaign as the Chiefs starting center in 2005 ... Doesn't tip the scales at or above 300 pounds like many NFL offensive linemen, but plays much bigger than his size with a determined and fundamentally-sound style ... One of the league's most underrated performers at his position ... Is finally beginning to garner some well-deserved national attention for his consistent effort and performance ... Has earned three consecutive berths on USA Today's All-Joe Team, a squad that annually recognizes the NFL's best blue-collar players ... Finished second in the AP's All-Pro voting at center in 2002 ... It isn't just mere happenstance that Wiegmann's arrival in Kansas City has coincided with RB Priest Holmes' emergence as one of the league's most prolific all-around performers ... Has excellent quickness and agility, attributes that frequently allow him to take on second-level defenders on draws and screens - two of Holmes' most productive plays ... A tenacious blocker who displays a hard-working style true to his Midwestern roots ... One of four current NFL performers to hail from Iowa's epicenter of future NFL players - Applington-Parkersburg High School in Parkersburg, Iowa (pop. 1,804) - joining C Brad Meester (Jacksonville), DE Jared DeVries (Detroit) and DE Aaron Kampman (Green Bay), who also hail from that high school alma mater ... Originally came to Kansas City as the replacement for one of the finest centers in the illustrious history of the Chiefs franchise, Tim Grunhard ... Is quickly establishing his own legacy after helping Holmes shatter a bevy of team and NFL records the past three seasons ... Barks out the blocking calls for a star-studded Kansas City offensive front that includes a pair of 10-time Pro Bowlers in G Will Shields and T Willie Roaf ... Was part of a Chiefs offense that set an NFL record with 398 first downs and established a team record with 6,695 yards of total offense in 2004 ... Has also been a part of a Kansas City blocking unit that has cleared the path for 63 rushing TDs over the past two seasons, a two year total matched in NFL history by only the '61-62 Packers ... Was also an integral cog in a Kansas City offense that registered a league-best 484 points in 2003, the best single-season output in team history ... Durable performer has opened 63 straight games for the Chiefs after missing the 2001 season opener after undergoing an appendectomy ... Those 63 straight starts are the fourth-longest active streak on the team ... Was part of a Kansas City offensive front that saw all five players open at the same positions for 32 consecutive games in 2002-03, the NFL's longest streak since the San Diego offensive line accomplished the feat for 40 straight games in '71-73 ... Has played in a total of 115 games (88 starts) ... Owns two career kickoff returns for 10 yards ... Prior to joining the Chiefs in 2001, spent time on the active rosters of Chicago ('97-00), the N.Y. Jets ('96-97) and Indianapolis ('96) ... Began his NFL career as a rookie free agent working on the Colts practice squad in '96, before eventually being promoted to that club's active roster.

Memphis

GP/GS: (121/105) Playoffs: (2/2)

Pro Career: Former Pro Bowl free safety entering his 10th season in a Kansas City uniform in 2005 ... Provides the Kansas City defense with another seasoned performer in the defensive backfield and should prove an invaluable asset to fellow S Greg Wesley who will be making the transition from strong safety to free safety this season ... Attempting to bounce back from a left knee injury that cost him the final six contests of the 2004 campaign ... Former first-round draft choice has been a mainstay in the club's secondary after moving into a starting role at free safety in just his second pro campaign in '97 ... In the subsequent five seasons only missed one start for the club prior to suffering a broken right leg in the preseason that cost him the entire 2002 campaign ... Made a remarkable comeback in 2003, starting all 16 games and becoming the first Kansas City safety to earn a Pro Bowl berth since Chiefs Hall of Fame inductee Deron Cherry did it following the '88 campaign ... A member of an elite group of Kansas City safeties who have made the Pro Bowl, including the likes of Chiefs Hall of Famers Lloyd Burruss, Cherry and Johnny Robinson ... Shares the title of the longest-tenured defensive player on the club's roster along with DT John Browning, who also joined the team in the '96 NFL Draft ... Ranks 42nd on the club's all-time service chart with 121 games played ... Is also one of just 27 players in team history to start 100 or more games ... Owns a reserved personality off the field, but has produced plenty of highlight-quality hits over the years ... Ranks seventh on the franchise's all-time tackle chart, needing 12 more stops to move ahead of LB Derrick Thomas (728) and 26 more tackles to bypass LB Donnie Edwards for fifth ... Owns four 100-tackle campaigns, as well as a 99-tackle effort in 2003 ... Played over half of the '98 season with six screws and a metal plate inserted into a broken right hand ... Despite that injured appendage, still started all 16 games and finished third on the squad with 124 tackles that year ... Shared the club's KO return chores with WR Tamarick Vanover as a rookie in '96 and also served as a reserve cornerback before moving to free safety in '97 ... Has seen action in 121 regular season games (105 starts), producing 15 INTs with 282 return yards and two TDs ... Owns 717 tackles (486 solo), four fumble recoveries and 11 forced fumbles ... Has also racked up 5.0 sacks (-27.0 yards), 49 passes defended, 29 QB pressures and 24 special teams stops ... Recovered a blocked FG attempt in '98 ... Returned 25 kickoffs for 581 yards (23.2 avg.) with a long of 66 yards as a rookie in '96 ... In two postseason starts has recorded 10 tackles (seven solo) and a forced fumble.

Transactions: Signed a six-year contract with Kansas City (3/3/04) ... Signed a five-year contract with Kansas City (2/10/00) ... Signed a five-year contract with Kansas City (8/12/96) ... Entered the NFL as Kansas City's first-round choice (28th overall) in the '96 NFL Draft.

chiefsmedia.com

Launched in 2002, www.chiefsmedia.com is a media-specific website designed to assist all media outlets in their coverage of the Chiefs. Upon entering the site for the first time, you will be prompted to register for a password. After receiving your password, you will have access to the following information, plus much more . . .

- 2005 Media Guide - Each section of the 2005 Chiefs Media Guide is available for download its entirety.
- Weekly Media Packet - During the season, the club's entire Weekly Media Packet (Release, Additional Stats, Clips, Updated Bios and League Stats) is available for viewing or download.
- Rosters, Bios and Depth Chart - Access the club's most current roster linked to each player's 2005 media guide bio which is updated - complete with current seasonal and career stats - after each game.
- Play-by-Plays - Simply by clicking on an individual game within the schedule, you can download the entire play-by-play from that contest.
- Credential Requests - Once again in 2005, the Chiefs will only accept home credential requests via an easy-to-complete request form on this site. Chiefs PR will then respond to your request via email.
- Practice Schedule - Daily practice schedules are available including details on start/finish time, media policies, locker room rules, location and player/coach availability each day.
- Q&A Archives - Complete press conference and interview transcriptions posted and archived.
- Photos & Logos - High resolution photos and logos are available for use following approved guidelines.

Broncos 34, Chiefs 24

September 12, 2004 • INVESCO Field at Mile High • 75,939

KANSAS CITY.....	7	0	17	0	—	24
DENVER	3	14	7	10	—	34

The Broncos handed the Chiefs a 34-24 loss at INVESCO Field, marking KC's fourth consecutive loss at that facility. The contest got off to a promising start for KC when QB Trent Green connected with WR Eddie Kennison on the game's second snap, setting up a two-yard TD plunge by RB Priest Holmes. Holmes set a KC Opening Day record with 151 ground yards and accounted for three TDs on the day, while Kennison finished the contest with 101 receiving yards. A 43-yard K Jason Elam FG cut the Chiefs advantage to 7-3 after one quarter.

Denver took a 10-7 lead after a one-yard TD connection between QB Jake Plummer and RB Quentin Griffin. Griffin did most of Denver's offensive damage, accounting for 156 rushing yards and two ground scores, the first of which was a 25-yard run that gave the Broncos a 17-7 halftime edge. Chiefs LB Monty Beisel recorded his first career interception when he picked off Plummer on the first play of the second half. Beisel's takeaway set up a 50-yard FG by K Lawrence Tynes to cut the gap to 17-10.

Under heavy duress on the next series, Plummer heaved a pass out of the end zone left-handed and it was picked off by LB Shawn Barber, who returned it to the Denver seven-yard line. Two plays later Holmes tied the count at 17-17 thanks to a four-yard TD run with 11:23 left in the third quarter. Denver answered with a 47-yard scoring burst from Griffin to go back ahead 24-17. KC again countered, tying the score at 24-24 when Holmes broke off a dazzling 33-yard TD run — his longest run since a 56-yarder at Denver (12/15/02) — but the Chiefs would not score again.

KC's defense forced Griffin to fumble into the end zone on Denver's next possession. S Greg Wesley stripped the ball loose which was promptly pounced upon by CB Dexter McCleon to thwart the drive and keep the count deadlocked at 24-24 entering the fourth quarter. A 45-yard Elam FG gave Denver a 27-24 edge. The Chiefs next drive stalled at the Broncos 46-yard line. Denver then marched 87 yards and chewed up 7:10 off the clock to score the contest's final points when Plummer found TE Patrick Hape for a two-yard TD making the final 34-24.

GAME NOTES

- RB Priest Holmes' 151 rushing yards were the most ever by a Chiefs back on Opening Day, surpassing the previous mark of 143 yards by RB Christian Okoye vs. Atlanta (9/1/91).
- DT Junior Siavii recorded his first career sack (-9.0 yards) with a second quarter sack of QB Jake Plummer.
- K Lawrence Tynes registered his initial NFL field goal on a 50-yard kick in the third quarter. Tynes' 58-yard FG attempt in the first half was the longest attempt by a member of the Chiefs since K Nick Lowery made a 58-yard FG vs. the L.A. Raiders (9/12/85).

- CHIEFS — Holmes, 2-yard run (Tynes kick) (8-80, 4:14).

Panthers 28, Chiefs 17

September 19, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 78,136

CAROLINA	7	0	7	14	-	28
KANSAS CITY.....	3	7	7	0	-	17

The Chiefs entered their home opener vs. Carolina boasting a 13-game regular season home winning streak and battled to a 10-7 halftime lead. But Kansas City was outscored by a 14-0 margin in the final quarter as the Panthers claimed a 28-17 win at Arrowhead. Chiefs QB Trent Green completed six of seven passes for 72 yards on the game's opening drive, but the Chiefs were forced to settle for a 33-yard K Lawrence Tynes field goal to take an early 3-0 lead.

After both clubs traded punts, the Panthers took a 7-3 lead. On second and goal from the three, Chiefs LB Monty Beisel grabbed Panthers QB Jake Delhomme by the jersey and spun him around, only to see the QB flip a blind pass to TE Kris Mangum for an improbable TD. KC's offense then turned to Holmes, who pounded out 24 rushing yards on a seven-play, 69-yard TD drive that culminated when the three-time Pro Bowl RB somersaulted into the end zone from one yard out to give the Chiefs a 10-7 lead with 12:34 remaining in the first half. KC had a chance to bolster that advantage, but a 47-yard Tynes FG attempt went wide right with 0:49 left in the second quarter.

The third quarter was all Carolina. The Panthers owned the ball for 13:15, compared to 1:45 for the Chiefs who got just four offensive snaps in the quarter. Powered by RB DeShaun Foster, the Panthers ground out a 16-play, 80-yard TD drive that ate 8:13 off the clock. A nine-yard TD pass from Delhomme to WR Keary Colbert capped the scoring march as Carolina retook the lead at 14-10. After the Chiefs offense was forced to punt, KC's defense provided the final points of the afternoon when CB Eric Warfield registered his second INT of the day, returning the pick for a 43-yard TD to give Kansas City a 17-14 edge entering the final quarter.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Carolina reclaimed the lead for good as Delhomme lobbed a one-yard TD pass on play action to TE Mike Seidman to make the count 21-17 in favor of the Panthers. After another KC punt, Foster put the final dagger in the Chiefs victory chances when he broke out for a 71-yard run. On the next play, he raced into the end zone from three yards out to give Carolina a 28-17 edge. Foster finished the day with 32 carries for 174 yards on the ground. The Chiefs coughed up the ball on a fumble and an INT on their next two drives, essentially nullifying a possible comeback.

GAME NOTES

- CB Eric Warfield tied a career high with two INTs, tying a mark he originally set vs. Buffalo (10/26/03). Warfield returned his second INT of the game for a 43-yard TD. It was Warfield's second career TD, the second score of his career.
- Warfield's INT return marked the 16th consecutive season that the Chiefs registered at least one defensive TD.

- CHIEFS — Tynes, 33-yard field goal (9-68, 4:51).
- PANTHERS — Mangum, 3-yard pass from Delhomme (Kasay kick) (10-66, 5:20).
- CHIEFS — Holmes, 1-yard run (Tynes kick) (7-69, 3:36).
- PANTHERS — Colbert, 9-yard pass from Delhomme (Kasay kick) (16-80, 8:13).
- CHIEFS — Warfield, 43-yard INT return (Tynes kick).
- PANTHERS — Seidman, 1-yard pass from Delhomme (Kasay kick) (8-56, 3:39).
- PANTHERS — Foster, 3-yard run (Kasay kick) (2-74, 0:52).

Texans 24, Chiefs 21

September 26, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,433

HOUSTON	0	6	8	10	—	24
KANSAS CITY	7	0	7	7	—	21

A 49-yard FG by Texans K Kris Brown with 0:02 left in the fourth quarter handed the Chiefs a shocking 24-21 loss at Arrowhead. The Chiefs defense dodged a major threat on the game's opening possession when CB Eric Warfield intercepted QB David Carr in the end zone. That takeaway set the stage for an impressive nine-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a 14-yard scoring dart from QB Trent Green to TE Tony Gonzalez to give KC a 7-0 lead. Green finished the game with three TDs and a 111.0 rating, while Gonzalez registered his 10th career 100-yard game with an eight-catch, 106-yard performance. KC's defense remained strong throughout the first half, limiting the Texans to a pair of Brown FGs (28 and 49 yards) as the Chiefs took a slim 7-6 lead into halftime.

The Chiefs took a 14-6 lead on their opening drive of the second half when Green found WR Chris Horn for a six-yard TD, the first of Horn's NFL career. On KC's next possession, RB Priest Holmes bypassed RB Christian Okoye (4,897 yards) as the all-time leading rusher in franchise history with a seven-yard run up the middle. Holmes finished the game 32 totes for 134 yards, a remarkable feat considering he came into the game with a sore ankle.

KC was two yards away from taking a 21-6 lead and turning the game into at least a two-possession contest when disaster struck. With the Chiefs facing second-and-goal at the two-yard line, Texans CB Marcus Coleman registered a 102-yard INT return despite a valiant effort by Holmes, who almost stripped the ball from the Texans defender before he broke the plain of the end zone. A two-point conversion tied the game at 14-14 and sent the teams in opposite directions.

The Chiefs retook the lead at 21-14 when Green flipped a five-yard TD pass to TE Jason Dunn with 10:55 left in the game, but Carr rallied the Texans and led the club to two scoring drives in the final 10 minutes. A 37-yard circus catch by WR Andre Johnson set up an eight-yard TD toss to WR Jabar Gaffney to tie the count at 21-21. KC's next drive stalled just short of midfield as Houston took over with 2:18 remaining. The drive's key play came when Carr completed a 35-yard pass to WR Derrick Armstrong on second-and-15 to move the Texans to the Chiefs 30-yard line. Two plays later, Brown connected on the game-winning FG.

GAME NOTES

- RB Priest Holmes surpassed RB Christian Okoye as the all-time leading rusher in Chiefs history. It was his 21st 100-yard rushing game as a member of the Chiefs, extending his franchise record.
- For the first time since he joined the Chiefs in 2001, Holmes did not have a reception. His reception streak of 48 consecutive games stands as the fourth-longest streak in team history.

Chiefs 27, Ravens 24

October 4, 2004 • M&T Bank Stadium • 69,827

KANSAS CITY	10	7	3	7	—	27
BALTIMORE	3	14	0	7	—	24

The Chiefs registered their initial win of the 2004 campaign on Monday Night Football, getting a 27-24 victory at Baltimore. KC dominated the Ravens' vaunted defense from the game's outset, while the Chiefs' defense turned in one of their finest performances of the season as KC pushed its all-time record vs. the Ravens to a perfect 3-0.

Impressively, the Chiefs held the ball for 39:43, compared to 20:17 for Baltimore, KC's biggest edge in that category since '97. KC registered four scoring drives that consumed 10 plays or more. After Baltimore opened the scoring with a 50-yard FG from K Matt Stover, the Chiefs responded with a 10-play, 60-yard march that culminated with a three-yard scoring dart from QB Trent Green to TE Jason Dunn. KC's defense then forced the Ravens three-and-out to set up a 42-yard FG from Chiefs K Lawrence Tynes to give KC a 10-3 edge.

Baltimore got its initial TD of the game on an elaborate flea-flicker that went from RB Jamal Lewis back to QB Kyle Boller and concluded with a 57-yard pass from Boller to WR Randy Hymes to tie the count at 10-10. The Chiefs' offense then gobbled up 8:08 off the clock with a 14-play, 79-yard drive that ended when RB Priest Holmes vaulted into the end zone from the four-yard line. Holmes carried the ball 33 times — the second-highest total of his career — racking up 125 yards and a pair of TDs. As a team, KC ground out 46 carries for 178 yards against the Ravens' defense. Baltimore's biggest play of the game came with just 1:47 left in the first half as PR B.J. Sams ran back a punt for a 58-yard TD to tie the count at 17-17.

The Chiefs took the second-half kickoff and marched 60 yards in 12 plays to get a 38-yard Tynes FG to go ahead 20-17, a lead KC would carry into the fourth quarter. A 13-play, 80-yard drive by the Chiefs culminated with a one-yard TD by Holmes on the first snap of the final frame gave KC a 27-17 lead with 14:57 left to play.

But Baltimore wouldn't go away, constructing a solid drive of its own behind Lewis, who finished the game with 73 yards, 38 of which came on a 62-yard drive that was capped when he scored from one yard out to make to the count 27-24. KC's defense took it from there, rebuffing the Ravens on their final two possessions to secure the victory. The victory marked KC's first back-to-back road wins on Monday Night Football since '74-75.

GAME NOTES

- Chiefs RB Priest Holmes became only the fourth RB since the AFL-NFL merger in '70 to reach the 5,000-yard plateau with a team in 50 games or less. Eric Dickerson (45 games - Rams), Earl Campbell (46 games - Oilers) and Terrell Davis (50 games - Broncos) previously accomplished that feat. Monday's game at Baltimore was Holmes' 50th with the Chiefs.
- Kansas City's 46 rushing attempts were the club's most since having 48 vs. Oakland (12/9/97).
- KC held the ball for 39:43, the club's most lopsided advantage in time of possession since owning the ball for 41:30 in a 30-10 win vs. Oakland (12/9/97).

Jaguars 22, Chiefs 16

October 17, 2004 • ALLTEL Stadium • 66,413

KANSAS CITY.....	3	0	7	6	—	16
JACKSONVILLE.....	7	7	0	8	—	22

Kansas City let a golden opportunity to secure a victory slip through its grasp as Jaguars QB Byron Leftwich connected a on 14-yard TD pass to WR Cortez Hankton for the game-winning touchdown with 0:45 left in the fourth quarter as Jacksonville rallied for a 22-16 victory.

The Jaguars grabbed the momentum early, taking the opening kickoff and eating 6:26 off the clock with a 13-play, 75-yard drive that concluded with a seven-yard TD run by Leftwich. After both clubs exchanged punts, QB Trent Green fired a 52-yard strike to WR Johnnie Morton, putting Kansas City at the Jaguars 14-yard line. Morton finished the game with seven catches for 111 yards. RB Priest Holmes got the Chiefs as close as the five-yard line, but KC would have to settle for a 31-yard field goal from K Lawrence Tynes.

The Jaguars took a 14-3 lead when Leftwich dumped a short pass to RB Fred Taylor in the left flat. Taylor, who was held to just 66 rushing yards by the Chiefs defense, scampered 64 yards for the score. Kansas City was unable to mount a serious scoring threat while Jaguars K Josh Scobee misfired on a 51-yard field goal attempt to keep the count at 14-3 heading into intermission.

The Chiefs mounted an impressive drive to start the second half as Green connected on passes of 19 and 21 yards to WR Eddie Kennison before lobbing a 24-yard TD to TE Tony Gonzalez on third-and-16 as the Chiefs QB evaded several would-be sackers to close the gap to 14-10. Green completed 22 of 33 passes on the day, good for 315 yards and a 107.5 rating.

The game's wild finish began when Green flipped the ball forward to RB Priest Holmes just an instant before the QB's knee hit the ground in a play upheld by replay. However, the Chiefs missed the PAT following Holmes' 28-yard TD catch, giving KC a 16-14 lead with 4:45 remaining. KC got the ball back at the Jacksonville 33-yard line after the Chiefs defense held on fourth-and-one.

With the Jaguars out of timeouts, KC could have potentially closed the book on Jacksonville with a first down, but Holmes came up just shy of the sticks on third-and-six from the Jaguars 29-yard line. KC's 42-yard FG attempt went wide right, setting up Leftwich for the game-winning TD drive. KC got the ball back with 0:40 remaining, but Green's final desperation heave was intercepted by CB Deke Cooper as Jacksonville claimed the 22-16 win.

GAME NOTES

- TE Tony Gonzalez tied Stephone Paige for third in Chiefs history with 49 career TD catches. He also tied Keith Jackson for sixth in the NFL record books for most career TD receptions by a tight end.
- RB Priest Holmes moved into second place in KC annals with 1,301 attempts from scrimmage (1,086 rushes/215 receptions), moving ahead of RB Christian Okoye (1,288). RB Ed Podalak (1,445) owns the KC record in that department.

Chiefs 56, Falcons 10

October 24, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 78,260

ATLANTA.....	3	0	7	0	—	10
KANSAS CITY.....	14	21	7	14	—	56

The Chiefs unleashed a 56-point outburst — the second-highest total in franchise history and their highest tally ever at Arrowhead — as KC demolished the Falcons by a 56-10 margin. The Chiefs set an NFL record with eight rushing TDs, including four from RB Priest Holmes in the first half, while the KC defense held Atlanta to just three offensive points. KC had 540 total yards and set team records with 36 total first downs and 21 rushing first downs.

The game's key sequence came in the first quarter when a 32-yard scramble by Vick — which accounted for over 26 percent of the Falcons rushing yards on the day — set Atlanta up with first-and-goal at the nine on the opening drive of the game. Vick was knocked out of bounds at the one-yard line on first down and threw an incompletion on second down. Then, LB Shawn Barber knocked down Vick's pass attempt on third-and-goal from the one, forcing Atlanta to settle for a 19-yard FG. On the day, KC would hold the Falcons to just one of 11 (9.1%) on third down.

On KC's first offensive snap, Holmes fumbled at the Chiefs 32-yard line. However, the KC defense held its ground on fourth down, setting the stage for one of the most impressive offensive displays in franchise history. In the first half alone, Holmes accounted for 103 rushing yards and four TDs, making him just the sixth player in NFL history to register four ground scores in a single half. RB Derrick Baylock added a seven-yard TD run and Holmes dove into the end zone for his fourth TD of the day with just 0:02 left in the second quarter as KC took a commanding 35-3 halftime lead.

After the Chiefs punted on their opening drive of the second half, the Falcons scored their lone TD of the day on a 75-yard punt return TD from CB Allen Rossum to make the count 35-10. Holmes — who finished the game with 139 ground yards — got the Chiefs to the Atlanta one-yard line before leaving the game. Baylock took it from there, registering his second rushing TD of the day as KC went ahead 42-10. Baylock finished the game with 90 rushing yards and tacked on a pair of fourth-quarter scoring runs to tie a franchise single-game record with four ground scores himself, making the final count 56-10 in favor of the Chiefs. On the day, KC ran the ball 49 times for 271 yards against an Atlanta defense that entered the game ranked first in the NFL against the run. Defensively, KC registered its third straight game with 4.0 sacks and held the Falcons to just 222 yards of total offense.

GAME NOTES

- KC's eight rushing TDs set an NFL single-game record, breaking the previous mark of seven by the L.A. Rams who did it vs. Atlanta (12/4/76).
- KC's 271 rushing yards were the club's most since having 310 vs. Detroit (10/14/90).
- Holmes and Baylock became the first pair of teammates in NFL history to each have three or more rushing TDs in the same game.

Chiefs 45, Colts 35
October 31, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 78,312

INDIANAPOLIS	7	7	14	7	—	35
KANSAS CITY	7	24	0	14	—	45

The Chiefs amassed a franchise-record 590 yards of total offense in a thrilling 45-35 victory. KC's Halloween masterpiece vs. Indianapolis also exorcised the demons of a seven-game losing streak against the Colts. The game featured 1,095 yards of total offense by both teams, the third-highest total in NFL history.

In addition, the contest included a pair of notable individual accomplishments as RB Priest Holmes became the all-time leader in yards from scrimmage (7,583) in Chiefs history thanks to 225 combined yards. Holmes also accounted for three rushing TDs against the Colts. Meanwhile, TE Tony Gonzalez produced eight catches for 125 yards and two TDs, becoming just the fifth TE in NFL history to join the league's elite 500-catch club.

After KC quashed a fake punt attempt on the Colts initial possession, Holmes fumbled on Indy's four-yard line, setting the stage for a 96-yard TD march by the Colts which was capped by a 52-yard TD pass to WR Marvin Harrison. Manning would finish the game with 472 passing yards and five TD passes, but Chiefs QB Trent Green presided over KC's balanced offensive attack that featured 203 ground yards, as well as 389 passing yards, three TD passes and a 143.8 rating. After the Colts initial score, Green proceeded to rally the Chiefs for 31 points in the first half as KC enjoyed a 31-14 halftime advantage. First, Green hit Gonzalez for a 21-yard score, then found WR Johnnie Morton on a seven-yard TD pass. Holmes' second-quarter TD runs of 21 and 11 yards along with a field goal accounted for KC's first half scoring.

The Colts rolled off 14 points in the third quarter to get as close as 31-28, but they could never retake the lead. Incredibly, Indianapolis didn't attempt a single run in the second half, relying on 20 pass attempts from Manning. Holmes finished the game with 143 ground yards and plunged in from one yard out for his third TD of the day to up the Chiefs lead to 38-28. The second of WR Reggie Wayne's two TD catches made the margin just 38-35 with 5:27 left in the game.

However, Green and the Chiefs responded with a decisive eight-play, 70-yard TD march that concluded with a 14-yard scoring dart from Green to Gonzalez to make the score 45-35 with 2:17 left. S Greg Wesley picked off Manning in the end zone on the Colts final drive to preserve the Chiefs victory.

GAME NOTES

- RB Priest Holmes registered his ninth career game with three or more rushing TDs, tying RB Emmitt Smith for second in NFL history. Only RB Jim Brown (10) has more career games with three or more rushing TDs.
- With 18 points vs. Indianapolis, Holmes moved into third on the Chiefs career scoring chart with 450 points, bypassing K Pete Stoyanovich (442).
- QB Trent Green completed 14 consecutive passes in the first half, coming one completion shy of tying QB Len Dawson's team single-game record of 15 set at Houston (9/26/04).

- COLTS — Harrison, 52-yard pass from Manning (Vanderjagt kick) (8-96, 4:21).

Buccaneers 34, Chiefs 31

November 7, 2004 • Raymond James Stadium • 65,495

KANSAS CITY.....	7	17	7	0	—	31
TAMPA BAY.....	7	14	7	6	—	34

The Chiefs suffered a narrow defeat in the waning moments of another game as Kansas City dropped a 34-31 decision at Tampa Bay. Despite 459 yards of total offense, it was Tampa Bay that produced enough plays to make the difference. QB Trent Green orchestrated a crisp 10-play, 77-yard TD drive to open the game. The scoring came on a precision pass from Green — who was drilled after the throw — to WR Johnnie Morton for a 25-yard TD. However, as would happen all day, Bucs QB Brian Griese would counter with an eight-yard TD pass to FB Jameel Cook to tie the count at 7-7.

Meanwhile, the Bucs defense was able to force three KC turnovers in extremely critical situations. After Green found WR Eddie Kennison for a 59-yard connection, Kennison was stripped by Bucs S Dwight Smith at the KC 11-yard line, thwarting a golden scoring opportunity.

A wild second quarter ensued as the two clubs combined for 31 points. Bucs RB Michael Pittman and KC RB Priest Holmes each scored on short TD runs, while a 31-yard FG gave KC a 17-14 lead midway through the quarter. TB jumped back ahead 21-17 before Green found Gonzalez for a 23-yard TD with 0:35 left in the half. Tampa Bay misfired on a 46-yard FG at the end of the period as KC took a 24-21 lead into the locker room.

Pittman bolted for a 78-yard score on the second snap of the third quarter, while Holmes left the game with a right knee injury. Green again rallied the Chiefs, connecting on a one-yard TD to TE Jason Dunn to give KC a 31-28 edge entering the fourth quarter. A three-yard Pittman TD put TB ahead 34-31, but a high snap on the ensuing PAT try left the door open for the Chiefs.

The game's key play came with 5:58 left and KC on the Bucs 22-yard line as LB Derrick Brooks connected with Green's elbow just as he was delivering a throw to Gonzalez in the end zone. The pass was intercepted, but KC's defense forced the Bucs to punt, giving the Chiefs one final shot. KC got as deep as the TB 43-yard line, but a pair of sacks by TB sealed the 34-31 decision.

Green finished the day with 369 passing yards to put him in a tie with QB Bill Kenney (15) for the most 300-yard games in Chiefs history. Meanwhile, Gonzalez finished the contest with nine catches for 123 yards.

GAME NOTES

- TE Tony Gonzalez moved ahead of Frank Wycheck (505) into fourth place in career receptions by a TE in NFL history. He also registered his 52nd career TD catch, moving him into a tie with Dave Casper for the fourth-most by a TE in NFL history.
- Gonzalez recorded his 12th career 100-yard receiving game, tying him for third in Chiefs history with E Chris Burford and WR Derrick Alexander.
- The Chiefs had a 100-yard receiving tandem with Gonzalez (123 yards) and WR Eddie Kennison (104 yards), marking the first time KC has accomplished that feat since Gonzalez (121) and WR Johnnie Morton (109) did it at GB (10/12/03).

- CHIEFS — Morton, 25-yard pass from Green (Tynes kick) (10-77, 5:18).
- BUCS — Cook, 8-yard pass from Griese (Gramatica kick) (4-73, 2:03).

Saints 27, Chiefs 20

November 14, 2004 • Louisiana Superdome • 64,900

KANSAS CITY.....	10	3	0	7	—	20
NEW ORLEANS	0	14	3	10	—	27

For the second consecutive week, the Chiefs appeared poised to register a narrow road win, only to have victory slip through the club's grasp as Kansas City dropped a 27-20 decision at New Orleans. RB Derrick Blaylock came 14 yards shy of the club's single-game rushing record with an 186-yard outburst, the best total by a player making his initial NFL start since St. Louis RB Trung Candidate had 194 rushing yards vs. NYJ (10/21/01). Blaylock — who was starting in place of an injured RB Priest Holmes — racked up 79 yards in the first quarter alone as Kansas City jumped out to an early 10-0 lead.

QB Trent Green, who finished the game with 311 yards to bypass QB Bill Kenney (15) as the club's all-time leader in 300-yard passing games (16), found WR Eddie Kennison (7-121-1 TD) with a 21-yard scoring dart on the Chiefs' first possession. After Kansas City's defense forced the Saints three-and-out, the Chiefs appeared poised to score once again. But for the second straight week, a Red Zone fumble cost the Chiefs dearly as WR Johnnie Morton had the ball popped loose by S Jay Bellamy at the New Orleans 15-yard line.

Perhaps the game's key sequence came on KC's next drive. After a personal foul on the Saints on third-and-goal from the six gave KC a new set of downs, the Chiefs were forced to settle for a 24-yard field goal when Green just overshot Blaylock in the end zone. The Saints then got on the board on a drive that was aided by three KC penalties when QB Aaron Brooks vaulted across the goal line from one yard out to make the count 10-7. A 13-yard RB Deuce McAllister TD run on New Orleans' next drive gave the Saints a 14-10 advantage and KC would fight from behind for the rest of the game. A 44-yard K Lawrence Tynes FG cut the count to 14-13 Saints at the half.

A pair of INTs doomed the Chiefs in the second half. Green was first victimized by CB Mike McKenzie in the third quarter when an open Morton fell down. Then with KC trailing 27-20 with 1:25 remaining in the contest, a ball went off Blaylock's hands into the arms of LB Orlando Ruff at the Saints four-yard line. KC got the ball back with 0:08 remaining, but Green was sacked and stripped by DE Darren Howard, preserving the Saints win.

GAME NOTES

- Kansas City's 497 yards marked the fourth consecutive game that the club produced 400+ yards of total offense, the first time the club accomplished that feat since '76.
- RB Derrick Blaylock registered the fifth-best single-game rushing performance in Chiefs history with a career-best 186 yards. He became the first player other than RB Priest Holmes to register a 100-yard rushing game for the Chiefs since FB Tony Richardson had 156 yards vs. Denver (12/17/00).
- Blaylock's 33 rushing attempts tied as the fourth-highest total in franchise history.

- CHIEFS — Kennison, 21-yard pass from Green (Tynes kick) (5-35, 2:11).
- CHIEFS — Tynes, 24-yard field goal (13-60, 6:43).

GAME 10

Patriots 27, Chiefs 19

November 22, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 78,431

NEW ENGLAND	7	10	7	3	—	27
KANSAS CITY	10	0	3	6	—	19

The Patriots registered their first victory in Kansas City since '64 as New England defeated the Chiefs by a 27-19 count in a Monday Night Football clash at Arrowhead Stadium. NE won the toss and 10 plays later, RB Corey Dillon scored on a five-yard TD as the Patriots tied an NFL record by scoring the first points of a game in their 15th consecutive contest. The Chiefs responded with a 44-yard K Lawrence Tynes FG on Kansas City's first drive and then took a short-lived 10-7 lead when QB Trent Green lofted a beautiful 65-yard touchdown pass down the far sideline to WR Eddie Kennison. However, NE retaliated with a one-yard TD dive by Dillon to retake the lead for good at 14-10. A 37-yard K Adam Vinatieri FG pushed the Patriots lead to 17-10 late in the second quarter.

The game's key play came as the Chiefs faced third-and-goal at the nine-yard line with 0:54 remaining in the first half. Green's pass intended for TE Tony Gonzalez was picked off in the end zone by S Rodney Harrison despite vehement protestations from KC that a defensive foul had occurred on the play. However, no flags were thrown and the Patriots escaped unscathed, taking their 17-10 lead into the locker room.

The Chiefs opened the second half with a monster 15-play drive that ate 8:15 off the clock, but again they couldn't find the end zone. RB Derrick Blaylock was stopped on a third-and-one from the four, setting up a 24-yard FG that cut the NE lead to 17-13. But once again, the Patriots immediately answered. Set up by a 46-yard pass to WR David Patten, NE QB Tom Brady hit WR Deion Branch for a 26-yard TD to push the Patriots edge to 24-13. Brady finished the game with 315 passing yards.

The Patriots made a rare mistake early in the fourth quarter, giving the Chiefs a glimmer of hope. LB Fred Jones forced a Dillon fumble that was recovered by DT Lionel Dalton at the KC three-yard line. Green — who finished the contest with 381 passing yards — orchestrated a precision 11-play, 97-yard TD march that concluded with his second scoring strike to Kennison, this time from 26 yards out. However, KC's two-point pass attempt fell incomplete, putting the score at 24-19 with 6:13 remaining.

NE marched the ball deep into KC territory, but the Chiefs defense limited the Patriots to a FG, leaving the offense 1:46 on the clock for a potential game-tying drive. But KC's comeback hopes were dashed when Green was sacked on fourth-and-six at the Chiefs 26-yard line, allowing the Patriots to run out the clock on a 27-19 win.

GAME NOTES

- The Chiefs produced 400+ yards of total offense in their fifth consecutive game, a first in franchise history.
- QB Trent Green registered his fourth straight 300-yard passing game, tying QB Bill Kenney ('83) for the longest streak in team annals.

- PATRIOTS — Dillon, 5-yard run (Vinatieri kick) (10-71, 4:31).
- CHIEFS — Tynes, 44-yard field goal (5-30, 2:42).
- CHIEFS — Kennison, 65-yard pass from Green (Tynes kick) (5-84, 2:34).

Chargers 34, Chiefs 31

November 28, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,447

SAN DIEGO	7	7	3	17	—	34
KANSAS CITY	7	10	0	14	—	31

The Chargers snapped a seven-game losing streak at Arrowhead thanks to a wild fourth quarter that featured 31 points by both teams as San Diego claimed a 34-31 victory. The loss was the fourth straight for the Chiefs, while the Chargers extended their victory string to five games.

After missing a 29-yard FG on its first possession, San Diego got on the board first when RB LaDainian Tomlinson recorded a one-yard TD run. However, Kansas City immediately countered with a five-yard TD trot by RB Derrick Bylock to knot the count at 7-7. After the Chiefs defense forced a punt, KC took the lead at 14-7 when a monster 13-play, 94-yard drive culminated when RB Larry Johnson plowed into the end zone from six yards out. San Diego answered with a three-yard Tomlinson TD. However, the Chiefs took a 17-14 lead into the locker room thanks to a 28-yard K Lawrence Tynes FG and a missed 52-yard FG by SD K Nate Kaeding.

One of the game's key plays came on the opening kickoff of the second half when WR Dante Hall appeared to be headed for paydirt, only to have the ball pop loose and be recovered by San Diego at the five-yard line. After both squads exchanged punts, SD knotted the count at 17-17 on a 25-yard K Nate Kaeding FG, setting the stage for a wild fourth quarter.

Two plays into the final period, Bylock bolted into the end zone from 22 yards out, but the Chiefs missed the PAT, giving KC a 23-17 advantage. But once again SD replied, this time with a six-play, 71-yard drive that was capped by an 18-yard TD catch by TE Antonio Gates that was upheld by instant replay. On the ensuing kickoff, Hall redeemed himself for the earlier fumble with a 96-yard TD that appeared to swing the momentum into KC's favor. A successful two-point try gave KC a 31-24 lead with 10:00 left. This time San Diego answered with an 11-yard TD catch by Gates that left the score deadlocked at 31-31 with 6:22 remaining.

The decisive sequence of the contest ensued when former Chiefs LB Donnie Edwards picked off QB Trent Green, setting the stage for a 43-yard FG by Kaeding with 2:24 left to provide San Diego all it needed for the 34-31 victory.

GAME NOTES

- WR Dante Hall bypassed WR Tamarick Vanover (212) for the most kickoff returns and the most KO return yards (5,099) in Chiefs history.
- Hall's 96-yard kickoff return TD was the fourth of his career and his eighth career special teams TD, tying him with Vanover for the team record in both categories.
- Hall's career-high 233 kickoff return yards ranked as the third-highest single-game total in team history, surpassing his previous career high of 192 yards at Cleveland (9/8/02).
- TE Tony Gonzalez registered his 13th career 100-yard receiving game, moving him into third place in Chiefs history.

- CHARGERS — Tomlinson, 1-yard run (Kaeding kick) (3-57, 1:00).

Chiefs 34, Raiders 27

December 5, 2004 • Network Associates Coliseum • 51,292

KANSAS CITY.....	7	3	14	10	—	34
OAKLAND.....	6	14	0	7	—	27

QB Trent Green turned in an incredible second-half performance and second-year RB Larry Johnson rattled off 118 rushing yards, while the Chiefs defense limited the Raiders to just one score in the final 30 minutes as Kansas City rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to snap a four-game losing streak with a 34-27 victory at Oakland.

The Chiefs held the Raiders to a pair of FGs on their first two possessions, while a 20-yard TD pass from Green to RB Derrick Blaylock gave KC a slim 7-6 advantage heading into the second quarter. An INT gave Oakland its first big break, setting up a 34-yard TD catch by WR Ronald Curry to give the Raiders a 13-7 lead. A 51-yard scoring strike to WR Jerry Porter upped the Oakland lead to 20-7 before a 28-yard K Lawrence Tynes FG closed the gap to 20-10 at intermission.

With Blaylock sidelined due to a neck injury suffered early in the game, Johnson turned in his finest performance with KC, finishing the game with a career-best 174 yards from scrimmage and a pair of third-quarter TDs. His five-yard TD run on the opening possession of the second half made the score 20-17. Green put KC ahead 24-20 with a 10-yard scoring pass to Johnson, setting the stage for a wild fourth quarter that began with the Raiders retaking the lead on a 26-yard TD from QB Kerry Collins to Curry.

Green, who completed 14 of 15 passes for 229 yards, two TDs and a "perfect" 158.3 rating in the second half, took it from there, rallying the Chiefs for 10 unanswered points. A 22-yard Tynes FG tied the score at 27-27 with 6:59 left to play.

On Oakland's next possession, KC's defense held, forcing Collins to throw an incompletion on third-and-four from the KC 36-yard line. After the Raiders ensuing punt, Johnson gained five yards on third-and-two, setting up the game-winning score on the next play. Green found WR Eddie Kennison for a 70-yard TD. Kennison — who finished the game with eight catches for 149 yards — shrugged off a potential tackle by S Stuart Schweigert at the 35-yard line and raced into the end zone with 2:04 left to play.

KC's defense sealed it from there, as DE Gary Stills sacked Collins for a nine-yard loss on second down. Then, the Chiefs forced Collins to throw an incompletion on fourth-and-19 from the Oakland 45-yard line to seal the victory.

GAME NOTES

- Kansas City's defense permitted a franchise-record nine rushing attempts by the Raiders, breaking the mark of 11 last accomplished at Oakland (12/3/95).
- RB Larry Johnson registered his first career 100-yard rushing game, joining Priest Holmes and Derrick Blaylock as the third Chiefs RB to post a 100-yard rushing game on the season. It marked the first time KC has accomplished that feat since Christian Okoye, Barry Word and Harvey Williams all did it in '91.

- RAIDERS — Janikowski, 27-yard field goal (9-59, 3:57).
- CHIEFS — Blaylock, 20-yard pass from Green (Tynes kick) (10-65, 6:45).

Chiefs 49, Titans 38

December 13, 2004 • The Coliseum • 68,932

KANSAS CITY	0	14	14	21	—	49
TENNESSEE	7	14	7	10	—	38

2004 REVIEW

For the second straight week the Chiefs got a fourth-quarter rally from QB Trent Green and a 100-yard rushing performance from RB Larry Johnson as KC rallied for a wild 49-38 win on Monday Night Football. Defensively, the Chiefs kept it close by recovering four Titans fumbles on the evening. Trailing 14-0 in the second quarter, Green got KC's first big play of the evening on a 58-yard TD to a wide open WR Eddie Kennison to make the count 14-7. Both clubs posted TDs inside the two-minute warning as the Titans took a 21-14 lead into intermission.

RB Derrick Blaylock got a one-yard TD run to tie the count at 21-21 on the opening drive of the second half, but the Titans countered with a seven-yard TD pass from QB Billy Volek to WR Drew Bennett, who finished the game with 233 receiving yards, the second-highest total ever amassed by an individual receiver against the Chiefs. Despite three TDs from Bennett, KC found its own big-play weapon in Johnson, who retaliated with a 46-yard TD run — KC's longest scoring jaunt since '99 — to tie the count at 28-28, setting the stage for a furious fourth quarter that featured a combined 31 points by the two teams.

A 41-yard TD run by Johnson — who finished the game with 104 yards on just seven carries — gave KC a brief 35-28 lead. Volek answered with a four-yard TD to WR Derrick Mason to knot the count at 35-35 with 2:26 remaining. Despite a Chiefs fumble two plays later, KC's defense limited the Titans to a 27-yard K Gary Anderson FG to give Tennessee a slim 38-35 edge with 1:39 left.

Green took it from there, orchestrating a masterful seven-play, 64-yard TD drive that was capped with a nine-yard scoring strike to Kennison with 0:32 left to give KC a 42-38 edge. A 39-yard fumble recovery by LB Kawika Mitchell on the game's final snap made the final count 49-38, marking the third-highest road scoring total in franchise history and the club's best road scoring tally since '66. The victory marked Kansas City's third consecutive road win on Monday Night Football.

GAME NOTES

- With his 542nd career catch, TE Tony Gonzalez moved ahead of Kellen Winslow (541) for the third-highest reception total by a tight end in NFL history. Gonzalez (6,593) also bypassed WR Henry Marshall (6,545) for second in Chiefs history in terms of career receiving yards.
- RB Larry Johnson scored on runs of 46 and 41 yards, becoming the first player in KC history to produce two TD runs of 40 or more yards in a single game.
- With his eighth rushing TD of the season RB Derrick Blaylock joined RB Priest Holmes (14 rushing TDs) as the first tandem of players in franchise history to each have eight or more rushing scores in the same season.

Chiefs 45, Denver 17

December 19, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,702

DENVER	7	3	0	7	—	17
KANSAS CITY	14	14	7	10	—	45

WR Dante Hall set the tone with a 97-yard kickoff return TD on the game's opening kickoff, while RB Larry Johnson racked up a career-high 151 rushing yards and QB Trent Green turned in another nearly-flawless performance as Kansas City registered a decisive 45-17 win vs. Denver. Defensively, the Chiefs forced three turnovers and compiled a season-high 6.0 sacks against Denver as KC produced its largest margin of victory over the Broncos since getting a 48-17 win (12/18/83).

After Hall's return, KC went up 14-0 on a five-yard TD run by Johnson, who accounted for 45 yards on an 11-play, 87-yard drive. Denver answered with a 22-yard TD catch by WR Rod Smith to make it 14-7, but that would be as close as the Broncos would get. CB Dexter McCleon registered the first of his two INTs on Denver's next possession, setting up a seven-yard TD strike from Green to WR Eddie Kennison. Green, who flirted with a perfect passer rating, completed 16 of 19 passes for 224 yards with three TDs and a 155.4 rating. Meanwhile, Kennison was on the receiving end of seven passes for 101 yards and two TDs.

Johnson got his second TD on a 32-yard burst in the second quarter as KC held a 28-10 advantage at halftime. After McCleon's second INT, WR Samie Parker got his first NFL score on a 48-yard bomb from Green, giving KC a 35-10 edge. Thanks to an 18-yard TD pass to Kennison that capped an epic 10-play, 99-yard drive, KC's lead swelled to 42-10 early in the fourth quarter.

Perhaps the game's most impressive defensive play came when S Greg Wesley chased down RB Tatum Bell, who appeared poised to score after a 58-yard gain on a screen pass. But Wesley poked the ball loose from behind at the five-yard line. The ball bounced out of the end zone for a touchback, thwarting a potential score. A 39-yard FG by Chiefs K Lawrence Tynes and a late four-yard TD run by Broncos RB Garrison Hearst made the final count 45-17 in favor of the Chiefs.

GAME NOTES

- The Chiefs set a single-season team record with their seventh game with 400 yards or more of total offense, breaking the previous mark of six such games last achieved in 2002.
- With 151 yards rushing from RB Larry Johnson, the Chiefs became the first team in NFL history to have three different players (Priest Holmes, Derrick Baylock and Johnson) produce a game with 150 or more rushing yards in the same season.
- WR Dante Hall registered a franchise record with the fifth kickoff return TD of his career. It was also Hall's ninth career special teams TD, giving him the most in Chiefs history.
- In his first NFL start, Johnson registered his third consecutive 100-yard rushing game, a mark that tied as the second-longest streak in franchise history. Johnson became the first player other than RB Priest Holmes to enjoy such a run since RB Christian Okoye produced two separate three-game 100-yard rushing streaks in '89.

CHIEFS	— Hall, 97-yard kickoff return (Tynes kick).

Chiefs 31, Raiders 30

December 25, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium • 77,289

OAKLAND	7	14	3	6	—	30
KANSAS CITY	7	14	0	10	—	31

The Chiefs registered their fourth consecutive victory and set a franchise record with their fifth straight 30-point performance as K Lawrence Tynes nailed the game-winning 38-yard FG with 0:22 left to give KC a 31-30 comeback win vs. Oakland on Christmas Day. The game got off to an ominous start for the Chiefs as QB Trent Green had his second pass of the day batted into the air, resulting in an INT by DE Tyler Brayton that set up a five-yard TD catch by WR Jerry Porter just 1:35 into the game. After having a FG blocked on its next possession, KC got on the board with a six-yard TD run by RB Larry Johnson to even the count. However, a three-yard RB Zack Crockett TD put the Raiders back ahead by a 14-7 margin.

TE Tony Gonzalez was the star of the second quarter for KC, hauling in TD receptions of two and 26 yards from Green to give the Chiefs a 21-14 lead at the two-minute warning of the first half. In total, Gonzalez hauled in nine passes in the first half and finished the day with 11 catches for 124 yards. Gonzalez's second TD began a wild sequence to end the first half as Oakland registered a 32-yard TD catch by WR Alvis Whitted and Tynes had a 50-yard FG try hit the crossbar to make the score 21-21 at halftime. A 40-yard K Sebastian Janikowski FG was the only score of the third period, giving Oakland a 24-21 lead entering the fourth quarter.

A four-yard Johnson TD run followed by a 45-yard Janikowski FG gave KC a slim 28-27 edge with 3:49 remaining. Facing third-and-four at the Oakland 38-yard line, Kansas City appeared poised to gain a first down and run out the clock, but Green was sacked and stripped by DT Ted Washington, giving the Raiders new life. Seven plays later, Oakland cashed in with a 46-yard Janikowski FG to take a 30-28 lead with 1:03 left.

Janikowski squibbed the kickoff which was eventually scooped up by WR Dante Hall at the KC 15-yard line. Hall hastily weaved 49 yards downfield, setting the Chiefs up at the Oakland 36-yard line with 0:54 left to play. After a pair of key completions by Green and a three-yard run by Johnson, Tynes nailed his first game-winning kick on fourth-and-seven, giving KC a thrilling Christmas comeback victory.

GAME NOTES

- The Chiefs 26 passing first downs were the most in team history, breaking the previous record of 23 set at Oakland (11/5/00).
- Kansas City's 78 offensive plays were the club's most since having 79 at San Diego (10/3/99).
- TE Tony Gonzalez became just the third player in Chiefs history and only the fifth TE in NFL history with multiple 1,000-yard receiving seasons. He also surpassed TE Kellen Winslow (6,741) for the fourth-highest yardage total by a TE in NFL history.

- RAIDERS — Porter, 5-yard pass from Collins (Janikowski kick) (3-10, 0:50).

Chargers 24, Chiefs 17

January 2, 2005 • Qualcomm Stadium • 64,920

KANSAS CITY.....	0	3	0	14	—	17
SAN DIEGO.....	3	14	0	7	—	24

The Chiefs wrapped up the 2004 season with a 24-17 loss to the AFC West Champion San Diego Chargers at Qualcomm Stadium. After mounting a 24-3 lead midway through the fourth quarter, the Chargers held off a frantic comeback from the Chiefs for a 24-17 win.

Resting several starters, San Diego opened the scoring with a 34-yard field goal. Kansas City seemed poised to answer until an INT at the SD 11-yard line returned the ball to the Chargers.

The Chiefs defense returned the favor minutes later as S Greg Wesley intercepted P Mike Scifres after a bad hold forced him to improvise. Kansas City cashed in on the INT with a 50-yard field goal from K Lawrence Tynes to tie the score at 3-3.

San Diego went back on top with a one-yard TD sneak from QB Doug Flutie. After a Chiefs punt, the KC defense forced another turnover. LB Monty Beisel picked up a fumble forced by CB Benny Sapp. However another Chiefs INT set up the Chargers second TD, this time a 10-yard pass from Flutie to TE Ryan Krause for a 17-3 halftime lead.

The Chargers would push the count to 24-3 when rookie QB Phillip Rivers threw his first career TD pass, a 13-yard completion to WR Malcolm Floyd. Then the Chiefs offense seemed to awaken as a two-yard TD run from RB Larry Johnson cut the lead to 24-10 with 4:15 left in the game.

The Chiefs then recovered an onside kick, turning it into another Johnson score, this time on a 14-yard TD pass to move within 24-17. After an unsuccessful onside kick attempt, the Red and Gold defense forced a punt and gave the ball back to their offense at their own nine-yard line with 0:59 remaining and no timeouts. The Chiefs advanced to the KC 30-yard line, but Green's deep pass attempt to Hall was intercepted by CB Drayton Florence, ending the Kansas City comeback bid and the 2004 season.

In the loss, the Chiefs did manage to set several impressive records. With 26 first downs, Kansas City established an NFL record for first downs in a season with 398. TE Tony Gonzalez established a Chiefs single-game record with 14 catches good for 144 yards, the second-highest total of his NFL career. The Pro Bowl TE also set an NFL single-season record for catches by a tight end with 102, passing New England TE Ben Coates who caught 96 passes in '94. Gonzalez broke the Chiefs single-season record for catches and set the club record for receptions in a game as well. QB Trent Green also capped a brilliant season by breaking Chiefs records for both completions (369) and passing yards (4,591) in a season.

GAME NOTES

- TE Tony Gonzalez's 14 receptions were the second-highest single-game total by a tight end in NFL history. San Diego TE Kellen Winslow had 15 receptions at Green Bay (10/7/84).
- QB Trent Green established a single-season franchise record with his eighth 300-yard passing game of the season.
- DE Eric Hicks registered his fifth sack of the season, giving him 40.5 in his career, moving him ahead of DT Bill Maas (40.0) for fifth in KC history.

CHIEFS HISTORY

AFL ORIGINS

1958 — Lamar Hunt's efforts to acquire an expansion NFL franchise for his hometown of Dallas were rebuffed by the league. However, his desire to secure a professional football franchise was further heightened after watching the historic '58 NFL Championship Game between Baltimore and the N.Y. Giants.

1959 — After another attempt at landing an NFL expansion franchise for Dallas was spurned, NFL officials suggested that Hunt contact the Wolfner family, owners of the Chicago Cardinals franchise. Violet Bidwell Wolfner, mother of current Cardinals owner William Bidwell, and her husband Walter eventually agreed to sell Hunt 20 percent of the Cardinals franchise. Hunt declined the opportunity. He then conceived the concept of forming a second league. "Why wouldn't a second league work?" Hunt recalled. "There was an American and National League in baseball, why not football?" Hunt contacted several other individuals who had expressed interest in the Cardinals franchise — Bud Adams (Houston), Bob Howsam (Denver), Max Winter and Bill Boyer (Minneapolis) — and gauged their interest in forming a second league. Adams quickly signed on and the young league, albeit still very much in its infancy stages, already had its first rivalry.

With four teams in the ranks including Hunt's Dallas franchise, he sought franchises in New York and Los Angeles. Before ownership in those cities was secured, Hunt sought the NFL's blessing for his endeavor, hoping that NFL Commissioner Bert Bell would oversee both leagues. "I told myself I didn't want to go into this if it meant some kind of battle," Hunt remembered. "Of course, this was one of the more naive thoughts in the history of pro sports." Although the NFL wanted no part of Hunt's new league, Hunt gave his blessing for Bell to mention it in the course of his testimony before a Congressional committee on July 28th. "At that point, no one had put up a penny and I had no commitments from New York or Los Angeles," Hunt continued. "But Bert Bell had announced it. We were in business."

Within weeks, Barron Hilton (Los Angeles) and Harry Wismer (New York) agreed to enter the six-team league. On August 14th, the first meeting of the new league was held in Chicago. Charter memberships were issued to six original cities — Dallas, New York, Houston, Denver, Los Angeles and Minneapolis. The league was officially christened the American Football League on August 22nd. Ralph Wilson (Buffalo) was extended the league's seventh franchise on October 28th and William Sullivan (Boston) became the league's eighth owner on November 22nd, the date of the inaugural AFL draft, which lasted 33 rounds. All eight original owners agreed to contribute $25,000 and to post a performance bond of $100,000. "Before there was a player, coach or general manager in the league, there was Lamar Hunt," said Sullivan. "Hunt was the cornerstone, the integrity of the league. Without him, there would have been no AFL."

In November, the league nearly disbanded before it even played a single game. Winter announced that he was withdrawing from the league to accept an NFL franchise for Minneapolis. The NFL now envisioned an expansion franchise for Dallas, as well, but Hunt declined that offer. "It (the AFL) was so important to me," Hunt said. "I had a lot of money in it, a lot invested in it. Emotionally, I spent a lot of time, effort and energy on it. I felt an obligation. A guy like Billy Sullivan had everything he had in it. It wouldn't have been the right thing to do."

The AFL forged forward as former World War II hero and two-term South Dakota governor Joe Foss was named commissioner on November 30th. A second, 20-round AFL draft was held on December 2nd. Hunt pursued both legendary University of Oklahoma coach Bud Wilkinson and N.Y. Giants defensive assistant Tom Landry to lead his Texans franchise. Wilkinson opted to stay at Oklahoma, while Landry was destined to coach the NFL's franchise in Dallas. Hunt settled on a relatively unknown assistant coach from the University of Miami (Florida), Hank Stram. "One of the biggest reasons I hired Hank was that he really wanted the job," Hunt explained. "It turned out to be a very lucky selection on my part."

THE FOOLISH CLUB

The whole idea of the AFL seemed so far-fetched, the eight team owners were whimsically named "The Foolish Club." Lamar Hunt credited Wayne Valley of the Oakland ownership group for coining that moniker. "I was an amateur photographer and had taken some color pictures of the '64 season," Hunt explained. "I sent out a montage as Christmas gifts one year. At the top was the hand-lettered phrase, The Foolish Club." Both the name and the league would stick.

1960 — Hunt was elected President of the AFL on January 26th. Minneapolis officially withdrew from the AFL on January 27th. An ownership group from Dallas was awarded an expansion NFL franchise on January 28th to begin play that season in direct competition with the Texans. That same day, AFL owners approved the two-point conversion rule which was utilized for the AFL's 10-year existence, a rule that wouldn't resurface in the NFL for 34 more years. On January 30th, Oakland replaced Minneapolis as the eighth AFL outpost. In another ironic twist, the Chicago Cardinals franchise which Hunt had attempted to purchase a year earlier received permission from the NFL to transfer to St. Louis on March 13th. Perhaps the most important moment in the AFL's formative years came on June 9th when the league signed a five-year television contract with ABC that paid each club $112,000 during the '60 season.

The Texans set up offices in the Mercantile Securities Building, while Foss headquartered the AFL offices out of Dallas, as well. The Texans shared the Cotton Bowl for three seasons with the NFL's Cowboys. Reserved seats were $4, general admission $2 and high school students paid $.90 that initial season. Don Rossi served as the team's General Manager until November when he was succeeded by Jack Steadman. The Texans conducted their inaugural training camp at the New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell, NM. The club embarked on a whirlwind preseason barnstorming tour that featured road games in Oakland, Tulsa, Boston, Abilene and Little Rock. An announced crowd of 51,000 at the Cotton Bowl witnessed a 24-3 victory vs. Houston (9/2) as the club concluded a perfect 6-0 preseason record.

The initial regular season victory in team history came by a 34-16 count at Oakland (9/16) thanks to 88 rushing yards, a TD and two FGs from FB Jack Spikes (TCU). In addition to Spikes, the Texans also had a strong home-state identity with QB Cotton Davidson (Baylor), LB Sherrill Headrick (TCU) and RB Abner Haynes (North Texas State). Haynes led the league with 875 rushing yards and nine TDs, as well as combined net yards (2,100) and punt return average (15.4). Haynes' combined net yardage mark remained a franchise record until 2001. Thanks to Haynes, the Texans had a flashy, high-scoring club, which finished the year at 8-6 as three close losses kept the squad from challenging for the division title. The Texans averaged 24,500 for their home games, the highest average in the league.

1961 — Don Klosterman joined the franchise as Director of Player Personnel and a wealth of college talent was infused into the franchise's veins. The Texans and the NFL's Dallas Cowboys both drafted LB E.J. Holub (Texas Tech), described by many scouts as "the best football player in America." Holub decided to play for the Texans, joining three future Chiefs Hall of Famers — DT/DE Jerry Mays (SMU), TE Fred Arbanas (Michigan State) and T Jim Tyrer (Ohio State) — as part of the club's draft class. The club moved its training camp to Hunt's alma mater of SMU and started the regular season at 3-1 before hitting a six-game losing skid, the longest such streak of Stram's tenure with the franchise. One of those losses was a 28-21 decision in a Friday night contest at Boston (11/3) which featured a bizarre ending as a raincoat-clad fan knocked down a potential game-tying TD from Davidson to E Chris Burford on the game's final play. The team rebounded to claim wins in three of its final four contests to finish 6-8, marking the club's second straight finish behind the Chargers in the AFL West standings.

1962 — Stram was named Coach of the Year and RB Curtis McClinton (Kansas) was named the '62 AFL Rookie of the Year. Haynes became the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher, concluding the season with 1,049 yards and an AFL-high 13 rushing TDs.

The Texans clinched their initial AFL Western Division Championship in November and finished with an 11-3 regular season record. Dallas won the '62 AFL Championship when K Tommy Brooker connected on a 25-yard field goal during the second overtime of the title game, giving the Texans a 20-17 victory at Houston (12/23). Spanning an elapsed time of 77:54, the game still stands as the second-longest contest in pro football history as the franchise claimed its first of three AFL titles.

LENNY THE COOL

A pivotal moment in franchise history took place on July 2, 1962 when Hank Stram signed free agent QB Len Dawson. Dawson entered the NFL as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, but was waived by Cleveland on June 12th. After spending five uneventful years in the NFL with the Steelers and Browns, Dawson received his final shot at pro football redemption from Stram. Convinced that Dawson was the man to lead the franchise on the field, the only trade personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt in team history occurred after the season's first game when the Chiefs sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland in exchange for the Raiders first-round pick in '63, a pick that was used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan. As for Dawson he didn't disappoint in '62, throwing 29 TD passes to earn AFL Player of the Year honors.

GOIN' TO KANSAS CITY

1963 — Despite the Texans championship season in '62, the Dallas market simply could not sustain two professional football franchises. Kansas City Mayor H. Roe Bartle learned of Hunt's interest in a new home for the Texans and extended an invitation for Hunt and Jack Steadman to move the franchise to Mid-America. After the duo visited Kansas City on an incognito basis, an ambitious campaign took shape to deliver on Bartle's guarantee to Hunt of tripling the season-ticket base the Texans had enjoyed in Dallas. Kansas City's mayor, nicknamed "The Chief," also promised to add 3,000 permanent seats to Municipal Stadium, as well as 11,000 temporary bleacher seats. Along with Bartle, a number of other prominent Kansas Citians stepped forward to aid in the efforts, putting together more than 1,000 workers to sell season tickets. On May 22nd, Hunt announced he was moving the franchise to Kansas City. Hunt and Stram jested at one point about calling the relocated team the Kansas City Texans, but thanks to the insistence of Steadman and a "name-the-team" contest, the Chiefs were officially christened on May 26th, in part to honor the efforts of Bartle. During their inaugural season in Kansas City, the Chiefs charged $7 for box seats and $6 for reserved seats at Municipal Stadium.

Three highly-touted draft choices began their tenures with the club in '63. Hunt's trade of Davidson landed the number one overall selection in the AFL Draft which Kansas City used to select Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan (Grambling). Ironically, the Raiders would later draft Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 for the express purpose of blocking Buchanan. The Chiefs tabbed G Ed Budde (Michigan State) with their own number one selection, while stealing another future Hall of Fame inductee, LB Bobby Bell (Minnesota) in the seventh round. Buchanan, Budde and Bell all became starters on their way to a combined 526 games with the team. The first appearance of the Chiefs in Municipal Stadium attracted just 5,721 fans for a 17-13 preseason victory vs. Buffalo (8/9). Tragedy struck the club when rookie RB Stone Johnson (Grambling), who was a sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome, suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game vs. Oakland (8/30) in Wichita, KS. He died 10 days later on September 8th and his jersey number 33 was subsequently retired. Kansas City opened the regular season with a 59-7 victory at Denver (9/7), a contest that remains the highest-scoring effort in team history. On October 1st, the club moved into its new Swope Park practice facility located on East 63rd Street, where the team's headquarters remained until the opening of Arrowhead Stadium in '72. The Chiefs managed just one win and two ties in their next nine games before racking up three consecutive wins to close the year at 5-7-2.

1964 — On

January 29th, the AFL and NBC signed a landmark five-year, $36-million television contract beginning with the '65 season. The Chiefs began the year with a 2-1 mark before dropping three consecutive games as several of the team's best players, including LB E.J. Holub, TE Fred Arbanas and S Johnny Robinson, missed numerous games with injuries. Arbanas missed the final two games of the year after undergoing surgery to his left eye, in which he suffered almost total loss of vision. RB Mack Lee Hill (Southern), who signed with the club as a rookie free agent and received a mere $300 signing bonus, muscled his way into the starting lineup and earned a spot in the AFL All-Star Game. The club rounded out the season with two consecutive wins to close the season at 7-7, finishing second in the AFL West behind San Diego (8-5-1). An average of just 18,126 fans attended each home game at Municipal Stadium, prompting discussion at the AFL owners' meeting about the Chiefs future in Kansas City.

BIDDING WARS, MERGER TALKS & GLORY DAYS

1965 — The AFL and NFL had been openly competing for talent for years, but that bidding war for players heated up for the Chiefs in '65. Kansas City made RB Gale Sayers (Kansas) their first-round draft pick, but Sayers eventually signed with the Chicago Bears.

The club suffered a devastating blow when RB Mack Lee Hill suffered torn ligaments in his right knee in the next-to-last regular season game of the year at Buffalo (12/12). Following what was expected to be a routine surgery on December 14th at Menorah Hospital in Kansas City, Hill died from what was termed "a sudden and massive embolism." Hunt called Hill's death "the worst shock possible." Beginning the following year, the club annually bestowed the Mack Lee Hill Award on its top rookie or first-year performer in honor of this fallen young star. Just days after Hill's unexpected death, the mourning Chiefs defeated Denver (12/19) to finish the year with a 7-5-2 record.

1966 — The escalation in player salaries paid by the two leagues eventually led to a series of clandestine meetings between Hunt and Tex Schramm of the Cowboys that began in April at Love Field in Dallas. While merger groundwork was being laid, the Chiefs engaged in more subterfuge during the '66 draft. DE Aaron Brown (Minnesota) was highly coveted by many clubs, including the NFL's Steelers. The Steelers couldn't locate Brown on draft day since he was already aboard a flight with Hunt, who carried out the first mid-air signing in team history. Despite being drafted in the 20th round of the AFL Draft, the Chiefs signed Heisman Trophy RB Mike Garrett (USC) who earned AFL Rookie of the Year honors. Plans for the AFL-NFL merger were officially announced by NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle on June 6th. The Chiefs started the season at 3-0, including a 32-10 win at Oakland (9/18) in the first contest played at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum. A crowd of 43,885 attended the Chiefs home opener vs. defending AFC Champion Buffalo (10/2), the largest ever to witness a sports event in Kansas City at the time. The Chiefs dropped a 29-14 decision to the Bills, but after the contest, Stram and Buffalo head coach Joe Collier negotiated a trade in the middle of the field. Kansas City got K Mike Mercer for a fifth-round pick, solidifying one of the few weaknesses on the squad. Dawson led the league in passing, while Taylor became the first 1,000-yard receiver in franchise history, registering 1,297 yards.

The Chiefs finished three games in front of Oakland to claim an AFL West title with an 11-2-1 record, setting the stage for the franchise's second trip to the AFL Championship Game.

1967 — Using a dazzling I-formation offense and a smothering defense, the Chiefs claimed a dominating 31-7 victory in the AFL title game at Buffalo (1/1) on the same day that future Chiefs star Derrick Vincent Thomas was born in Miami, Florida. That victory propelled Kansas City to the first AFL-NFL World Championship Game, later renamed Super Bowl I. The term "Super Bowl" was coined by Hunt during a committee meeting, inspired by a "Super Ball" owned by each of his three children. Although not officially adopted until the third

THE OTIS ACQUISITION

One of the more colorful tales in franchise lore transpired days before the '65 draft. The Cowboys had WR Otis Taylor (Prairie View A&M) sequestered at the Continental Hotel in Dallas. Chiefs scout Lloyd Wells, who was instrumental in the signing of many key players during the '60s, thought he had Taylor's services secured for the Chiefs when he learned of the Cowboys chicanery. After ascertaining the receiver's location from Taylor's mother, Wells posed as a reporter from Ebony magazine and slipped his phone number to Taylor unbeknownst to a Cowboys "bodyguard" watching Taylor's hotel door. At 3:00 AM one of the greatest "escapes" in franchise history was consummated as the receiver climbed out a bathroom window and into an awaiting Cadillac. Taylor and Wells boarded a flight for Kansas City later that morning and Taylor, with a shiny new vehicle in his possession, was subsequently drafted by the Chiefs in the fourth round, beginning an illustrious Kansas City career.

such AFL-NFL World Championship Game, the name Super Bowl was seized upon by the media and quickly became a part of the worldwide sports lexicon. At the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the Chiefs met Vince Lombardi's powerful Green Bay Packers (1/15). The Chiefs played the Packers close for a half, trailing 14-10, but Green Bay took control in the final two quarters, winning the game by a score of 35-10.

The club's special teams got a boost with the addition of K Jan Stenerud (Montana State), who originally enrolled in school on a skiing scholarship and KR Noland "Super Gnat" Smith (Tennessee State). Interest in the team skyrocketed, forcing an increase in seating capacity at Municipal Stadium from 40,000 to 47,000. In June, Jackson County voters approved a $43 million bond issue for construction of The Truman Sports Complex. The first contest between AFL and NFL teams in Kansas City resulted in a commanding 66-24 Chiefs victory vs. Chicago at Municipal Stadium (8/23). Injuries again hit the club hard during the regular season as the Chiefs clawed their way to a 9-5 record.

LEGENDARY LINEBACKERS

The Chiefs found a pair of linebacking gems in the second round of the '67 draft in #51 Jim Lynch (Notre Dame) and #63 Willie Lanier (Morgan State). That duo joined #78 Bobby Bell to form one of the most legendary linebacker trios in pro football annals.

just five snaps as a rookie in '68. However, Livingston engineered a five-game winning streak, while getting plenty of help from the club's defense. The team's home opener at Municipal Stadium was played in a daylong deluge referred to as a "frog-strangler" by Chiefs radio broadcaster Bill Grigsby. The Chiefs and Oilers combined for 14 fumbles in a 24-0 Kansas City victory (10/12). Dawson returned to the starting lineup in a 27-3 win vs. San Diego (11/9) and guided the club to three wins in the season's next four games. Broncos coach Lou Saban was infuriated following the Chiefs 31-17 win vs. Denver (11/27). Trailing 24-17 late in the game, Denver attempted an onside kick that was recovered by LB Bobby Bell, who promptly returned that kick for a 53-yard TD. Livingston started the following week vs. Buffalo (12/7) for an again-injured Dawson, who returned for the regular season finale at Oakland (12/13). A 10-6 loss vs. the Raiders gave the Chiefs an 11-3 record, good for second in the division behind Oakland (12-1-1). In an AFC Divisional Playoff Game at the N.Y. Jets (12/20), Kansas City rode its dominating defense which produced a crucial goal-line stand en route to a 13-6 win over the defending Super Bowl champions to set up a rematch with the Raiders in the final AFL Championship Game.

Striking for 32 Points in Second Quarter, Kansas City Rolls Up Record Score in Exhibition Before 33,041 Fans in the Municipal Stadium

1968 — A debate raged in Kansas City whether the club's new stadium should be built downtown or at a "remote" location. A location in Eastern Jackson County was chosen as the site and groundbreaking ceremonies took place in July with plans calling for a unique "rolling roof" design. The '68 Chiefs boasted one of the finest defenses ever assembled by the club, allowing a franchise-low 170 points (12.1 ppg). The nucleus of the defensive unit was clearly in its prime, producing six AFL All-Stars, including all three of the squad's linebackers. Offensively, Dawson led the AFL in passing for the fourth time. The Chiefs began the season with a 7-1 record and rattled off five straight victories to close the regular season at 12-2, sharing the AFL West crown with the Raiders and setting up an AFL Western Division Playoff Game. Kansas City lost a 41-6 decision at Oakland (12/22) in the club's first postseason outing since Super Bowl I as the Raiders advanced to the AFL Championship Game against the N.Y. Jets.

1969 — The Chiefs continued the momentum they built during the '68 campaign by posting a perfect 6-0 record during preseason play. Kansas City began the regular season with four consecutive road games for the only time in team history. After a decisive 27-9 win at San Diego (9/14), the club posted a 31-0 shutout at Boston (9/21), but Dawson sustained a knee injury against the Patriots. The once-optimistic picture for the Chiefs went from bad to worse the following week when backup QB Jacky Lee went down with a broken ankle in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (9/28). That injury left the team's most crucial position in the hands of second-year QB Mike Livingston, who took

1970 — In the final game in AFL history, the Chiefs became the league's only three-time champions, defeating the Raiders by a 17-7 count at Oakland (1/4). Making the victory even more satisfying for the Chiefs was the fact that the Raiders players had to sheepishly walk out of the stadium with the luggage they had packed for New Orleans and Super Bowl IV. During the days preceding Kansas City's clash with the heavily-favored Vikings, unsubstantiated media reports associating Dawson with a known gambler hounded the Chiefs quarterback. The night before the game, Ed Sabol of NFL Films approached Vikings coach Bud Grant about being miked for the game. Grant declined, but Stram accepted. As both the Chiefs

THREE-TIME AFL CHAMPIONS

With a 17-7 win over the Oakland Raiders in the '69 AFL Championship Game, Kansas City became the only team in AFL history to claim three league titles. The club also won AFL Championships in '62 and in '66. During the AFL's 10-year existence, the Chiefs compiled a league-best 87-48-5 (.639) regular season record under head coach Hank Stram.

Hunt and Stram

and the cameras rolled, Stram clamored for his team to run "65 toss power trap" and to "keep matriculating the ball down the field." The Chiefs used the game as a crusade for the American Football League and wore "AFL-10" patches which referred to the league's 10-year existence. The Chiefs used three Stenerud FGs and a Garrett TD run to take a 16-0 halftime lead. A dynamic 46-yard TD pass from Dawson to Taylor in the third quarter sealed the victory as Dawson was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Perhaps the gristliest performance of the day came from S Johnny Robinson, who registered two interceptions and a fumble recovery despite playing with three broken ribs. At approximately 5:20 PM, the final seconds ticked off the clock at Tulane Stadium as the biggest moment in Kansas City sports history came to a peak as the Chiefs were crowned World Champions by claiming a 23-7 victory in Super Bowl IV (1/11). A victory parade ensued upon the club's triumphant return to Kansas City the following day.

Replicating the success of '69 proved a difficult task for Stram and company. RB Mike Garrett, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, was traded to San Diego and replaced in the lineup by RB Ed Podolak. Despite a 44-24 win at Baltimore (9/28) in just the second-ever telecast of ABC's Monday Night Football package, the Chiefs owned a 3-3-1 record at the season's midpoint. One of the season's pivotal junctures came in a 17-17 tie vs. Oakland (11/1). The Chiefs were ahead 17-14 when Dawson apparently sealed the win, running for a first down which would have allowed Kansas City to run out the clock. While on the ground, Dawson was speared by Raiders DE Ben Davidson in an infamous incident that cost the Chiefs a victory and further inflamed the already heated Chiefs-Raiders rivalry. WR Otis Taylor retaliated and a bench-clearing brawl ensued. Offsetting penalties were called, nullifying Dawson's first down. The Chiefs were forced to punt and Raiders K George Blanda eventually booted a game-tying FG with 0:08 remaining. That tie ultimately cost the Chiefs a tie with Oakland for the division crown as Kansas City finished the year with a 7-5-2 record, while the Raiders went 8-4-2.

1971 — The '71 Chiefs were regarded by many as the finest squad ever assembled by the franchise, including Lamar Hunt. "I always thought that was the peak of our best team, our '71 squad," Hunt recalled. The '71

Chiefs fielded perhaps the most complete squad in franchise history, featuring a team-record 11 Pro Bowl performers. Offensively, WR Otis Taylor led the league with 1,110 receiving yards. The longstanding linebacking trio of Willie Lanier, Bobby Bell and Jim Lynch was the league's best. The offensive line was headlined by G Ed Budde and T Jim Tyrer, while the defensive front featured a pair of Pro Bowlers in DTs Buck Buchanan and Curley Culp. Both K Jan Stenerud and P Jerrel Wilson represented the squad in the Pro Bowl, as well. The '71 squad became the first in team annals to register two Monday Night Football wins. After bolting to a 5-1-1 start, the club went 5-2 during the second half of the season to finish the year at 10-3-1. A 16-14 victory at Oakland (12/12) gave the franchise its initial AFC West title.

The great promise of the '71 campaign ended dramatically in the longest game in NFL history, an AFC Divisional Playoff Game played on Christmas Day. It took 82:40, but a 37-yard FG from Dolphins K Garo Yepremian finally ended this epic as Miami claimed a 27-24 double OT win in the final football contest played at Municipal Stadium. Podolak accounted for an incredible 350 combined net yards, a figure that remains an NFL postseason record. The baton of power in the AFC was officially passed to the Dolphins, who went on to appear in three consecutive Super Bowls. It would be the Chiefs last playoff appearance for 15 years, effectively signaling the conclusion of the franchise's original glory days.

FOND FAREWELLS

ARROWHEAD OPENS

After two different construction strikes and a myriad of other delays, Arrowhead Stadium was officially dedicated on August 12, 1972 when the Chiefs registered a 24-14 victory vs. the St. Louis Cardinals. RB Ed Podolak scored the first TD in the facility. "It was supposed to be finished on July 1st and it wasn't even close," recalled Jack Steadman. In fact, seats weren't even installed yet in some areas of the stadium, including Hunt's private suite, where guests sat on folding chairs that inaugural year. Regular season ticket prices for the team's first season in Arrowhead were $8 for box seats and $7 for reserved seating. Mayor H. Roe Bartle is shown at right trying out the first seat installed in Arrowhead.

The Chiefs lost a 20-10 decision vs. Miami (9/17) on Opening Day at Arrowhead in front of a crowd of 79,829. Municipal Stadium hosted its final pro sporting event as the Royals defeated the Rangers by a 4-0 count (10/4). A standing-room-only crowd of 82,094 fans was in attendance for a 27-14 victory vs. Oakland (11/5), the largest "in-house" attendance total for an NFL contest in Arrowhead's history. After a 5-3 start, a three-game losing streak effectively eliminated the club from playoff contention. An 8-6 record was good enough for only a second-place finish in the AFC West behind Oakland. LB Willie Lanier became the first Chiefs player to receive the prestigious NFL Man of the Year Award.

1973 — The defense kept the club in virtually every game thanks to a nucleus that still included the bulk of the squad's Super Bowl IV starters. QB Mike Livingston started in a 23-13 Opening Day loss vs. Oakland (9/16), but Dawson returned to rally the club for three consecutive wins to get the club off to a 3-1 start for a third straight year. Inconsistency and injuries took their toll down the stretch, though. Dawson made his final start of the year in a 23-14 loss at Buffalo (10/29) and was replaced for the remainder of the year by Livingston, beginning a string of three straight seasons in which both players split time at the position. Livingston led the club to three straight wins, putting the team in first place in mid-November with a 6-3-1 record. A 1-2-1 ledger over the season's final month ended the club's postseason aspirations as the team finished the year in a second-place tie with Denver at 7-5-2. Dawson became the second Chiefs player in as many years to win the NFL Man of the Year Award.

1974 — The AFC-NFC Pro Bowl was held at Arrowhead on January 20th with the AFC claiming a 15-13 win thanks to five FGs from Miami K Garo Yepremian. While the club's sparkling new facility was drawing rave reviews, the Chiefs roster was beginning to show its age. The result was the team's first losing season in 11 years as the club was unable to string together consecutive victories during the year, a first in franchise history. Many of the club's key players were entering the twilight of their careers: Dawson was 39, T Jim Tyrer was 35, LB Bobby Bell, DT Buck Buchanan and G Ed Budde were 34, T Dave Hill was 33 and WR Otis Taylor was 32. One of the year's few bright spots in the 5-9 season was CB Emmitt Thomas, who led the league with a franchise-record 12 INTs. The final game of the '74 campaign marked the final time all five of Kansas City's Pro Football Hall of Fame players from the club's Super Bowl era took the field together with Stram. Including Lamar Hunt and five future Vikings Hall of Famers, an amazing total of 12 Hall of Fame inductees were involved in that '74 game. That 35-15 loss vs. Minnesota (12/14) provided an anti-climatic conclusion to Stram's illustrious coaching career in Kansas City and was also the final game in a Chiefs uniform for eight-time All-Pro LB Bobby Bell. Three days later, the only head coach in franchise history was relieved of his duties on December 27th after compiling a 124-76-10 regular season record with the club.

1975 — San Francisco 49ers defensive coordinator Paul Wiggin was named the second head coach in franchise history on January 23rd. A former Pro Bowl defensive end for the Cleveland Browns, Wiggin inherited the unenviable task of rebuilding a squad whose pool of talent had been largely depleted due to age and a number of ill-fated trades that had left the club devoid of first-round draft choices in '73 and '75. After an 0-3 start to the season, Wiggin directed the Chiefs to three straight wins, beginning with a convincing 42-10 victory vs. Oakland (10/12). The highlight of the season was a 34-31 upset win at Dallas (11/10) on Monday Night Football. But the club could not maintain that success. Owning a 5-5 record heading into the homestretch of the season, injuries to a number of key players crippled the team. The team dropped its final four contests of the year to finish at 5-9 for the second consecutive season. The regular season finale at Oakland (12/21) marked the final games in the Hall of Fame careers of Dawson and Buchanan.

1976 — Buchanan officially hung up his spikes in February, while Dawson announced his retirement on May 1st. Off the field, Jack Steadman was promoted to President and Jim Schaaf was named General Manager in August. On the field, Kansas City's fortunes didn't improve in the second year of the Wiggin regime. The club dropped three straight home games before suffering a 50-17 setback at Buffalo (10/3), opening the season at 0-4 for the first time in team history. The team registered a 3-1 record during a successful midseason stretch, but could not maintain that momentum. After lingering in Dawson's shadow for eight seasons, QB Mike Livingston was firmly entrenched as the team's starter, becoming the first signal-caller to start every regular season game since Dawson in '68.

Livingston

Even though he played well and rallied the squad for wins in two of the season's final three games, the Chiefs still ended the year with their third consecutive 5-9 record. RB Ed Podolak surpassed RB Abner Haynes as the all-time leading ground gainer in team history in the final game of the year vs. Cleveland (12/12). RB MacArthur Lane was another offensive threat, becoming the first player in franchise history to lead the league in receptions (66). One of the club's final ties to its glory days was severed when the dismantling of Municipal Stadium began on April 13th. A portion of the site was later developed into a community garden.

1975 COACHING STAFF

1977 — On the field, the Chiefs suffered their worst season ever, winning just twice and undergoing a midseason coaching change. An 0-5 start doomed the squad with a 44-7 loss at Cleveland (10/30) effectively sealing Wiggin's fate. Despite the club's record Wiggin was still a popular figure in Kansas City, but was nonetheless relieved of his duties on Halloween, marking the only in-season coaching switch in team history. Wiggin concluded his tenure with an 11-24 record. Defensive backs coach Tom Bettis was named interim coach and claimed a 20-10 victory vs. Green Bay (11/6) in the club's initial contest under his direction, but it was the only victory of his brief head coaching tenure. The team endured a six-game losing streak to conclude the season at 2-12. Bettis and the remainder of the coaching staff assembled by Wiggin were released on December 19th one day after a 21-20 loss at Oakland (12/18) in the regular season finale. Marv Levy, the former head coach of the CFL's Montreal Alouettes, was named the fourth head coach in franchise history on December 20th.

The heart and soul of the Chiefs once-vaunted defense departed when roommates Lanier and Lynch, who both joined the club together as second-round draft picks in '67, retired following the '77 campaign. Baltimore later acquired Lanier's rights in a trade, but failed to lure him out of retirement.

THE LEVY ERA

1978 — Levy's systematic restocking of a relatively barren defensive roster began with a '78 draft class that included a pair of future Chiefs Hall of Fame enshrinees in DE Art Still (Kentucky) and LB Gary Spani (Kansas State). Another tie to the club's Super Bowl IV team was cut when RB Ed Podolak, who was the club's all-time leading rusher at the time, retired on June 15th. Perhaps Levy's most unconventional tactic in rebuilding the Chiefs was installing the Wing-T offense. "It was a situation where we took over a team that had the worst defensive record in the history of the National Football League," he later explained. "We wanted to keep that defense off the field, so we ran the ball 60 times a game." The '78 Chiefs ran and ran often, posting franchise records with 663 rushing attempts and 2,986 ground yards. Levy's squad ran the ball a staggering 69 times in a 24-23 Opening Day win at Cincinnati (9/3), the most rushing attempts in an NFL contest since '48. Five different players had 100-yard rushing games during the year, including RB Tony Reed who finished the season with 1,053 yards to become the team's first 1,000-yard back since '67. Despite the squad's Opening Day success, the club lost 10 of its next 11 games, including a pair of OT decisions. However, the team showed signs of improvement with the defense recording a 23-0 shutout vs. San Diego (11/26) as the club concluded its first 16-game schedule with a 4-12 mark.

1979 — Kansas City owned a pair of picks in the first round of the draft, selecting DE Mike Bell (Colorado State) and QB Steve Fuller (Clemson). By the season's third game, Fuller had supplanted QB Mike Livingston as the club's starter. With Fuller at the helm, the Chiefs owned a 4-2 record after six games, but a five-game midseason losing stretch sullied that effort. Despite finishing fifth in the AFC West for a second straight season, Kansas City's 7-9 record was a notable accomplishment considering the fact that the division's other four clubs all posted winning records for a second consecutive season. The Chiefs lost a 3-0 decision at Tampa Bay (12/16) in one of the most water-logged contests in franchise annals. As both clubs struggled to move the ball under moonson-like conditions, a late, fourth-quarter FG by the Buccaneers averted the NFL's first scoreless tie since '43.

1980 — An infusion of new talent continued at Arrowhead. G Brad Budde (USC), the son of Chiefs Hall of Fame G Ed Budde, was selected as the club's first-round draft choice, making the Buddes the first father-son combination to become first-round draftees of the same team in NFL history. In a then-controversial move on August

26th, the Chiefs released K Jan Stenerud, who at the time was club's all-time leading scorer. He was replaced by journeyman K Nick Lowery, who had been cut 11 times by eight different teams himself. He finished his career with the club in '93 as the franchise's all-time leading scorer with

1,466 points. After enduring an 0-4 start, the club rebounded to post a four-game victory streak. After Fuller was sidelined with a knee injury late in the season, former Miami 12th-round draft choice QB Bill Kenney entered the lineup. He was so anonymous that when he appeared in that contest, the name on the back of his jersey was inadvertently misspelled "Kenny." Kenney went on to lead the club to a 31-14 victory vs. Denver (12/7) in his initial NFL start. The defense continued to evolve as DE Art Still and S Gary Barbaro became the first Chiefs defensive players to be elected to the Pro Bowl in five seasons. The Chiefs finished the year at 8-8, the club's highest victory tally since '72.

"GIVE A CHEER FOR KANSAS CITY"

by Marv Levy

*Give a cheer for Kansas City,
Loud and clear for the Red and Gold,
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old.*

(Refrain)

*Rah, Rah, Rah, for Kansas City
Rah, Rah, Rah for Red and Gold
As the Chiefs march on to victory
Like our mighty teams of old*

*Beat the drum, here they come
Warriors, brave and strong,
In the stands, loyal fans
Cheer our team along*

1981 — Kenney supplanted Fuller as the club's starting quarterback and directed the Chiefs to a 6-2 start, including a 37-33 win over the defending Super Bowl champion Steelers at Pittsburgh (9/6) on Opening Day. Second-round draft choice RB Joe Delaney (NW Louisiana) electrified the club's offense by rushing for 1,121 yards, a team single-season record at the time. He was named the AFC's Rookie of the Year and became the first running back to represent the franchise in the Pro Bowl. Delaney registered a 193-yard performance in a 23-10 win vs. Houston (11/15), the best single-game total ever amassed by a Kansas City rookie. "I've played against the best — O.J. Simpson, Gale Sayers, Walter Payton and (Delaney) ranks right up there with them," remarked Oilers Hall of Fame DE Elvin Bethea. "He is great with a capital G." Owning an 8-4 record with four games remaining, the Chiefs were poised to make the playoffs for the first time in 10 years before hitting a three-game losing skid. Kenney missed the club's final three contests due to injury. Fuller guided the club to a 10-6 win at Minnesota (12/20) in the final contest played at Metropolitan Stadium as Vikings fans began dismembering the stadium in the second half, taking seats, pieces of the scoreboard and even chunks of sod as souvenirs. The victory assured the Chiefs of a 9-7 record, the club's first winning mark since '73 as Levy increased the club's victory total for a third consecutive year. Inspired by Washington's "Hail to the Redskins," Levy penned a fight song for the Chiefs, but much like the Wing-T offense, the concept never really caught on.

1982 — RB Joe Delaney underwent surgery in May to repair a detached retina in his eye, a radical procedure at the time. Optimism abounded at Arrowhead thanks to the club's promising 9-7 record from '81, but swelling labor unrest spelled doom for both the Chiefs and Levy in '82. The Chiefs split their first two games of the year before a 57-day strike by the NFL Players Association began at midnight on September 20th. The strike concluded on November 17th after six games were cancelled and one was rescheduled, but the Chiefs would never recover, dropping four straight games after their return to the field. C Jack Rudnay, who had been one of the franchise's most durable and decorated offensive performers over the past decade, announced on December 20th that the '82 campaign would be his last. Despite wins in two of the season's final three games, the Levy era concluded as the club finished the strike-shortened campaign at 3-6.

TRAGEDY, TRIUMPHS AND TRANSITIONS

1983 — Marv Levy was released as the club's head coach on January 4th. Dallas Cowboys QBs coach John Mackovic was named the fifth head coach in team history on February 2nd. The 39-year-old Mackovic became the youngest individual ever to hold that post for the club. The Chiefs held the seventh overall pick in the quarterback-laden '83 NFL Draft and selected QB Todd Blackledge (Penn State). The five other signal-callers selected in the first round that year included John Elway (1st — Baltimore), Jim Kelly (Buffalo — 14th), Tony Eason (New England — 15th), Ken O'Brien (N.Y. Jets — 24th) and Dan Marino (Miami — 27th). LB Bobby Bell became the first Chiefs player to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 30th, providing some solace to the franchise which was still mourning the death of RB Joe Delaney.

With Kenney and Blackledge both on the roster, QB Steve Fuller was traded to the L.A. Rams on August 19th. Kenney earned a Pro Bowl berth after racking up a franchise-record 4,348 passing yards, while WR Carlos Carson hauled in 80 passes for 1,351 yards. Despite the team's high-flying aerial game, Mackovic had trouble finding a suitable replacement for Delaney on the ground. The highest scoring contest in franchise history took place as the Chiefs and Seahawks combined for 99 points in a wild, 51-48 OT loss at Seattle (11/27). A meager crowd of 11,377 attended the club's season-ending 48-17 win vs. Denver (12/18), the smallest attendance ever for a Chiefs game at Arrowhead as the club finished at 6-10.

JOE DELANEY (1958-1983)

Tragedy struck the club on June 29, 1983 when Delaney drowned trying to save the lives of three youngsters in Monroe, Louisiana. An overflow crowd that included the Hunt family, prominent members of the Chiefs administration and head coach John Mackovic attended a memorial service held in Delaney's high school gymnasium in Houghton, Louisiana on July 4th. Delaney was posthumously awarded the Presidential Citizen's Medal by Ronald Reagan on July 13th.

THE INTERCEPTORS

S Gary Barbaro's departure and the trade of Pro Bowl CB Gary Green in '84 began a youth movement that produced the most vaunted secondary in team history. CB Kevin Ross (#31), S Deron Cherry (#20), CB Albert Lewis (#29) and S Lloyd Burruss (#34) accounted for a combined 13 Pro Bowl appearances with the Chiefs.

1984 — Wayne Rudy, the only head trainer the team had ever known, retired and passed the reins to his assistant Dave Kendall in February. Pro Bowl S Gary Barbaro became the most notable Chiefs player to defect to the rival USFL, signing with the New Jersey Generals on February 2nd after sitting out the entire '83 campaign in a contract dispute. All-America NT Bill Maas (Pitt) and T John Alt (Iowa) were both tabbed in the first round of the draft. Maas was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, while Alt eventually became the cornerstone of the club's offensive line later in the decade. Kansas City's defense registered a team-record 11.0 sacks in a 10-6 win vs. Cleveland (9/30), coming one sack shy of the NFL single-game record. Kenney suffered a broken thumb during the preseason and was sidelined until the season's seventh week. Blackledge opened the first six contests of the season and had the club at 3-3. Kenney returned to the starting lineup at the N.Y. Jets (10/21), but inconsistency marked the rest of the season as the club dropped four of first five contests after his return. However, the team rattled off three consecutive wins to conclude the year at 8-8.

1985 — The Chiefs got off to a flying start with a 47-27 win at New Orleans (9/8), while Cherry tied an NFL record by registering four INTs in a 28-7 win vs. Seattle (9/29) as the club boasted a 3-1 record four games into the season. The club was then confronted with a seven-game losing streak that wasn't snapped until Blackledge was installed as the starter vs. Indianapolis (11/24). The team rebounded to win three of its final five contests of the year with Blackledge under center, further inflaming a quarterback controversy that continued into the '86 campaign.

One of the few remaining bright spots in a disappointing 6-10 season came in the regular season finale vs. San Diego (12/22) when WR Stephone Paige set an NFL record with 309 receiving yards in a 38-34 win, breaking the previous mark of 303 yards set by Jim Benton (Cleveland) in '45. Paige's mark was subsequently surpassed by a 336-yard effort by WR Willie Anderson (L.A. Rams) in '89.

1986 — LB Willie Lanier was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. On the field, the pieces started coming together for Mackovic. His offense displayed plenty of scoring punch, while the club's defense and special teams became increasingly effective. With the team sitting at 3-3, Kenney replaced Blackledge for the second half vs. San Diego (10/19), guiding the club to a 42-41 victory. That win was the first of four consecutive triumphs with Kenney at the helm, the club's longest winning streak since '80. Poised with a 7-3 record after 10 games, three straight losses in November put the Chiefs playoff chances in jeopardy. Two December wins gave Kansas City a 9-6 mark, putting the Chiefs tantalizingly close to their first postseason berth in 15 years.

The defining moment of the '86 campaign came in the regular season finale at Pittsburgh (12/21). Despite being outgained in total yardage by a 515-to-171-yard margin, the Chiefs were able to notch a 24-19 victory as all of the team's points came via special teams on a blocked punt return, a FG, a kickoff return and a blocked FG return. With a 10-6 record the Chiefs earned an AFC Wild Card berth, winning a tiebreaker with Seattle. Kenney was injured in the fourth quarter of the Steelers contest, meaning Blackledge would draw the starting assignment for the club's first playoff contest since '71, a 35-15 loss at the N.Y. Jets (12/28). Little did anyone know at the time that it would be the final contest of the Mackovic era.

1987 — One of the most tumultuous weeks in franchise history took place following the club's playoff loss vs. the Jets. Assistant head coach and special teams coach Frank Gansz, who had been an integral figure in the club's remarkable '86 campaign, resigned his position on January 7th in order to pursue opportunities as an NFL offensive coordinator. It was announced in an impromptu press conference that Mackovic was relieved of his duties on January 8th. A popular figure among Chiefs players, Gansz was reinstated on January 10th and was named the sixth head coach in franchise history.

QB Len Dawson became the third Chiefs player inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 8th, while injuries forced the retirement of the club's all-time leading tackler LB Gary Spani. A duo of rookies made a splash in a 20-13 win on Opening Day vs. San Diego (9/13) as RB Paul Palmer returned a kickoff for a TD and RB Christian Okoye dashed for 105 yards. A 24-day NFLPA strike began on September 22nd. The club's contest vs. Minnesota (9/27) was cancelled before replacement games were conducted the next three weeks. Much like Marv Levy five years earlier, Gansz's grip on the club's coaching reigns was crippled by the labor unrest.

The Kansas City replacement squad was constructed primarily of players cut in training camp. One of the few bright spots among this motley crew was RB Jitter Fields, who remained on the active roster following the strike. The Chiefs strike squad received an ominous welcome in Los Angeles when in the early morning hours prior to a contest vs. the Raiders (10/4), an earthquake rattled Southern California. The visibly shaken Chiefs lost a 35-17 decision later that day. The low point of the year came the following week at Miami (10/11) in the first regular season game played at what then was known as Joe Robbie Stadium. Chiefs QB Matt Stevens was injured early in the contest, forcing into duty QB Alex Espinoza, a player who had never taken an NFL snap. The result was a 42-0 Dolphins victory, setting the stage for an 0-3 performance by Kansas City's replacement unit, giving the Chiefs a 1-4 record before the club's regular roster returned at San Diego (10/25). Five straight losses followed, giving the Chiefs a team-record nine-game losing skid. For the only time in team history, five different players started games at quarterback for the club. Behind Kenney, Kansas City won two of its last three games to conclude the strike-shortened 4-11 campaign.

1988 — The spring was marked by several notable trades as the club jockeyed to improve on its 4-11 finish in '87. Blackledge was traded to Pittsburgh on March 29th and 12-year veteran QB Steve DeBerg was acquired from Tampa Bay on March 31st. The Chiefs moved up one spot in the first round of the draft to select DE Neil Smith (Nebraska) with the third overall pick. Kenney opened the team's initial two games, but was replaced by DeBerg at halftime at Seattle (9/11). In his initial start as a member of the Chiefs, DeBerg guided the team to a 20-13 win vs. Denver (9/18). However, six losses and a tie ensued as Kenney and DeBerg jostled for the QB job. As the season drew to a close, it became apparent the winds of change were blowing across the organization. President Jack Steadman resigned on December 8th, while General Manager Jim Schaaf was relieved of his duties the same day. Steadman was later named Chairman of the Board. On the field, the Chiefs finished the year at 4-11-1 as questions swirled regarding Gansz's future and who would fill the club's leadership void. Those winds of change became a full-fledged gale one day after the season's conclusion when former Philadelphia Eagles and USFL executive Carl Peterson was named the club's President/General Manager and Chief Operating Officer on December 19th.

A RETURN TO PROMINENCE: CARL PETERSON AND MARTYBALL

1989 — After compiling an 8-22-1 record in two seasons, Gansz was relieved of his duties as head coach on January 5th. Peterson's selection as Gansz's successor was former Cleveland head coach Marty Schottenheimer, who was named the seventh head coach in Chiefs history on January 24th. The first draft choice of the Peterson era set the tone for the next decade as the club selected LB Derrick Thomas (Alabama) with the fourth overall selection. Thomas paired with Smith to form one of the most feared pass-rushing duos in NFL history, compiling a combined 212.5 sacks during their illustrious Chiefs careers. The Peterson-Schottenheimer era got off to an inauspicious start in a 34-20 loss at Denver (9/10) as DeBerg's first pass attempt was intercepted and returned for a TD. The club won just four times in its next 10 games as former Eagles QB Ron Jaworski and QB Steve Pelluer, who was acquired in a trade from Dallas, each opened three games apiece during that span. DeBerg regained the starting job for the final five weeks of the season, generating four wins that put the Chiefs just out of postseason qualification at 8-7-1. A 34-0 shutout win vs. Houston (11/26) highlighted the club's stretch run. RB Christian Okoye became the first Chief to lead the NFL in rushing with 1,480 yards, while Thomas won consensus NFL Rookie of the Year honors.

1990 — The foundation for the club's formidable offensive line of the '90s gathered two key ingredients when C Tim Grunhard (Notre Dame) and G Dave Scott (Penn State) were acquired in the draft. Construction began on the club's indoor practice facility at the Truman Sports Complex, giving the Chiefs an 80-yard indoor field and weight room facilities upon its completion. DT Buck Buchanan was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame

CARL & MARTY

Carl Peterson and Marty Schottenheimer formed one of the most successful GM/Head Coach duos in all of professional sports from '89-98, registering a 101-58-1 (.634) regular season record over that span. The Chiefs registered seven postseason appearances over those 10 seasons, including a club-record six straight playoff berths from '90-95.

on August 4th. The Chiefs made their initial overseas appearance, losing a 19-3 American Bowl decision vs. the L.A. Rams at Olympic Stadium in Berlin, Germany (8/11). Schottenheimer's club got out of the starting gate quickly, winning three of their first four games. The club then struggled, splitting its next six contests.

Free agent RB Barry Word produced a team-record 200-yard rushing outburst in a 43-24 victory vs. Detroit

Word

(10/14). Kansas City led the NFL with a franchise-record 60.0 sacks, including a team-record 20.0 by LB Derrick Thomas. Thomas established an NFL single-game record with 7.0 sacks in an inspiring Veterans Day performance vs. Seattle (11/11), a game the Seahawks miraculously won, 17-16, on a last-second, 25-yard TD pass to WR Paul Skansi by future Chiefs QB Dave Krieg. That loss brought on the furious stretch run which saw the club record victories in six of its last seven outings. Behind DeBerg's offensive leadership (23 TD passes with just four INTs) Kansas City finished the year with a franchise-best +26 turnover differential. The Chiefs clinched their first postseason berth since '86 with a 24-21 win at San Diego (12/23) and finished the year at 11-5, marking the franchise's best finish since '69.

1991 — The Chiefs suffered a heart-breaking, 17-16 loss at Miami (1/5) in an AFC Wild Card Game as K Nick Lowery's potential game-winning 52-yard FG fell short with 0:56 remaining. On July 27th, K Jan Stenerud became the first pure placekicker to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The Chiefs became members of Wisconsin's "Cheese League," moving their training camp to the University of Wisconsin - River Falls after spending the previous 28 summers at William Jewell College in Liberty, MO. The club's 14-3 win vs. Atlanta (9/1) on Opening Day initiated the 117-game sellout streak at Arrowhead that carried into the 2005 campaign. The Chiefs were featured on Monday Night Football three times, including a 33-6 victory over the defending AFC Champion Buffalo Bills before a raucous crowd at Arrowhead (10/7), marking the club's first home MNF contest in eight years. The club finished the regular season at 10-6, marking the first time since '68-69 that the franchise had qualified for the playoffs in consecutive seasons. A 27-21 victory at the L.A. Raiders (12/22) in the regular season finale gave the Chiefs the right to host the Silver and Black just six days later in the inaugural postseason game in Arrowhead's history. Thanks to six takeaways, the Chiefs registered their first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV with a 10-6 win in an AFC Wild Card Game vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/28).

1992 — The Chiefs lost a 37-14 decision at Buffalo (1/5) in an AFC Divisional Playoff matchup as the Bills dynamic offense proved to be too much for the Chiefs. A longtime nemesis with Seattle, "Plan B" free agent QB Dave Krieg was signed as the club's starter on March 19th. A melancholy off-season awaited the Chiefs, who mourned the passing of Player Personnel Director Whitey Dovell on May 22nd and Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan on July 16th. Both Dovell and Buchanan lost courageous battles with cancer. Six-time Pro Bowl S Deron Cherry who originally joined the club as a free agent punter, announced his retirement in July after registering 50 interceptions in 11 seasons with the franchise. The Chiefs retired the jerseys of Buchanan (86), LB Willie Lanier (63) and K Jan Stenerud (3) in a ceremony prior to a preseason contest vs. Buffalo (8/24).

Dovell

First-round draft pick CB Dale Carter (Tennessee) won the Bert Bell trophy as the NFL's Rookie of the Year. The very first time Carter touched the ball in an NFL contest, he registered a 46-yard punt return TD in a 24-10 win at San Diego (9/6). RB Christian Okoye surpassed Ed Podolak as the all-time leading rusher in team history vs. Seattle (9/13). Injuries eventually made the '92 campaign Okoye's last with the Chiefs after he compiled 4,897 rushing yards with the franchise. The club got off to a 3-1 start, but was faced with a 4-4 record at the season's midpoint. Despite four consecutive victories, the club's postseason hopes still came down to the season's final contest. Owning a 9-6 record and needing one more victory to secure a playoff berth, the Chiefs defense tallied three TDs, while Krieg tossed a pair of scoring passes as Kansas City claimed a 42-20 win vs. Denver (12/27) to finish the season with a 10-6 record.

MONTANA AND MARCUS

A pair of Hall of Famers — QB Joe Montana and RB Marcus Allen — guided the club to its first-ever AFC Championship Game appearance in '93.

1993 — The Chiefs made a quick exit from the playoffs as Krieg was sacked 7.0 times in a 17-0 AFC Wild Card loss at San Diego (1/2). The Chiefs spent the off-season installing the "West Coast" offense under the direction of new offensive coordinator Paul Hackett, who at one time served as QBs coach to Joe Montana in San Francisco. On April 20th, the Chiefs traded for Montana, who directed the 49ers to four Super Bowl victories. G Will Shields (Nebraska) was selected with the club's third-round draft choice, rounding out the "law firm" of Grunhard, Szott and Shields which anchored the interior of Chiefs offensive line for most of the decade. On June 9th the club signed another future Canton enshrinee, inking unrestricted free agent RB Marcus Allen, who had spent 11 seasons tormenting the Chiefs as a member of the Raiders. Montana and Allen made their debuts in a 27-3 win at Tampa Bay (9/5), marking Montana's first Opening Day appearance since '90. Shields initiated a franchise-record streak of 191 consecutive starts the following week at Houston (9/12). Thanks to a pair of Monday Night Football wins at Arrowhead, the club owned a 6-2 midseason mark. Before taking the field in a Sunday night contest at Minnesota (12/26), the team learned it had clinched its first AFC West title since '71 thanks to a Raiders loss earlier in the day. The team finished the season with an 11-5 regular season record, marking the club's fourth consecutive year with a double-digit victory tally. LB Derrick Thomas was named the NFL's Man of the Year following the season. Thomas, who founded "The Third and Long Foundation," received the honor in large part due to his efforts in promoting children's literacy.

1994 — Kansas City got its first true taste of "Montana Magic" as the Hall of Fame passer engineered a brilliant comeback in a 27-24 OT win in an AFC Wild Card thriller vs. Pittsburgh (1/8). Next up was a red-hot Oilers squad that had won 11 straight games to conclude the regular season. Heavily-favored Houston opened up a 13-7 lead in the fourth quarter, but once again, Montana had a comeback in mind, guiding the club to a 28-20 victory at Houston (1/16). The Chiefs playoff journey ended as the club made its initial AFC Championship Game appearance at Buffalo (1/23). Montana was knocked out of the contest early in the second half as Buffalo claimed its fourth straight AFC title by a score of 30-13.

While the previous off-season saw the Chiefs stockpile several key free agents, a number of familiar faces departed following the '93 season, most notably CBs Albert Lewis (Raiders) and Kevin Ross (Falcons), as well as K Nick Lowery (Jets). QB Steve Bono was traded in a trade with San Francisco on May 2nd to serve as Montana's backup. The most dramatic change in Arrowhead's appearance occurred as a grass playing field was also installed, replacing the previous AstroTurf surface. The club made its second American Bowl appearance, meeting Minnesota in Tokyo, Japan (8/7).

The Chiefs home opener was one of the most-ballyhooed regular season contests in team history as Montana made his only career appearance vs. San Francisco (9/11). The Chiefs prevailed over the 49ers and Montana's replacement, QB Steve Young, by a 24-17 count before a crowd of 79,907, the second-largest "in-house" attendance in Arrowhead history. After starting the season 3-0, the Chiefs dropped back-to-back games before snapping an 11-game losing streak at Denver's Mile High Stadium (10/17) in a memorable Monday night contest. Montana orchestrated a masterful comeback, connecting with WR Willie Davis for a five-yard TD with 0:08 remaining to give the Chiefs a 31-28 triumph. A late-season, three-game losing skid put the club's playoff hopes in jeopardy. The Chiefs found themselves at 8-7 faced with a do-or-die regular season finale vs. the L.A. Raiders (12/24) in the final NFL contest ever played at the L.A. Coliseum. Allen had his finest game in a Chiefs uniform, rushing 33 times for 132 yards en route to a 19-9 win. At 9-7, Kansas City qualified for the playoffs for a fifth straight season. However, the Chiefs made a rapid departure from the playoffs in Montana's final professional contest at Miami (12/31). Montana and Dolphins QB Dan Marino conducted a masterful first-half duel that ended deadlocked at 17-17, but Miami eventually prevailed by a 27-17 count.

HALLELUJAH CORNER

The term "Hallelujah Corner" was coined in '95 after Kansas City won three separate contests via return scores culminating in Arrowhead's West end zone. The first of those hallowed victories was a 23-17 OT decision vs. Oakland (9/17) that culminated when CB James Hasty returned an interception for a 64-yard TD, prompting head coach Marty Schottenheimer to plant a celebratory postgame kiss on the cornerback.

1995 — Montana announced his retirement from football after 16 years in the NFL on April 18th and Bono was promoted to the starting job. Immediately, so-called media experts predicted much gloom and doom for the '95 Chiefs, leading Schottenheimer to quip during training camp that his club had been picked "sixth in a five-team division." Led by Bono, who merited a Pro Bowl berth, Kansas City posted an NFL-best 13-3 record with unblemished 8-0 marks in the AFC West and at Arrowhead. The Chiefs led the NFL in rushing offense (138.9 ypg), scoring defense (15.1 ppg) and turnover ratio (+12). A 24-3 win at Arizona (10/1) featured a surreal, 76-yard TD run on a bootleg by Bono as the Chiefs initiated a seven-game winning streak, the franchise's longest since '69. In a Monday Night Football classic vs. San Diego (10/9), WR Tamarick Vanover returned a punt for an 86-yard TD to provide the winning points in a 29-23 victory, the team's third straight home win in overtime. The club's defense began to flex its muscle, beginning with a 21-7 win at Denver (10/22). The contest, played in a Rocky Mountain snowstorm, featured the 100th rushing TD of Marcus Allen's career. The Chiefs won a home game for the third time on a last-second return score that concluded in Arrowhead's West end zone when CB Mark Collins scooped up a fumble for a 20-13 win vs. Houston (11/19). Kansas City clinched a division title with a 29-23 victory at Oakland (12/3) en route to a franchise-best 13-3 regular season record and a team-record sixth consecutive postseason berth.

The Chiefs were represented by seven players in the Pro Bowl, more than any other AFC team.

1996 — The Chiefs dropped an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/7) on a blustery afternoon with the temperature at 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9. Three INTs and a trio of missed FGs contributed to the 10-7 loss at Arrowhead. The Chiefs entered the '96 campaign with essentially the same lineup as the club boasted in '95 and were featured on the cover of Sports Illustrated along with Green Bay as preseason Super Bowl favorites. Kansas City made its third American Bowl appearance, this time vs. Dallas in Monterrey, Mexico (8/5). The club started the season with a 4-0 record for the first time in team history, but the season's lofty expectations came crashing down as the squad lost three of its next four games. A three-game winning streak, including a victory over the eventual Super Bowl champion Green Bay Packers, put the club back in postseason contention at 8-3.

That rosy picture quickly crumbled in a 28-14 loss vs. San Diego (11/24) as Bono was relieved in the second half by QB Rich Gannon. Gannon assumed the starting reins for a 28-24 win in a Thanksgiving Day game at Detroit (11/28) as Allen registered his 111th career rushing TD to surpass Walter Payton as the NFL's all-time leader in that department, a mark that was later broken by Emmitt Smith. Needing just one more win to qualify for the playoffs, the Chiefs dropped their next two games as an injury-hampered Gannon was sidelined for good in the second quarter of a 24-19 loss vs. Indianapolis (12/15).

Faced with a must-win situation in a frigid regular season finale at Buffalo (12/22), the club's postseason hopes hinged on Bono. Despite a 20-9 loss to the Bills, the Chiefs still had a shot to slip into the playoffs if Atlanta could secure a win at Jacksonville. However, Atlanta K Morten Andersen's 30-yard FG attempt went wide left with 0:04 remaining, preserving a 19-17 win and the AFC's final Wild Card spot for the Jaguars, who won a tiebreaker with Kansas City. The Chiefs finished with a 9-7 record, missing the postseason for the first time since '89.

1997 — Kansas City dramatically retooled its roster in '97, beginning with free agent QB Elvis Grbac, who signed with the club on March 17th. In addition to Grbac, the Chiefs lineup featured 11 new starters, including WR Andre

Grbac and Rison

Rison, who won team MVP honors after becoming the club's first Pro Bowl receiver in a decade. On defense, the club's top four picks from the '96 Draft, S Jerome Woods, S Reggie Tongue, DE John Browning and LB Donnie Edwards, all emerged as starters. T John Alt announced his retirement at training camp in River Falls, WI on July 21st. All the new faces quickly formed a cohesive unit as the Chiefs posted a 13-3 record, an 8-0 Arrowhead mark and their second AFC West title in three years. The club engineered several dramatic finishes, the first of which came in a Monday Night Football thriller at Oakland (9/8) when Grbac connected with Rison on an improbable 32-yard TD pass with just 0:03 remaining to cap a 28-27 win. Six days later, Kansas City's defense produced a remarkable goal-line stand to preserve a 22-16 victory at Arrowhead vs. Buffalo (9/14).

After posting a 6-2 record during the season's first half, Kansas City's good fortune appeared to run out vs. Pittsburgh (11/3) when Grbac suffered a broken clavicle. However, Gannon led the team to a 5-1 mark in their next six outings.

K Pete Stoyanovich provided one of the year's most memorable moments, connecting on a line-drive 54-yard FG as time expired to give Kansas City a 24-22 win vs. Denver (11/16). San Francisco entered Arrowhead boasting an 11-game winning streak and departed after suffering a 44-9 defeat (11/30), while the Chiefs vaunted defensive unit pitched a 30-0 shutout vs. Oakland (12/7). The Chiefs led the NFL in scoring defense, allowing a mere 14.5 points per game. The 232 total points permitted by the Chiefs in '97 were the lowest tally ever allowed in a 16-game season in team history. Kansas City also broke a 63-year-old mark owned by the '34 Detroit Lions by not permitting a second-half TD in 10 consecutive games. Grbac returned for the regular season finale vs. New Orleans (12/21) as the squad finished the year with six consecutive victories, a first in team history.

Stoyanovich

1998 — The two teams with the AFC's top records squared off when Denver (12-4) visited Kansas City (13-3) for an AFC Divisional Playoff Game (1/4). Grbac started the contest for Kansas City and despite holding an edge in total yardage, the Chiefs could not convert on several key scoring opportunities, dropping a 14-10 decision to their division foe. On April 9th, RB Marcus Allen announced his retirement, concluding a brilliant 16-year NFL career. A whirlwind preseason saw the Chiefs play another American Bowl contest, this time vs. Green Bay in Tokyo, Japan (8/1), as well as a preseason game vs. Tampa Bay in Norman, Oklahoma (8/8).

A '98 campaign which began with much promise had its high hopes dashed as the Chiefs suffered several major injuries beginning in a season-opening victory vs. Oakland (9/6) that featured 6.0 sacks from LB Derrick Thomas. Grbac was lost for four games due to a shoulder injury, while All-Pro G Dave Szott's year came to an end with a biceps tear. In total, 11 different starters missed a total of 45 games due to injuries. Gannon led the team to a 4-1 start that included a water-logged, 17-6 Sunday night win vs. Seattle (10/4), a contest that was delayed for 54 minutes due to torrential rains. However, the club would never recover from an ensuing six-game losing streak, the longest of Schottenheimer's tenure. The low point of that stretch came in a penalty-marred 30-7 loss vs. Denver (11/16) on Monday Night Football. The club was hampered by crucial penalties throughout the season, setting dubious NFL records for penalties (158) and penalty yardage (1,304). Despite registering wins in three of the season's final five games, the club finished the year at 7-9, snapping a string of nine consecutive winning seasons.

GUN'S RUN, A FALLEN HERO & A NEW ERA

1999 — On January 11th, head coach Marty Schottenheimer announced his retirement after 10 seasons of distinguished service with the club. His 101-58-1 (.634) record gave him the best winning percentage of any coach in franchise history. During his tenure, the Chiefs captured three AFC West titles and qualified for the playoffs seven times. Schottenheimer also produced a remarkable 18-3 (.857) record against the Raiders. Gunther Cunningham was appointed the eighth head coach in franchise history on January 22nd. During his four seasons ('95-98) as the Chiefs defensive coordinator, Kansas City's defense allowed a league-low 16.4 points per game. The club responded to their new leader's high-energy style as Cunningham produced a 9-7 record in his initial season at the club's helm, the best record of any rookie head coach in franchise history and the best mark of any first-year head coach in the NFL that season. The club became the sixth team in NFL history to record 100 regular season wins in a decade with a 16-10 triumph at Denver (12/5). Only Buffalo (103-57) finished the '90s with a better record than Kansas City's 102-58 mark. Under Cunningham, Kansas City led the NFL with a +21 turnover ratio and won the NFL's turnover triple crown in the '90s with a remarkable +128 turnover ratio, a league-high 365 takeaways and an NFL-low 237 giveaways. The Chiefs also recorded 11 return TDs on the season, including a franchise-best nine on defense. The Chiefs ran the ball more times (521) than any other team in the league and ranked fourth in the NFL in rushing (130.1 ypg). After a three-game mid-season losing streak put the club at 5-5 and on the brink of playoff elimination, the team rallied for a four-game winning string, setting up a make-or-break game in the regular season finale vs. the Oakland Raiders.

DERRICK VINCENT THOMAS (1967-2000)

On January 23, 2000 nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in a one-vehicle accident just east of the Kansas City International Airport on I-435. Ten other individuals were killed in a separate, 24-vehicle accident that same day just north of KCI on I-29. Thomas was moved to Jackson Memorial Hospital in his hometown of Miami the following day. Although confined to a wheelchair, Thomas had made substantial progress and was in good spirits when he was visited by Chiefs President Carl Peterson in Miami on February 7th. The next day, Thomas' condition took a shocking turn and at 10:10 AM (ET) on February 8th, he was pronounced dead after suffering cardiac arrest. February 11th was declared "Derrick Thomas Red Friday" in Kansas City and on February 14th nearly 23,000 mourners paid their final respects to their fallen hero at Arrowhead Stadium, where Thomas' body lay in state and a B-2 Stealth bomber from Whiteman Air Force Base flew over at 12:01 PM. On February 15th at Kemper Arena, over 6,000 individuals attended a public memorial service for Thomas. On February 19th, Derrick Vincent Thomas was buried in Miami following a memorial service at the Mt. Calvary Church. On March 4th, Peterson announced at the annual 101 Banquet that at the suggestion of Clark Hunt, the Chiefs Most Valuable Player Award would hence be known as the Derrick Thomas Award. Thomas was honored prior to the club's season opener vs. Indianapolis (9/3).

2000 — The Chiefs needed a win vs. Oakland at Arrowhead (1/2) in the regular season finale to seal the AFC West title, while a loss would mean postseason elimination. Kansas City leapt out to a 17-0 lead, but a blocked punt turned the momentum in the game which was eventually won by Oakland 41-38 in OT. That loss provided an ominous start to a year which turned tragic on January 23rd when nine-time Pro Bowl LB Derrick Thomas was seriously injured in an auto accident.

Despite an 0-2 start, Kansas City bounced back to win five of its next six contests to sit 5-3 at the season's midway point. The Chiefs faced Seattle (10/2) in a Monday Night Football contest which was simulcast to 4,391 fans in Kauffman Stadium. The 82,893 fans assembled at Arrowhead and Kauffman Stadiums marked the largest on-site attendance figure in team history. The club's early-season success was also highlighted by a 54-34 win over the defending Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams (10/22), a contest which featured the most points ever scored at Arrowhead. However, a stretch of five road games over a six-week span took its toll on the club as the Chiefs dropped five straight contests to fall out of playoff contention, finishing the year at 7-9.

2001 — After compiling a 16-16 record in two seasons, Cunningham was relieved of his duties on January 5th. Dick Vermeil, who guided St. Louis to a win in Super Bowl XXXIV following the '99 season, was named the ninth head coach in franchise history on January 12th. On April 20th, the club acquired QB Trent

Green in a trade with St. Louis and also signed unrestricted free agent RB Priest Holmes.

The initial regular season victory of the Vermeil era came in convincing fashion at Washington (9/30) when the Chiefs defeated their former head coach Marty Schottenheimer and the Redskins by a 45-13 margin. Although the club finished its initial campaign under Vermeil at 6-10, the team began to take shape down the stretch, winning three of its final four games. Holmes provided a spark to the offense, becoming just the second player in franchise history to lead the NFL in rushing, amassing 1,555 yards to break Christian Okoye's previous single-season record of 1,480.

2002 — The club initiated a season-long series to commemorate the franchise's 40th Anniversary Season in Kansas City in 2002. On April 15th, the Chiefs Honor Grove of over 40 stately Giant Redwoods was established in the Southeast corner of the Truman Sports Complex to epitomize the deep and lasting roots the organization has developed in Mid-America. Hunt's inspiration for the honor grove was a quote from Vikings QB Joe Kapp, who was knocked out of Super Bowl IV. "The Chiefs defensive line was very active and looked like a Redwood Forest," Kapp said after the game. On April 25th, members of the Chiefs coaches, players, staff and cheerleaders visited numerous locations throughout the greater Kansas City community, thanking them for their support of the franchise.

In a season filled with wild comebacks and fantastic finishes, the Chiefs pulled out a remarkable 40-39 Opening Day win at Cleveland (9/8). Starting with that contest, virtually every game was a nail-biter with all but one of the club's eight losses being decided by seven points or less. But despite leading the NFL in scoring for the first time in team history with 467 points and setting a franchise record with 6,000 yards of total offense, the club finished 8-8 to miss the postseason in Vermeil's second season. The team remained in playoff contention until the season's

SEPTEMBER 11TH

On September 11, 2001 Americans watched with horror as terrorist attacks shocked the nation. Commissioner Paul Tagliabue suspended play for the weekend of September 16th. The Chiefs game at Seattle scheduled for that date was postponed until January 6th. The NFL made a patriotic return in Kansas City when the Chiefs hosted the N.Y. Giants (9/23). Tagliabue delivered a pregame address to the Arrowhead crowd, which greeted the Giants with a rousing ovation. Via a fireman's boot collection that was matched by the Chiefs and the Hunt family, a total donation of $451,413.88 was raised for relief efforts in New York City, an amount believed to be the largest single-day outpouring of spontaneous support by a group of fans and a pro sports team.

final game thanks to its explosive offense that broke nine team records. The Chiefs also set NFL records by fumbling just seven times and losing just two of those loose balls. Holmes continued the torrid pace he began in 2001, earning NFL Offensive Player of the Year honors from the AP and surpassing his own team record with 1,615 rushing yards. The club's special teams were bolstered by WR Dante Hall, who produced three kick returns for TDs and became the first Chiefs return man to earn a Pro Bowl berth since J.T. Smith following the '80 season.

2003 — Hank Stram and RB Marcus Allen were enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame on August 2nd. "Voice of the Chiefs" Mitch Holthaus broadcast his 151st game as the club's play-by-play announcer at Houston (9/21), breaking Kevin Harlan's previous record (150). The Chiefs started the regular season with a 9-0 record for the first time in team history, becoming just the ninth team since the AFL-NFL merger to accomplish that feat. That hot start to the season was sparked by Hall, who tied an NFL single-season record by registering four kick return TDs over that span. Hall also became the first player in league annals to accomplish that feat in four consecutive games. The Chiefs overcame a 17-point fourth-quarter deficit for the first time in team history, pulling out an improbable 40-34 OT win at Green Bay (10/12). Kansas City's winning streak came to an end in a 24-19 loss at Cincinnati (11/16).

The Chiefs clinched their first AFC West title since '97 with a 45-17 win vs. Detroit (12/14) as QB Trent Green became the first player in team history to register a "perfect" 158.3 passer rating in a game. Kansas City concluded its 13-3 regular season with a 31-3 victory vs. Chicago (12/28), marking a perfect 8-0 record at home and the club's 13th consecutive regular season victory at Arrowhead Stadium. In that win, Holmes set a trio of TD records. He finished the season with 27 rushing scores, establishing NFL single-season records for both rushing TDs and total TDs. Holmes (61) also bypassed WR Otis Taylor (60) for the most career TDs scored by a player in Chiefs history. The Chiefs five-game improvement in the win column from the previous season tied as the best mark in franchise history. Kansas City became the first AFC team to lead the NFL in scoring in consecutive seasons since San Diego in '81-'82 as the club produced a franchise-best 484 points. The team also led the NFL with a +19 turnover differential. Nine Chiefs players received Pro Bowl recognition, the third-highest total in team history, while the club's six offensive Pro Bowlers marked the most in club annals.

2004 — The Chiefs hosted an AFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Indianapolis (1/11) in which neither team was forced to punt. Sensational performances by Holmes (176 rushing yards, two TDs) and Hall (208 kickoff return yards, 1 TD) weren't enough as the Colts recorded a 38-31 victory. Defensive coordinator Greg Robinson resigned on January 13th. Vermeil agreed to a two-year contract extension on January 16th. On January 20th, Vermeil hired Gunther Cunningham, who returned to Kansas City as the club's defensive coordinator. On January 30th, G Will Shields was named the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year, becoming the fourth Kansas City player to win that honor.

The Chiefs got into the victory column with a 27-24 win on Monday Night Football at Baltimore (10/4) after an 0-3 start quickly dampened the club's high expectations.

Kansas City's offensive line emerged as one of the NFL's finest units, producing a trio of Pro Bowl performers in Shields, T Willie Roaf and G Brian Waters. Thanks to that offensive front, the Chiefs registered an NFL-record eight rushing TDs in a 56-10 win vs. Atlanta (10/24). The following week Kansas City continued its offensive onslaught with a convincing 45-35 victory vs. Indianapolis (10/31), snapping a seven-game losing streak to the Colts. After surpassing RB Christian Okoye as the all-time leading rusher in franchise history vs. Houston (9/26), Holmes' year came to an abrupt halt when he suffered a season-ending knee injury at Tampa Bay (11/7).

A four-game winning streak in December provided a number of highlights, including a wild 49-38 Monday Night Football road triumph at Tennessee (12/13). That late-season surge was sparked by second-year RB Larry Johnson who accounted for 11 TDs and produced three straight 100-yard rushing efforts in the season's final six contests. Offensively, the Chiefs enjoyed another record-setting year, establishing a league record with 398 first downs. Kansas City also led the NFL in total offense for the first time in franchise history, averaging 418.4 yards per game. That offense was triggered by Green, who set single-season team marks for passing yards (4,591) and 300-yard games (8). The Chiefs were also the first team in NFL history to have three different RBs boast a 150-yard rushing game in the same season — Holmes, Johnson and Derrick Baylock. Defensively, fourth-round draft choice DE Jared Allen provided a bright spot with 9.0 sacks, the second-highest total by a rookie in team history.

2005 — TE Tony Gonzalez earned his sixth consecutive Pro Bowl berth and finished the season with a flourish, setting a single-game franchise record with a 14-catch performance in the regular season finale at San Diego (1/2). Gonzalez became just the third tight end since the AFL-NFL merger to lead the league in receptions (102), the highest total ever amassed by a member of the Chiefs. Shields established a franchise record with his 10th consecutive Pro Bowl berth, while extending his franchise-record string of starts to 191 consecutive games dating back to '93.

CHIEFS UNIFORM HISTORY

1959 – At one of the initial organizational meetings of the American Football League in late '59 – before the teams even had any players or coaches – the AFL owners choose their team colors. Lamar Hunt desires Columbia Blue and Orange for his Dallas Texans franchise. But before Hunt or any other owner can make a selection, Houston's Bud Adams claims Columbia Blue for his Oilers franchise. Hunt reverts to Red and Gold for the Texans, which remains the primary color scheme for the Chiefs to this day.

Lamar Hunt greets Bud Adams - sporting a "Columbia Blue" blazer - prior to the '62 AFL Championship Game. Hunt would lose the battle for "Columbia Blue," but his Texans would beat the Oilers in double OT for the '62 AFL title.

1960-62 – The Texans take the field for the AFL's inaugural season in '60 sporting red helmets with gray facemasks. The helmet features the state of Texas in white with a gold star situated on Dallas. Home jerseys are solid red featuring white numerals, white "TV" numerals on the sleeves and white lettering, all trimmed in gold. Road jerseys are white with red numerals, red "TV" numerals on the sleeves and red lettering, all of which are bordered by thin gold trim. Both jerseys are a cloth design, featuring three-quarter sleeves with stitched "tackle twill" numerals and letters. The team wears white pants featuring vertical stripes of red, gold and red. Socks are red on top, white on the bottom with alternating stripes at the calf of white, red, gold, red and white. Although several minor changes are made to the stripe width over the years, the primary sock design remains relatively consistent to the present day.

Texans Helmet

1963-67 – The Texans move to Kansas City in '63. Hunt and head coach Hank Stram initially plan on calling the relocated team the "Kansas City Texans." However, general manager Jack Steadman wisely convinces the duo to change the franchise's nickname to "Chiefs." The club's uniform remains virtually unchanged, with the exception of the helmet logo. The state of Texas is replaced on the headgear by a design originally sketched by Hunt on a napkin. Hunt's inspiration for the interlocking "KC" design was the "SF" inside of an oval on San Francisco's helmets. Kansas City's overlapping initials appear inside a white arrowhead instead of an oval and are surrounded by a thin black outline. The result is one of the most distinctive helmets in all of football.

1968 – The most dramatic changes to the Chiefs uniform come in '68. Head coach Hank Stram prefers more red in the club's road attire and orders red pants to go with the team's white road jerseys. Stram asserts that the red pants will match the red numerals on the white road jerseys. While Stram's fashion sense is never in question, some in the organization theorize that the superstitious Stram really wants to part ways the white pants because the club lost Super Bowl I while wearing them. No matter the logic, the white pants are not seen again during the Stram era. The club's new red pants feature alternating vertical stripes of white, red, gold, red and white and are paired with predominantly white socks that feature striping of red, gold and red at the calf. Alterations are also made to the club's jerseys at this time. Sleeves are shortened from three-quarter length to their present-day short-sleeve status. Stripes are also introduced on the bottom of the sleeves, where they still reside. Red jerseys feature white, gold and white stripes on the sleeves, while the club's white jerseys receive red, gold and red stripes.

Texans DT Jerry Mays (75) and QB Len Dawson (16) pose along with head coach Hank Stram in '65 sporting the home jerseys the club wore from '60-67. Note the rolled-up sleeves and the barely visible gold trim.

1969 – Following a victory in the AFL Championship Game, Stram orders new red jerseys to be worn in Super Bowl IV and they are delivered just days before the game. Stram also directs equipment manager Bobby Yarborough to have all the helmets repainted before the Super Bowl, but relents after players insist on wearing their "battle-scarred" headgear. The "AFL-10" patch worn on the left shoulder of Kansas City's jerseys in Super Bowl IV is the brainchild of AFL President Milt Woodward. During the entire '69 season, all NFL teams wear an "NFL-50" patch which commemorates the NFL's 50th Anniversary season. Woodward counters with a patch of his own to celebrate the 10-year existence of the AFL, which is proudly worn by the Chiefs on behalf of the entire AFL in their 23-7 victory vs. Minnesota (1/11/70).

AFL-10 Patch

1970 – Following Super Bowl IV, the team's cloth jerseys give way to a more breathable mesh fabric. Heat-transfer numerals and letters replace sewn-on "tackle twill" characters. The style of the numerals and letters changes slightly. The characters decrease in size, while the gold trim around both the numerals and letters expands to become more visible. Jersey numerals remain this size before eventually returning to larger proportions in the early '80s.

1974 – The club's facemask changes from gray to white. A change in manufacturers results in a slightly smaller arrowhead logo on the helmet with a thicker black border compared to the design of the '60s.

DT Buck Buchanan displays the club's road uniform of the '70s. Note the white facemask, red pants and heat-transfer numerals.

Joe Delaney Patch

DE Art Still (67), S Gary Barbaro (26) and WR J.T. Smith (86) represented the Chiefs in the Pro Bowl following the '80 season and display a look in '81 that remained constant until '88. Note the red belts.

Silver Anniversary Patch

1984 – The original eight American Football League teams all wear circular "Silver Anniversary" patches on the upper left chest of their jerseys commemorating the 25th anniversary of the AFL and their respective franchises. Kansas City's patch features the Chiefs helmet and the AFL logo.

1989 – The arrival of head coach Marty Schottenheimer signals the club's most dramatic uniform change in over 20 years. Schottenheimer asks and receives permission from Hunt to revert to back to white pants on the road, a "white-on-white" look that had not been utilized by the Chiefs since '67. White belts also return to the club's pants after using red belts at various periods of the '70s and '80s. Kansas City reintroduces the white pants at Denver (9/10/89) and maintains this look on the road through the '99 season.

RB Marcus Allen in white-on-white.

War. The NFL Shield becomes a standard part of all NFL uniforms, appearing on the back of helmets, on the "V" of jerseys and on the left hip of pants.

1992 – The club wears a black panel with the white initials "WWD" on the upper left chest of its jersey in memory of Director of Player Personnel Whitey Dovell, who passed away on May 11, 1992. The team also paints the number "86" on the field at Arrowhead Stadium to honor the memory of Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan, who passed away on July 16, 1992.

35th Anniversary Patch

1994 – Solid fabric jerseys complete with "tackle twill" numerals and letters return, taking the place of mesh jerseys and heat-transfer characters. All NFL teams wear "NFL Diamond Anniversary" patches on their left upper chest in honor of the league's 75th season. The Chiefs also wear a "35th Anniversary" patch on their right upper chest in celebration of the franchise's 35th season. The patch features the AFL, Texans and Chiefs logos. It marks the only time in team history the club has worn two different patches in the same season. The Chiefs also wear "Throwback" uniforms – replicas of the club's '63 attire – for games at Atlanta (9/18/94) and vs. St. Louis (9/25/94).

February 8, 2000. Ever mindful of Stram's legacy and the franchise's glory days, head coach Gunther Cunningham receives Hunt's blessing to revert back to the red pants on the road. The resurrected red pants debut in a 23-22 win at Denver (9/24/00) and remain a fixture of the club's road attire.

2001 – A sticker bearing the American Flag returns to the back of all NFL helmets following the terrorist attacks of September 11th. The flag reappears on Chiefs helmets vs. the N.Y. Giants (9/23/01) and remains there to this day.

U.S. Flag Sticker

2002 – The Chiefs wear a "40th Anniversary in Kansas City" patch vs. Oakland (10/27/02), commemorating the franchise's 40th season in Mid-America. The "Scout" – Kansas City's most recognizable civic icon – is prominently featured on the patch along with Kansas City's downtown skyline. The NFL Equipment Shield replaces NFL Shield on jerseys and pants.

GOVERNOR'S CUP SERIES

Dating back to the '68 preseason, the Chiefs have faced their in-state rivals from St. Louis in 35 "Governor's Cup" contests. From '68-'87, Kansas City faced the St. Louis Cardinals every preseason and also met the Cardinals in regular season play four times while that franchise was stationed on Missouri's "Eastern Shore" before it moved to Arizona for the start of the '88 campaign. After the Rams moved to St. Louis in '95, the "Governor's Cup" series was renewed during the '96 preseason. Since the Rams relocation to the "Show-Me State," Kansas City owns a perfect 3-0 record against their in-state, I-70 foes.

THANKSGIVING DAY GAMES

The Chiefs have played on Thanksgiving Day eight times during the franchise's 46-year history. Kansas City hosted a trio of Thanksgiving Day games at Municipal Stadium during the club's final three seasons as a member of the American Football League. The Chiefs have participated in five Thanksgiving Day outings since the AFL-NFL merger. In the team's most recent Thanksgiving Day contest at Detroit (11/28/96), Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen became the NFL's all-time leader in rushing TDs, registering his 111th ground score on a one-yard run to bypass RB Walter Payton's previous record. Allen added his 112th rushing TD in the fourth quarter to provide the decisive points in a 28-24 victory. Although Allen's all-time rushing TD record was subsequently surpassed by RB Emmitt Smith, Allen's record-breaking performance remains one of the most memorable Thanksgiving moments in Chiefs history.

HOMES OF THE CHIEFS

ARROWHEAD STADIUM 1972-PRESENT

Arrowhead Stadium, present home of the Kansas City Chiefs, is one of the finest facilities in the NFL. It is part of the Harry S Truman Sports Complex, which also includes 42,000-seat Kauffman Stadium, home of the Kansas City Royals baseball club. Since its dedication on August 12, 1972, for a preseason game vs. the St. Louis Cardinals, 20,031,062 spectators have passed through Arrowhead's turnstiles. After 23 seasons of artificial turf, Arrowhead sported a grass playing surface for the first time in '94.

Municipal Stadium served as the Chiefs original home in Kansas City after previously housing two short-lived NFL franchises, the Kansas City Blues (1924) and the Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26). The Chiefs and the Kansas City Athletics baseball club shared the facility until the A's departed for Oakland following the '67 season. Kansas City went undefeated (7-0) at home during the '71 regular season, but the final contest (and only playoff game) in Municipal Stadium's history will live in infamy for Chiefs fans, a devastating double overtime 27-24 playoff loss to the Miami Dolphins on Christmas Day of '71, a contest which remains the NFL's longest game at 82 minutes, 40 seconds.

The Cotton Bowl served as the home of the American Football League's Dallas Texans from 1960-62 before the franchise moved to Kansas City in '63 and became known as the Chiefs. The Texans shared the stadium with the NFL's expansion Dallas Cowboys. The facility served until '99 as a home field for SMU, the alma mater of Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt. The Texans final contest in the Cotton Bowl was a 26-17 win over the San Diego Chargers on December 16, 1962, before a sparse crowd of 18,384 fans. The Texans would win a 20-17 double-overtime thriller the next week at Houston to capture the first of three AFL titles.

THE ARROWHEAD STADIUM STORY

The Kansas City Chiefs and St. Louis Cardinals played the inaugural game at Arrowhead Stadium on August 12, 1972. Although the facility lacks some of the modern accoutrements of recently-constructed stadia and discussions about potential renovations are underway, Arrowhead remains one of the nation's top venues for experience the excitement of collegiate or NFL football.

While other venues of a similar vintage have long since been termed obsolete, thanks to the foresight and vision of the leadership of Jackson County, the Chiefs staff led by Jack Steadman who helped develop the complex, and the taxpayers who made it a reality, Arrowhead has indeed, stood the test of time.

At the time of its dedication in '72, the legendary founder of the Chicago Bears, George Halas called Arrowhead, "the most revolutionary, futuristic, sports complex I have ever seen." Hal Lebovitz, Sports Editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer added, "It took courage to sell the citizens of Kansas City on the twin park plan. But they bought it because they want the best."

In the late '60s, after design and seating capacity concerns caused plans for a single, multi-purpose domed stadium to be scrapped, Kansas City opted to construct two separate stadiums, one for football and one for baseball. Voters approved the Sports Complex bond issue in '67, which included plans for a revolutionary concept – the world's first rolling stadium roof (pictured below). Construction cost overruns and project delays caused by a lengthy strike eventually forced the roof concept to be put on hold, but Arrowhead was completed in time for the '72 season.

In '84, the Jackson County Sports Authority again investigated the feasibility of a dome - this time made of fabric - but that concept too was shelved as being unnecessary and financially impractical.

A decade later, in '94, under Arrowhead's continued open-air arrangement, a natural playing surface was installed in the facility for the first time, just one of numerous improvements which have been made under the direction of Chiefs President, General Manager and CEO Carl Peterson. From '94-96 other multi-million dollar projects have modernized and expanded the Arrowhead Club, the Chiefs team and office facilities, as well as the stadium's concession areas. In '98 the club installed a pair of 23' x 42' Mitsubishi ArrowVision video screens in both end zones, and this year the Chiefs once again expanded their administrative offices at Arrowhead. In '99 all 33,975 seats in the upper level of the stadium were replaced, while all 35,277 lower level seats and all 10,199 club level seats were replaced for the 2000 season.

Undoubtedly one of the finest facilities in the NFL, Arrowhead and the fans who consistently fill it (117-consecutive sellouts) have helped produce a distinct homefield advantage for the Chiefs. During the '90s, no NFL team had a better regular season home winning percentage than Kansas City, which produced a .65-15 (.813) record over from '90-99. Nearly 40 years since the first plans were being devised for Kansas City's unique Original plans for the Truman Sports Complex called for a rolling roof which could cover Arrowhead or its baseball counterpart, Kauffman Stadium - a revolutionary concept at the time.

During Arrowhead's 30th Anniversary season in 2001, Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt, expressed the organization's thanks to Colorado-based architect, the late Charles Deaton, who conceived the two-stadium concept. Hunt praised the governmental bodies who took the initiative, and the workers who built Arrowhead, as well as the support of the Jackson County taxpayers who financed this futuristic venture. Hunt also wished to extend on behalf of the entire Chiefs organization a hearty salute to all who have unquestionably made Arrowhead Stadium - The Home of the ... CHIEFS!

CHIEFS IN THE AMERICAN BOWL

1990 American Bowl

Rams 19, Chiefs 3

August 11, 1990 • 55,429

Olympic Stadium • Berlin, West Germany

L.A. RAMS.....	7	3	0	9	—	19

Kansas City's initial American Bowl expedition featured heavy doses of culture, but little offense as the Rams prevailed by a 19-3 margin. RB Barry Word made his first appearance in a Kansas City uniform, pairing with the league's leading rusher in '89, RB Christian Okoye to form the quintessential "Martyball" backfield. However, the Chiefs only points would come on a 19-yard FG by K Bjorn Nittmo.

RB James Saxon (31) and TE Jonathan Hayes (85) are on hand as the Berlin Wall begins crumbling down in Berlin, West Germany.

Tokyo Dome • Tokyo, Japan

MINNESOTA.....	7	10	0	0	—	17

Kansas City's first appearance on Japanese soil was a rematch of Super Bowl IV, but Minnesota prevailed in this contest thanks to a pair of interceptions. Chiefs QB Matt Blundin accounted for the club's only TD when he connected with rookie WR Lake Dawson for a 40-yard score. Kansas City then attempted a two-point conversion for the first time since '69 as the NFL finally implemented the old AFL two-point rule in '94.

1996 American Bowl

Chiefs 32, Cowboys 6

August 5, 1996 • 45,128

Estadio Universitario • Monterrey, Mexico

KANSAS CITY.....	3	10	6	13	—	32
DALLAS.....	3	0	3	0	—	6

The Chiefs defense stifles the defending Super Bowl champions, allowing the Cowboys just five first downs. Kansas City's offense piles up 514 yards of total offense, including 173 rushing yards, while Dallas manages 214 total yards on the day as the Chiefs convert the partisan crowd of Cowboy fans into supporters of the "Jefes de Kansas City" or Kansas City Chiefs.

DE Neil Smith does his best matador impersonation and tries his hand at "bull-fighting" while in Monterrey, Mexico.

Green Bay K Ryan Longwell misses a potential game-winning 45-yard FG attempt at the end of regulation, while both Green Bay K Brett Conway and Kansas City K Pete Stoyanovich miss field goals in OT before Longwell makes the 27-yard game winner with 5:03 left in the extra session. Kansas City's roster features Japanese national players TE Nachi Abe and WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai.

WR Masato "The Magnet" Itai (13) and TE Nachi Abe (47) join Chiefs President Carl Peterson in pregame ceremonies at the Tokyo Dome.

PLAYOFF GAME SUMMARIES

1962 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Texans 20, Oilers 17 (2 OT)

December 23, 1962 • Jeppesen Stadium (37,981)

DALLAS.....	3	14	0	0	0	3	—	20
HOUSTON.....	0	0	7	10	0	0	—	17

A contest that moved the infant American Football League into the national consciousness proved to be the first of three AFL titles for Hank Stram's charges as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 double-overtime victory over the Houston Oilers. The game still ranks as the second-longest pro contest ever played, coming in at a lengthy 77:54, but is best remembered for RB Abner Haynes' choice to "kick to the clock" at the beginning of the initial overtime session.

Following second-place finishes in each of the league's first two seasons, the Texans ran away with the AFL West title in '62. Dallas (11-3) was then matched in this title bout with Houston (11-3), which had won the first two AFL titles in '60 and '61 over the Chargers.

The Texans grabbed the game's first break when LB E.J. Holub picked off QB/K George Blanda at the goal line and returned the ball 43 yards, sparking a drive that resulted in a 16-yard FG by K Tommy Brooker. Blanda would miss a 47-yard kick on the Oilers next possession and Haynes scored on a 28-yard pass from QB Len Dawson. An INT by CB Dave Grayson would set up Haynes' second TD of the half, this time on a two-yard run to give the Texans a 17-0 halftime advantage.

But the momentum quickly shifted to the Oilers in the second half. George Blanda — then a "young" 35 years old — passed 15 yards to TE Willard Deweall for a touchdown and kicked a 31-yard field goal before RB Charley Tolar burst over from the one to tie the game at 17-17 in the fourth quarter. Houston had a shot to win the game late in regulation, but LB Sherrill Headrick blocked a 42-yard Blanda field goal to leave the score deadlocked.

The two teams then went into the first sudden death overtime in AFL annals. The Texans won the toss and Stram elected to kick off, maintaining his defense could hold the Oilers long enough for Dawson to get the ball in good field position. Herein came the famous "kick-to-the-clock" episode in which Texans captain Haynes inadvertently elected for his team to kick into the wind instead of having it as the consolation for not receiving the football.

Neither club mounted a serious challenge in the early stages of overtime, but as the fifth quarter was drawing to a close, DE Bill Hull intercepted a Blanda pass and returned it to midfield. Dawson passed to RB Jack Spikes for 10 yards. Spikes — the game's Most Valuable Player — then ran for 19 yards and the Texans were in field goal range.

At the 2:54 mark of the sixth quarter, Brooker kicked a 25-yard field goal to give the Texans a 20-17 victory and the American Football League championship. The game lasted 77 minutes and 54 seconds and would be the longest in pro football history until the Chiefs and Dolphins played over 82 minutes nearly a decade later in '71.

TEXANS	— Brooker, 16-yard FG.
TEXANS	— Haynes, 28-yard pass from Dawson (Brooker kick).

1966 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Chiefs 31, Bills 7

January 1, 1967 • War Memorial Stadium (42,080)

KANSAS CITY.....	7	10	0	14	—	31
BUFFALO.....	7	0	0	0	—	7

With a berth in Super Bowl I as the prize, the Chiefs visited ancient War Memorial Stadium for a New Year's Day clash with the defending AFL champion Buffalo Bills. Kansas City's defense had stifled opponents all season long and didn't disappoint in this contest, forcing four turnovers, while limiting Buffalo to just nine first downs and 40 rushing yards as the Chiefs rolled to a 31-7 victory and their second AFL title.

The game, played in frigid, sub-freezing temperatures, produced its first break on the opening kickoff when P Jerrel Wilson recovered a fumble by DE Dudley Meredith on the Buffalo 31-yard line. Three plays later, QB Len Dawson found TE Fred Arbanas for a 29-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City a 7-0 lead.

After the two teams exchanged punts, Buffalo tied the game in the opening period when All-Star QB Jack Kemp hit WR Elbert Dubenion on a 69-yard pass play to tie the score at 7-7. Few thought it would be the Bills last score of the day, but Kansas City would eventually outscore Buffalo 24-0 in the final three quarters.

While the Chiefs defense clamped down on the Bills, Dawson led the Kansas City offense to 10 second-quarter points. A 28-yard punt return by RB Mike Garrett set the Chiefs up at the Buffalo 45-yard line and six plays later the KC signal-caller found WR Otis Taylor for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

The game's decisive play then came just before halftime. Kemp had marched the Bills to the Chiefs eight-yard line, but was picked off at the goal line by S Johnny Robinson, who raced 72 yards with the interception before being brought down at the Buffalo 28-yard line. K Mike Mercer then hit a 32-yard FG with 0:03 left in the half to give the Chiefs a 17-7 lead at the intermission.

The third quarter proved to be a defensive tussle as the two teams each exchanged a pair of punts. Kansas City would get to the Buffalo 42-yard line late in the period, but a 49-yard kick by Mercer fell short leaving the score at 17-7 with 15 minutes remaining.

Kansas City then broke the game wide open as Garrett applied the coup de grace for the Chiefs, scoring on runs of one and 18 yards to make the count 31-7. A 47-yard Dawson pass to E Chris Burford set up Garrett's first TD which came on fourth-and-goal. Buffalo fumbled on its next offensive snap and S Bobby Hunt fell on the loose ball at the Bills 21. Three plays later Garrett started left and then reversed his field to get into the end zone for a second time.

Kemp couldn't move the Bills on their next possession and was picked off by CB Emmitt Thomas on Buffalo's final drive of the day as Kansas City won its second AFL title in four years and awaited the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl I.

SUPER BOWL I

Packers 35, Chiefs 10

January 15, 1967 • Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum (63,036)

KANSAS CITY.....	0	10	0	0	—	10
GREEN BAY	7	7	14	7	—	35

Representing themselves and the American Football League in the first championship match with the National Football League, the Chiefs played well for one half before bowing to the supremacy of the Green Bay Packers. Vince Lombardi's Packers — one of the great pro football teams of all time — won Super Bowl I by a 35-10 score. The Packers held a slim 14-10 advantage at the half before the game turned on one play in the third quarter.

Green Bay opened the scoring on its second possession when the game's Most Valuable Player, QB Bart Starr, passed 37 yards to TE Max McGee, who made a remarkable one-handed catch for a touchdown. McGee, who had caught just four passes during the regular season, became an unlikely hero for the Packers after starter Boyd Dowler was injured on the game's opening series. McGee finished the game with seven catches for 138 yards and two TDs.

Behind QB Len Dawson, the Chiefs marched into Green Bay territory on their next drive, but K Mike Mercer misfired on a 40-yard FG to leave the score 7-0 after one quarter. However, Kansas City would tie the game on its next possession after a 31-yard completion to WR Otis Taylor set up a seven-yard scoring pass to RB Curtis McCClinton.

Green Bay would go right back on top when RB Jim Taylor scored from 14 yards out on the Packers' vaunted sweep. KC's next drive featured a 27-yard completion to E Chris Burford and culminated with a 31-yard Mercer FG as the Chiefs closed the gap to 14-10.

The Chiefs' momentum carried over to the third quarter as Kansas City moved to a first down on its initial possession. But then the game's key play — one that doomed the underdog Chiefs — unfolded when S Willie Wood intercepted a Dawson pass intended for TE Fred Arbanas at midfield. Wood returned it all the way to the Chiefs five-yard line, where RB Elijah Pitts ran for the first of his two touchdowns as Green Bay would establish a 21-10 lead.

The Packers' defense forced Kansas City to punt on its next two possessions, setting up another Starr-to-McGee touchdown pass. That duo would connect on completions of 11 and 16 yards on a 10-play, 56-yard drive before McGee hauled in a 13-yard score to up the Packer advantage to 28-10.

Kansas City dodged a scoring threat when CB Willie Mitchell picked off a Starr pass at the Chiefs' 11-yard line in the fourth quarter, but it would be Green Bay's only miscue of the day. The Packers' defense would stifle the AFL Champions for the remainder of the game as the Chiefs crossed midfield just once in the fourth quarter.

A 37-yard pass to McGee would set up the Packers' final score, a one-yard Pitts TD run. That score put the finishing touch on a 35-10 victory as Green Bay claimed the first of two straight Super Bowl titles, while Kansas City would have to wait until Super Bowl IV for redemption.

1968 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Raiders 41, Chiefs 6

December 22, 1968 • Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum (54,444)

KANSAS CITY	0	6	0	0	—	6
OAKLAND	21	7	0	13	—	41

Oakland jumped out to an early 21-0 lead and picked off QB Len Dawson four times, posting a convincing 41-6 victory in the initial postseason meeting between the Chiefs and Raiders. The two teams had both finished 12-2 and split a pair of regular season contests, setting up this playoff meeting for the right to face the N.Y. Jets in the AFL Championship Game.

The Chiefs defense had allowed a franchise-record 170 points during the regular season, but QB Daryle Lamonica and WR Fred Biletnikoff made play after play against Kansas City. Lamonica finished the day with 345 passing yards and five TD passes, the highest postseason totals ever amassed against Kansas City. Biletnikoff also had a record-setting day, registering 180 receiving yards and three scores, the best individual receiving day produced versus the Chiefs in the playoffs.

The Lamonica-Biletnikoff connection clicked early and often, accounting for three plays and 60 yards on Oakland's opening possession, including a 24-yard TD pass to put the Raiders ahead 7-0.

With the Chiefs backed up at their own two-yard line, P Jerrel Wilson's punt would go off the side of his foot, giving the Raiders the ball at the Kansas City 25-yard line. Three plays later, a 23-yard scoring grab by WR Warren Wells made the score 14-0. The two teams would exchange punts before Lamonica lofted a 44-yard aerial to Biletnikoff to make the score 21-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Kansas City's offense showed some life to open the second quarter. Dawson hit WR Otis Taylor for a 55-yard gain to put the Chiefs in scoring position, but KC could not crack the end zone on three tries from inside the five-yard line as the club would settle for a 10-yard K Jan Stenerud FG to make the count 21-3.

Two possessions later, the Chiefs got excellent field position at the Oakland 38. A 31-yard pass to WR Ron Pitts moved KC to the seven-yard line, but again the offense couldn't cross the goal line, resulting in an eight-yard Stenerud FG. The Raiders responded with a 54-yard Lamonica-to-Biletnikoff scoring strike to close the first half, giving Oakland a commanding 28-6 advantage.

The Chiefs defense forced a punt on Oakland's first drive of the second half and then held the Raiders out of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the one on their next possession to keep the contest within reach. But KC's offense couldn't put points on the board despite getting deep into Oakland territory twice as a missed 37-yard FG and an interception halted those drives.

The Raiders slammed the door shut in the fourth quarter as Wells caught his second TD of the day and K George Blanda tacked on a pair of FGs to up the Oakland lead to 41-6. Dawson was unable to rally the Chiefs as each of the club's final three possessions ended with interceptions and Oakland advanced to its second straight AFL Championship Game.

1969 AFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 13, Jets 6

December 20, 1969 • Shea Stadium (62,977)

KANSAS CITY	0	3	3	7	—	13
NEW YORK	3	0	0	3	—	6

Kansas City had throttled the Jets in the regular season, but getting a playoff victory against the reigning World Champions would prove much more difficult. The Chiefs defense would rise up for a monumental goal line stand, while the offense would get into the end zone when it mattered most as Kansas City claimed a 13-6 victory.

New York was led by QB Joe Namath, but throwing the ball accurately in the swirling winds of Shea Stadium would prove difficult for the charismatic MVP of Super Bowl III. The Jets passer connected on just 14 of 40 attempts for 164 yards and was picked off three times.

New York got on the board first with a 27-yard K Jim Turner field goal to go up 3-0. QB Len Dawson then started KC's next drive with a 13-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor, a 12-yard connection to TE Fred Arbanas and a 17-yard screen to RB Wendell Hayes. After missing a 47-yard FG on KC's first drive, this time K Jan Stenerud connected on a 23-yard FG to knot the score at 3-3.

Neither club could muster much offense for the remainder of the first half. Stenerud would misfire on a 44-yard kick on KC's only other legitimate scoring shot, leaving the score deadlocked at intermission.

Kansas City's defense would turn up the pressure in the third quarter. CB Emmitt Thomas would register the Chiefs first INT of the day, setting up a 47-yard FG attempt that sailed wide left in the blustery conditions. New York's next possession would be terminated by the first of two interceptions on the day by CB Jim Marsalis. After the Jets were penalized for running into P Jerrel Wilson, a 27-yard pass to Arbanas put KC in New York territory. A 25-yard Stenerud FG then gave the Chiefs a slim, 6-3 advantage.

Namath responded by moving the Jets into scoring position early in the fourth quarter. A pass interference call in the end zone would give the home squad first-and-goal at the one, setting the stage for the biggest goal-line stand in Chiefs history.

RB Matt Snell gained half a yard off right tackle on first down before S Johnny Robinson arrived on the scene, while RB Bill Mathis was stuffed for no gain by LB Willie Lanier on second down. Namath attempted a bootleg on third down, but was hit by LB Jim Lynch and threw the ball away, forcing the Jets to settle for a seven-yard Turner field goal to tie the contest at 6-6.

Dawson and the Chiefs would immediately strike back. A 61-yard bomb to Taylor would set up the game's only TD. WR Gloster Richardson made the biggest grab of his career, hauling in a 19-yard scoring strike from Dawson on the next play. Marsalis would then record his second INT of Namath on the Jets final possession to ensure a tightly-contested 13-6 playoff win, sending Kansas City to the AFL's final title game at Oakland.

SUPER BOWL IV

Chiefs 23, Vikings 7

January 11, 1970 • Tulane Stadium (80,562)

MINNESOTA	0	0	7	0	—	7
KANSAS CITY	3	13	7	0	—	23

Kansas City's finest sports hour concluded at 5:20 in the afternoon of Sunday, January 11, 1970, when the Chiefs defeated the Minnesota Vikings, 23-7, for the World Championship of pro football.

The Chiefs, who finished 11-3 on the season and defeated the N.Y. Jets and Oakland Raiders in the playoffs, closed out their first decade as the winningest team in the American Football League, which, with Super Bowl IV, came to an end. Beginning in '70, the two leagues merged, with the AFL becoming the American Football Conference of the NFL.

Minnesota, a prohibitive favorite, was 12-2 during the regular season and at one point had won 12 games in succession behind a fearsome defense that had allowed an average of just 9.5 points per game. But behind QB Len Dawson — who would earn the game's Most Valuable Player Award — the Chiefs would amass more than enough offense to carry the day.

The Chiefs took an early lead when K Jan Stenerud booted a 48-yard first quarter field goal, a kick that remains as the longest field goal in Chiefs postseason history. He would later follow with field goals of 32 and 25 yards to give Kansas City a 9-0 lead.

Kansas City received the first break in the game when Vikings S Charlie West fumbled a kickoff and G Remi Prudhomme recovered at the Minnesota 19-yard line. After an eight-yard loss, Dawson handed off to RB Wendell Hayes, who rambled for 13 yards up the middle on a draw play. A 10-yard pass to WR Otis Taylor gave the Chiefs a first down at the four. Three plays later, RB Mike Garrett burst off-tackle for a five-yard touchdown, giving Kansas City a 16-0 halftime lead and stunning the Vikings and a nationwide television audience.

Minnesota mounted a mild third-quarter comeback when RB Dave Osborn scored from four yards out to cut the margin to 16-7. But any hopes the Vikings had of getting closer were dashed by Taylor, who lived up to his big-play reputation repeatedly through that season. Dawson hit the Chiefs wideout on a short hitch pattern, and when CB Earsell Mackbee missed the initial tackle, Taylor was loose down the right sideline, high-stepping his way to a 46-yard TD to give the Chiefs a 23-7 lead after three quarters.

As was so often the case in '69, the defense came to the fore. Minnesota had the ball three times in the final period and, as in the Oakland game the previous week, the Chiefs snuffed out all three chances with interceptions. LB Willie Lanier picked off a QB Joe Kapp pass to halt a rally at the Chiefs 34-yard line. Later on, S Johnny Robinson, playing with what turned out to be three broken ribs, grabbed another errant Kapp throw. In the game's closing minutes, CB Emmitt Thomas intercepted his fourth pass of the playoffs. The Chiefs then ran out the clock to capture the AFL's second consecutive Super Bowl triumph.

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 24 (2 OT)

December 25, 1971 • Municipal Stadium (50,374)

MIAMI.....	0	10	7	7	0	3	—	27
KANSAS CITY.....	10	0	7	7	0	0	—	24

The longest game in NFL history signaled the end of a glorious era in Chiefs history as Kansas City and Miami dueled for 82:40 in a double-overtime epic on Christmas Day '71. The final game ever played at Municipal Stadium featured 11 future Hall of Fame players, Hall of Fame head coaches Hank Stram and Don Shula, as well as one of the greatest individual efforts in NFL postseason annals by RB Ed Podolak. But in the end it was the Dolphins who prevailed when K Garo Yepremian's 37-yard FG at 7:40 of the second OT gave Miami a 27-24 victory.

Widely regarded as the finest Chiefs team ever assembled — the '69 Super Bowl IV squad included — Kansas City took a 10-0 lead after the first quarter thanks to a 24-yard FG and a seven-yard TD catch by Podolak. But Miami countered with 10 unanswered points to leave the score deadlocked at halftime.

The unquestioned star of the contest was Podolak, who accounted for an NFL-playoff record 350 combined net yards (85 rushing yards, 110 receiving yards and 153 on kick returns). With the score knotted at 17-17 after three quarters, Podolak capped a 91-yard drive with a three-yard TD run to give the Chiefs a 24-17 lead with 6:46 left in regulation. However, a five-yard pass from QB Bob Griese to TE Marv Fleming put the count at 24-24 with 1:25 remaining in regulation.

Podolak almost ended the game on the ensuing kickoff, but Miami CB Curtis Johnson maintained his angle to make a touchdown-saving tackle at the 22-yard line. With 35 seconds left, K Jan Stenerud's would-be, game-winning 31-yard FG attempt sailed wide right. Miami could not move the ball on its final possession of regulation, sending the game to its first overtime session.

Kansas City won the toss and after taking a lateral from DT Buck Buchanan, Podolak returned the kickoff to the Chiefs 46-yard line. Four plays later, KC was at the Miami 35-yard line as Stenerud lined up for another attempt at a game-winning kick, this time from 42 yards out. But Stenerud's attempt was blocked by LB Nick Buoniconti, giving the Dolphins new life.

Both teams would exchange punts before a 52-yard FG attempt by Yepremian came up short. The first overtime session would come to a close when Dawson was intercepted by Miami S Jake Scott. The Dolphins took over at their own 46 to start overtime number two, but were smothered by Kansas City's fierce defense.

Miami's defense forced the Chiefs to punt, setting up Griese and the Dolphins for one final drive. RB Jim Csonka broke off a 29-yard run to move Miami into KC territory. Four plays later Yepremian ended the NFL's longest day with his 37-yard game-winner. The Dolphins would eventually advance to Super Bowl VI, while the Chiefs would have to wait 15 years before their next postseason appearance after falling in one of the most storied battles in pro football history.

1986 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Jets 35, Chiefs 15

December 28, 1986 • Giants Stadium (69,307)

KANSAS CITY	6	0	0	9	—	15
NEW YORK	7	14	7	7	—	35

Kansas City finished the regular season with a 10-6 record to earn the club's first playoff berth in 15 years, but that adulation would be short-lived. After taking an early lead against the N.Y. Jets, three KC turnovers combined with 135 rushing yards and two scores from New York RB Freeman McNeil led to 28 unanswered points and a 35-15 Jets victory.

The Chiefs only offensive scoring drive of the day came on Kansas City's initial possession when QB Todd Blackledge led Kansas City to paydirt. A pass interference call in the end zone set the stage for a one-yard scoring plunge by RB Jeff Smith. But a missed PAT would begin a downward spiral for the Chiefs, who took a brief 6-0 lead.

Jets head coach Joe Walton then made the biggest call of the game on New York's next drive. Facing fourth-and-six at the Chiefs 33-yard line, Walton kept his offense on the field. QB Pat Ryan faked a pitch to McNeil and took the ball up the gut for a 24-yard gain. Two plays later, McNeil was in the end zone, giving the Jets a lead they would not relinquish.

Disaster would strike on Kansas City's next offensive snap when RB Larry Moriarty had the ball jarred loose after catching a swing pass. LB Kyle Clifton recovered for the Jets. Twelve plays later, a one-yard TD toss to McNeil put the Jets ahead 14-6.

After Kansas City failed to gain a first down on its next two possessions, a 30-yard pass to WR Al Toon put New York in Chiefs territory. Ryan then found Toon kneeling in the end zone for an 11-yard TD on third down to give the Jets a commanding 21-6 advantage with 0:59 left in the second quarter.

New York outgained the Chiefs 191 to 58 after 30 minutes and Kansas City's situation would go from bad to worse on the opening snap of the second half. Blackledge was intercepted by LB Kevin McArthur, who raced down the sideline for a 21-yard score, putting the Jets ahead 28-6 just 13 seconds into the third quarter.

Blackledge would guide the Chiefs to the Jets 15-yard line on KC's next possession, but the club's comeback hopes were effectively over when RB Boyce Green was stuffed on fourth-and-one in the third quarter.

Kansas City's special teams would account for the club's only touchdown of the second half as CB Albert Lewis blocked a Dave Jennings punt and recovered it in the end zone to close the gap to 28-13. A six-yard Ryan TD pass to TE Billy Griggs made it 35-13 before QB Bill Kenney replaced Blackledge in the fourth quarter. Kenney guided Kansas City inside the Jets 10-yard line twice to no avail.

The Chiefs final points of the afternoon came when Jennings stepped out of the end zone for a self-imposed safety to make the final score 35-15 as Kansas City's hopes expired.

Dolphins 17, Chiefs 16

January 5, 1991 • Joe Robbie Stadium (67,276)

KANSAS CITY.....	3	7	6	0	—	16
MIAMI.....	0	3	0	14	—	17

The Chiefs were in control for the majority of their first playoff game since '86, but could not answer a late comeback bid by QB Dan Marino as the Dolphins pulled out a 17-16 victory. Chiefs QB Steve DeBerg — who had guided KC to an 11-5 regular season record — had the club in scoring position, but a 52-yard FG attempt by K Nick Lowery fell just inches short with 0:56 remaining.

Had Kansas City fully capitalized on a number of scoring opportunities earlier in the game, the outcome may have been different. CB Charles Washington blocked a punt on Miami's first possession, setting the Chiefs up at the Dolphins 37-yard line. However, Kansas City would be forced to settle for a 27-yard FG. Miami would answer on its next possession as K Pete Stoyanovich nailed an NFL postseason-record 58-yard FG to even to count at 3-3.

However, Stoyanovich would come up short on a 57-yard attempt later in the second quarter, setting the Chiefs up with good field position. KC capitalized as DeBerg floated a 26-yard scoring aerial to WR Stephone Paige putting the Chiefs ahead 10-7 with 1:54 left in the half. Paige would finish the day with 142 receiving yards, the highest postseason total in team history. Meanwhile, DE Neil Smith — who had 1.5 sacks on the day — preserved the lead by stripping Marino on Miami's next possession.

Kansas City dominated the third quarter, but only managed to extend its lead to 16-3. Poised with second-and-goal at the Miami three-yard line, DeBerg was flagged for intentional grounding and the club settled for a 25-yard FG. S Deron Cherry blasted the ball loose from WR Mark Duper on Miami's next play, giving KC the ball at the Dolphins 29-yard line. But once again, the Chiefs could not strike paydirt and would leave Miami territory with only a 38-yard Lowery FG to show for their efforts.

Marino then began his comeback bid. A 10-play, 66-yard march culminated with a one-yard TD loss to FB Tony Paige as the Dolphins moved the count to 16-10. After a 33-yard connection between DeBerg and WR Emile Harry moved KC back into Miami territory, the Chiefs were forced to punt, setting up the Dolphins go-ahead drive which began with a key, 37-yard pass over the middle to TE Ferrell Edmunds. Marino then capped the march with a six-yard TD pass to WR Mark Clayton that was nearly intercepted by CB Albert Lewis as the Dolphins took their first lead of the game at 17-16 with 3:28 remaining in the fourth quarter.

A 20-yard pass to Paige and a 26-yard run by RB Christian Okoye helped put the Chiefs at the Miami 26-yard at the 2:00 warning. A controversial holding call on G Dave Szott nullified a 12-yard Okoye run on the next play, halting the club's momentum and setting the stage for Lowery's final field goal attempt, which came tantalizingly close to the crossbar.

Chiefs 10, Raiders 6

December 28, 1991 • Arrowhead Stadium (75,827)

LOS ANGELES	0	3	3	0	—	6
KANSAS CITY	0	7	0	3	—	10

It took 19 years, but the Chiefs finally had an opportunity to officially christen Arrowhead Stadium with a playoff game. And fittingly, that contest came against Kansas City's most heated rival, the Raiders. The Chiefs had defeated the Raiders 27-21 just six days earlier at the L.A. Coliseum in the season's final regular season game for the right to play at home in the first week of the postseason. Kansas City made the most of that opportunity by recording a 10-6 win over the Raiders, the club's first playoff victory since Super Bowl IV.

The Chiefs recipe for success was a familiar one — solid defense and a bruising ground game. Kansas City's defense forced six turnovers and limited the Silver and Black to just two field goals, while RB Barry Word pummeled the Raiders with 33 carries for a team postseason-record 130 yards.

Word pounded away at the Raiders all day, a trend that began early. Kansas City won the toss and consumed 11:56 off the clock, thanks to a drive that featured 12 runs by Word. The Chiefs drove as deep as the 15-yard line, but K Nick Lowery's 33-yard FG was wide left, leaving the scoreboard empty.

S Deron Cherry registered the first of his two INTs on the game on the Raiders first possession. QB Todd Marinovich would be picked off four times by the KC defense and his first errant throw would give Kansas City possession at the Raiders 24-yard line. But again, Lowery would misfire, this time on a 47-yard FG attempt.

A wild barrage of turnovers then ensued. Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas stripped Marinovich, but QB Steve DeBerg promptly threw an INT on KC's next possession. After a Raiders punt, RB Harvey Williams put the ball on the ground for Kansas City, but Cherry registered another INT which he returned to the 11-yard line. DeBerg would hit WR Fred Jones for the game's only touchdown on the next play as the Chiefs took a 7-0 lead.

Raiders RB Nick Bell finished the game with 107 ground yards and was the club's primary weapon on a 10-play, 65-yard drive that ended with a 32-yard K Jeff Jaeger FG that closed the gap to 7-3 just before intermission.

The first half passing numbers for both squads were equally unimpressive. Marinovich completed just three passes for 47 yards, while DeBerg hit on seven passes for 71 yards. Wisely, both clubs turned to the ground game in the second half. The Raiders gave the ball to Bell eight times on their initial possession of the third quarter, but would have to settle for a 26-yard FG to close the gap to 7-6.

Kansas City then capitalized on a Raiders fumble by handing the ball to Word nine times on a 13-play drive that netted an 18-yard FG to make the score 10-6 early in the fourth quarter. The Chiefs would pick off Marinovich on each of the Raiders final two drives to seal the franchise's first-ever home playoff victory.

Bills 37, Chiefs 14

January 5, 1992 • Rich Stadium (80,182)

KANSAS CITY.....	0	0	7	7	—	14
BUFFALO.....	7	10	7	13	—	37

Kansas City was coming off its first postseason victory since Super Bowl IV, but that triumph proved quite irrelevant as Buffalo pounded the Chiefs into submission early in a 37-14 win. The Bills raced out to a 17-0 halftime lead and salted the game away behind RBs Thurman Thomas and Kenneth Davis who combined for 41 carries and 175 rushing yards. Defensively, Buffalo picked off back-up QB Marc Vlasic four times and held the Chiefs to just 213 yards of total offense as the Bills marched to their second straight AFC Championship Game.

After both teams traded a pair of punts to open the game, QB Jim Kelly hit a pair of completions to WR Don Beebe to put the Bills in scoring position and then fired a 25-yard pass to WR Andre Reed to give Buffalo a 7-0 advantage. Kansas City caught the game's first break when CB Eric Everett picked off Kelly early in the second quarter. But the Chiefs offense would go three-and-out. Four plays later, Kelly found Reed for a 53-yard scoring strike to make the count 14-0. Despite throwing three INTs himself, Kelly would finish the contest with 273 passing yards and three TDs.

S Deron Cherry picked off Kelly on Buffalo's next possession, but again, the Chiefs could not capitalize. The Bills would tack on a 33-yard K Scott Norwood field goal to end the first half with a 17-0 lead.

The second half wouldn't start much better for Kansas City. RB Harvey Williams fumbled on the club's first snap of the third quarter, but TE Jonathan Hayes would recover. The Chiefs wouldn't be as fortunate on the next play as Vlasic — who entered the game in the second quarter when starting QB Steve DeBerg was knocked out of the game with a hand injury — suffered the first of four second-half interceptions. Buffalo took over on the Chiefs 36-yard line and six plays later Kelly had the Bills ahead 24-0 after finding WR James Lofton for a 10-yard TD.

Vlasic would be picked off again on the Chiefs next drive, but LB Lonnie Marts returned the favor with an interception of his own to give Kansas City a ray of hope late in the third quarter. This time the Chiefs would get on the board as RB Barry Word bulled into the end zone from three yards out to cut the margin to 24-7.

Thomas and Davis took it from there as the Bills methodically began grinding down the clock. After a Buffalo FG made it 27-7, Vlasic was picked off twice on his next three attempts. The Bills would turn those two miscues into 10 points as Buffalo took a commanding 37-7 lead with 4:57 left in the game.

Vlasic would hit WR Fred Jones on a 20-yard TD with 2:07 remaining to make it 37-14, but was too little, too late as Buffalo recovered KC's onside kick attempt and ran out the clock, ending the Chiefs postseason aspirations.

1992 AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF GAME

Chargers 17, Chiefs 0

January 2, 1993 • Jack Murphy Stadium (58,278)

SAN DIEGO	0	0	10	7	—	17

Kansas City had defeated San Diego twice during the '92 regular season. However, that mattered little to the Chargers, who promptly dispatched the Chiefs from the playoffs by a 17-0 margin, marking the only shutout KC has ever suffered in postseason play.

The two sides bludgeoned one another throughout a scoreless first half, but early on it appeared the game may feature its share of offensive fireworks. San Diego QB Stan Humphries hit WR Nate Lewis for a 39-yard gain on the game's first play from scrimmage. Then, after a pair of penalties, the Chargers were knocking on the door. But DE Neil Smith fell on a San Diego fumble at the 13-yard line to halt the scoring threat.

The Chiefs couldn't mount a serious scoring threat in the first half and couldn't move past the San Diego 40-yard line on their first five possessions. The Chargers didn't fare much better with only a fumble, a punt and a missed 52-yard FG to show on three trips into Kansas City territory. Still, San Diego did hold a slight 130-to-122 edge in total yardage heading into halftime.

Kansas City's offensive struggles continued in the second half, as the club punted on its first two possessions. San Diego then broke the stalemate midway through the third quarter when the team's battering ram — RB Marion Butts — burst into the secondary en route to a 54-yard score, giving the Chargers a 7-0 lead. Butts finished the game with 15 carries for 119 yards.

Things went downhill from there for the Chiefs. On Kansas City's next offensive play, QB Dave Krieg had a pass tipped by DE Blaise Winter. Fellow DE Leslie O'Neal picked off the ball at the KC 29-yard line, setting up a 34-yard FG from K John Carney to give San Diego a 10-0 advantage.

While Kansas City's defense was good, forcing 5.0 sacks — including 1.5 by LB Derrick Thomas — San Diego's defense was even better, harassing Krieg all day and finishing the game with 7.0 sacks. Krieg got the Chiefs into Chargers territory on each of the next two drives, but was sacked 3.0 times on those two series, stifling any scoring possibilities.

San Diego then delivered an offensive blow on its next possession. Behind a steady diet of RB Eric Biemiemy, the Chargers mounted an 11-play, 91-yard drive that ate 5:32 off the clock. H-back Steve Hendrickson got a rare carry and bulled his way into the end zone from five yards out to give the home team a 17-0 lead with 4:57 left in the fourth quarter.

The knockout punch quickly followed when Chargers DT Shawn Lee stripped Krieg on Kansas City's next possession. San Diego recovered and took over with 3:52 remaining. The Chiefs would get the ball back one last time, but the results were the same as they had been all day as San Diego sacked Krieg one last time and secured a 17-0 victory.

Chiefs 27, Steelers 24 (OT)

January 8, 1994 • Arrowhead Stadium (74,515)

PITTSBURGH	7	10	0	7	0	—	24
KANSAS CITY	7	0	3	14	3	—	27

It took an extra session to settle the score in the initial postseason match-up between Kansas City and Pittsburgh, but the Chiefs would eventually prevail, 27-24. A blocked punt and the last-minute heroics of QB Joe Montana — who was making his first playoff appearance with Kansas City — helped the Chiefs send the game to overtime where K Nick Lowery's 32-yard FG was the difference in the franchise's first OT playoff contest since the '62 AFL Championship Game.

Pittsburgh head coach Bill Cowher had previously served as both a player and assistant coach under Marty Schottenheimer before taking over the fortunes of the Steelers. Early on, the pupil appeared to have the upper hand as Pittsburgh held a 17-7 halftime lead thanks to a pair of TD passes from QB Neil O'Donnell. WR Andre Cooper hauled one in from 10 yards out and WR Ernie Mills caught a 26-yarder with just 0:18 left in the first half.

Kansas City's lone score of the first half came when QB Dave Krieg — who made a brief appearance for an injured Montana — delivered a 23-yard TD completion to WR J.J. Birden in the first quarter. A 23-yard FG in the third quarter would cut the Pittsburgh lead to 17-10, setting the stage for a fantastic finish.

Montana guided the squad on a nine-play, 80-yard drive to open the quarter, culminating with a two-yard TD trot by RB Marcus Allen, who was also making his initial postseason appearance with the Red and Gold. With the score tied at 17-17, O'Donnell answered with a nine-play, 74-yard drive, hitting TE Eric Green for a 22-yard score to put Pittsburgh back ahead with 4:11 left in regulation.

After KC went three-and-out on its next possession, the Steelers had a chance to run out the clock when they got the ball back with 3:00 remaining. However, the Chiefs defense would hold, setting the stage for Kansas City's special teams to swing the momentum back in favor of the home squad. TE Keith Cash swatted down P Mark Royals' punt, which was recovered by WR Fred Jones who returned the ball to the Pittsburgh nine-yard line.

Facing fourth-and-goal from the seven with 1:48 left, the ever-cool Montana found WR Tim Barnett in the back of the end zone to even the count at 24-24. KC's defense would force Pittsburgh three-and-out once again, giving Montana and the Chiefs one final shot in regulation, but a 43-yard FG attempt from Lowery sailed wide right with 0:13 remaining, sending the game to overtime.

Kansas City won the toss, but was unable to move the ball. Pittsburgh got to midfield before it was forced to punt, setting up one final drive by Montana. After starting on their own 20-yard line, KC moved to midfield and was deep in Pittsburgh territory after Montana hit Cash on an 18-yard strike. Five plays later, Lowery took the field on third down and drove the game-winning 32-yard FG through the uprights with 3:57 showing on the clock.

- STEELERS — Cooper, 10-yard pass from O'Donnell (Anderson kick) (9-66, 5:00).
- CHIEFS — Birden, 23-yard pass from Krieg (Lowery kick) (7-75, 2:21).

1993 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Chiefs 28, Oilers 20

January 16, 1994 • Astrodome (64,011)

KANSAS CITY	0	0	7	21	—	28
HOUSTON	10	0	0	10	—	20

Kansas City pulled a huge upset over heavily-favored Houston to advance to its first-ever AFC Championship Game with a 28-20 victory at the Astrodome. The contest marked the Chiefs first road playoff win since claiming a 17-7 triumph at Oakland in the '69 AFL Championship Game.

Houston was the NFL's hottest team heading into the playoffs, owning 11 consecutive wins to close the regular season and showed no signs of cooling down after jumping out to a 10-0 lead in the first quarter over the Chiefs. An interception by CB Steve Jackson on KC's first drive set up a 49-yard FG by K Al Del Greco, while an 11-play, 80-yard Oilers scoring march was capped by a two-yard RB Gary Brown TD run.

Houston's defense had proclaimed the Astrodome as "The House of Pain," but it was Kansas City's defense which began to inflict some damage, registering three sacks and forcing three fumbles in the second quarter alone. While the Chiefs offense couldn't capitalize, it would be a sign of things to come. Kansas City finished the game with a team playoff-record 9.0 sacks and seven forced fumbles, including a pair of sacks apiece by CB Albert Lewis, LB Derrick Thomas, S Bennie Thompson and DT Joe Phillips. Thomas and DE Neil Smith each had two forced fumbles, as well.

The Chiefs finally got on the board in the third quarter when QB Joe Montana threw a seven-yard TD pass to TE Keith Cash, who emphatically spiked the ball into a banner bestowed with the likeness of Oilers defensive coordinator Buddy Ryan. But Cash's exclamation point was nothing compared to the mayhem that would ensue in the fourth quarter.

Another interception by Houston led to a 43-yard FG that put the Oilers ahead 13-7. But the Chiefs grabbed their first lead of the day just three plays later with an 11-yard TD catch by WR J.J. Birden. On the Oilers next play from scrimmage, Thomas unleashed his patented sack-and-strip maneuver on Moon with Chiefs DT Dan Saleaumua scooping up the loose ball at the Houston 20-yard line. This time Montana—who finished the contest with 299 yards—found WR Willie Davis for an 18-yard TD to push the Chiefs advantage to 21-13.

But the Oilers wouldn't go away. Moon—who compiled 306 yards on the day—promptly responded with a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Ernest Givins to pull Houston to within 21-20. Kansas City would produce a one-two knockout combination on its next drive. Cash snared a 41-yard pass from Montana on a third-and-one situation from the KC 30-yard line. Then faced with third-and-two at the Houston 21-yard line, RB Marcus Allen burst through the middle of the line for a 21-yard TD dash to make the score 28-20.

A final sack from Thomas would all but seal the Oilers fate as the Chiefs turned "The House of Pain" into a house of horrors for Houston in the final NFL postseason game ever played in the Astrodome.

1993 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Bills 30, Chiefs 13

January 23, 1994 • Rich Stadium (76,642)

KANSAS CITY.....	6	0	7	0	—	13
BUFFALO.....	7	13	0	10	—	30

The Chiefs knew that they had to stop the run in order to dethrone the reigning three-time AFC Champion Buffalo Bills on their home turf. Unfortunately, the 229 rushing yards amassed by the Bills provided all that was necessary in a 30-13 AFC Championship Game setback at Rich Stadium. Although the Chiefs were outgained by just 51 yards (389 to 338), they allowed RB Thurman Thomas to gain 186 of Buffalo's 229 rushing yards.

Kansas City was in uncharted territory as the club was playing in its first-ever AFC title game and vying for its first Super Bowl appearance since '69, while the Bills were playing in an unprecedented fourth straight AFC Championship Game.

Neither team's offense was able to move the ball effectively at the start of the first quarter. Midway through the frame, though, Thomas would start to get on track as his easy 12-yard TD scamper gave the Bills a 7-0 lead.

But Kansas City would answer. QB Joe Montana orchestrated a 10-play, 52-yard drive that culminated with a 31-yard FG by K Nick Lowery. S Bennie Thompson then forced Bills WR Russell Copeland to fumble on the ensuing kickoff, WR Fred Jones scooped up the loose ball, setting the stage for another 31-yard FG to cut Buffalo's lead to one as the first quarter came to a close.

The second quarter was all Buffalo as the club scored on three straight possessions, getting a three-yard TD run from Thomas and FGs of 23 and 25 yards from K Steve Christie. The Chiefs had a chance to cut into the lead as the half ended, but a pass by Montana slipped through the hands of FB Kimble Anders, stationed in the end zone, and into the waiting arms of Buffalo S Henry Jones. The Bills took a 20-6 lead into the half as Thomas had already amassed 129 rushing yards.

The Chiefs got the ball to open the second half, but three plays into the third quarter Montana was slammed to the turf by S Matt Darby and LB Darryl Talley, suffering a concussion on the play. Montana was sidelined for the remainder of a very chilly afternoon as QB Dave Krieg came off the bench.

With 2:58 left in the third quarter, Kansas City shaved the Bills lead to seven points with a 14-play, 90-yard drive that culminated in a one-yard plunge by RB Marcus Allen. But Buffalo countered with an 18-yard FG and a three-yard TD run by Thomas to make the count 30-13.

Kansas City's last legitimate comeback hope evaporated when Krieg was picked off at the goal line by CB James Williams with 3:23 left. Krieg would get the club as close as the Buffalo one-yard line on the Chiefs final drive, but it would not matter as time expired on Kansas City and its Super Bowl aspirations.

Dolphins 27, Chiefs 17

December 31, 1994 • Joe Robbie Stadium (67,487)

KANSAS CITY.....	14	3	0	0	—	17
MIAMI.....	7	10	10	0	—	27

In a game that proved to be the final contest of QB Joe Montana's legendary career, the Chiefs signal-caller provided a dramatic first-half showdown with fellow Western Pennsylvania native, Dolphins QB Dan Marino. But after these two legendary passers dueled to a 17-17 halftime tie, Miami pulled away in the second half behind Marino for a 27-17 victory.

The Chiefs outgained Miami by a 414-to-381 margin in total yardage, but a pair of second-half turnovers and a staunch Dolphins defense was too much to overcome. Neither club was able to mount a substantial pass rush as Chiefs LB Derrick Thomas recorded the game's only sack in his hometown return.

Both quarterbacks were nearly flawless in the first 30 minutes as Montana completed 12 of 15 passes for 178 yards and two TDs, while Marino hit on 14 of 16 attempts for 162 yards and one score as the two squads each scored on their first three possessions.

Montana started the shootout by guiding an exquisite 11-play, 80-yard drive that was capped with a one-yard play-action TD toss to TE Derrick Walker. Marino immediately answered with a nearly-identical, 10-play, 72-yard march that ended with a one-yard plunge by RB Bernie Parmalee to tie the score at 7-7.

KC struck quickly on its next possession as Montana found FB Kimble Anders on a 67-yard screen pass that hit paydirt. The two clubs then traded field goals before Marino produced a monster, 13-play, 80-yard drive that consumed 5:50 off the clock. A one-yard TD pass to TE Ronnie Williams with 0:22 remaining in the second quarter ended an exquisite half of football with the score deadlocked at 17-17.

Marino picked up right where he left off on the opening possession of the second half, putting the Dolphins ahead 24-17 on a seven-yard scoring strike to WR Irving Fryar. But this time the Chiefs and Montana could not answer, going three-and-out on their next two drives. Meanwhile, Miami latched on a 40-yard FG from K Pete Stoyanovich to go up 27-17.

The Dolphins defense then clamped down in the fourth quarter. CB J.B. Brown picked off a Montana pass in the end zone to thwart a golden scoring opportunity, while S Michael Stewart forced a rare fumble by RB Marcus Allen as KC crossed into Miami territory on its next possession.

Miami was then content to grind it out on the ground, consuming over five minutes off the clock before the Chiefs could regain possession. Montana managed to get Kansas City as close as the Dolphins 19-yard line before his final professional pass fell incomplete on fourth down as he attempted to find WR Willie Davis. He finished the game with 314 yards on 26-of-37 passing with two TDs and one INT, while Marino ended the day by completing 22 of 29 attempts for 257 yards with two TD passes and no INTs.

Colts 10, Chiefs 7

January 7, 1996 • Arrowhead Stadium (77,594)

INDIANAPOLIS	0	7	3	0	—	10
KANSAS CITY	7	0	0	0	—	7

Frigid conditions, four turnovers and three missed field goals contributed to one of the most shocking upsets in Chiefs history as Kansas City (13-3) suffered a 10-7 loss to Indianapolis (9-7) at Arrowhead.

A kickoff temperature of 11 degrees and a wind chill of -9 seemingly did little to faze the dome-dwelling Colts. Indianapolis didn't lose any of its four fumbles and despite missing two field goals, it still made one when it counted as Kansas City squandered a solid effort from its league-leading scoring defense and 94 rushing yards from Marcus Allen, the fourth-best total in KC playoff history.

The Chiefs got off to a promising start, putting together a five-play, 62-yard TD drive on their third possession of the game. That march culminated with a 20-yard scoring pass from QB Steve Bono to WR Lake Dawson to give Kansas City its only score of the day and a 7-0 lead.

Colts QB Jim Harbaugh then made arguably the biggest play of the game on Indianapolis' next possession. Facing third-and-11 at his own 22-yard line, Harbaugh scrambled for an 18-yard gain. The Colts would convert six times on either third or fourth down on the drive, including a five-yard TD catch by WR Floyd Turner on third down which capped an 18-play, 77-yard drive that ate 8:40 off the clock and tied the count at 7-7.

Indianapolis K Cary Blanchard was short on a 47-yard FG after a KC fumble. Chiefs K Lin Elliott had a shot to put his team ahead with 0:12 left in the first half, but he was wide right from 35 yards out as the contest remained tied at halftime.

Kansas City boasted an NFL-best +12 turnover differential during the regular season and forced its only takeaway of the day when CB Mark Collins picked off Harbaugh. But just two plays later, Bono was intercepted by CB Ashley Ambrose, setting up a 30-yard FG to put the Colts ahead 10-7 with 2:48 left in the third quarter.

KC's defense kept it close in the final 15 minutes, but it was not enough. Elliott was wide right on a 39-yard FG to open the fourth quarter and Bono was picked off by LB Quentin Coryatt on the Chiefs next possession. KC still appeared to have a shot when Blanchard's 49-yard FG fell short with 5:44 left in the game, but three plays later Bono was picked off by CB Eugene Daniel. However, the Chiefs defense held once again, setting the stage for one final drive with 4:12 remaining in the contest.

QB Rich Gannon came in relief of Bono and took over at the Chiefs 18-yard line. He methodically moved the club downfield, converting three third downs, including a 14-yard scramble that put Kansas City at the Colts 25-yard line with 0:56 left. Gannon narrowly missed WR Lake Dawson in the end zone on third down, setting the stage for a final field goal attempt by Elliott from 42 yards out. But the kick sailed wide left as Indianapolis claimed a 10-7 victory and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

- CHIEFS — Dawson, 20-yard pass from Bono (Elliott kick) (5-62, 2:28).
COLTS — Turner, 5-yard pass from Harbaugh (Blanchard kick) (18-77, 8:40).
COLTS — Blanchard, 30-yard FG (9-35, 4:35).

1997 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Broncos 14, Chiefs 10

January 4, 1998 • Arrowhead Stadium (76,965)

DENVER.....	0	7	0	7	—	14
KANSAS CITY.....	0	0	10	0	—	10

The two teams with the AFC's best regular season records squared off as Kansas City (13-3) and Denver (12-4) met for the first time in postseason play. The Chiefs boasted the NFL's top scoring defense (14.5 ppg), while the Broncos owned the league's number one scoring offense (29.5 ppg). But it was Denver that claimed a 14-10 victory in what would be the final contest of RB Marcus Allen's storied Hall of Fame career.

Kansas City outgained Denver by 303 to 272 total yards and held a +2 edge in the turnover column, but an inability to put points on the board in several key situations cost the Chiefs a chance to host the AFC Championship Game. After the two teams battled through a scoreless first quarter, KC appeared to get on the board first, but was flagged for holding on a 34-yard FG by K Pete Stoyanovich, who had missed just one FG during the regular season. However, Stoyanovich's ensuing 44-yard attempt went wide left to leave the count at 0-0.

Denver QB John Elway then marched the Broncos on an eight-play, 65-yard scoring drive that culminated with a one-yard TD run by RB Terrell Davis, who would finish the game with 25 carries for 101 yards. KC could not get back into scoring range, as the Broncos took a 7-0 lead into the intermission.

Chiefs QB Elvis Grbac opened the second half with a 34-yard pass to WR Andre Rison, who finished the day with 110 receiving yards, the third-highest total in Chiefs postseason history. The game's most pivotal sequence would follow. Facing third-and-goal at the Denver three, Grbac connected with rookie TE Tony Gonzalez, who appeared to be forced out of the end zone by Broncos CB Darrien Gordon. However, the play was ruled an incompleteness, forcing the Chiefs to settle for a 20-yard FG to cut the gap to 7-3.

With Denver poised at the Kansas City 11-yard line on its next drive, Chiefs DE John Browning forced a fumble by RB Derek Loville to thwart a Broncos scoring opportunity. After both squads exchanged punts, Grbac found WR Joe Horn on a 50-yard strike to set up a 12-yard TD pass to Gonzalez, giving the Chiefs a short-lived 10-7 advantage. However, Davis found paydirt from one-yard out on the Broncos ensuing drive to retake the lead at 14-10.

KC got as deep as the Denver 31-yard line on its next possession and lined up in field goal formation on fourth-and-six, but holder P Louie Aguiar ran with the ball and was tackled three yards short of a first down. Kansas City began its last possession with 4:04 left. Grbac found Rison for a 23-yard gain to move KC to the Broncos 28 with 1:51 left as the Chiefs used their final time out. Facing fourth-and-two at the Denver 20-yard line with 0:19 remaining, Grbac's final pass into the end zone was batted down as Gordon as Denver held on to claim the 14-10 victory.

- BRONCOS — T. Davis, 1-yard run (Elam kick) (8-65, 4:51).
- CHIEFS — Stoyanovich, 20-yard FG (11-67, 5:18).
- CHIEFS — Gonzalez, 12-yard pass from Grbac (Stoyanovich kick) (4-65, 1:35).

2003 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF GAME

Colts 38, Chiefs 31

January 11, 2004 • Arrowhead Stadium (79,159)

INDIANAPOLIS	14	7	10	7	—	38
KANSAS CITY	3	7	14	7	—	31

The NFL's top two scoring offenses and two of the game's brightest stars battled in an offensive shootout at Arrowhead in which Indianapolis prevailed by a 38-31 margin. RB Priest Holmes finished the game with a Chiefs single-game postseason record 176 rushing yards and tied a club playoff record with two rushing TDs. Colts QB Peyton Manning was just as good, throwing for 304 yards with three scores and posting an impeccable 138.8 rating.

In a game that featured no punts, just one turnover and only five total penalties, Manning's nearly-perfect performance kept the Colts one step ahead of Kansas City all afternoon. It marked just the third time in NFL postseason history that neither team was forced to punt and was the first time it had occurred since the '82 NFL Playoffs. Kansas City would draw within seven points three times in the second half, but Manning always had an answer.

Manning, the NFL's Co-MVP, opened the game with a 29-yard TD pass to WR Brandon Stokley. Kansas City would answer with a 22-yard field goal from Morten Andersen when Holmes was stopped on third-and-goal from the three. However, Manning and company kept the pressure on with an 11-yard TD run from RB Edgerrin James for a 14-3 lead.

The Chiefs rallied back as Green found WR Dante Hall on a nine-yard TD, cutting the deficit to 14-10. However, the Colts put together another impressive march, as Manning again capped it with a two-yard TD strike to FB Tom Lopienski for a 21-10 lead.

The scoring torrent finally abated as the Chiefs failed to score on their final first-half possession, thanks to a 31-yard touchdown that was called back on an offensive pass interference call on TE Tony Gonzalez and a missed 31-yard field goal.

Holmes ripped off a 48-yard dash on the second play of the third quarter, but had the ball ripped loose by CB David Macklin who recovered the fumble at the Colts 22-yard line. Indianapolis would cash the turnover in with a 45-yard FG from K Mike Vanderjagt for a 24-10 lead.

Holmes would exact revenge on the Chiefs next drive as he accounted for 44 yards rushing and a one-yard TD dive. After a Manning-to-Reggie Wayne TD pass boosted the Colts margin to 31-17 late in the third quarter, WR Dante Hall responded by returning the ensuing kickoff 92 yards for his second TD of the game. Hall's 208 kickoff return yards on the day set a Chiefs single-game postseason record and were the third-highest total in NFL postseason history.

Indianapolis would answer with a one-yard TD from James, building an insurmountable 38-24 lead. The Chiefs made it interesting though as Holmes scored on a one-yard TD run with 4:22 remaining to make the score 38-31. But Kansas City's defense couldn't get the ball back until just 0:08 remained on the clock, leaving the Chiefs out of time for a comeback.

Notes: The Chiefs All-Time Roster includes all players who were on the active roster for at least one regular season game or playoff contest. It also includes players who accrued at least one season as a member of a reserve or injury list. The one exception to this criteria is Stone Johnson, who had his number 33 retired after suffering a fatal injury in a '63 preseason contest. Jersey numbers refer to those numbers worn only in regular season or postseason play.

Notes: No assistant coaches were designated as coordinators during Hank Stram's tenure as head coach from 1960-74. The first assistants in Chiefs history to hold the title of coordinator or special teams coach came under head coach Paul Wiggin in '75. Although subsequent staffs did not always specifically denote coordinators, every attempt has been made to indicate the offensive and defensive play-callers if it was an individual other than the head coach. Beginning with Frank Gansz's staff in '87, three separate individuals have carried the titles of offensive and defensive coordinator, as well as special teams coach each subsequent season.

NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award is the only NFL award that recognizes a player's off-the-field community service, as well as his playing excellence. Four Chiefs players have won this prestigious accolade since its inception in '70, a total matched only by the Chicago Bears. Every year, the accomplishments of the 32 finalists for the Walter Payton Man of the Year award – one from each NFL team – are reviewed by a blue-ribbon panel that includes Commissioner Paul Tagliabue, former NFL greats, the previous season's Man of the Year winner, as well as Connie Payton, widow of Walter Payton, whose honor the award was renamed after in '99. G Will Shields became the latest member of the Chiefs to earn this honor. His "Will to Succeed Foundation" was presented with a $25,000 impact grant from the NFL for his efforts. Man of the Year honorees receive the distinctive Gladiator statue, an original art creation by the noted sculptor, Daniel Schwartz. All four Chiefs winners are pictured being presented with the Gladiator statue by Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt.

Willie Lanier (1972) – Following his selection as the '72 Man of the Year, five $4,000 college scholarships were presented in Lanier's name ... Was actively involved in a campaign to prevent drug abuse and attended the President's Drug Abuse Council in Washington, D.C. in '71 ... "Drugs are one of the worst things that could happen to a potential genius or a mind of someone who could offer a lot to society," Lanier said in '72 ... Played a prominent role with the American Cancer Society in Kansas City and was Chairman of a $100,000 capital campaign for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Kansas City ... Has awarded $375,000 in scholarships to public school students in Richmond, Virginia dating back to '86.

Len Dawson (1973) – Selected by a vote of NFL fans as the '73 Man of the Year ... Said Dawson at the time, "If we have the opportunity, we can't turn our backs on people. We can do two things with children – help them or hinder them. I want to help." ... Was actively involved in numerous charitable endeavors, including the March of Dimes and the Missouri Driving Safety Program ... Served as the '72 Missouri Chairman for the "I Quit" anti-smoking campaign sponsored by the American Cancer Society ... Was also a longtime chairman of the Chiefs Huddle Club which sponsored various youth activities ... Every year since '77 he has awarded the "Len Dawson Scholarship" to a Kansas City area high school senior.

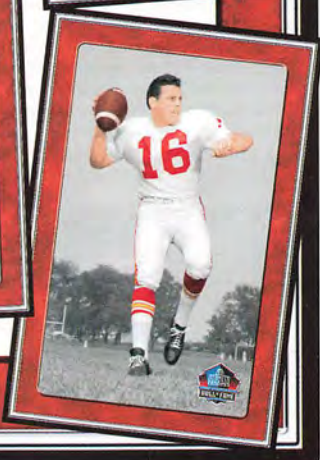

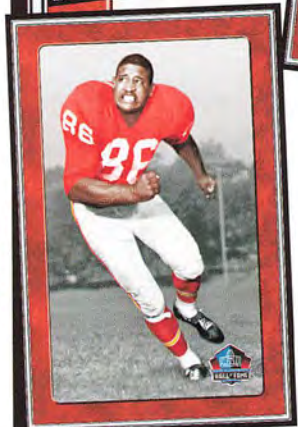

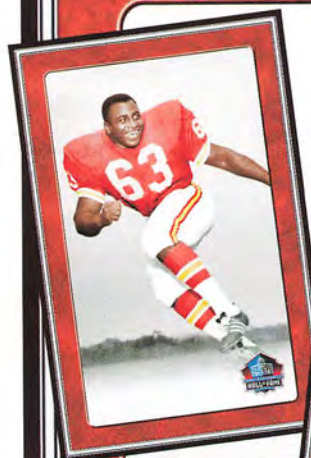

Derrick Thomas (1993) – Through his "Third and Long Foundation" helped promote children's literacy in Kansas City ... Started an inner-city reading program and read to children at local libraries each Saturday prior to home games ... Was designated by President George H.W. Bush as the "832nd point of light" ... Also selected as the winner of the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award in '95 by the NFL Players Association ... Thomas' father Air Force Captain Robert Thomas was shot down on a B-52 mission in Vietnam, leading Thomas to become an avid supporter of veterans and military personnel. He was the recipient of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall of Fame Award in '99.

Will Shields (2003) – Formed the "Will to Succeed Foundation" with his wife Senia in '93. To date, the foundation has benefited more than 90,000 individuals ... Primary foundation beneficiaries include children's agencies, centers for abused and neglected women and children ... The foundation also promotes literacy and creativity initiatives ... Was the inaugural winner of Pro Football Weekly's Arthur S. Arkush Humanitarian Award in '99 and was named the 2001 NFL Good Guy of the Year by The Sporting News ... The Shields are also members of the Mid-America Education Hall of Fame and were the first NFL couple recognized for their charitable efforts by The Citizenship Through Sports Alliance.

THE LAMAR HUNT TROPHY

The Lamar Hunt Trophy is presented annually to the winner of the American Football Conference Championship Game. The trophy, which was designed by Don Weller, features a bas-relief action frieze developed by Merv Comling. It has a black walnut wood base with an engraved bronze faceplate. The AFC monogram is cast in bronze with a high-gloss front and back and a soft satin finish on the top and sides.

The frieze is a classic football action cast in heavy silver plate. The trophy was authorized by NFL club presidents in '83 and was first presented to Miami following the '84 season.

DAWSON

Purdue

Free Agent (1962)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1979)

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1987)

Heart and soul of the Texans/Chiefs franchise during his illustrious career ... Presented by Hank Stram during Canton enshrinement ceremonies on August 8, 1987 ... During his tenure as the team's field general, he helped make the Chiefs one of pro football's premier teams and wound up among the elite passers in the game's history ... Under his guidance, the Chiefs were perennial contenders and won the AFL Championships in '62, '66 and '69 ... Was MVP of Super Bowl IV when he directed Kansas City to a 23-7 win over the heavily-favored Minnesota Vikings ... Won the AFL passing title four times and still holds Chiefs career marks for pass attempts (3,696), completions (2,115), passing yards (28,507) and touchdowns (237) ... Started his pro career as a first-round draft pick of Pittsburgh in '57, then landed with Cleveland before being cut by the Browns on June 12, 1962 ... Was signed by the Texans as a free agent on July 2, 1962 ... Named to six AFL All-Star teams and one Pro Bowl squad ('72) ... Named AFL Player of the Year in '62 ... Started 158 regular season games for Kansas City, by far the most of any signal-caller in franchise history ... Led the AFL in passing four different seasons ('62, '64, '66 and '68) ... Paced the AFL in completion percentage eight times, including a string of six straight seasons from '64-'69, the longest streak in NFL history ... Named the '73 NFL Man of the Year as pro football's outstanding player-citizen ... Retired on May 1, 1976 ... Was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in '94 ... Led the Big Ten in passing and total offense for three seasons at Purdue ... Does color commentary on the Chiefs Fox Football Radio Network and is the sports anchor at KMBC-TV in Kansas City ... Buck BUCHANAN

Defensive Tackle • 1963-1975

Grambling

Draft (No. 1 - 1963)

Chiefs Hall of Fame (1981)

Pro Football Hall of Fame (1990)

Became the third member of the Chiefs feared defense of the '60s and '70s to enter the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he was presented by Hank Stram on August 4, 1990 ... The first overall selection in the '63 AFL Draft, the pick utilized to select Buchanan was acquired in the only trade ever personally orchestrated by Lamar Hunt as the Texans sent QB Cotton Davidson to Oakland ... The Raiders later drafted Hall of Fame G Gene Upshaw in '67 with the express purpose of blocking Buchanan, who became the prototype for future pro defensive linemen ... Combined perfect size (6-7, 270) with outstanding strength and deceptive speed (10.2 in the 100) ... Worked briefly as a defensive end during his rookie campaign before becoming a fixture at right defensive tackle ... Helped Kansas City win two AFL crowns and their only Super Bowl following the '69 season ... Had an eight-year stretch where he either went to the AFL All-Star game or the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl ... Was a unanimous All-AFL pick from '66-69 ... His teammates named him Chiefs MVP in '65 and '67 ... In '67 alone he batted down 16 passes at or behind the line of scrimmage ... Played in 182 career regular season games, including a stretch of 166 in a row ... Eddie Robinson, the legendary coach at Grambling where Buchanan was an NAIA All-America choice in '62, called him "the finest lineman I've ever seen." ... Played both offensive and defensive tackle at Grambling ... Enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in '96 ... Owned All-Pro Construction Company and All-Pro Advertising in Kansas City ... Was captain of both the football and basketball squads at Parker High School in Birmingham, Alabama ... Given name was "Junious," but was known as "Buck" ... Born September 10, 1940 in Gainesville, Alabama and died July 16, 1992 in Kansas City.

BUCK BUCHANAN • 1940-1992

"The first time I met him, I was impressed with his awesome size, speed and agility, but underneath it all, you came away impressed with a tremendous person, a great competitor and a terrific leader. He loved what he represented, his family and the Chiefs."

- Hank Stram • July 1992

USA Today All-Joe Team

The USA Today All-Joe Team takes its name from former Chiefs DT Joe Phillips who played 14 seasons for Kansas City, San Diego and Minnesota before retiring in '99. According to USA Today's Larry Weisman, the All-Joe Team is represented by "hard-working, overlooked, underappreciated players who do the dirty work simply because that's their lot in life."

MACK LEE HILL AWARD

Each year since 1966, the Chiefs have selected a recipient for the Mack Lee Hill Award. It is a tribute to the late Mack Lee Hill, an outstanding running back who played for the Chiefs in 1964 and 1965. He was described as a man who played as much with his heart as he did with his driving legs in the early days of the American Football League.

In memory and tribute to Hill, the award is presented annually to the Chiefs rookie or first-year player who, as the inscription on the trophy reads - "best exemplifies the spirit of the late Mack Lee Hill ... the man with the giant heart and the quiet way." In selecting the recipient, the Chiefs veterans look for a first-year player who has displayed the spirit and attitude of Mack Lee Hill.

In 2004, the Mack Lee Hill Award was claimed by DE Jared Allen, marking the sixth consecutive year that honor has gone to a defensive player or players.

Allen served as a blast from the past last season, providing the Kansas City defense with a much-needed injection of youthful exuberance. "Jared is sort of a wild-man type of player who just flies all over the field with great enthusiasm," observed Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil. When Kansas City selected this up-and-coming pass rusher in the fourth round of the 2004 NFL Draft, Founder Lamar Hunt made a special point of mentioning that Allen won the Buck Buchanan Award as the premier defensive player in NCAA Division I-AA football as a senior at Idaho State in 2003. While Allen still has much to accomplish before he can be mentioned in the same breath as Hall of Fame DT Buck Buchanan at

Allen quickly made an NFL impact in 2004, starting the final 10 contests of the season. Thanks to a pair of multi-sack games, he came just one QB takedown short of matching the franchise's rookie record of 10.0 sacks established by legendary LB Derrick Thomas in '89. In the process, he also accumulated an impressive 27 QB pressures and 39 tackles. Thanks to his blue-collar style of play, Allen was named to USA Today's All-Joe Team and earned NFL All-Rookie honors from a number of outlets, including Pro Football Weekly.

Throughout the season, Allen displayed a throwback mentality and a reckless abandon for the playing game, earning him perhaps his highest compliment from Gunther Cunningham. "He plays the game like they used to play it," said the Chiefs defensive coordinator. If Allen can continue to build on the standard he established in 2004, Kansas City fans will likely see this talented young defensive end harassing NFL opponents for years to come.

DERRICK THOMAS AWARD

Head Coach Dick Vermeil presented QB Trent Green with the 2004 Derrick Thomas Award. Green set franchise single-season records with 4,591 passing yards and eight 300-yard games in 2004.

NFL in 300-yard efforts. In addition, he established a career high by completing 66.37 percent (369 of 556) of his passes, the second-best single-season mark in franchise annals. And let's not forget, he does own the best career rating (87.9) and completion percentage (61.87) of any passer in Chiefs history, better marks than even Hall of Famer Len Dawson, the only quarterback in franchise annals who owns more victories than this 11-year NFL veteran.

While Green's individual numbers were unquestionably impressive, when put in the context of the team, it's clear that he was truly Kansas City's MVP in 2004. As the triggerman of Kansas City's offensive juggernaut, Green was a key reason the 2004 Chiefs became the first squad in franchise history to lead the NFL in total offense, averaging 418.4 yards per game. Kansas City also established an NFL record with 398 first downs and registered a team record with 228 passing first downs. Thanks to Green's arm and his leadership, Kansas City also ranked second in the NFL in scoring (30.2 ppg) and set a team record by scoring 30 points or more in five straight games, while boasting the league's fourth-best passing offense (275.4 yards per game). If you asked Green about his most important accomplishment in 2004, he'd likely reply that it was starting every game for a fourth consecutive season, an impressive string of 64 consecutive starts that snapped the previous Chiefs standard owned by Dawson.

"Trent Green is silently becoming one of the best quarterbacks to play this game," observed Chiefs head coach Dick Vermeil. "He has unbelievable ability to focus on what's going on downfield." But knowing this competitor, Green's current focus isn't on just taking his ultra-consistent play to an even higher level, this consummate team leader will likely be looking for ways to elevate the Chiefs to loftier plateaus in the seasons to come.

During his 11 years in a Chiefs uniform, Derrick Thomas was one of the most brilliant performers and brightest personalities ever to wear a Chiefs uniform. Unquestionably, Derrick Thomas' legacy will live on in Kansas City and across the National Football League.

For the past 26 years the Chiefs have upheld a tradition of selecting the club's Most Valuable Player. Named in honor of the late Derrick Thomas, this Chiefs custom is especially meaningful for its recipients not only because of the man that it is named in honor of, but also because it is selected by a vote of their peers. Thomas was the heart and soul of the Kansas City defense from 1989-99 and will always be regarded as one of the best linebackers to play the game.

You could easily make the case that the nameplate on the back of QB Trent Green's jersey should simply be changed to "Mr. Consistent." After all, Green is the only signal caller in the league to own an active streak of three straight seasons with a 90.0 rating or better. Just the second player to ever be named Kansas City's MVP in back-to-back seasons, Green also became just the fifth QB in NFL history to post consecutive 4,000-yard campaigns, joining illustrious names like Favre, Marino, Fouts and Manning.

Simply put, Green enjoyed another banner season in 2004. He recorded franchise records with 369 completions, 4,591 passing yards and eight 300-yard passing games. In fact, the 2004 season marked the second consecutive season that Green paced the

RETIRED JERSEYS

Jan Stenerud

Kicker • 1967-79

The first pure placekicker inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, K Jan Stenerud played 19 NFL seasons including 13 with Kansas City. Stenerud still owns or shares eight Chiefs records, including career FG attempts (436), most made FGs in a season (44 in '71) and consecutive games scoring field goals (16). See bio on page 438.

Len Dawson

Quarterback • 1962-75

The standard-bearer for Chiefs signal-callers, QB Len Dawson led the club to three AFL Championships and a Super Bowl IV title. The owner of four AFL passing titles, Dawson still holds numerous Chiefs records and was the MVP of Super Bowl IV. He was a member of seven AFL All-Star or Pro Bowl squads. See bio on page 436.

Abner Haynes

Running Back • 1960-64

One of the offensive stars during the Texans/Chiefs first six years, RB Abner Haynes led the club in rushing four times, racking up 3,837 rushing yards on 792 attempts (4.8 avg.) with 389 touchdowns. In addition to becoming the franchise's first 1,000-yard rusher, he was named AFL Player of the Year in '60. See bio on page 446.

Stone Johnson

Running Back • 1963

A sprinter in the '60 Olympics in Rome and a quarterback at Grambling, RB Stone Johnson's athletic career came to a tragic end during his rookie season of '63. Johnson suffered a fractured vertebra in his neck in a preseason game against the Houston Oilers in Wichita, Kansas and died just 10 days later on Sept. 8, 1963.

Mack Lee Hill

Running Back • 1964-65

An AFL All-Star as a rookie in '64, RB Mack Lee Hill rushed for 1,203 yards in just 27 games with the Chiefs. Hill suffered a knee injury in the next-to-the-last game of the '65 regular season at Buffalo and tragically died on the operating table two days later on Dec. 14, 1965. Each year since '66, the Chiefs have annually presented the Mack Lee Hill Award to the team's top rookie or first-year performer. See bio on page 442.

Willie Lanier

Linebacker • 1967-77

The second Chiefs player to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, LB Willie Lanier was named to the NFL's 75th Anniversary All-Time Team in '94. He commanded the Chiefs defense for 11 years as the club's middle linebacker, playing in 149 games. Lanier played in two AFL All-Star games and six AFC-NFC Pro Bowls. See bio on page 435.

Bobby Bell

Linebacker • 1963-74

Perhaps the greatest outside linebacker to ever play the game, LB Bobby Bell was the first Chiefs player to enter the Pro Football Hall of Fame in '83. Earned a spot in the AFL All-Star game or the Pro Bowl for nine straight seasons and did not miss a contest during his 12-year career, playing in 168 consecutive games. See bio on page 434.

Buck Buchanan

Defensive Tackle • 1967-77

A pivotal member of the great Chiefs defense of the late '60s and early '70s, DT Buck Buchanan was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame with the Class of '90. The first overall selection in the '63 AFL draft, Buchanan became a two-time team MVP and an eight-time AFL All-Star or Pro Bowl member. See bio on page 437.

INAUGURAL NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

Chiefs Founder Lamar Hunt presented the inaugural NFL Man of the Year Award to Baltimore Colts QB Johnny Unitas following the '70 season. The presentation was made by Hunt on January 24, 1971 at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, the site of that season's AFC-NFC Pro Bowl contest. Unitas was the initial NFL player to receive this honor based on his extensive civic work with groups such as Big Brothers, the Crippled Children's Association, the Maryland Special Olympics, the Heart Fund, the Cancer Foundation and the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

GAME-WINNING FIELD GOALS

Of the 35 game-winning field goals in franchise annals, the biggest was a 25-yard kick by K Tommy Brooker that ended the second-longest game in pro football history. Brooker's FG concluded the '62 AFL Championship Game with an elapsed time of 77:54 as the Dallas Texans claimed a 20-17 win at Houston (12/13/62). Brooker received a celebratory postgame escort off the field from TE Fred Arbanas (#84) and DB Bobby Hunt (#20). Among the seven other kickers to hit a game-winning kick for Kansas City, K Nick Lowery booted a team-record 14 game-winning FGs, while K Pete Stoyanovich owns the longest kick to ever win a game for the Chiefs, a 54-yard effort vs. Denver (11/16/97).
